They are Watching

Every young man in this town is being watched by business men. They have good jobs waiting for the right kind of men. They may not tell you so, but they are watching to see if you are the man they want. They watch to see if you pay your bills promptly, if you are careful about meeting all your obligations, if you are competent, trustworthy and have a bank account. Why a bank account? Because it shows that you are saving. Nobody wants to give a spendthrift a position of trust. We invite young men to become depositors.

Will Not Run for Representative

The undersigned takes this method of thanking his many friends throughout the county for their kind offers of support in a contemplated race for representative in the Georgia legislature. Some time ago I announced that it might be probable that I might be in the race, but since then my business affairs have shaped up so that it would be impossible for me to make a canvass of the county. The work of constructing the buildings, putting the grounds in shape and organizing the First Georgia District Fair to be held in Savannah this fall is now taking every minute of time I have to spare. Again we have two candidates in the field already in the race from Statesboro which is quite a sufficient number for this town to furnish. In justice to the two gentlemen referred to I will say that their friends have repeatedly given me the assurance that if I would announce they would support me and that I would perhaps have been the only man in the race from Statesboro.

I have some decided opinions on certain questions which I have advocated through these columns and had I made the race and been elected I would have done my best to have them enacted into law. I am sure, however, that of the three gentlemen now in the race the people will find able men, and men who will look after their interests in Atlanta. I believe that I have had at least five hundred men who didn't vote for me in the last race to tender me their support if I should run this time, but for the reasons stated above, it is best that I remain a "high private" as far as the race for representative is concerned. Again thanking the people for their kind offers of support, I am

Yours very truly,
J. R. MILLER.

Big Sales Show That

Advertising Pays.

Statesboro now has in progress two of the largest and most successful merchandise sales that have ever been known in this city. On Thursday of last week Messrs. Trappell-Mikell Co. opened their doors to the public with a big sale of goods. The store was crowded with eager purchasers from the minute the door was opened until the noon hour when there came a heavy downpour of rain which kept back the great crowds during the balance of the afternoon. On Friday their large force of salesladies and salesmen were taxed to their full capacity to wait on the eager throngs of purchasers. On Saturday the crowds grew greater and the record showed at night that nearly one thousand purchasers had entered the store during the day, this being evident by the number of sales tickets on file. The management informs us that the amount of cash business done on Saturday was five hundred dollars greater than that of any other day in the history of their business career. The only other day that approached it at all, even in the five hundred dollar mark, was one day last October during the week of the Bulloch county fair. The big sale is still on and will continue during this and next week.

On Saturday morning the Statesboro Mercantile Company threw open their doors to a large crowd of anxious cash customers with their regular annual clearance sale. During the morning hours the rush was so great that the management was compelled to seek other salesmen and salesladies in order to accommodate the great crowds. The store was jammed all day long and until a late hour at night. Mr. R. Simmons, the head of the company, stated to a News reporter that "this is the biggest day that we have ever had during the long term of years that we have been in business. We thought one or two days during the fair last fall that the people would buy all we had, but on no day during that record breaking week did our cash receipts equal those of today."

Both of these concerns used printers ink freely occupying large space in The Statesboro News, one of which Trappell-Mikell Company carried four pages in one issue, being the largest advertisement that we have ever carried for a single firm in a single issue. Both firms mentioned have large and well selected stocks of goods and enjoy the confidence of the people.

Again, it shows that the free and liberal use of space in this paper brings results.

On Monday at their home at Pulaski, Mrs. D. J. Woods passed away after a long and painful illness, while her death was a great shock to the family and friends. It had been expected for the last week or ten days, and death came as a relief to her great suffering. The remains were taken to Savannah on Tuesday for burial, where the funeral was held. The bereaved husband and family have the sympathy of a large number of friends in their sad loss.

Weather is Sizzling Hot

The past few days have been record breakers in the matter of heat in this section, following fire and general rains the weather man got active on the job and has been handing out some good warm breeches during the past few days. The thermometer in Statesboro registering as high as 108 in the shade on yesterday, this is some hot.

Rhodes-Barker.
Two weeks ago The News carried a local item that Mr. O. E. Barker had gone to visit relatives at the old home in South Carolina, but his many friends here had no idea that he contemplated matrimony on the trip. His return to Statesboro reveals the fact that he is, for, on the 18th inst. he and Miss Emma Rhodes were united in marriage at Loris, S. C. It was a pleasant surprise to Mr. Barker's parents and friends who heartily extend congratulations.

A Tempest in a Tea Pot.

A controversy that has recently arisen between Congressman Charles G. Edwards and our contemporary, the Statesboro News, over the proposed change in the manner of selecting federal grand jurors is something as new as the sun. The bill proposed by Mr. Edwards which is described elsewhere in this issue in detail, this being Mr. Edwards' side of the case, the position of the Telephone News has been printed in our last issue. The Edwards bill proposes to change the system of drawing jurors in the United States court from the judge of the court away from the judge of the court, it destroys the power of a judge to go in a jury box and pick a jury to lit any case pending. The bill creates a jury commission who shall create in the box at least eight hundred names and direct them to proportion these names according to population in the different counties of the district. Another matter which is being severely attacked is that it gives the court the right to select jurors from the bystanders in the court.

Under the present system a party having business in the United States court is largely in the hands of the judge of that court. If his case of litigation is of such a nature or magnitude as to attract the attention of the presiding judge, he becomes at once either a victim of the judge's opposition or a recipient of his favor. It destroys the right of a fair and impartial jury should a venal judge take a hand in his case.

If the jury commission proposed had their duty placed in the hands of the names of eight hundred upright and honorable men, it seems to us it would make little difference as to what particular county or militia district these men hail from. If he is an honest juror (and it would be the duty of the commission to put none other in the box) he would deal out justice according to law and evidence submitted to him no matter whether he was from the hills of Burke, or Jenkins, or Screven, or Bulloch, or Bryan, or Chatham, or McIntosh, or any of the other counties, so far as that is concerned. The danger of catching professional jurors among the bystanders would be largely minimized if the jury commissioners had done their work well and true in the placing of the names in the box. We presume that no bystander would be eligible to serve unless his name had previously been placed in the box.

Under the present system we can hardly say that the litigant in court enjoys the full right of striking from a panel of impartial jurors whom he might select these jurors are in the hands of the judge who may or may not be taking an interest in his case.

In summing it all up, however, we believe the discussion over the bill referred to resolves itself largely into what is known as a "tempest in a teapot."

Nevill Favors Candler County

To the Voters of Bulloch County: In answer to numerous inquiries as to my position in regard to the formation of "new counties" affecting the territory of Bulloch County, I wish to say that the right has been so carefully carried on and the people being simply able to sustain the new county, that I am in favor of granting the new county of Candler provided the new county lines do not encroach upon about twelve miles of Statesboro.

I believe the granting of this new county will develop the country and encourage enterprise and will not retard the progress of Bulloch. Also, it will create a state of unrest among the people. I believe my position will meet the approval of the people of Bulloch.

Thanking you for all past consideration, I remain, yours truly,
S. L. NEVILL.

Says Mr. Edwards Deserves the Credit.
May 27th, 1914.
Hon. Frank Clark, Chairman,
Com. on Public Bldgs & Grounds,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.,

Dear Sir:

I want to get some information from you concerning the public building that we understand is to be built here. Congressman Edwards' friends contend that he got through the item for a building site at this place. On the other hand, these who are unfriendly to Mr. Edwards contend that he had nothing to do with it. Will you kindly inform me whether Mr. Edwards is entitled to the credit of having gotten the public site for Statesboro?

Also, some contend that the public building for Statesboro has not been authorized by law. Won't you kindly advise me whether or not a public building has been authorized for Statesboro. Mr. Edwards' friends contend that the building has been authorized, and that it will follow automatically.

Awaiting your reply, which will be appreciated, I am,
Yours very truly,
BROOKS SIMMONS.

CHAUTAUQUA WILL BE A SUCCESS SAY LOCAL MANAGERS

Season Ticket Sales Have Been Satisfactory

The Cost of Bringing the Talent Here is Heavy But Sales Show that the Festival Will Not be a Losing Proposition

"The Chautauqua is a success!" That's what the local managers say about the week of music, song and story.

It is gratifying to learn that this is the case, for it is quite expensive to obtain this class of entertainment, and Statesboro in doing so is keeping step with the large cities of the state.

There will be many noted artists among the entertainers, and the people of Bulloch county may rest assured that their money will be well spent for going far to hear them. Such entertainers are the Alkahest sends here are the same ones the bureau employs in the larger cities, such as Atlanta, Birmingham and Savannah. The price of admittance will be 25c and 50c. Season tickets: Single, $2.00; double, $4.00; for school children up to the eighth grade, $1.00. These tickets admit one to all of the entertainments, so it can be seen that you will save money by buying a season ticket. It is reported that a good many tickets have been sold to parties outside of city, and it is expected that there will be hundreds from the adjoining towns and country side to be on hand to enjoy the entertainments, who have not purchased tickets, because of the fact that they cannot spend the whole week in the city.

It is going to be indeed a gala week for our people, and it is to be hoped that everybody, young and old, will take advantage of this splendid opportunity to improve themselves by attending. You simply can't afford to miss a single performance. You can save money by buying a season ticket, for it will cost you just as much or more to attend half the attractions if you pay as you go as it will to get a season ticket at the beginning and take them all in. Come on and let's have a good time.

Death of J. W. Bennett

On last Wednesday at his home in the Bay District, Mr. James W. Bennett one of the oldest and highly respected citizens of Bulloch county died after an illness of several weeks. The cause of Mr. Bennett's death is said to have been the hardening of the tissues of the heart. The deceased was 81 years old at the time of his death and was well and favorably known to all the people in that section of the county. In the older days when he was younger and more active he frequently visited Statesboro and was well known throughout the county. The funeral services will be held on the second Sunday in July at the grave at the Marine Cemetery. Elder H. R. Wilkinson will conduct the funeral services.

Judge Strange is Making Fine Race

Judge H. B. Strange, candidate for Judge of Superior Court of the Middle Judicial Circuit has returned from a trip through Emanuel and Thomas counties. The Judge states that his campaign is in fine shape and that he has every reason to believe that he will win. Our advisers from over the circuit indicate that Judge Strange is making a strong race in every county in the circuit. His ability is being recognized by those who know him who see in him the material out of which a capable, honest and impartial judge can be made. Judge Strange

Edwards Looks Like Winner

The friends of Congressman Charles G. Edwards are beginning to wear "that smile that won't wear off." The reports reaching here from every section of the district indicate a sweeping victory for Mr. Edwards.

Mr. Edwards seems to have the utmost confidence of the rank and file of people of the district. His strength lies largely with the great rank and file of people that make up the voting population of the First Congressional district. Charlie Edwards is relatively short on leaders, having very few great men with which to constitute an army of spell binders to go over the district in his behalf. But whenever you strike the great masses of the people known as the "one gallus element" you'll find Edwards votes as thick as hops.

A test was made here on Saturday. Fifty farmers from different parts of the county were approached as they came into town the question put to them straight, they were asked how their neighborhood stood and how they stood. In forty eight cases out of fifty the answer that the voter himself was an Edwards supporter and as far as they knew their communities stood the same way. In the other two cases the answer came something like this: a prominent farmer from the Sink Hole district replied that he was against Edwards himself but he was sure that the Sink Hole would go a majority for Edwards. Continuing further he stated that several of his brothers were for Edwards this time, this being the first time in the history of the family that any of them have voted for him. Another gentleman coming from the Blitch district that he was not going to vote for Edwards himself, but the best that he could learn his community and district was practically solid for Edwards.

The news coming here from Tattall county places that county certainly in the Edwards column, the same is true of Liberty and McIntosh. Chatham of course is conceded to be in the Edwards column, and the latest from Effingham is to the effect that Edwards has the advantage there. Bryan county seems a little mixed, but reports from Jenkins and Burke show that Edwards is steadily gaining ground in those two counties. Bulloch county is certainly in the Edwards column the question here is to the size of the majority.

Averitt-Lanier

On Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents on College street, Miss Stella Averitt and Mr. W. C. Lanier were united in marriage. Rev. J. F. Singleton officiating. The marriage was a quiet affair, only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties being present. The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Averitt and has many friends among the young people in Statesboro. The bridegroom is cashier of the First National Bank of Pembroke where the young couple will make their future home.

"Satisfaction" for Two.

(Macon Telegraph)

Men who fly into a passion and indulge in murderous thoughts toward each other ought to consider the case of the two men who lost their lives as the result of a petty quarrel at Milner last Saturday, and see how much "satisfaction" they got out of it. Both of them are dead, their families are in mourning and their friends are shocked by a tragedy which they cannot understand. The quarrel was over a banana which a prominent young physician plucked from a bunch in the store and which the merchant charged to his account. The doctor thought the merchant was "short" and "stingy." The merchant regarded him as a sort of human "sponge."

They separated in anger and slept over their grievance. As soon as he had eaten breakfast the next morning the physician got his gun and started back to the store. The merchant and his brother were there when he arrived. The quarrel was renewed. The merchant was shot dead. As the doctor drove off in his automobile the brother of the merchant opened fire upon him and shot him to death. That is about the story the dispatches told. The two principals got "satisfaction" and the survivor of the tragedy was hustled off to prison—his hands dyed in blood.

Of course, the convenient gun and the "hip pocket" are charged with the killing. The value of the banana or whatever caused the killing is not material. Men become as angry over a small matter as they do over a large one. "It is the principle of the thing," they argue, though there may be no principle involved except a bad disposition, a selfish or intolerant spirit and the savage instinct that makes men go about with chips on their shoulders hunting a fight.

So, back of the gun and the banana was another controlling cause. It was the false pride which becomes easily injured and the low valuation which some men put upon the lives of their fellow-men. It was uncontrollable temper, and a disposition to wreak the worst possible vengeance upon one who had given an insult, either real or fancied. The banana incident might have happened between two other men and both would have laughed it off. Neither would have been offended. Either of these men might have had the same sort of tilt with some other man without either of them being wounded—in feelings or person. The attitude of one man to another frequently accounts for troubles between them.

Some men cannot "stand" other men. They are not in rapport. Their wires are crossed and the least they have to do with each other the better. It is doubtful if either of the men who were killed were regarded as bad men.

While the "hip pocket" figured—as usual—in the killing, the worst feature of the tragedy seems to have been that the element of "premeditation" was also in it. When the physician got his pistol Sunday morning and started up town, the thirst for "blood" or "satisfaction" was racking in his mind. Anger, mixed with hatred, consumed him. He had already made up his mind to make the merchant apologize—grovel before him—or fight.

It is strange that men—built a little lower than the angels—endowed with all of the virtues and graces that a beautiful world should have—should become so charged with the poison of hatred and anger as to make them take a human life! When men reach the point that they would rather sacrifice their own lives than to take the lives of their fellow-men, universal peace will be an accomplished fact. But states and nations must learn to curb their thirst for blood and "satisfaction" before individuals will come to shoot and kill each other. There is too much of the brute yet in men.

Mrs. Tom Gould, of New York, is here visiting Mr. Gould's parents.

BIG CHAUTAUQUA OPENS THIS WEEK

JUNE 26th TO JULY 2nd, INCLUSIVE

People of Statesboro and Bulloch County have good things in store for them. Particulars covering different attractions as follows:

Avon Sketch Club and Glenn Wells

We confidently believe that the Avon Sketch Club will prove to be one of the most popular of the many splendid attractions which we are presenting on our Chautauqua program this year. The Club includes four beautiful young lady artists and Glenn Wells, one of the most popular entertainers on the chautauqua platform, who have seen several years experience in both lyceum and chautauqua work. Their program includes songs, readings, sketches, plays and piano monologues by Mr. Wells. Not least on their program will be the four young ladies in banjo songs, while the play, "How The Vote Was Won," in which all participate, will certainly strike ten. Their program is in every way an artistic presentation of original ideas in thorough keeping with lyceum ideals.

SYBYL SAMMIS MACDERMID

DRAMATIC SOPRANO

"Sibyl" Sammis MacDermid is today recognized as standing in the very front ranks of the really great singers of America. This notable position has not been gained at a single bound, but is the result of several years of careful and conscientious work, each succeeding season marking a steady advance in public favor, until now she is enshrined in the great heart of music-loving America—loved for her two-fold charm; the beauty of her personality and the all but matchless quality of her voice. In the field of Recital and Concert, as well as in her extensive repertoire of standard Oratorios and other musical works, Madam MacDermid is well qualified for any musical event of recognized standing. We quote the above from Dr. Spillman Riggs, of Chicago, and to his endorsement we most heartily add that of the Alkahest. Madam MacDermid is truly a great dramatic soprano, and you will enjoy her.

The Hawkeye Glee Club.

Who does not enjoy the music of a good quartette? No other form of concert and entertainment program is more popular in this country, and the Hawkeye Glee Club plays and sings to please. We toured the Hawkeye Glee Club during the fall months, and they gave perfect satisfaction to our patrons; consequently, it is no experiment but with pride that we present them to our chautauqua patrons. Their program includes both vocal and instrumental selections of merit and attractiveness, and there is no kind of doubt but what they will prove popular, indeed.

Mrs. LaSalle Corbell Pickett.

Among the noted women of the South, no name is dearer to the public today than that of LaSalle Corbell Pickett, widow of the renowned Confederate General, who led the greatest infantry charge in all the annals of war. For many years Mrs. Pickett has been a celebrated writer, and has gained enviable distinction upon the platform. Mrs. Pickett is a woman of exceptional beauty, rare dignity and distinguished presence, and has a voice of wonderful carrying power, so that she is easily heard in the largest auditoriums. Her lectures, "The Battle of Gettysburg," "The Folk Lore—Stories of the Old South" and "Friends of Yesterday," are so very accurate and true to life, and her delivery so splendidly fascinating, that she never fails to create both enthusiasm and admiration. Alkahest chautauqua patrons will be glad to be honored by this splendid woman, the widow of the late Gen. George C. Pickett.

Dr. H. W. Sears.

The Alkahest presents a certain success when it includes Dr. Sears on its chautauqua program. Dr. Sears, who is popularly known as "Fifty Years," has been under Alkahest direction before. There is no more popular humorist lecturer before the public. His return dates are numerous. The people are always glad to hear him, for he never grows old. He is formidable, and any chautauqua program is richer when he is included. His lectures sparkle with wit, his word pictures are beautiful, his logic sound, his eloquence stirring. You have not heard the best until you have heard him. The memory of his visit will linger. "More Tally and Less Epitaphy" is a good subject. The lecture is even better. The "Opening day" of the chautauqua will be rich in the memory of Sears.

Dr. Parrish in the Race for Representative.

In this issue appears the announcement of Dr. C. H. Parrish, who announces his name as a candidate for Representative in the lower house of the Georgia Legislature, to be elected in the primary August 19th. Dr. Parrish has served as ably and honorably in the Georgia State senate.

He made a splendid representative in the upper house and would have returned again were it not for the fact that under the rotation system Bulloch would not furnish the senator next time. His votes have been cast on the side of the great common people in all the matters of legislation that he has been called on to pass upon. If elected Dr. Parrish will make Bulloch just such a representative as he did a senator.

Statement From J. W. Overstreet

To the citizens of Bulloch County: For the purpose of enabling the people of your county against me, the statement has been made that some sort of "political deal" is in effect between the friends of Judge Strange, and my friends, that some county should support him and Bulloch support me.

I want to state in the most emphatic terms that such a statement is without foundation and is unqualifiedly untrue. Judge Strange has never discussed such a proposition with me, and none of his friends, lawyers or others in Bulloch county, have ever even suggested the possibility of such an arrangement.

Judge Strange has many friends in my county, who are giving him loyal support in his race for Judge. I have many loyal friends in Bulloch, and I appreciate their friendship deeply, whether they be lawyers, merchants, bankers or farmers. But, so far as my understanding is concerned, as to "swapping counties" there has never been the slightest intimation of such agreement. In fairness to Judge Strange, as well as to myself, this rumor should be corrected.

The time has long since passed when one county can be controlled by a few politicians, and this indirect appeal upon me, fostered by no one, but circulated as a rumor, is purely an effort to prejudice my candidacy with you.

I have made no deal with any man, or set of men, and any statement that I have, or that my friends have, is a fabrication, without any foundation in fact or in truth.

Respectfully,
J. W. Overstreet
June 22, 1914.

Evans County Boosters Here

On Saturday a delegation of citizens from Claxton and Hagan were in Statesboro for the purpose of conferring with Bulloch county people in regard to the proposed cut from Bulloch county, taking part of the Sinkhole district and a small sliver of the Hay district, added to what they will have across the Canoochee river to form the proposed new county of Evans, with Claxton as its county seat.

In the party were Messrs John P. Moore, C. M. Rushing, D. A. Smiley, G. W. DeLoach and Dr. B. E. Miller.

While there was no regular meeting held, yet the party circulated pretty freely among the people while here. Just what success they had we are not able to say, and whether Bulloch county and Statesboro will fight this new cut or not cannot now be stated with any degree of certainty.

There are a great many people, some of whom are friendly to the movement, believe that it would be better for the Claxton folks to wait awhile until after the Claxton county matter is disposed of. It will be seen then whether or not the legislature is inclined to make any more new counties. One of the causes that defeated all new county movements in the last legislature was the fact that so many appeared on the scene at one time.

Edwards' Strong Reply

Congressman Edwards has gotten out a pamphlet titled "Edwards Makes It Plain," in which he answers his opponent in a logical and convincing manner.

It is a strong and interesting document. If a man has not already made his mind up there is no escape from Edwards' conclusive logic as set out in his pamphlet. Edwards is in the race as the "Farmer's Friend and Candidate."

He declares that it is his fight is "The People Against the Ring."

The "Plow Boy" has completely exploded all of his opponent's charges and claims. If you have not read the Congressman's pamphlet get one and read it. It is full of good thought, sarcasm and wit. It is a dignified political paper, free from personalities. Altogether, we regard it as a political masterpiece, that will put the opposition "on the blink" unless they can go "one better," and it seems to us that this one is a "top notch."

It is a "showed crowd" against the Tattaloo Statesman," but more than "holds his own" in every move, which is gratifying to his friends.

When YOU Hire A U. S. Senator

You should proceed as if you were employing a farm-hand, a doctor or a lawyer. You should first learn about the MAN HIMSELF. If he is not "O. K." as a MAN, other things—such as promises and self-estimates—count for nothing.

Apply this rule to John M. Slaton, the MAN. He is a candidate to YOUT, the PEOPLE—for the place of United States Senator. He is going to work for YOU in Washington. You ought to know about him. We want YOU to know about him—the MAN.

He calls his campaign a "consultation with the people of Georgia." He is one of you. He was born on a Georgia farm. Having the capacity for hard work, he has worked hard. He worked his way to first honors in college. He worked his way to the top in Georgia politics because he was always working for the people's interest.

He knows the people of Georgia, their needs, their desires; for he has rubbed up against all classes from all angles. His twenty years' public career has been subjected to the white light of publicity. But still all of you may still not know the man. There are thousands in Georgia who do know the MAN—know him from intimate personal and official association. They know him as he is both before and behind the formal screen of legislative and executive work. They have been his official neighbors.

One or more probably live in your community. Ask them about Slaton—the MAN. We would rather you select one who is not for Slaton the Candidate. For even political enemies will swear by Slaton—the MAN. They, enemies as well as friends, will tell you that personally and politically Slaton is fair, able, generous, honest, courageous.

And most of them will tell you that Slaton is just the sort of MAN they would look for if it were up to them alone to select a United States Senator.

Dignified but not bombastic, progressive, not demagogic, slow to make promises but sure to keep them, unaffected by hysteria but always firm in standing for the right—he is every inch a MAN—the sort of man that makes the best Senatorial timber.

JOHN M. SLATON STATE CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE, Alfred C. Newell, Chairman.

"Send Slaton to the Senate"

N. B.—Ninety per cent of his thousands or more old legislative associates supported Slaton for Governor. They are equally as strong for him for Senator.

WILL HAVE BIG FAIR THIS FALL

Arrangements are being completed to pull off the biggest county fair at Statesboro this fall that we have had yet, this will be the third annual Bulloch County Fair, the other two have been successfully held. And the next one is expected to be greater and better than the other two.

With a splendid crop year before us there is no reason why the agricultural displays shouldn't be better and greater than ever before. The increased interest in live stock and poultry guarantees a splendid exhibit along these lines. A strong racing card has been prepared, enabling us to put on some good races on the half mile track on the fair grounds. At a meeting of City Council a few nights ago the matter of the fair was thrashed out, the management agreeing to put on no gambling devices or immoral shows. Arrangements have been made however for a lot of high class of midway attractions, among which are Buckskin Ben's Wild West Show; also their dog and pony show, and their deep sea curios. We have closed the contracts with Macepess Educational Horse Show, a good seven in one show, Metcalfe's Big Jungle Show, The Titanic Disaster Show, Gumpert's Coney Island Dreamland Side Circus, and the Somali Village of Man Eating Savages, the latter two being among the principal features of the midway now on exhibition at Coney Island, New York. We also have under contract a bicycle loop for the loop and several others. The shows contracted for already carry with them three different brass bands, one military band of sixteen pieces, and lady band of twelve pieces and one Italian band of twelve pieces. These three bands will furnish ample music for all those who attend the fair. It will be the first time in the history of Statesboro that three first class bands will be heard here at one time. We will have plenty of riding devices, such as merry-go-rounds, ferris wheels and ocean waves, etc.

Five hundred dollars in prizes will be put up for the races which will insure two or three races each day during the fair, ten or twelve horses have already been entered for these races, they come from Bulloch and the nearby counties.

One feature of the fair will be a street parade on the opening day, Tuesday, October 20th will be Statesboro Day. The merchants and business men will be asked to close at noon and give their clerks and employees an opportunity to spend a half day at the fair before the big crowds arrive from the surrounding country. The parade will be a gorgeous affair, will carry with it about one hundred floats, wagons and automobiles decorated and loaded with farm products. The different fertilizer companies doing business in Bulloch will have a float each showing samples of products raised with their fertilizer, the parade will be headed with King Cotton and carry with it a magnificent line of Bulloch county live stock. In fact one of the features during the fair will be a horse show. The three bands connected with the midway together with the Metter Cornet Band will be scattered through the procession, making four bands in all. The different shows and circus features on the midway will be represented on the parade along with several companies of floats like clowns etc. The boys corn clubs will also be represented in the parade. The above are only a few features of the fair and parade which will be rapidly developed and added to from this on. Look out for the biggest fair that you have ever seen in Bulloch county. Get ready for it and grow something for it. The premium list will be ready in a short time and will be published, let your slogan be from this on, "Meet me at the Bulloch fair October 20th to 24th."

DR. HARDMAN'S CANDIDACY IS CREATING FAVOR THROUGHOUT THE STATE.

CHARACTER AND QUALIFICATIONS MAKE STRONG APPEAL

Doctor Hardman's clean private life and honorable public service appeal to the people.

His successful professional and business career stamp him as a man of remarkable ability and resourcefulness.

He is capacitated for executive work through inherent qualifications and years of wide experience in large affairs.

Six years of useful service in the legislature and two years in the senate, marked by excellent work for the state, demonstrated his qualities of statesmanship.

His practical knowledge of farming, shown by the wonderful success achieved in this profession, together with his work for Georgia's agricultural interests as a member of the executive board of the State Agricultural College and member of the State Experiment Board, stamp him as a leader in agricultural affairs.

In banking, manufacturing, dairying, drainage, horticulture and in the profession of medicine, his success speaks eloquently of a giant mind which analyzes, directs, organizes and masters.

Doctor Hardman's honest, constructive platform is in keeping with his progressive and practical ideas. He is not a dreamer, but a doer; not a scheming politician, but a sincere friend to the people; not a seeker of public office for self-aggrandizement, but to serve the people of Georgia which his record proves him able to do.

His candidacy is meeting with endorsement throughout the State. # FOR GOVERNOR

NAT E. HARRIS

Why not?
What do the people want in their Governor?
Do they want COURAGE?
Judge Harris fought under Lee.
Do they want DEVOTION TO PRINCIPLE?
Judge Harris sacrificed his home and was driven from East Tennessee as an outcast because he served the Confederacy.
Do they want LOYALTY TO SOUTHERN IDEALS?
Judge Harris came to Georgia and stood shoulder to shoulder with the men of this State in the struggle for white supremacy and the redemption of our civilization from the horrors of Reconstruction.
Do they want LEARNING?
Judge Harris makes no parade of his learning, but he is a student and a scholar.
Do they want CONSTRUCTIVE STATESMANSHIP?
Judge Harris established the Georgia School of Technology.
Do they want ABILITY TO HANDLE THE FINANCIAL AFFAIRS OF THE STATE?
Judge Harris drew up and put into execution the legislative plan of refunding the State's bonds in 1884, by which her credit was restored and ruin averted.
Do they want FIDELITY?
Judge Harris has been entrusted with the affairs of countless clients and has never betrayed a trust.
Do they want ELOQUENCE?
Judge Harris is one of the few great orators left in the country.
Do they want SYMPATHY WITH THE NEEDS OF THE PEOPLE?
Judge Harris came to Georgia as a farmer. He has edited a country newspaper, he has been a school teacher, he has been a lawyer, he has been a builder of railroads, he has learned by experience to sympathize with the hopes and aspirations of all the people.
Do they want CONSERVATISM?
Judge Harris has the calm, far-seeing judgment that prevents his being swayed by every wind of doctrine, and keeps him true to the best traditions of our people.
Do they want PROGRESSIVENESS?
Judge Harris is a true progressive in the sense that he is always in the forefront of every movement for the moral, intellectual and material progress of our people and the upbuilding of the State.
Do they want INTELLIGENCE?
Judge Harris is the equal in intellect of any man in the Union.
Do they want RIGHTEOUSNESS?
Surely the purity of his character and the uprightness of his life during all the years he has lived among the people of Georgia will speak louder than any words that can be said as to what manner of man he is.
Do they want VIGOR?
The rugged frame that he brought from the mountains has not been impaired by the passing years—he is as strong and virile as one of the spruces of his native home.
Do they want ENERGY?
The fire still flashes from his eye; to his friends he is as gentle as a woman, but when aroused he is the Gray Lion.
Do they want A MAN?
Judge Harris is no little man but a man every inch of him, morally, mentally, physically—a man to whom every man, woman and child will be proud to point and say, "There is our Governor."
THEN WHY NOT VOTE FOR JUDGE HARRIS?
His opponents are all comparatively young men, and the people will have many other opportunities to vote for them, doubtless.
This is the last chance the people of Georgia may have to honor the man who wore the gray—a veteran who is capable of filling the position asked for your suffrages—
Is he not worthy?
People of Georgia,
VOTE FOR THE VETERAN.
When you do you vote for a man.

THE OXFORD COMPANY

Scenes from grand and light opera on a Chautauqua platform! Well, why not? Is there any good reason why Alkanest Chautauqua patrons should not enjoy selections from the popular operas, sung by artists of the highest caliber? We think not, and therefore, we have pleasure in presenting the Oxford Company, whose program includes scenes from grand and light opera, songs, duets and quartets, together with sketches and readings by a most capable artist. The Oxford personnel includes only artists of wide experience in both lyricism and chautauqua work who know and understand their work thoroughly. We confidently expect "Opera Day" to be one of the most popular of chautauqua week.

RED ACRE FARM A BOASTING SUCCESS

Play Presented at the Auditorium by Fort Entertainment Club the best Ever.

On Wednesday night at the Statesboro Auditorium, the Fort Entertainment Club presented "Red Acre Farm," a three act play. There was a large crowd out and they were walking advertisers for the play, everybody saying that it was one of the best that they had ever seen. The play itself was full of life, and at times would have the audience in tears and others would have them laughing, there was not a dull moment during the play.
All the parts were carried out to perfection and there was not a hitch in the play. Each person, it seemed, fitted the part that they were to have.
We hope that they will return to our city at some future date, as we believe that they could present such a fine play here again and have a larger audience next time than this.

OVERSTREET SWAMPED, "ROLLERS" FOR HELP

Ring Politicians Making Speeches

The Atlanta Journal.

After going thoroughly over the district, it must have been very evident to Mr. Overstreet that he was "swamped," for all of a sudden about a dozen "silver-tongued ring politicians" have taken the hustings and have gone to making speeches for Mr. Overstreet. Guess Mr. Overstreet ran out of something to say and called for help. They are trying to whip the farmers into line. Can't do it this way. This ought to convince the farmers and the people generally that Mr. Overstreet is not by any means the "country candidate," but on the other hand he is the "ring candidate." Birds of a feather flock together, etc.

Now, in all fairness, will the people stand for all this "double teaming" that certain lawyers are trying to put up on our energetic congressman? Edwards is able to take care of himself against the field of them, but he is detailed in Washington for the present. He will get into the district a little later on and he will no doubt be heard from. It would seem to us that if Mr. Overstreet is big enough to represent us in congress he ought to be big enough to do his own campaign speaking, for if he is elected the other side gentlemen will not be able to speak for him in congress. Mr. Overstreet is weak on the speaking line and has made many mistakes. Guess that is why the "ring boys" are helping him.

THE HISTORY OF OUR FLAG OF GLORY

INCE the stars and stripes of Old Glory were devoted at an epochal period in our history 138 years, with their changes, their trials, their sorrows, their tragedies and their glories also, have passed away. Amid the carnage of war it took its place among the ensigns of the world—a banner dedicated in the blood of the fathers of the republic to the doctrine of human freedom. Over a little group of thinly populated colonies, hugging the shores of the Atlantic, with the wilderness and the Indians, more merciless than the wilderness, for a background, it first floated in the light of liberty to the frozen Arctic; it then brought a vast empire reaching from ocean to ocean smiling benignly over a happy and prosperous people numbering 90,000,000 souls. It has carried the light of liberty to the frozen Arctic; it then brought a vast empire reaching from ocean to ocean smiling benignly over a happy and prosperous people numbering 90,000,000 souls. It has carried the light of liberty to the frozen Arctic; it then brought a vast empire reaching from ocean to ocean smiling benignly over a happy and prosperous people numbering 90,000,000 souls.

Stand by the flag! Its folds have streamed in glory. To face a foe, to friends a festive robe; And spread in rhythmic lines the sacred story Of freedom's triumph over all the globe.

Stand by the flag! On land and ocean billow. By it our fathers stood, unmoved and true. Living, defended, dying, for their pillow. With their last breath, passed it on to you.

Stand by the flag! All doubt and treason scorn. Believe, with courage, firm and faith unshaken. That it will float until the eternal morning. Pales in its glory all the lights of time.

The recognition of the anniversary of the adoption of our flag and, in large part, the growing reverence for our national emblem which the exercises of Flag day are intended to inspire are of comparatively recent birth. It was just a few years ago that the American Flag association was formed for the purpose of representing the many insulting uses to which commercialism had submitted the flag, using pictures of it to do duty as an advance agent for every conceivable kind of merchandise. As a result of the work of this association there are now laws on the statute books of almost every state intended to protect the flag from desecration. Respect and love for the flag are being instilled into the minds of the rising generation by the very general observance of Flag day in the schools of the land.

The Romans took the eagle for their standard and the Greeks the owl of Athena; the ancient Egyptians marched to war with the device of the sacred animal which they worshipped. In the later days of Roman conquest these emblems seem to have taken the form of flags, the emblem of a cavalry standard, probably being the first instance of a national flag. In English history the earliest flag of a religious character. They usually bore a cross, and the crusaders sailed to the East with the red cross of their religion as their banner.

Interesting is the story of the flag, and the better to understand it it is necessary to go back several centuries. Prior to the Revolutionary war the flag generally used in the American colonies was of course that of Great Britain; though, at different times in different colonies, minor variations were introduced. The first English flag to appear in what is now the United States was the red cross of St. George—a red cross upon a white field—and under this emblem, various attempts were made to establish colonies in the new world. In 1606, after the union between England and Scotland, the white cross of St. Andrew was added and the field was changed from white to blue. Under this flag the Mayflower sailed; under it were established the first permanent Anglo-Saxon settlements in the new world, and the flag was generally used in the colonies, when any flag was used at all, down to 1707. Previous to this in England the flag underwent a change. The field was divided from blue to crimson and the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew, which had covered the entire field, were placed in the upper left hand corner. In 1707 Great Britain adopted for the whole realm the union flag of St. James. During the early part of the Revolutionary period each colony used an emblem of its own—frequently the coat-of-arms of the colony with the addition of some such mottoes as "Qui transtulit sustinet," or "George Rex and the Liberties of America." One flag which often appeared from 1707 to 1776 was known as the "pine tree" flag and under it some of the battles of the Revolution on land and sea were fought. Both at this time and earlier the rattlesnake was a favorite device. Banners appeared bearing representations of rattlesnakes with 13 rattles, representing the 13 colonies, or a flag representing a rattlesnake with an emblem, each of which bore the initials of one of the colonies, and beneath the whole was printed "Unité or Death."

On February 8, 1776, Colonel Gadsden of the marine committee of the Continental congress, described to congress as follows, a flag used by the commander-in-chief of the American navy, "a yellow flag with a lively representation of a rattlesnake in the middle in the attitude of going to strike, and with these words underneath, 'Don't tread on me.'"

A SONG OF THE FLAG.

(By Denis A. McCarthy.)
Here is my love to you, flag of the free,
And flag of the tried and true,
Here is my love to your streaming stripes,
And your stars in a field of blue.
Here is my love to your silver folds where ever they wave on high,
For you are the flag of a land for which
I was sweet for a man to die!

Native or foreign are all as one when cometh the day of strife.
What is the dearest gift we can give for the flag but a human life?
Native or foreign are all the same when the heart's blood reddens the earth,
And native or foreign, 'tis love like this is the ultimate test of our worth!

Native or immigrant—here is the task to which we must summon our powers;
Ever unswayed to keep the flag in peace as in war's wild hours.
Selfishness, narrowness, graft and greed,
and the evil that hates the light,
All these are foes of the flag today, all these we must face and fight.

Symbol of hope to me and mine, and to all who aspire to be free!
Ever your golden stars may shine, from the east to the western sea.
Ever your golden stars may shine, and ever your stripes may gleam
To lead us on from the deeds we do to the greater deeds that we dream!

Here is our love to you, flag of the free, and flag of the tried and true.
Here is our love to your streaming stripes,
and your stars in a field of blue!
Native or foreign, we're children all of parts,
land over which you fly,
And native or foreign we love the land for which we were to die!

but with a union of 13 stars on a blue ground, "representing a new constellation." According to tradition, the first flag after the new design was made by Mrs. Betsy Ross in Philadelphia. There is much uncertainty both as regards the origin and as regards the first use by the army and navy of this new flag—probably, however, it was first used at Fort Mifflin on August 5, 1777. No change was made in the flag until January, 1794, when two new stars, Vermont and Kentucky, having been admitted to the Union (in 1791 and 1792, respectively), congress enacted that after May 1, 1795, "the flag of the United States be 15 stripes, alternate red and white; that the Union be 13 stars, white in a blue field."

No further change was made until 1818, when five new states, Tennessee, Ohio, Louisiana, Indiana and Mississippi, having been admitted to the Union, congress enacted that April 4, "that the flag of the United States be 20 stripes, alternate red and white; and that on the admission of every new state into the Union one star be added to the union of the flag and that such addition shall take effect on the fourth of July next succeeding such admission." This law still remains in force. The manner in which the stars were to be arranged in the union of the flag was not prescribed and ever since flags have differed considerably in this respect. The rule followed in our first expansion flag of 1795 of arranging the stars so that the whole number formed one large star was abandoned as new stars began to appear on the flag, and the stars were placed in rows. This is the form of the flag today, whose stars tell the marvelous story of our continental expansion and whose folds tell the spirit of freedom and justice on land and sea.

Half bled banner that floats on the pole!
Flag of the country of Washington, hail!
Red are thy stripes with the blood of the brave;
Bright are thy stars as the sun on the wave;
Woe! in thy folds are the hopes of the free,
Banner of Washington! blessings on thee!

Traitors shall perish, and treason shall fail;
Kingsdoms and thrones in thy glory grow pale;
Thou shalt live on and thy people shall own
Loyalty's love, when each heart is thy throne;
Union and freedom thine heritage be,
Country of Washington, blessings on thee!

On July 4, 1912, by the addition of two new states, one for each of the two new states of Arizona and New Mexico, the total of stars reached 48 and the end of the chapter was reached. There can be no more stars admitted to the Union, as all the territories of continental United States have now reached statehood, and the only possibility of additional stars being added is the partition of Texas into two or more states, which was reserved as a constitutional right by that state upon its coming into the Union.

This Wonderful Blend Is a Secret

It is entirely different from ordinary coffees. The secret of the wonderful blend was brought from the coffee-growing countries years ago. Until recently the only place in America where this rarest and delicious coffee could be had was at the French Market in New Orleans.

Here the beauty and civility of the Old South gathered, here every notable visitor came, and these visitors numbered some of America's most famous names.

The French Market was society's rendezvous. All because of the wonderful coffee served at the quaint old stalls.

But since the establishment of the French Market Mills, and the invention of the new perfectly sealed can, French Market Coffee in all its purity and aromatic flavor can be had on any private dining table.

There is a great treat in store for those who have not yet enjoyed this delicious and famous French Market Coffee in all its purity and aromatic flavor can be had on any private dining table.

At the French Market in New Orleans, the coffee is prepared in a hygienic process in expressly built mills.

Death of Mr. Hollingsworth

On Friday night, in the Statesboro Sanitarium, Mr. W. H. Hollingsworth died after an illness of several weeks. A week previous to his death he was brought into the sanitarium in a desperate condition, an operation to relieve a bladder trouble being necessary. The remains were interred at Lower Lotts Creek church on Saturday afternoon where the funeral was held. A large number of sorrowing friends and relatives were out to pay their respects to his memory. "Bill Hollingsworth," as he was familiarly known, had a friend in all those with whom he came in contact. He was a good neighbor, a good citizen and an honest man. The News joins the family and friends in their regrets of his passing away.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express, in some measure at least, our heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses shown us in our recent bereavement. May you all ever find as willing and helping hands in your hours of trial and sickness as we have extended us in our sore trial. A. J. Deal.

Abolishing an Unnecessary Office.

It looks now as if the Legislature would give the people a chance to say whether or not they want to retain the office of county treasurer. On Wednesday passed a resolution submitting to the people a constitutional amendment abolishing the office. The vote for it was so large, 154 to 6, that it is practically certain that the senate will pass it. For a good many years the people have been asking the legislature to submit to them a constitutional amendment of this sort, but the politicians have been able by one means and another to prevent it from doing so. There is no good reason for the office. In about every county there is a bank that would be glad to take charge of the county funds and pay something for the privilege. The money that now goes to the support of the office is needed for roads or schools or other public improvements.

It is a prediction that if the legislature passes the amendment it will be carried in the election by a large majority. And it is probable that if the people look around they will find other unnecessary offices. If there are such they should be abolished. It is easy to create a public office but very difficult to get one abolished. That this is true is evident from the difficulty experienced in getting the legislature to give the people a chance to say whether or not they want the office of county treasurer abolished. — Savannah News.

CANDLER COUNTY BILL PASSES HOUSE

By an Overwhelming Majority the Measure is Passed Up for Action Before the Senate.

The people of Metter and the Candler county territory are jubilant over the fact that they have won out in their fight for a division of Bulloch county territory. At 1:45 this afternoon we received the following telegram from Atlanta which tells its own story: "Candler county bill passed House, one hundred and forty-nine to fourteen." Just what the Senate will do when the matter comes up of course we don't know, but it is scarcely probable that the bill will be turned down in that body. In fact, it is almost absolutely certain to pass, and then be ratified at the polls in October.

J. W. Warren, Statesboro.

Edwards a Valuable

The remains of J. W. Warren, formerly of Savannah, who died Thursday in Statesboro following an operation for appendicitis, reached this city yesterday and were taken in charge by Fox & Weeks.

The body rested last night at home of his friend, H. A. Fountain, No. 511 West Thirty-ninth street. The funeral will take place this morning at Salem church, in Elmhurst cemetery. The Rev. John S. Wilder, pastor of the South Side Baptist Church, will conduct the services. The body will be carried to the church in the automobile hearse of Fox & Weeks, the funeral party leaving the city at 9 o'clock.

Mr. Warren has no relatives living here. For several years he was employed in Savannah by the Central of Georgia Railway.

offices. If there are such they should be abolished. It is easy to create a public office but very difficult to get one abolished. That this is true is evident from the difficulty experienced in getting the legislature to give the people a chance to say whether or not they want the office of county treasurer abolished. — Savannah News.

Endorsing Mr. Edwards

(Bulloch Times)
"The very kindly endorsement of Congressman Edwards by 'Bulloch Times' is but an evidence of the congressman's standing among the farmer class of Bulloch County. From the big farmer to the tenant all look upon him as their friend, and justly so, for he has never neglected them."

(Meldrum Guidon)
The criticism made by our contemporary, The Savannah Telephone, of the bill introduced by Congressman Edwards affecting the qualification of the bill introduced by Mr. Edwards of Georgia, and advertised in the Savannah Morning News is not characterized with the usual spirit of fairness for which the Telephone is noted. Evidently it is based upon a want of information. The purpose and effect of the bill is to prevent the lugging of juries. No fair-minded man could condemn this meritorious purpose. The bill in fact, Doubtless Congressman Edwards is not wedded to any particular provisions or terms of his bill and if language may be added or the terms changed saving the purpose and object of the bill, no doubt it would be amended. As the bill now stands if it goes into effect there can be no more arbitrary selection of juries from one portion of the division or another as the judge sees fit. The bill is to be commended and the criticism is unfair.

The people of Georgia have a settled conviction that John M. Slaton will reflect credit on his state in the national council, and will elect him to fill the unexpired term of the lamented Bacon. That Governor Slaton will be elected senator by an overwhelming majority is a foregone conclusion. — Oglethorpe Citizen.

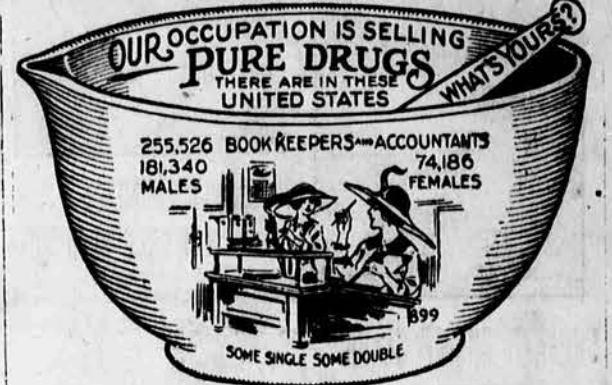

Public Servant. (Savannah Reflector)

The First District of Georgia has never had a more energetic, useful or valuable representative than Hon. Chas. G. Edwards has proven to be. He is on the powerful rivers and harbors committee. "A workman is known by his chips." In seven years' service the Georgia waterways have received about seven million dollars. This is a pretty good pile of chips. The lion's share of this has gone into our own harbor, which is the very life of Savannah. Every dollar spent on this harbor benefits this whole section, as Savannah is Georgia's great port and fixes and reduces freight rates for an immense territory. This vast sum of money has been spent for waterway development, and has been put in circulation in Georgia. It has helped every farmer, merchant, lawyer, doctor, laboring man; in fact, everybody in the state.

Once in a while we hear of an unimpaired Savannah man fighting Edwards. They are few and far between. People who are informed in the district know that Edwards has been busy for the whole district. A man living in Savannah is a rank ingrate to oppose Edwards, especially as Mr. Overstreet has said he wants no support in Chatham county. He has gone further and said an honest jury cannot be had in Chatham county. This is a serious and untrue charge. Savannah people who have moved here from adjoining counties ought to ask their friends in their native counties to resent slurs at the ballot box. At any rate men in Savannah who have manhood and decency will not vote for the demagogue who is trying to create class strife by the issue of 'country against the city.' We people in Savannah have but the kindest feeling for our neighbors, and we believe that is true of our neighbors toward us.

For Representative

To the People of Bulloch County: I had not intended to become a candidate for any office this year. A number of good, reliable men, from almost every section of the county, have asked me to make the race for Representative, to be voted on in the primary to be held August 10th. Since Mr. A. A. Turner has announced that he will not be a candidate for reelection, I have decided to allow the use of my name as a candidate to succeed him. If I should be elected I assure you that it is my purpose to represent every interest that affects Bulloch county and for citizens conscientiously, fairly and impartially, and with the wisest efforts that I can command. Yours very respectfully, FRED T. LANSER. Statesboro, Ga., June 10th, 1914.
