Grand Jury Pre-arrangements

We, the grand jury, chosen to serve at this, the October term, 1914, of the superior court, beg to submit the following report:

We have examined the records of the notaries public and justices of the peace of the various districts and find them correctly kept, except in some instances the lists not properly itemized and in some cases not properly docketed.

We have received a report from the former grand jury on the committee appointed by them as to the condition of the chain gang, and we adopt the same as follows:

40 head of mules	$8,000.00
3 road machines	500.00
40 sets harness	400.00
Plows	50.00
6 wagons	200.00
4 dump wagons	200.00
2 wheelers	30.00
Tools, including shovels and Mattox	75.00
Chairs	10.00
6 cars	1,000.00
8 tents	500.00
2 stoves and kitchen furniture	50.00
100 sets bedding	100.00
100 suits clothes	100.00
4 head hogs	30.00
Dogs	1.00
Cats	100.00

We find everything well kept, especially the mules.

Respectfully,
J. A. MEYER,
J. T. KNOX,
A. A. TURNER,
Committee.

We have examined the jail and court house and find the jail in good condition as the crowded condition would permit.

We find the court house in an unfinished condition, and wish to extend to our ordinary and board of commissioners our appreciation for the extensive improvements there are making.

We further recommend that the fence around the court house square be moved away, except on the side which should be closed up from each entrance.

We further recommend that the curbing be lowered to a height not over six inches above the sidewalk, and the balance of ground not covered by paved walks be graded to a uniform level, and all shade trees on the square be properly trimmed, and the railing and stone posts be sold, the proceeds of the sale to be used for the purchase of iron chairs or seats to be placed on the square.

We recommend that a competent janitor be employed and his full time be devoted to the keeping of the court house and court house square.

We further recommend that the court house be furnished with spit-toons, and a notice be posted in every apartment of the court house warning all people that a fine will be imposed for each offense of spitting on the floor of $5.00.

We recommend that F. N. Atkins be employed as janitor at $25.00 per month.

We further recommend that the entire court house be furnished with suitable furniture.

We have examined the paper list and recommend as follows: That Ann Smith and children be dropped from the list.

We recommend that Joe Fordham be withdrawn from the list.

We recommend that Clarence Proctor be paid $3 per month, and that same be paid to B. M. Everett.

same to be paid to R. D. Bowen. We recommend that Thomas Young be paid $1 per month, and that same be paid to E. S. Lane. We recommend that Robby Williams be paid $2 per month.

We recommend that Penny Goodman be paid $3 per month, and that same be paid to Aaron McElvaine.

We recommend that Handy S. Storer be paid $3 per month, and same be paid to R. S. Mims.

We recommend that money of Carley Mixon be paid to J. F. Mixon.

We hereby adopt the book committee's report and make it a part of these, our general presentments.

REPORT OF BOOK COMMITTEE.

We, the committee appointed at the fall term of superior court, 1913, beg to submit the following report of our findings:

SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

We have in a general way gone over the records of this office and find them neatly and correctly kept. We find that the county is paying board for its prisoners at the rate of $12.40 per month.

TAX RECEIVERS' OFFICE.

We have gone over the consolidation of the tax returns, but did not check the entries, as to have done so under the present plan of handling the tax return sheets would have taken a great deal of time. We call attention to the continued decrease in tax returns, there being a difference of $531,855 in 1911 and 1913.

We recommend that binders be purchased for the tax receiver and that he be required to bind the tax return sheets according to districts, alphabetically and sub-alphabetically, so that the auditing committee can check entries to the digest, and ascertain if property is entered on digest as returned. The binding of these return sheets will be of assistance to the county qualifiers as well as to the auditing committee. We would suggest further that your body make some recommendation as to the time these returns should be kept, as to keep them indefinitely in volume form, would in time take up a great deal of space.

CLERK'S OFFICE.

We have examined the records of this office and find them in the best of shape. The present system of indexing is quite an improvement over the old methods used up to three or four years ago in this office.

TAX COLLECTOR'S OFFICE.

Amount of tax to be collected as shown by digest is as follows:

Real estate and personal	$4,462.16
County tax	8,626.30
Professional	1,000.00
Total	$14,088.46

Less: Credits on digest $2,346.26
Total amount to be collected $11,742.20

Total amount to be collected $11,742.20

We would suggest that your body take up this matter with our representatives and ask them to get a bill to this effect through the legislature.

ORDINARY'S OFFICE.

We have made a casual examination of the records of this office and find them neatly kept. We wish to commend the diligence of Ordinary has shown in the matter of collecting tax files. We find that he has collected $1,134.09 of the 1913 files, leaving a balance of $971.99 not collected, some of which are now in the hands of the sheriff. We note that he has received 1911 files $281.28, and 1912, $176.46, since the last report.

TREASURER'S OFFICE.

ed in a way that appears, though doubtless not to ours. The Somali warriors give wonderful exhibitions of spear-throwing, war dances, etc., in illustration of their wild characteristics. This village from the far forests of Africa will prove well worth exploring.

Major Rhodes' Big Wild West Show, now at the fair at Spartana, is looked to come here, also Hamilton's Side Show, which occupies a frontage of 150 feet; a good plantation show; Gilmore's Famous Reptile Aggregation, ostrich farm, in connection with free ostrich races will be held on the race track every afternoon; feris wheel, hippodrome, ambudrome, motorcycle, auto polo, which is familiar to some of our people, and which will be played by the same team that has just returned from abroad. There will be a big lion show, a midge horse, an athletic show of the highest class, "Trip to Mars," merry-go-rounds, and many attractions. Dino's freak show contains some of the most marvelous animal freaks ever shown, among them Alice, a freak cow, with "human skin," the smallest mule in existence, and many others, as well as a high class vaudeville show.

There will be ten racing days during the fair, as follows: Wednesday, November 18, opening day; Thursday, November 19, Savannah; Friday, November 20, Savannah; Saturday, November 21, Savannah; Sunday, November 22, Savannah; COUNTY OFFICERS HOLD FOUR YEARS

Constitutional Amendments Went Through by a Narrow Margin; New Counties Win.

(Augusta Chronicle)
The constitutional amendment extending the terms of county officers from two to four years passed through by a narrow margin.

The vote for the amendment was 25,915, and against, 23,755. Four small counties are still missing from the returns, but their vote cannot affect the issue, other than perhaps to cut down the majority a little closer.

The new county amendments all went through with a wide margin to spare. The vote on each was as follows:

For Candler County, 34,178;
against, 9,356.
For Barrow County, 37,663; for Bacon County, 35,570, against, 9,355.
For Evans County, 34,142;
against, 9,119.

To provide representatives for new counties. For, 32,257; against, 9,110.

To abolish office of county treasurer when any county gets permission of the legislature. For, 33, 379; against, 14,655.

To extend terms of members of general assembly till their successors are elected and qualify. For, 38,378; against, 16,857.

To increase salary of judge of Macon circuit. For, 26,789; against, 14,822.

To establish municipal court in Savannah. For, 29,996; against, 10,246.

The three judges of the court of appeals received the following votes: R. B. Russell, 50,995; Peyton L. Wade, 52,733; Nash R.
Broyles, 52,537.

HUNTING SEASON TO OPEN FRIDAY, NOV. 20.

Largest Crop of Birds in Years. To Rigidity Enforce the Law. License Sale is Heavy.

(Augusta Chronicle)
One week from Friday the hunting season for 1914 and 1915 will open and hunters all over the state are eagerly awaiting the time.

Reports received from all about the state indicate one of the largest crops of birds in years, showing the good effects of the game laws.
State Game Warden Davis has sent out instructions to his wardens to exercise due diligence to see that the regulations are properly observed without fear or favor.

It is expected that there will be less trouble in regard to the law than usual, since the people generally now understand the rules and regulations, hence are not so liable to break them.

Sportsmen about the state are greatly helped also in proper enforcement, as they realize that it is the game hog and pot-hunters that kill the game off and ruin their own sport.

The open season for quail, doves wild turkey gophers and plovers runs from November 20th to March 1st. Snipe can be killed from December 1st to May 1st. Woodcock summer or wood duck from December 1st to January 1st. Deer from October 1st to December 1st. Cat squirrel's from August 1st to January 1st. No fox squirrel can be killed at any time prior to January 1st, 1915.

Baiting fields for doves or other game birds is strictly forbidden by the law. There has been some trouble each year over this section of the law, but none has been reported so far.

The kill is limited to twenty-five birds or quail for each hunter per day. A heavy sale of licenses is reported from all over the state.

Wanted—An Assistant Book keeper, 202 Years of Age

A member of the St. Paul Association of Credit Men, wishing to secure an assistant bookkeeper, dictated an advertisement for a daily paper. He asked for applications for the position from men in the vicinity of twenty years of age. Through an error of the compositor the two in the twenty was repeated, making it read two hundred and two years old. In spite of this requirement, there were fifty replies, one of which was the following:

"Dear Sir: Your ad in tonight's Dispatch interests me (it would interest any one but a dead-un)

"Knowing how delightful the work in a wholesale establishment is, the princely salaries, short hours and entrancing environments (I've known rich wholesalers to allow themselves to be pried out of as high as $4 85 a week for an assistant bookkeeper, and then only require 18 hours' work at a stretch), I immediately set this application in motion.

"My name is Eben Hzekiah Lightfoot, and I am some chicken when it comes to adding 'figgers.' I was born in Lzytown, N. J., June 32, 1710, and father started in 'figgerin' the very first day as to how in damnation he was going to feed me and clothe me and bring me up to be a real honest-to-goodness assistant bookkeeper."

"I remember when De Soto discovered the Mississippi, and the Boston Tea Party, and I used to call General Washington 'Gawg.'"

"Although I am not just exactly 202 years of age, the fact that I am ten days over that will not, I trust, keep me from the position. I'm as sound as a dollar, eyesight perfect, eat three square a day, and have clawed Horseshoe tobacker all my life."

"Gee, I'd give all the money in the world if you'd make me an assistant bookkeeper in a wholesale office."

"I'm rapid, all right, too, especially with a highball or two ticked under my belt, and when it comes to accuracy, old Buffalo Bill with his sixteen shooter is a mere child in comparison."

"I tell you that it isn't these young bunces that's making this world move. It's the assistant bookkeepers 202 years old, and Roosevelt, and big-hearted whole-salers and such that do things."

"I had a chance to be a bank cashier, but there's nothing doing for me if I can get that assistant bookkeeping job. Me for 'figgers' every time."

"All I ask is that I be given a vacation on my 200th birthday, and that if some crazy auto driver should happen to drive over me and kill me dead, that you send word to my dear old mother, who 906 years old the tenth of this month."

"Don't write. Takes too gosh damned long. Wire me."

"Yours,
"EBEN."

FOUR CROP CLUBS • THIS YEAR •

Advanced Work For Boy's Clubs For Which the Corn Club Paved the Way.

Percheron Mares, Shorthorn Bulls and Berkshire Pigs As Prizes.

Four Crop Clubs are being organized this year in the counties of Georgia and Alabama, interested by the Central of Georgia Railway. For the past three years this railway has given prizes to the winners of Boy's Corn Club Contests. In 1911 fine mules were given as State Prizes, and $25 cash in each county. In 1912 and 1913, the State Prizes were Percheron Mares, with pure-bred Berkeshire Boars as County Prizes. The management of the road is so well pleased with the results of their efforts to encourage the Corn Club work that they are offering still better prizes for the new Four Crop Clubs this year, believing that the boys should be given a chance to show that they can grow other crops as well as corn, and that similar methods to those that were so successful on their acres of corn will make large yields of cotton, oats, and cowpeas hay.

The members of the Four Crop Clubs will each cultivate three acres, one acre in cotton, one in corn, and one in cowpea hay. The original plan included a crop of oats preceding the cowpea hay (the oats being the fourth crop), but the oats will not be required this year because the Clubs could not be organized in time for all the boys to plant an acre of oats. The name of Four Crop Clubs will be retained, however, and Clubs again organized next fall to carry out the complete Four Crop system in 1915.

Any boy between the ages of 10 and 21, who lives in a county of Alabama or Geo-ria, which is traversed by the Central of Georgia Railway, may enter the contest if he can get three acres of ground to cultivate in cotton, corn and cowpea hay.
If three acres in a body are not available, three separated acres may be used.
The prizes will be awarded for the best total yield from these three crops at the greatest net profit, and a written account of how the crops were made will be required. The acre in corn will also be entered for any local County or State Corn Contest.

The Central of Georgia Railway will give to the winner of the Four Crop Club Contest in each county traversed by its line a pure-bred Shorthorn Bull, provided there are twenty-five or more entries in the County Contest. In case twenty-five entries can not be secured in a county, but five or more boys enter the Contest, a pure-bred Berkshire Boar will be the prize.

The State Prizes will be high-grade Percheron Mares—one for the Georgia winner and one for the Alabama winner.
The best showing in the State Contest for Four Crop Club Contests will show April 1.

Entries for the contest should be forwarded through the local school teacher to the County School Commissioner, who will send them to the District and State Organizers of the United States Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the Georgia State College of Agriculture and the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.
Instructions in regard to preparation of soil, planting, cultivation, etc., will then be sent them.

The pure-bred bulls given as County Prizes should stimulate an interest in the raising of beef cattle, which is certain to be a very profitable industry for this section, particularly when the cattle tick has been eradicated. The improvement shown by the offspring of pure-bred bulls crossed with native cows will be a striking objection of the advantages of raising a better grade of cattle.

It is very necessary to encourage the best methods of growing cotton, in view of the steady advance of the boll weevil toward this section, for cotton can not be successfully grown in the presence of the weevil unless the very best farming methods are used. The Four Crop Contests will also demonstrate a more nearly complete crop system and lay the foundation for a good demonstration of a three-year crop rotation.

Good Old Days

The "Good old days" you hear so much about, were no doubt good because people then didn't know any better.

But how would you like to go back to the days of the stage coach, the tallow dip, the flint-lock and the spinning wheel? It wouldn't do now.
Neither would you care to use con skins for money.

Opening of Fair Draws Big Crowd

General Verdict That Fair is Most Creditable. More
Exhibits Coming.

(Savannah News)
Under the most auspicious circumstances the District Fair was formally opened at 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The attendance on the first night exceeded the expectations of the management. Several thousand people passed through the gates, the neighboring counties being well represented in the opening crowd. The people started coming as soon as the gates were opened and there was a steady stream until after 11 o'clock.

It was the general verdict of the crowd that the fair is a most creditable one, although many of the exhibits are yet to arrive and everything will not be in tip-top condition until Saturday. Every department of the fair was praised and the management was congratulated on getting up the best fair Savannah has ever had.

PINE AGRICULTURAL DISPLAY
Most of the visitors found reason to interest them in the agricultural building. The exhibits in this building are not complete. J. R.
Miller, president of the fair association, announced that three carloads of exhibits are on the way and will be in place to-day or tomorrow. Already there is an excellent array of agricultural products in the building, however.

Nearly everything Georgia soil can produce is on exhibition, from watermelons to peanuts. The North Georgia counties are represented on
