EMPIRE LIFE INSURANCE

Reidsville, Ga., April 24, 1912.

Fred C. Wallis Agency, Savannah, Ga.

Gentlemen: Please accept my thanks for the Empire Life Insurance Company's check No. 18,473, for Three Thousand Three Hundred and Forty-five Dollars and Twelve Cents ($3,400.00) in full of my claim on policy No. 25561 in the Empire Life Insurance Company.

The above numbered policy for Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) was issued to Mr. William Sankey Mattox, deceased, on January 2nd, 1911. According to the terms of the policy the company agreed that in event of Mr. Mattox's death, before the policy matured they would refund all premiums paid. This is why they have paid $3,445.12 in settlement of the $3,000 policy.

LITTLE ITEMS FROM GEORGIA CITIES

Atlanta, Ga.—No state will have a bigger representation, personal and official, at the presidential inauguration, March 4, than will Georgia. Woodrow Wilson is being elected as a former Georgian, and interest in him and in his administration naturally takes a personal trend from that cause. To begin with, Georgia will be very largely represented in the military feature of the inaugural parade. Not only will Augusta, Macon, Savannah and other cities send troops of the Georgia National Guard, but the 17th United States regulars from Fort McPherson, Atlanta, will also march in the parade. Col. Walter Andrews, Senator W. J. Harris, Jas. R. Gray and other prominent Georgians, who took active part in the Wilson campaign, are all planning to be in attendance on the inauguration, if possible and personal plans will permit. Governor-elect Jno. M. Slaton may also be in Washington at the time. In addition, hundreds and thousands of individual Georgians, young and old, are making plans to take a trip to Washington at this time for the sake of the wonderful sights incidental to the inauguration. Georgia suffragists will also be there in large numbers. They are planning to bear an immense yellow flag, symbolic of women's rights in Georgia. In the pre-inauguration parade, March 3, and many prominent women from Atlanta and other Georgia towns and cities will march in that pageant.

Atlanta, Ga.—Whitfield county takes the cake when it comes to early bird political announcements. Atlanta simply isn't in it, and prominent Georgia politicians who have been previously accused of getting into various races too soon now seem like ordinary laggards. Mr. S. M. Sanders, an aged but active resident of North Atlanta, has announced to his friends and to the world at large, that he is actively in the race for county treasurer, which, please goodness, is a contest that will not be voted on until fully two years hence. Mr. Sanders says that he intends to put every minute of available time during those two years into making an extensive and active canvass for votes. He is out who has just been seated in office. If Mr. Sanders carries out his plan of a two year continuous campaign, it will be the longest one that has ever been waged for any county office in Georgia, and probably in the United States.

Cordell—The campaign inaugurated by the state board of entomology for the purpose of promoting conditions that will successfully meet the ravages of the pest in Georgia, had an enthusiastic interest for Crisp county farmers. A meeting, at which a large number of planters were present, was held at the court house, and upon the conclusion of the speeches, a cotton breeders' club was formed, with W. B. Mathews president and A. C. Frazer secretary.

Brunswick—Local barber shops, news stands, cigar stores and other such place saw very much wrought up over the notice served on them by Sheriff Berrie notifying them that hereafter they must close their places of business on Sunday. No action in the matter has been taken as yet, except by the barber shops, who have an abiding by the notice and close their places.

Marietta—Col. R. P. Nesbitt died at his home here after a long illness. He was buried at the Episcopal cemetery at Marietta. Services were held at Union chapel. Mr. Nesbitt is survived by a wife and two sons, Mr. W. D. Nesbitt of Birmingham, and Mr. R. H. Nesbitt of Spartanburg, S. C. Mr. Nesbitt was the oldest and most respected citizen. He was commissioner of agriculture for twelve years, and very prominent in politics all over the state.

Columbus—A cheerful feeling has marked the beginning of the new business season in this section. Collections are better than they were in the late fall and money conditions seem easier in both business and farming circles than they were before Christmas. The farmers got an early start due to the remarkably open weather in January and thorough preparation has been made for the crop. The recent cold weather has checked the development of vegetation and saved the fruit crop, it is believed.

Public—The teaching institute for Laurens county, which adjourned here after being in session one week, passed resolutions just before adjourning protesting against the tardy manner in which teachers are paid their salaries and calling upon Messrs. Coleman and Taylor, representatives of this county in the next general assembly, to make an effort at its next meeting to get matters in better shape so that teachers can get their salaries on time.

Cartersville—The report of Mayor G. W. Young, first commission mayor of Cartersville, shows such remarkable advantage of the new system of city government over the old administrative plan, that the people of this city are in every way pleased with the new administration, and it is a sure thing that no change will be made soon in the commission plan except a few minor alterations in the charter, giving the mayor more power. In his report, which covers the affairs of his office in detail, Mayor Young shows that the city $23,250.00 collected in taxes in 1912.

New County Movements
Galore.

If all the new county propositions land that are now asking for territory there will have to be a new map of Georgia drawn after the meeting of the next session of the Georgia legislature. Some work can be picked up in the drawing of this map by taking the map of some militia district and using them for maps for the old counties.
This seems to be especially true of Tattnall, for as we have been able to learn only four new counties are seeking a portion of her territory.

A new county meeting was held at Claxton yesterday afternoon and maps and lines adopted, the line effecting Bulloch runs as originally laid out, entering the county at Kennedy's bridge on the Canoochee river, running the old Dublin road through Adabelle, to the Sink hole bridge on Little Creek, then down the creek to its mouth. It then takes the run of the creek to its mouth. The line then follows the run of the Canoochee river to Moody's bridge, and then takes a straight shot towards Reidsville, running to Overstreet's still within about 8 miles of Reidsville then a straight line north crossing the Seaboard Air Line Railway at a point just half way between Bel-ville and Manassas, striking the Canoochee river again wherever the straight line hits.

A delegation was on hand from Manassas asking to be taken in or let the line drop down lower, a delegation was on hand from Reids-ville headed by such men as Hon.
C. W. Smith and Judge E. C.
Collins asking them to leave them Manassas in Tattnall and then they would go out and assist them in forming the new county, the wishes of the Reidsville contingent were adhered to. The Reidsville crowd admitted that Greenville was coming in four or five miles of them on the south and that with the Toombs county a few miles in the opposite direction it looked like getting sliced some, they also admitted that they would still have a long strip of territory in the Cobbtown section which was to be donated to Stillmore. This would leave them only a small county but they seemed perfectly satisfied with the prospects of the cut. The Claxton map takes two hundred square miles from Tattnall and one hundred from Bulloch. A large delegation of citizens from the Sink Hole district were in the meeting all asking to be annexed.

Another new county meeting was held at Metter on Saturday afternoon, when three hundred citizens marched to the town hall keeping step to the music of a brass band, adorned the stage filling the dignified position of an invited guest was the smiling face of one of one of Georgia's young law makers in the person of the Hon. James L.
Herrington of Emanuel. Eloquent addresses showing up the benefits to be derived from the creation of Candler county were delivered by Prof. Purcell, Col. Kirkland and Editor Sills. After the speaking the subscription list was opened up and somewhere in the neighborhood of twenty five hundred dollars was added to an already over flowing treasury, swelling the list to ten thousand dollars, and that the modest little sum of fifteen thousand dollars is to be raised for the campaign purposes according to the reports sent out from Metter to the daily papers. The meeting was a warm one from start to finish and the enthusiasm shows that the people back of the movement believe that success is sure to crown their efforts.

The people of Stillmore are organizing for a fight and propose to run their eastern line to the waters of the fifteen mile creek taking in Metter, they are holding meetings every week and limbering up for a fight, they say they will be there when the legislature meets.

DIDN'T SHOOT TO KILL BROTHER

Allen, the Seven Year Old Son of Mr. J. L. Deal Accidentally Killed by Brother.

On last Sunday afternoon while playing with a shot gun in the hands of the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Deal living a short distance from here, the gun was discharged and the head of his little brother standing nearby. Death followed the wounds in a short time, the little fellow who held the gun was almost crazed by the work of the gun which ended the little fellow's life, and has made one or two attempts to shoot himself since.
The report that he threatened to shoot which has gained publication is untrue, so the father of the boys informs us. He says the shooting entirely accidental.

What

a great improvement would be made in the condition of horses and other animals if just the proper remedy were used when they became ill or injured. If your horse could talk he would tell you not to use an external remedy containing alcohol because it stings and burns his flesh terribly. Some liniments have alcohol and other very ingredients which only inflame the skin and tissue and does not strike down where the pain lies. Beware of such liniments. The great humane, quick-action remedy is Mexican Mustang Liniment. Made of oils, without a drop of alcohol or other torturing element. It soaks straight to the bone and muscle. It soothes the wounded parts and is comforting while the healing work is progressing. Mexican Mustang Liniment is what you want because it your work lighter, saves your livestock from suffering and keeps them in trim for work. For all forms of Lameness, Strains, Bruises, Cuts, Barns, Galls and barresores in animals, it is safe and prompt and does not promise what it cannot perform. Mustang Liniment has been doing its wonderful healing work for 65 years. The amount of money it has saved livestock owners is incalculable. One man writes that he was about to kill his valuable horse because badly injured but Mustang Liniment made him well again. A Veterinary tells us he has used Mustang Liniment fifteen years and found it best liniment for cuts, strains, etc. And many others are enthusiastic friends of this tried and true remedy. Now you know just what makes

FAMILY TREE IS BIG

Hundreds Claim Kinship With a Late Millionaire.

Letters From Alleged Relatives of J.
K. Zimmerman, Who Died Intestate, Pour In Upon the Administrators.

Kansas City.—The lure of a chance, no matter how slight, to share in the $1,000,000 left by the late J. K. Zimmerman, a stockman, of this city who died intestate October 6, is prompting scores of persons to write J. E. Gut-telle, probate judge, for particulars.
The fortune hunters live in all parts of the country.

Judge Guttelle is not the only one receiving letters. Not a day passes that Sam R. Strother and P. P. Neal, administrators, do not receive letters claiming relationship to the wealthy stockman. They have succeeded to date in finding twenty-seven heirs who claim a part of the estate. They are investigating the claims of as many more. Some of the investigations will require more acumen than that required to solve a Chinese puzzle.

Here is one, for instance: W. M.
Sparo, Clack, Ill., writes:
"While I can't claim kinship with the deceased, it is quite within the range of possibilities. My grandmother was the daughter of the late J. K. Zimmerman and married Joseph D. Long of Pennsylvania and moved to this section of Illinois somewhere about the year 1830 or 1832.
She had a brother by the name of Obidiah, or possibly the last name was the son of the former. But I'll admit our ancestry is rather vague on my grandmother's side, except the names and places I have stated."

Grafton Zimmerman of Illinois, Mois very sure part of that $1,000,000 belonged to him. He says:
"I believe I am an heir to part of the estate. My father's name was Peter Zimmerman and was born in Hanover, Pa. Now if you can or will give me instructions how to proceed in making claim you will greatly oblige me." W. N. Walker of Limestone, Tenn., believes he can produce a number of legal heirs. He says:
"We think some of the heirs are in our town. For any information you can give me I will be thankful."

A woman in Duluth, Minn., put her case in the hands of an attorney immediately. The attorney writes:
"She seems to have a very complete record of her progenitors and claims that J. K. Zimmerman was her uncle." The administrators will receive $50-000 for their work in finding the proper heirs and caring for the estate until it is divided properly.

The estate of Mr. Zimmerman contains no real estate, no bonds and no stocks. It was all in notes, secured by real estate and chattels.
"It's the most unique estate I ever dealt with," Mr. Neal, one of the administrators, said. "It seems strange that so rich a man should have owned no real estate. He had no direct heirs and left no will. The estate is to be divided among nephews and nieces. So far we have found twenty-seven who are to participate in the division."

Mr. Neal is chairman of the board of directors of the Southwestern National Bank of Commerce.

DISEASE CARRIED BY 100,000
Thousands of East Coast Ship-Camps Before New York
Commission.

New York.—One hundred thousand men, most of them foreigners, live in insanitary surroundings in 2,000 labor camps in connection with construction operations throughout New York state. They contract disease in the working months and carry it to their families in cities. Many of the laborers live in shacks made from discarded freight cars. Under their system of employment they may not leave if dissatisfied unless they sacrifice part of their pay, held back to keep them at their jobs.

These are conditions described by voluntary witnesses at the second public hearing of Governor Sulzer's special public health commission, which is seeking to improve methods of public sanitation. Insanitary conditions were alleged to exist in many casings and among the Indians. Two hundred of the 600 Indians on one reservation have tuberculosis. It was recommended that a leprosy hospital be stationed on every reservation.

CHOIR GOES OUT ON STRIKE

Princeton Men Are Called to Sing Episcopal Service at Trenton Church.

Trenton, N. J.—Eighteen Princeton students were brought here and in the capacity of strikebreakers sang the morning and evening services at St.
Michael's Episcopal church in place of the members of the regular choir, who had struck because they declared the rector was interfering with them and their organist. The organist also had walked out with his singers and a substitute had to be engaged.
The strikers emulated their brethren in labor disputes by picketing outside the church, and as a result of their talk with members of the congregation many of the labor did not attend the services.

The students sang the music well.
After the night service they returned to Princeton.

TAFT RUSHES MORE U.S. MEN TO GULF TO GIVE WILSON INVADING ARMY

President Taft this afternoon made public another statement that our government "will not intervene in Mexico."

At a conference between Taft and Secretary of War Stimson, it was decided to order 5,000 additional troops to Galveston, making 15,000 in all, to give Wilson a force of invasion size if he should decide to intervene in assuming office next week.

Madero and Suarez will be buried with military honors. Consensus of opinion is that both men were brutally murdered.

Americans are preparing to defend themselves.

Sister of Madero makes dramatic statement calling for revenge.

Eye-witnesses declare that Ma-doro was slaughtered in cold blood.
Two rifle bullets entered the back of Madero's head. Suarez had 8 rifle shot wounds in chest and abdomen.

Huerta and Diaz has Mexico City today under military dictatorship of iron-handed as the government of Porfirio Diaz at its height.

The British government announced today that it would not recognize the new government of Mexico until it has been confirmed by a general election.

Washington, Feb. 24.—At an extended conference between President Taft and Secretary of War Stimson today it was decided that at least 5,000 more troops are needed at Galveston, Texas in order to give President-elect Wilson a force large enough to intervene in Mexico if he so desires.

Accordingly orders were issued today to the Fourth and Sixth brigades of infantry and the Third and Fourteenth regiments of caval-ately. The Fourth brigade of infantry has its headquarters at Chicago and consists of the twenty third infantry, the Twenty-sixth infantry and the Twenty-seventh infantry. The Sixth brigade with headquarters at Fort D. A. Russell, comprises the Eleventh, Eighteenth and Twenty-second infantries.

Neither has the potent of the Monroe doctrine suffered. Our government would not be justified in intervening until there was kiling of Americans.

The Third cavalry at present is stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Texas while the Fourteenth calvary is at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Not even this latest development in the deplorable situation in Mexico warrants intervention on the part of this government.
The United States has not lost prestige because of the attitude she has assumed.

PUBLIC BUILDING BILL PASSES SENATE

Amendment at last Moment may Delay Statesboro Structure, but not thought Necessarily Fatal

The Public Building bill carrying the appropriation of $50,000 for the erection of a post office building at Statesboro passed the senate on Thursday night at a late hour after one of the most stubborn ly fought battles of the present session. An amendment offered by Senator Kern of Indiana was incorporated just before its passage providing that no sites or buildings shall be authorized for post office buildings in cities where the annual receipts do not reach ten thousand dollars per annum.
Information received from the local post office here is that the fiscal year ending March 31st 1912 the receipts were just $9,900 short of this amount, and it is believed that the end of the present year which is now about a month off will show that we are within the limits prescribed by the bill as remended, though this may delay its construction somewhat.

Senator Smith fought the general bill on a number of its features but is reported to have stood by the Georgia items in the bill. It is expected that President Taft will veto the bill.

Conditions In Mexico.

If there had been in the president's chair at Washington, a Cleveland, for instance, instead of the softest, most hesitant executive this country ever had, there would be peace, instead of anarchy in Mexico.

The disorder is not the struggle of a people against tyranny; there is no principle involved higher than the personal ambitions of soldiers of fortune to gain power and wealth by the sword.

Mexico is writhing in murder and rapine. Bandit gangs are ravaging all over the nation, preying on anybody who has a home and a dollar. The brigand chiefs call themselves generals and pretend to follow the flag, but the most respectable approach to patriotism among them is a desire to revenge, and loot is the object of their campaigns.

The cold blooded murder of Madero and Suarez—the elected president and vice president—is proof that the men who, for the moment occupy the palace at the capital, are waging the same sort of war as the ranch raiders of the outlying states.

That Madero, after catching Diaz in full rebellion, should be slaughtered by the man whose life he spared makes this crime a supreme atrocity even in the annals of barbarous revolution.

The savage murder of unarmed prisoners taken Mexico outside the class of nations whose convulsions are entitled to respect.

The cynical pretense that Francisco Madero and his vice president, like Gustavo Madero before them, were slain in an attempt to escape emphasizes that brigandage and not government is entrenched in Mexico City.

There will be many more killings—just as cold-blooded as that of Sunday—of Diaz and Huerta are to remain in power. If their raginies are upset they will perhaps be the victims instead of the executioners.

In any case assassination—by authority or against authority—will be ruled in Mexico, unless a master-murderer rises from the welter of crime and by his atrocities awes all the bloody factions.

Are we going to wait through years of disorder for that?

There is not today the least guarantee for life or property in Mexico. Americans are among the slain; American investments have been ruined; American property has been seized; AMERICAN WOMEN HAVE BEEN MAL-TREATED.

Outside the big cities—and some time in them—our people, among others, are hunted by bands of bandits for what they as bears are hunted for their pelts.

We have the power to stop the anarchy in Mexico. The world is watching the strongest and richest nations wabbling and jibbing at the job that has come to it.

We have promulgated a Monroe doctrine, and the other nations are waiting to see us perform the duties that we so boldly arrogated to ourselves.

While murder succeeds, murder to Mexico City, the Man of Straw, makes bland speeches about the necessity of patience and the part of a Big Brother we are to play.

Is it a Big Brother's part to stand by and let the Little Brother in his tantrums scandalize civilization?

Paint or Not.
Is a horse worth more or less after feed?

Hay and oats are high today; shall I wait today and feed him tomorrow? That's how men do about painting their houses and barns and fences. Paint has been high for several years; and so they have waited. Paint is high yet; they are still waiting; thousands of you are waiting to paint this fall.

Their property drops a trifle a year and the next job of paint creeps up; it'll take more paint by a gallon a year; they don't save a cent, and the property goes on suffering. Devote sells it.

SLAYS HER HUSBAND IN DUEL

Mme. Nadia Putokin, Teacher of Fencing in Moscow, Forces Opponent's Heart.

Moscow.—Mme. Nadia Putokin killed her husband in a rapid duel, in which she had formally challenged him.

The Putokins were both professors of fencing and their rooms were crowded each day with fashionable people. One of these was an army officer, who aroused the jealousy of M. Putokin. This led the officer to issue a challenge, but Mme. Putokin, concluding that her horse had been suited, sent seconds to her husband and insisted that he should meet her first.

During the duel Nadia made a vigorous attack. Her husband contented himself with parrying her thrusts, but in the third bout his wife's rapier pierced his heart and killed him in a few minutes.
