CAN'T DO IT

Always remember that you can't saw wood with a hammer.

Opportunity knocks at your door but once, they say. If you happen to be knocking yourself you may not be able to hear the gentle tap when she calls. She may be knocking at your door right now. Who knows? Get busy. Start a bank account, no matter how small. That's the way most big accounts started. Begin to save and saw wood.

HANDSOME PRESENT GIVEN FREE

A solid gold Lavallere, now on display in the windows of the jewelry store of Mr. D. R. Dekle will be awarded free to the lady who makes the best showing in our popularity voting contest between the dates of four p. m. Sat. April 24th and Thurs. May 3rd. These votes like those on the umbrella awarded yesterday will also be counted on the Grand Prize which will be awarded June 15th.

It is also understood that no votes cast or counted for the umbrella or anything previous to that count will be counted on the Lavallere which guarantees every contestant an even chance for this prize. The same committee will count the votes and declare the winner, this will be sealed and the name of the most popular lady in that feature of the contest will be announced in one of the slides at the moving picture show on Saturday night May 3rd. No one will know except the awarding committee and they will keep it secret until the envelope is opened by Mr. Horn and announced on the canvas at the Star Theatre Saturday night May 3rd.

Miss Bonnie Ford Wins Umbrella

The second count of the ballots in the popularity contest was made yesterday afternoon at four o'clock. The ballot box, which has been kept under lock and key and the key deposited in the Bank of Statesboro vault was opened by Messrs S. C. Groover, R. F. Donaldson and J. W. Johnston Jr. cashiers of the three banks of Statesboro, and the count showed as follows:

Miss Bonnie Ford 119,000
Mrs. J. C. Lane 96,025
Miss Tessie Barnes 27,000
beside about 80,000 scattering.

The handsome gold handle umbrella which has been on display in the windows of Mr. D. R. Dekle was awarded to Miss Bonnie Ford who had 119,000 votes to her credit. Mrs. Lane ran second with 96,025, and several others ran up pretty well.

The umbrella that was awarded by the committee had her name, together with the compliments of The Statesboro News was engraved on the handle. It is a nice present and one that is especially attractive, at this the beginning of the summer season. The votes have all been removed from the box and sealed in separate packages and are now in the hands of the committee where they will be kept a few days, until it is seen that there is no protest then they will be destroyed.

In the box there was placed

Our attention has been attracted by the beautiful funeral oration appearing in the columns of the last issue of the Metter Advertiser. The production referred to was dedicated to "a certain dead palit cian" and was both timely and pathetic.

If there is one subject that Editor Sills appears to advantage in delivering funeral orations, the fact that there is an after end to his deliberations long that line that carries with it something more substituted than the tears shed by the sorrowing relatives of the deceased lends a rosate view to the situation having at one time been engaged in the undertaking business ourselves we can appreciate the feelings of a man who has a business, that of preaching funerals and selling tombstones both of which are kindred and in sympathy with each other. There is no question but what the first stage of the proceedings lends hope of a more business like transaction to follow. This being true we are not surprised that Editor Sills grew eloquent in description of the approaching death of Stillmore and the said "dead politician" whom he claims as his foster mother with two deaths in one family for good measure is a sufficient cause to move the average "entle being in the tombstone business" to sit up and look around much less a few.

Speaking of the dead reminds us of other subjects deceased and decomposed it carries our mind back wandering in the distant past when a stillborn infant was carted out of Atlanta after five thousand dollars had been expended for nourishment etc. It reminds us of the short lived existence of men and measures, why the man who was charged with the smothering this infant is said to be dead and totally harmless. It shows us that life is only a fleeting show, that we are alive today and dead tomorrow.

Again referring to the dead and near unto death recalls visions of a noted march on the Emanuel county Grand Jury made last week when a pathetic appeal was made for nourishment for another sickly infant whose very life hung on a brittle thread floundering as between life and death itself.

Again referring to subjects gone before both dead and decomposed, reminds us that there is still reasons to believe that even in this advanced age of civilization and enlightenment that spirits of the departed continue to walk up and down through the earth and visit and trail down the wicked until they can see a ghost every time they close their eyes. Now there being no question about the subject of the described funeral oration being dead, (for we have the word of the Minister that it is so), yet the fact he is able to arouse two progressive towns like Stillmore and Brooklet to action that in the latter a thousand dollars was raised in twenty minutes all by the efforts of this "dead politician" shows us though dead and having already passed into the beyond, so to speak, he still has power to come back and aggravate the wicked element who has survived his going. Teasing the dead in this case may terminate like the case of twisting the sleeping lion's tail who was not so fast asleep as at first thought. It may be that the deceased referred to in the foregoing may not be so dead as at first believed he may take up his bed and walk again. He may be able to superintend the going of other defunct schemes as he has done in the past, he may still like to the discomfort and undoing of these who prematurely ascribe words of a funeral oration to his memory. He may remain on this side of the great divide to witness the beginning of this Biblical promise that the Jews will some day return to their native heath, he may see in wanton waste of fifteen thousand dollars raised as a slush fund the indignation of an outraged people who will turn loose their wrath to the extent that at least one Hebrew will be kicked so hard and so high until he will not be able to light this side of Palestine. The said "dead politician" may live to see many things yet, he has already lived to see the unusual spectacle of a Jew holding up his hands in holy horror at the suggestion of a man taking money for his services. This is one of the Seven Wonders of the world and he may yet live to see the enactment of the other six in this case it may be that the Candler county proposition is a reality, nothing else would justify it.

What was considered the last hope of the Candler proposition fell flat last week when the Emanuel county Grand Jury turned a deaf ear to the earnest and pathetic appeals of the Metter contingent and refused to recognize it even in the most remote manner. A delegation appeared before the Grand Jury but there was nothing doing: Outside of a little idle jest at the expense of the Metter crowd it was not considered at all. With the failure to get a recommendation at Swainsboro it is doubtful as to what the future of the movement may be. That the failure at Swainsboro had a most disastrous and withering effect on the hopes of the Candler county advocates is not disputed.

We understand that no effort was made last week at Reidsville to get a recommendation from the Tattall county Grand Jury then in session. Inasmuch as it is known

EMANUEL COUNTY PUTS SEAL OF CONDEMNATION ON NEW COUNTY SCHEME

What was considered the last hope of the Candler proposition fell flat last week when the Emanuel county Grand Jury turned a deaf ear to the earnest and pathetic appeals of the Metter contingent and refused to recognize it even in the most remote manner. We understand that no effort was made last week at Reidsville to get a recommendation from the Tattall county Grand Jury then in session. Inasmuch as it is known that the Candler county proposition has practically no support on the Tattall county side of the Cannoochee river. Had they at tempted at Reidsville what they did at Swainsboro they would at least have found three hundred indignant and outraged citizens from the Cobbtown district alone swarming on their trail like so many stinging hornets. No, they knew better than to tackle it at Reidsville, and they know better now than tackle the job again at Swainsboro. Just whether they will put their case before the Bulloch Grand Jury next week remains to be seen.

Claxton Waxing Cold on New County Movement

The news comes to us through the columns of the Tattall Advertiser published at Claxton that the new county sentiment once so rampant there is now waxing cold. It seems that the gathering present at two meetings called this week, and the treasury of the Board of Trade that is backing the new county movement is depleted.

This brings about a new condition of affairs. It may be that the people of Claxton will attempt to revive their falling spirits. It seems that they might profit by setting a few dots from Metter who is engaged in a similar task. It might be a good idea to get up a barbecue, you know that times are tight and square meals are going at a premium, it may be that if Claxton would follow Metter's example and stuff 'em full, they would get enthused again or it may be that if they had some follow over there who would take the job to claim the earth and the fullness thereof, for sixty dollars per month things might brighten up. At any rate we commend our friends at Claxton to our resourceful friends at Metter for a remedy for the disease that now so sorely afflicts them.

Where Money Goes

Our money not only goes for liquor and tobacco and such things but the people of Georgia have more than twenty millions of dollars invested in automobiles. If this money was divided around in banks, it would give to each county in the state, a bank with a capital stock of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. In the United States billions of dollars are invested in automobiles. John D. Rockefeller sports an automobile and on down to John Doe, who holds a small clerkship job. It is fashionable you know to ride in one of the things. The poor old horse and buggy is too slow, and as for the old horse cart it is thousand years behind.

Young America demands fast riding, and the automobile is the latest, next to the chairship. No doubt aeroplanes will soon be carrying the folks.

We understand that no effort was made last week at Reidsville to get a recommendation from the Tattall county Grand Jury then in session. Inasmuch as it is known

WHY Walk Overs?

Not because the quantity sold is the largest of any named shoe—though it is.

Not because they are called for by name in all civilized countries—though they are.

Not because the manufacturers are "Leaders of the World" in shoe making—though they are;

But—because of the wonderful character of the styles and splendid fitting qualities of the models and the conscientious workmanship that have made "Walk Over" Shoes what they are.

The Baseball Season

The base ball season is now on and young America is having a big time. If men must throw away their time and money base ball is about as innocent sport as they can engage in. As a general thing however it only affords the spendthrift one more way of getting rid of his money. What he don't spend for liquor, segars, cigarettes, cocaine, fine clothes, tan shoes, excursions, joy rides in automobiles, the pictures, the circus, the two headed snake, moonshine, ginger, beer, cider etc, he can spend for fun and cold lemonade while he is harrahing at the base ball game.

It is real nice to see thousands of young men all with cigarettes in their mouths, and thousands of young women with low neck short dresses and no sleeves all assembled in the grand stand to see Hooly Dick Jim Ty Ty, Kid Snooks, and the boys run around the base and get caught out. It is a great game.

The Hard Working Man

We hear lots about working men. Did you ever know a man to work himself to death? Did you ever hire a man and have him to fall dead in your field or store or shop from hard work? How many men and boys are working themselves even ordinarily? A man don't have to work but two or three days in the week in this country in order to live, and mighty few are doing more than that much work. The man who is working six days in the week, and saving a part of his money is getting rich. You cannot hold the real working man down. He will come out and get ahead in the world.

The man who gives attention to his work and business every day in the year is bound to succeed. All things comes to him who works and waits.

Mistake

"Longfellow says: 'We cannot buy with gold the old associations.' Vastly rich—Don't you believe it, my dear. When I was in politics I found that cash would purchase the ancient organization on earth. Life.

Cobbler's Wax. Shoemakers' and cobbler's wax is made by melting together the best Swedish pitch and tallow in a vessel over the fire. The quantity of tallow must be determined by experiment. Roll into balls. The right kind of pitch is of a brown color when broken.

Bright Brass. A great time and labor saver, in keeping brass, copper and other metals bright and shining, either indoors or outdoors, in any kind of weather, is to clean and scour in the usual way, and give them a coat of negative varnish, to be obtained at a store. Many ornaments which look luster are also improved by one application.

Had 21 out of 23 Yet Could't Win

The statement made in the current issue of the Metter Advertiser to the effect that on a poll of the Emanuel county Grand Jury last week that there were 21 out of 23 of that august body friendly to the Candler county proposition. Inasmuch as a desperate effort to secure a recommendation along this line fell flat, it is quite a bit of interesting of news.

It is certainly refreshing to read such statements as those following such circumstances, in that it shows us that the limit of man's vocabulary has not yet been reached.

It is encouraging to read and reflect over such assertions as there, coupled together with other facts varying so widely with them, inasmuch as it teaches us that the old rule of "If at first you do not succeed try try again" still lives and has its place in the hearts of men. It shows further the extent of the endurance of mankind and prescribes in a feeble manner, the extent to which he will travel in holding stiff upper lip carrying the flag as it were even in the hour of defeat and disappointment. It shows us that there is the real nerve and metal back of the Candler County movement which asserts itself under the most adverse and trying circumstances and rises up and refuses to accept the word plain NO for an answer we are told, however that these 21 out of 23 simply ascended to say that inasmuch as Metter took the least territory from Emanuel, they would prefer her to the other regarding all cuts of her territory as an evil movement they preferred the less of three, and that was the extent which the comfort and solace ran out to meet eloquent and pathetic appeals for the recommendation clause in the General Presentment that never came that made itself conspicuous by its absence.

Even with the burning desire to accept the least cut of territory of feeling "the state of Emanuel!"

Death of Mrs. Nesmith.

On yesterday morning Mrs. Rachel Nesmith, widow of the late Soverign J. Nesmith, passed peacefully over the river after a long illness at her home at Guyton. The funeral and interment will be held at Upper Back Creek church Saturday afternoon.

The revival services at the Baptist church which has been in progress all the week will come to a close on Sunday the meeting has been interesting and well attended.

The people at Metter this year have set in this year in hard earnest to have Candler county created and it now looks like they will succeed. They have been after it for nine years.

Go to Mrs. J. E. Bowen's to get your Spring Millinery. Everything going at reduced prices produce taken in exchange for millinery.

Mrs. J. E. Bowen

The Banks of the city will close tomorrow on account of legal holiday.

Mr and Mrs S H Liechtenstein spent several days in Statesboro during the week.

It is reliably stated that between 150 and 200 cattle, hogs, sheep and goats will be slain for the Candler county barbecue at Metter Saturday May 10th. Also about 2,500 loaves of bread and a car load of ice will be ordered. This put with the baskets which will be carried by two or three hundred ladies will make some dinner; 10,000 people should be well fed on all this. You should go.

Mr and Mrs Dell Anderson attended the reunion of the Sharpe family at Seardron on yesterday.

Millinery Bargains at reduced prices

Bring your chickens eggs or any other produce you have to spare and exchange for Millinery at Mrs. J. E. Bowen's.

The Central of Georgia on the morning of May 10th will carry about four or five extra coaches from Dublin to Metter on the train reaching there at 7:30. Also the same number of coaches will be used on the train from Dover reaching Metter at 10:30 a. m. to accommodate those going up. People from Bulloch, Emanuel, Tattnall, Toombs, Screven, Bryan and adjoining counties will be there in great numbers, and Metter will show them the time of their life.

Two or three of Georgia's well known orators will speak at the Candler county barbecue at Metter Saturday May 10th. You should hear them, and also enjoy the barbecue.

If you will attend the Candler county barbecue at Metter on Saturday May 10th the Metter people will convince you that the people throughout southeast Georgia want Candler county with Metter as the county seat created. They need this new county and will like to get it this year.

There is strong sentiment throughout the state, and especially in South Georgia in favor of the creation of new counties and the next legislature will have no less than thirteen petitions before them from different sections of the state asking to be set apart as new counties.

People are becoming more and more opposed to having to go 25 or 30 miles to reach their county seat. The time has been when people thought nothing of having to camp out one night on the way to court but it is different now and there is no reason for it.

There are yet at least a dozen counties in Georgia big enough for two if they were divided notably Burke Jefferson Washington Laurens Emanuel, and Coffee and the sooner this is done the better. Small counties with county seats easily accessible. Will do a great deal toward building up the remote rural sections of this country. Give the country more centers. Legal Social, Religious and Educational centers, easily accessible to the surrounding territory and you have solved the rural problem. Among all the localities now asking

For new county seats.

Stillmore seems to have the most reasonable claim. Being on the extreme lower edge of Emanuel and the line of two other large counties the territory proposed to take from each of them would leave the county seats of each of them nearer in the center of the county. Then Stillmore has railroads leading out in six different directions with double daily passenger service on each making it an ideal location for a county. If they fail it will not be because they are not ideally located.

Liver Sufferers Rejoice

The Famous Pills of Dr. L. P. Herrington Have Been Placed on General Sale.

The citizens of Waynesboro, Georgia, and the adjacent districts have long been free from the liver and suffering attendant upon liver and stomach diseases and disorders. Their well known physician and surgeon, Dr. L. P. Herrington, dispensed among his patients and fellow townsmen a pill which worked positive wonders in all cases of biliousness, headache, neuralgia, indigestion, dyspepsia, malarial, bilious and other fevers. These pills came to be known as Dr. Herrington's Liver Pills for Georgia People and have long enjoyed a large sale throughout the home town and surrounding territory.

So great has the demand for these pills grown in recent years that a company has been formed and their preparation will be undertaken on a large scale so that the men, women and children of all sections of the South may enjoy the health restoring benefits of these marvelous little pills. The pills will be prepared under the close direction of Dr. Herrington and will be exactly the same as those put up by him in his private laboratory. They are pure, harmless, scientific and prompt and sure in action. They bring immediate relief and a speedy cure.

Waynesboro, Ga., Jan. 1st, 1913—1 heartily recommend Dr. Herrington's Liver Pills for Georgia People. I believe every home should have them in their medicine chest. C. W. SHINER, President Bank of Waynesboro, Merchant and Cotton Buyer.

Dr. Herrington's Liver Pills for Georgia People are 25¢ a box everywhere. If your dealer cannot supply you they will be sent direct, at once, upon receipt of the regular retail price, by the Herrington Company, Waynesboro, Ga.

Free Flower Seed For Readers of This Newspaper

We want to get in closer touch with you personally and with the people of this county. We want you to know what the great southern seed house, H. G. Hastings & Co., of Atlanta, is doing for the whole south in scientific plant-growing and agriculture.

With this idea in view, we have decided to offer to each reader of this newspaper a magnificent collection of flower seed, sent absolutely free to our customers. Write at once for our big free illustrated catalogue, being sure to mention the name of this newspaper. We pay the postage. The catalogue will tell you all about the way to take advantage of this free flower seed offer.

You should have flowers about your home. Our wives and daughters take naturally to flowers. This offer is made especially for them because we know it will interest them. But the catalogue tells, too, about our big cash price offer for the corn and beans we grow on our 3,000 acre farm. It's a catalogue that ought to be in every southern home. Write today and let us send it to you.

Like the Coffee of Paris You Can Drink It at Midnight

Try French Market Coffee on your own table—just once. Note its delicious aroma and flavor—its smoothness, its exhilaration. Drink several cups at midnight—compare it with other coffees.

The Original French Blend

FRENCH Market Coffee is the identical old French blend, brought to New Orleans by immigrants from Paris over a hundred years ago. Tourists and travelers know it. They rarely fail to visit the old French Market, when in New Orleans, to drink cup after cup of the marvelous coffee that has made the French Market world-famous.

Until the establishment of the French Market Mills and the perfecting of the new, air-tight, hermetically-sealed package, genuine French Market Coffee could be had nowhere else.

But now we are able to place this historic blend—a delicious French coffee, in your grocer's hands ready for your instant call.

Unlike Ordinary Coffees

WE import direct in original bags the famous Pan-American coffees, including the famous Blue Mountain Coffee of Jamaica, the choice of Guatemala, Caracas and Bogota.

This comes in ships, through warm summer seas. No cold climates affect, injuriously, the delicate coffee.

Y'OF will be offered "French" coffee stated to be "The same as French Market Coffee." You must be careful to see that the picture of the old French Market, with the name "French Market Coffee," is on the label.

This is the only genuine French Market Coffee.

Try it once and you'll agree "There is only one real old French Market flavor."

Beware of Imitations

THE total population now living under the American flag is 101,000,000, according to corrected figures announced by the census bureau in other day.

The twenty-one years are divided into two periods, the first ten years, 1890-1900, and the second of eleven years, 1900-1910. The production in the first period is estimated at $1,900,000,000.

During the second period of eleven years production amounted to $1,037,000,000.

MURRAY HAS PLAN

Controller of the Currency Is After Dishonest Bankers.

He Would Have Duplicate Reports Made by Him Once—Some of the "Tricks of the Trade" and How They Are Worked.

Washington.—The federal government has not yet found a way to prevent dishonest men from stealing from national banks, though it has worked at this problem for several years. L. O. Murray, controller of the currency, has, with the hope of aiding bank officials to detect dishonest employees, called attention to some of the latter day methods of "beating the bank."

Henry M. Dearing, cashier of the Algonquin National bank at Algonquin, Mich., is serving a term in prison. A search of the cashier's desk, after the closing of the bank, disclosed leaves revealing the cashier's method of "beating the bank." The enormous size of the credit balances aggregating $185,317.41, which, of course, represented the cash in the bank, was the result of the cashier's method of "beating the bank."

This method of "beating the bank" had been in vogue since the bank began business. The cashier told the examiner that he found no difficulty at all in deceiving the directors. The bills receivable were added by him on the books of the bank, and the number of bills prevented from coming into existence, as a result of their slaughter, Dr. Murray estimated, approximately one hundred million.

With the activity of Burdette and Steiner already mentioned, Washington, of being covered by fewer than 100,000 dollars, the cashier told the examiner that he found no difficulty at all in deceiving the directors. The bills receivable were added by him on the books of the bank, and the number of bills prevented from coming into existence, as a result of their slaughter, Dr. Murray estimated, approximately one hundred million.

HOW BIG FORTUNES MELT.

The flight of "heavy dollars" by speed of the late Mr. Walsh, of Washington, D. C., and his wife, was a "color" to the banking world. "The doctors" bills," he said, "may be correctly correct as I do not mean to criticize them. Mr. Walsh was a very rich man, but even the biggest fortunes melt under systematic application of improper management. His case was a warning to all who were wealthy like the Hope diamond, for which young McLean and his wife, who was Evelyn Walsh, are said to have paid $150,000, and which was worn by Mrs. McLean for the first time at a brilliant reception given by her last winter. But before the young man could wear the stone as her own she and her husband were sued for in the District of Columbia and great trouble and inconvenience were caused them."

"Movie" Men Balked.

There is one place on earth, anyhow, where moving picture men can't get, and that is in the White House grounds. A moving picture concern dressed up a rube farmer, and undertook to engineer him upon the White House grounds, so that a policeman might see him. The farmer, dressed up as a rube farmer, and undertook to engineer him upon the White House grounds, so that a policeman might see him. The farmer, dressed up as a rube farmer, and undertook to engineer him upon the White House grounds, so that a policeman might see him.

Plea for Revaccination.

American Medicine makes a strong plea in favor of revaccination. It says that the "perfect protective power of revaccination does not seem to be as widely known as it should be and there is urgent need of more publicity of the facts, now that there is a recrudescence of the anti-vaccination delusion." And, adds this standard American medical journal, "a primary vaccination causes only an evanescent immunity in many cases, and it is this fact which has been used so effectively by the anti-vaccinationists to convince the unreasoning that there is no immunity at all."

Would Have to Wait.

Mr. Marks was discussing the advisability of erecting a tomb for the several hundred years of the immediate family. Little Elizabeth listened impatiently. Finally she said with flashing eyes: "No, sir, I shall never go into a tomb with my grandmother. When the resurrection day comes, she'll be hanging on to me and saying, 'Wait, Elizabeth; you must let the others go first, and I'll never be resurrected.'"

Uncle Sam's Big Family.

FEEDING HENS WHEAT ALONE

Grain Does Not Contain Egg-Making Material in Proper Proportion—Corn is Even Worse.

Some years ago Prof. James Dryden delivered an address before the Utah Farmers' Institute, from which this extract is worthy of reproduction: "A short study of the composition of wheat and of eggs will explain why a profitable egg yield cannot be expected from wheat alone. Supposing you feed a hen which weighs 3.5 pounds 2.25 ounces of wheat a day. Of course, a hen of that weight would not long consume the weight of wheat alone. Supposing, further, then the hen uses 2.25 ounces of that for the maintenance of the body; that leaves half an ounce to be converted into eggs, assuming that all food is digested, which, of course, is not the case. In half an ounce of wheat there is about .08 of an ounce of protein. So that assuming that the hen consumes and digests 2.25 ounces of wheat per day; and that she uses 2.25 ounces of that for maintenance of her body, there is available each day just one-fourth enough egg protein for an egg."

"In other words, it will take four days to get the necessary amount of protein for one egg. But the egg of other constituents; so that wheat, the half ounce of wheat contains about one and one-half times as much carbohydrate and fat as one egg contains. The hen fed on wheat alone has a surplus of one material. In other words, she has enough carbohydrate and fat to make an egg and a half day, but she has only protein enough to make one egg in six days. You place the hen in an awkward position by feeding her wheat alone."

"Wheat does not contain the egg-making materials in proper proportion. Corn is even worse than wheat in this respect."

HANDY FOR THE POULTRYMAN

At their present price eggs occupy the same relation to foods that diamonds do to jewels, and because of the price that any old egg will bring, good, fresh eggs are all the harder to get. An Indiana man has invented an apparatus by means of which eggs may be surely tested. A powerful lamp has a conical metal tube fitting over it and around the tube is a perforated cylinder. Light is directed downward, through the cylinder, and around the tube, and the light is reflected back up the tube, and the light is reflected back up the tube, and the light is reflected back up the tube.

Light Deflected Downward.
