In the Republican Camp.

The Taft forces are worried and the Roosevelt whoopers up are claiming the universe, but the former are still far in the lead. Even after Illinois, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Nebraska, Oregon and North Carolina were heard from, the figures read: Taft, 388; Roosevelt, 239; LaFollette, 36; Cummins, 4. In the end these figures may be modified, for many delegates are claimed by both sides, but if Taft can hold his 388 delegates, he will need to gain only 149. Among the states yet to elect delegates are the follow-

During this week state conventions will elect delegates at large from Iowa, Rhode Island and Missouri and district conventions will be held in Missouri, Indiana, Rhode Island, Iowa and Louisiana.
 As the total number of delegates involved is not large there is not likely to be much change for the next seven days.

 One would think that only a tidal wave for Roosevelt could prevent the capture of 149 delegates for Taft out of all these States. But the uncertainty is intensified by the unreliability of the bread and butter delegates from the South who are always for the man with the best chances of success irrespective of every consideration.

While Roosevelt may fail of the nomination, his violent methods may produce two Republican factions so irreconcilable as to render a compromise on a third for the nomination imperative. Already there is talk of inducing Justice Hughes to resign from the supreme court in order to take the lead in his troubled party.—Macon Tele-

WILSON LEADERS CON- FIDENT OF WINNING IN COMING PRIMARY

(Augusta Herald.)
 Mr. D. G. Fogarty has just returned to the city from Atlanta, where he had a conference with a number of Governor Woodrow Wilson's friends and he brings back the report that the Wilson leaders are sanguine of carrying the state for the New Jersey man and they enthusiastically predict that Fulton county will go for Wilson by at least 3,000 majority.
 "There is no question but that Fulton county is very strong for Governor Wilson," said Mr. Fogarty Friday, "and that he will carry that county and also the state, is the firm conviction of the Wilson leaders."

"Wilson has been gaining strength each day for some time and the people are beginning to realize the real truth about the opposition to Wilson in Georgia," Mr. Fogarty says that the Wilson leaders feel that the outcast educator and politician will be nominated or elected by ballot and with his nomination also will go his election, since the Republicans are so hopelessly split between Taft and Roosevelt.

NEGRO FLOOD REFUGEE IS LYNCHED BY MOB

Monroe, La.—Company D, of the Louisiana national guard stationed at Monroe, left here at 9 o'clock this morning for Delhi, 30 miles east, where serious trouble with negroes developed last night. One negro was lynched and further trouble was anticipated. The company is in command of Capt. Philip Gayle.

The trouble which resulted in the lynching is attributed to the silliness and impudence of negro flood refugees, many of whom have refused to work since the government began distributing free rations among them. Yesterday several negroes were playing a slot machine in a store at Delhi, when an officer stepped in and put a penny in the machine.

With an oath, a negro is alleged to have stepped up and tried to put the officer out, declaring, "I'm playing dat machine."
 After the white man had given the negro a good beating the latter is said to have threatened violence to white people in Delhi.
 During the night a crowd gathered, caught the negro and lynched him.

At noon Delhi was reported quiet.

VOTERS OF THIS COUNTY!

Wednesday is election day. For the first time in history Georgians will have an opportunity of expressing their choice in an election for the members of the Democratic party. What will your choice be?
 There are but two candidates in Georgia, Hon. Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama and Hon. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey. Other names will appear on the ticket, but as is well known and not denied, the race is between these two. Although Messrs. Clark and Sherman would like to see their names put on the ticket, because they did not care to make a contest in Georgia against the son of a mother state, their request was denied. However, while other states have not done so, it was (perhaps) to put all of these names on the ticket. But the race is between Mr. Underwood and Mr. Wilson. The question is whether Georgians who, for the first time have an opportunity to express their choice, prefer Oscar Underwood of Alabama or Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey.

Oscar W. Underwood has 44 years experience in the halls of Congress and he is recognized, North, East, South and West, as the leader of the Democratic party, one of the greatest men in public life today.
 It is remarkable that in a campaign lasting for over two months not one syllable has been produced against his record, which is as clean as snow. He has always supported the Democratic nominees. His party record is above reproach. If nominated, he would have nothing to explain or apologize for. These things make him a most attractive and formidable candidate.

HIGH COST OF LIVING.
 Oscar W. Underwood is admitted by every living man to be the greatest apostle of the lower tariff. For seventeen years, day in and day out, he has labored with the tariff question, with a view to reducing the tariff to the necessities of life. The tariff is an enemy every man understands. Every man knows and no man denies that high tariff is responsible for the high cost of living. The reason is simple. By putting a high tariff on any article, it means in America that no one can get that article from abroad. The American, therefore, must produce it at home. This is a tariff wall has been built around the people of America and today food and clothing cost a great deal more than it did ten years ago. Every month you and your family pay costs much more and you daily pay a heavy toll to the tariff barons. How long shall this condition exist? The answer is, just as long as you permit it. How can you rid yourself of this awful tariff burden? The answer is, by getting a lower tariff or removing it entirely from the necessities of life. How can you remove this tariff? By voting for the man who favors removing the tariff from the necessities of life.

Oscar W. Underwood presented to Congress a tariff bill, and successfully put it through. Taft vetoed it. If the Underwood bill had become law, you would today be spending just one-half as much money for the many necessities of life. The bill met the wishes of the farmers with free agricultural implements and free fence wire; the cotton growers with free bagging and ties; the builders with free lumber, laths and shingles; the poor weavers and farmers' wives with free sewing machines; and the great masses of the country and city folk with free meat, free leather and shoes, free salt, free flour and free cereals. Of course, this does not mean that you would have gotten these things free of charge, but it means that a duty of 50 per cent would have been removed from them and that you would have gotten them just about one-half as cheap as you get them now.

FREE SUGAR.
 Mr. Underwood recently presented to Congress a bill to take the tariff off of sugar. It has been passed by the house of representatives. The government would lose fifty million dollars a year by this, but Mr.
 Underwood provided a way of making up this loss. It was to tax the incomes of the rich—to put a small tax on every man's bank book where he had an income exceeding five thousand dollars. Thus it took the tax off of the poor man's stomach and put it on the rich man's bank book.
 The tariff is the one great burning question before the American people and it can be settled, and should be settled, in this election.

We have naught to say against Hon. Woodrow Wilson or any other candidate in the field. We cannot, however, agree with him, or understand how he can say, as he did in his Atlanta speech and in a dozen other speeches in Georgia, "Why discuss the tariff? Because it is a question that affects every mother's son of us." The tariff baron is knowing at his wits. The burden is too great for us to bear.

By voting for Hon. Oscar Underwood, you vote for the one man running in Georgia in this election who insists that the tariff is the one great question, and who will, and who is obligated, if elected, to give you relief.

UNDERWOOD'S CHANCES.
 We do not advocate Mr. Underwood solely because he is a Southern man; that is but one of his qualities.
 That, but we do think that now, when the South for the first time in fifty years, has an opportunity to put a Southerner in the White House, she should not shrink because she fears he might not be nominated.
 There are some seven or eight Democratic candidates in the field, and no candidate will have a majority of votes on the first ballot at Baltimore, where the Democratic convention will be held. Under the rules of the Democratic party, the man who is nominated must get two-thirds of the vote in the convention. While the other candidates have been touring the country, making speeches, stirring up hard feeling, which is always caused by an active political campaign, Mr. Underwood has remained at his post of duty, and is the one candidate who has refused to leave it. As a result, he has the second choice with nearly all the candidates and will be with nearly all the delegates. Can it not then be seen that when the convention gets deadlocked, Mr. Underwood will be the natural man for the others to turn to when they see that their favorite cannot be nominated?

If it looks now as if the solid South will be for Underwood. No candidate in the history of either party has ever secured the nomination or been elected without the vote of New York. New York will have an important delegation at the convention, and then can vote as they please, except that the rule will prevent and they must all vote solidly for the same man. How will New York vote? The Democratic state committee of New York has adopted resolutions endorsing the tariff measures of Mr. Underwood and condemning the initiative, referendum and recall, which are the main policies advocated by Governor Wilson.
 The New York Herald and other great Eastern papers say that it looks as if Mr. Underwood will get the New York vote. It is, therefore, idle and foolish to say he has no chance, and Southern people should be the last to make such a statement. It is only made in this state, with an object of defeating Mr. Underwood.

WILL CARRY 100 COUNTIES.
 Georgia is going for Underwood. The Atlanta Constitution has just completed a later canvass of the state. They sought the opinion of eighteen hundred prominent Georgians, both Wilson and Underwood men, and this poll showed that Underwood would carry over one hundred counties in Georgia. The same method was pursued by The Constitution last December in the race for governor, and the forecast at that time as between Joe Brown, Pope Brown and Dick Russell, was so accurate that they did not miss it more than five counties in the case of any one man. Let every man vote his conviction and let Georgia endorse the record of Mr. Underwood. To vote against Mr. Underwood is to refuse to endorse the unflinching record made by the Democratic party this year in Congress.

THE ISSUE BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

Tomorrow (Wednesday) the people of Georgia will be called on to go to the polls and register their choice between certain men and certain principles, viz.: The selection of the state's choice for a delegation to the National Democratic Convention, the vote being direct for the Presidential candidates.

We have before us, asking for our suffrage, a man a citizen of an adjoining state, the floor leader of the Democrats in Congress, an excellent gentleman, and one who, if nominated, would stand only a fair chance of election, and if elected would make a splendid President, but who stands no more chance of nomination than the average voter does who casts his vote Wednesday; therefore, a vote for Oscar W. Underwood means to nullify the vote of the greatest state east of the Mississippi and south of the Potomac rivers; it means to place your ballot in the hands of a man who will carry it to Baltimore at the head of the Georgia delegation and trade and traffic on it, and if he fails in landing his choice will bolt the convention and set up a third party with himself as its leader. It means that if the Democrats should win over all these obstacles that Georgians will be ashamed to show their heads in Washington, and the recognition that the Empire State of the South is daily entitled to will be a shameful and remorseless approach through the back door, as it were.

On the other hand, we have in the person of Governor Woodrow Wilson a native raised Georgian,—a man who, when he went to look around for a life partner, wooed and won a Georgia girl for a wife,—a man who has been honored by the State of New Jersey as its chief executive, and who has redeemed the worst trust-ridden state in the Union and restored it back to the hands of the people. A clean man who stands for high ideals, and who is hailed as a leader from ocean to ocean; who is a strong contender before the people at the polls at every polling place from Maine to California; who now has a substantial lead over all other candidates, and who has not a single delegate to his credit who hasn't been selected by the unbought and untrammelled vote of the people of their respective states.

In Woodrow Wilson, the people have a champion of their rights a man who was big enough to say to Big Boss Jim Smith: "You can't take your fifteen thousand dollar contribution to the Democratic campaign fund and corrupt the Governor and Legislature of the State of New Jersey."

In Woodrow Wilson, you have a man who has an iron will that will stand out against all encroachments of the powerful trusts that are choking the life-blood out of legitimate commerce, and a man gentle enough to recognize the rights of the humblest citizen on the American continent.

Governor Wilson has no giant campaign fund, contributed by either the steel trust or the Standard Oil trust, to send hired heelers to advise you how to vote, but he depends on the patriotism and consciences of the great masses of the Democrats of Georgia on Wednesday next to walk up to the polls and register their choice in the manner that all free born American citizens are expected to do;—then the result will tell how Georgia stands.

THOMPSON'S NECK SAVED BY SHERIFF!

Dublin, Ga.—A lynching was narrowly averted in Dublin, Tuesday night by the presence of mind of Sheriff J. J. Flanders, who moved Steve Thompson from the county jail and hid him, before the mob that was forming was able to get ready. All the afternoon of Tuesday rumors were on the street that an effort was to be made to lynch Thompson, and late that afternoon the matter assuaged serious proportions. A little later, the man referred to after dark, Sheriff Flanders took Thompson and stated plainly that the prisoner out of the city secret, there was talk of an attempt to lynch him, and he hid him, no one but him, lynch him during the night. He self knowing where. He then, as told by the sheriff that Thompson was not in the jail, and that whenever the men came he was down calmly to wait developments, willing to let them in the jail and months. About 9 o'clock two men, let them search for the man. Both one of whom was claimed to be a man left shortly after and that was among the leaders in the effort to the best heard of the matter that lynch Thompson, came to the jail night. About 100 men gathered and were met by Mr. Flanders on around the river bridge Tuesday the front porch. During the night, and it is probable that the course of the conversation which men who talked to the sheriff were from that gathering. There was a great many people here to witness the trial of Thompson for the murder of Mrs. Ella Doston and her son, John Dean, and the wounding of Edgar Dean, from the section where the crime was committed, and the feeling is very strong against him.
