SENATE LIFTS DIRECT TAX ON GEORGIA DOGS

Substitute Bill Passes, Making Him Personal Property The Original To Repeal.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 12.—The annual speeches in defense of the faithful dog, delayed the Georgia Senate with waves of oratory this morning, when a bill to repeal the dog tax, sponsored by Messrs Edwards, Kincaid and Oliver, was placed upon its passage. The bill was favored by the Senate in substitute. The committee changes made dogs personal property and allowed the owners to return their valuation with their personal property. It made the dog tax an ad valorem tax. The committee's substitute was adopted by a liberal vote.

Senator Dickinson was the strong supporter of the original bill. Bills passed in Senate: By Senator Edwards, Kincaid and Oliver—To make the tax on dogs ad valorem instead of special. By Senator Felker—To allow newspapers to exchange advertising for mileage.

By Turner and Jones—To incorporate the town of Gray, Jones County.

By Hall, of Echols—To elect judge of county court by popular votes.

By Le Sueur, of Crawford—To fix the time of holding superior court in Crawford County.

By Kent of Montgomery—To change the time of holding superior court in Montgomery County.

By Melton, of Terrell—To prohibit sale of near-bear in Terrell County.

By Melton, of Terrell—To amend act establishing city court of Dawson.

By Hiers, of Colquitt—To establish a board of county commissioners of Colquitt County.

By Stephens, of Johnson—To change the time of holding superior court in Johnson County.

By Nix and Wilson of Gwinnett—To amend act establishing a board of county commissioners.

By McCurry, of Hart—To abolish city court of Hartwell.

By Lort and Jones, of Washington—To amend act chartering the town of Tennesse.

By Senator Harris—To make Rockmart, Polk County, a state depository.

By Fields, of DeKalb—To amend act establishing board of road and revenue for DeKalb County.

By Belwine, of Fayette—To amend charter of Fayetteville.

By Youmans and Waller, of Emanuel—To amend act establishing city court of Swainsboro.

By Alexander, of DeKalb—To amend charter of Decatur.

By Slade and Wohlander, of Muscogee—To provide for election of judge and solicitor of city court of Columbus.

By Beck, of Brooks—To provide for a city court for Quitman.

By Green, of Ellingham—To change time of holding superior court of Ellingham.

HOOPER ALEXANDER INGOVERNOR RACE?

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 12.

Is Gov. Hoke Smith going to Hooper Alexander, of DeKalb, as a candidate for the gubernatorial succession?

Signs protest that this is the trend. It is known that no one yet in the field or "among those mentioned," is believed to represent sufficient strength to carry the Smith wing to success in the gubernatorial Marathon.

It is rumored that Governor Smith and his close advisors have about decided that the gentleman from DeKalb is the man on whom their strength should be concentrated. If he does run, of course, he will run on a prohibition platform, and this may bring the liquor question into sharp issue in the campaign.

Mr. Alexander has always been a most ardent champion of Governor Smith, personally and politically. He has pressed Smith reforms in the legislature and before the people. The governor's senator has no stronger personal friends or more ardent political followers than Mr. Alexander.

So there is no doubt that he would be more acceptable to the governor personally than almost any other man. That he will make the race on the Smith platform, supplemented by a straight prohibition issue is the growing belief here.

Mr. Alexander's strenuous fight to force the Tipkins bill through is an indication that he wants the people of the state to know what he is doing to help prohibition. Mr. Alexander's entry would probably result in immediately forcing ex-Governor Brown into the race. Mr. Alexander is almost a successful campaigner as Governor Smith.

ANDERSON OPENS UNDERTAKING PARLORS

Attention is called to the announcement of Messrs. E. M. Anderson & Son in this issue of the opening of their new Undertaking Parlor on South Main street. A few days ago the funeral car for this business arrived. It is the best ever seen in Statesboro. The new firm is equipped to handle the business in their line.

YOUNG BOYS FINED FOR FIGHTING.

This morning Mayor McDonald imposed a small fine on Leon Wood and Clarence Hulst, charged with fighting Sunday afternoon at the Central depot. During the fight sticks and brick bats were used pretty freely. Young Wood suffered a severe gash on his forehead from a stick used by Hulst.

S. & S. RAILWAY LEASES WAREHOUSE.

It is reported that the Savannah & Statesboro Railway has leased the large brick warehouse from the Statesboro Storage & Commission Company, on their tracks fronting on Vine street. The report states that Mr. Bruce Donaldson will be the weigher during the cotton season. Owing to the fact that Superintendent Baer is out of town the report could not be confirmed.

LIGHTNING KILLS MULE AND INJURES OWNER.

On Saturday afternoon a heavy thunder storm came up over the farm of Mr. Joseph Braumen, out on the Ogeechee River side. Mr. Braumen was hauling lumber at the time, returning from the mill with a loaded wagon to which was hitched a pair of mules. In order to escape the rain he drove up under a pine tree and took shelter. A clap of lightning struck the tree against which he was leaning, and the current ran down the tree within about a foot of Mr. Braumen's head, jumped off the tree and killed the mule standing nearest. The other mule was badly stunned, one eye being put out. Mr. Braumen was badly injured, being knocked down, and remained unconscious for some time afterwards. At last accounts he had recovered.

RUNAWAY CONVICT ROUNDED UP.

This morning Sheriff Donaldson brought in Gus Gilchrist, a chain gang convict who has been at large for the past year or more. Gus was rounded up in August, where he was picked up by one of the detectives in answer to a reward of twenty-five dollars for his arrest. The negro was sent to the gang on a charge of cheating and swindling. He was taken out to the camps this morning.

CHESTER ALLEN.

On Sunday afternoon at the residence of Judge E. D. Holland in Statesboro, Miss Mamie Chester and Mr. Lewis Allen were united in marriage. Judge Holland officiating. The young lady had gone with her parents to spend the day on Sunday at a neighbor's house and on the return home she joined her sweet-heart, and the young couple drove to town and the nuptial knot was tied.

KIRK'S NEW LIFE PILLS

The Pills That Do Cure.

IN LOVED UNIFORM GORDON IS BURIED.

Memphis, Tenn., August 12.—Clad in the loved uniform of Confederate gray, the body of General George W. Gordon, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans and member of congress from the tenth Tennessee district, was laid to rest in Elmwood cemetery today. General Gordon died in this city Wednesday after an extended illness.

Veterans of the Confederate and Union armies, representatives of the nation and state, county of Shelby and municipality of Memphis, as well as descendants of soldiers who fought for the north and the south in the civil war, joined in paying tribute to the dead. Former foes marched side by side in the military procession that formed a conspicuous part of a funeral cortege more than a mile in length. The drum corps and old soldiers were followed by the congressional delegation from the national capital and in turn came state dignitaries and county and city officials who proceeded hundreds of motor cars and other vehicles containing friends and admirers of General Gordon.

The procession passed from the courthouse, where the body had rested at the headquarters of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans since Thursday, to the Second Presbyterian church, where a brief service was conducted by the Rev. R. Linn Cave, of Nashville, chaplain general of the confederate veterans' organization. The general procession ended at the church, the military guard of honor, pallbearers and General Gordon's official staff accompanying the body to the cemetery.

Active pallbearers were composed of close friends of General Gordon residing in this city. They were named by him several months ago, as follows:
J. P. Young, W. W. Carnes, L. S. Lake, E. Q. Withers, R. E. Bullington, A. R. Taylor and L. D. Scott.

The delegation of members of the national house of representatives attending the funeral was composed of Representatives Padgett, Houston, Garrett, Hull, Byrnes, Austin and Sells, of Tennessee; Richardson, Alabama; Lamb and Slem, Virginia; Cravens, Arkansas; Thistlewood, Illinois; Kahn, California; Bradley, New York, and Dunthony, Kansas.

MOVING-PICTURE SHOW FOR STATESBORO.

Mr. T. H. Browning, accompanied by his wife, arrived from Douglas, this morning. Mr. Browning called at the News office and stated that he had leased one of the new brick buildings near the garage, and some time next week would open a moving picture show here. He states that nothing but first class films will be used, and the patronage of the best people will be expected. We Don't Tell

"It's funny," says Sam Wisecare, "I was in the bank the other day and just thought I'd find out much old Skimm had on deposit. But do you think they would tell me? No sir, they wouldn't. Politely informed me that it was against their rules to give information about anybody's account." That's right. It is the policy of this bank to hold in strict confidence every transaction of whatever nature. We want all of our customers to have confidence in us and we strive to earn this confidence by not talking about matters entrusted to us.

DEBROSSE-WILSON. NEWTON RAISES GIANT CORN.

This afternoon, at six o'clock, Mr. O. M. Wilson led Miss Louise DeBrosse to the altar, at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. George DeBrosse, in East Statesboro.

The bride is one of Statesboro's prettiest and most accomplished young ladies, having graduated with high honors from the Statesboro Institute this summer. The bridegroom is a former Bulloch county young man, but is now engaged in business at Bainbridge, Ga. The happy young couple will leave for their home at Bainbridge tomorrow morning.

BROOKLET GETS HER FIRST BALE.

Mr. J. B. Martin received the honor of hauling the first bale of cotton here this season. It weighed 455 pounds and was sold to Mr. J. C. Lanier for 12 1-8, it classed good middling. The Brooklet ginney pulled off her first bale last season on Aug. 10th, so the first bale this season was one day later.

Eighty-eight per cent of all trades are closed to men and boys who are known to be saloon patrons. In spite of this fact the saloon advocates claim that the saloon is a respectable institution and a valuable adjunct to our industrial life.

"Yes?"

"He was an English servant named

Dogkott, who is—or once was—a valet in the service of an old friend, a man named Rutton."

She repeated the name. "Rutton?"

It seemed to her I've heard of him."

"You have?"

"I don't remember," she confessed, knitting her level brows. "The name has a familiar ring, somehow. But about the valet?"

"Well, I was very intimate with my employer for a long time, though we never met for several years. Rutton was a strange creature, a man of extraordinary genius, who lived a friendless, solitary life—at least, so far as I knew. I once lived with him somewhat curious circumstance that nothing whatever was missing from the personal effects of the Quins, forced him to make an explanation.

For his own belongings had been ripped and the broken box of

In its place Amber found a soiled words: "Pardon, sahib. A mistake has which is not yours to possess. There will be naught else taken. A thou-

It is reported that Alf Harrington would enter the race for congress in the new twelfth against Dudley Hughes. Then we may expect to see the fur fly.

By all means let Hooper Alexander go in the race for Governor. There is one thing about Hooper and that is, you can always find where he is at.

Cotton is coming in rather slow, only about twenty-five bales having been received here up to the present time during the season. Good cotton is selling at eleven and a half cents in this market.

If Hoke Smith saves the people of Georgia one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in needless appropriations, maybe there is some virtue in his having stayed at home after all.

Five thousand bottle of beer are said to have been consumed at the Macon barbecue where two hundred members of the Georgia Legislature were fed and drenched a few days ago. These tactics were once applied to scoundrel brother in black, now they are working "on off" on the people elected to look after the interests of the people.

TIPPINS BILL GOES BY FOR SESSION.

The famous Tippins anti-beer bill which has had the attention of the legislature and the public in general for the past week or two, was side-tracked by the House Rules Committee yesterday, which settles its fate for the session. In the event it was taken up by the house and passed, it would be impossible for it to get through the senate in time to become a law this time.

RE-APPORTIONMENT BILL PASSES HOUSE.

It is now certain that the re-apportionment bill making twelve districts in Georgia will be passed this session. It went through the house on yesterday by practically a unanimous vote and has been transmitted to the senate, which is said to be pretty nearly solid for the measure.

Under the bill the First congressional district loses two counties—Emanuel and Toombs being transferred to the new twelfth district. This will leave ten counties in the First, with Bulloch on the upper end of it. This bill also settles the congressional bounds of two aspirants, as far as this district is concerned, it takes both Enoch Giles of Toombs and Alf Harrington of Emanuel.

Ware county is now about the liveliest section in all South Georgia. The folks down there are busy advertising the advantages of their section. We understand that they expect at least a thousand home seekers in that county during the coming winter.

IMITATION BUTTER FACTORY IS RAIDED

Uncle Sam's Men Break in the Doors of Hopkins' Parlor Stand Catch Two.

Atlanta, Ga., 12.—Battering down the doors of Thomas Hopkins' Parlor Butter stand at 186 Whitehall-st., at 9 o'clock Tuesday night, Revenue Agent J. H. Surber and Deputies J. J. Drakeford, H. L. Scott and J. W. Martin closed in on two employees, C. C. Hubbard and George Winfrey, while in the act of coloring oleomargarine by wholesale.

Arrested them and captured about 500 pounds of the finished goods and the apparatus. The breaking in at the doors brought down ten city detectives and policemen who had been tipped off that a burglary was being committed. Revenue Agent Surber quickly informed the police of what was doing, and his men were let alone.

As the revenue men came in the door, Hubbard and Winfrey turned down the light by which they were working.

At 11:30 o'clock the revenue men raided the residence of Thomas Hopkins, but he was not to be found. The officers are now looking for him, as the business he is considered the chief offender.

Hubbard and Winfrey were at the Federal building during the night and had a preliminary examination before Commissioner N. A. Brown Wednesday morning. They were held to the Federal grand jury in $500 bond each.

They were represented by attorneys and have made no statement. The government authorities have taken careful samples of the stuff which will be preserved as evidence. The bulk of it will be put in cold storage.

For twenty-two days the revenue agents have relentlessly been on the trail of the law-breakers, as evidence had accumulated that someone was putting a great deal of colored oleomargarine on the Atlanta market as creamery butter. It is estimated that over 200 pounds was daily sold and that the head operator must be mopping up a profit of at least $30 daily by swindling the government out of its just tax, and defrauding the public by selling colored oleomargarine as first class creamery butter.

If there is one thing Uncle Sam is strict about it is the protection of consumers of colored oleomargarine. The government statutes requires that every dealer shall publicly brand the stuff as oleomargarine and let every customer

Charges Nickel For Shave Dollar For Wedding.

There are frequently married in the police court couples who, to escape prosecution decide that it is better to live together as man and wife. These weddings are mostly among the citizens of Darktown. A license has to be secured and the services of a preacher obtained of course.

Now, there is in a barber shop on Decatur street, within a few doors of the police station, a negro barber who is also a preacher. This barber-preacher has no eye to business and makes much extra coin, as he can. He caught on to the police court weddings and soon established himself as the official police court preacher. He made a fixed charge of $1 for each wedding. He has become so well known that he now has a monopoly of the wedding business in the police court.

This barber-preacher is named J. W. Spearman. He was a preacher before he was a barber, but finding that dispensing the gospel was not remunerative enough he took up the trade of a barber. Preaching is now a side line.

Barber-preacher Spearman, it is said makes from $15 to $20 a month as the official "tie-man" of a number of knots under police jurisdiction. When he first began to preside over police court weddings, in the goodness of his heart he gave credit. But he soon found out that his kindness was imposed upon. His rate of $1 per wedding is now a strictly cash basis.

Many people who pass along Decatur street have read with wonder a sign on which was printed: "Shaving 5c; hair cutting, 10c; couples married for $1 each." While Barber-preacher Spearman's marriage ceremonies are very brief, he says that they are long enough to be binding and elaborate enough to constitutional a full $1 worth.

know what he is buying.

The government tax on colored oleomargarine is 10 cents, on uncolored oleomargarine only one-fourth of one cent. A cunning dealer can buy coloring matter for as long as any drug store, and two teapoonfuls will richly color as much as 60 pounds of the stuff. A dealer who is violating the law can buy the white oleomargarine from the packing houses at 10 to 15 cents per pound, color it and get 30 to 50 cents per pound for it as creamery butter.

The penalty is a heavy fine or imprisonment, or both. Revenue Agent Surber and his staff of deputies were warmly congratulated Wednesday over the capture and uncovering of a scheme to defraud under consumers of Atlanta.

Last November they captured a colored oleo maker, and they kept so thoroughly in touch with the butter market that a crooked dealer can not get by with the scheme for any length of time in Atlanta.

Attack Like Tigers.

In fighting to keep the blood pure the white corpuses attack disease germs like tigers. But often germs multiply so fast the little fighters are overcome. Then see the pimples, boils, eczema, salt rheum and sores multiply and strength and appetite fall. This condition demands Electric Bitters to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to expel poisons from the blood. "They are the best blood purifier," writes C. T. Budahn, of Tracy, Calif., "I have ever found." They make rich, red blood, strong nerves and build up your health. Try them. 50c. at W. H. Ellis Co.

LAURENS VOTERS HEAR POPE BROWN

Judge Russell Was Absent and Joint Debate Did Not Take Place.

Dublin, Ga., August 19 (Special).—Hon. Pope Brown spoke at Dublin today to a crowd estimated at 3,000.

Judge Russell was not present and there was no joint debate. The speech of Mr. Brown was little different from his Waycross speech.

There was plenty of dinner for every one and the Dublin concert band furnished music for the occasion.

In the forenoon there were some speed exhibitions by some of the local autoists which hardly could be called races, however, as there were no regular entries.

The speech delivered by Mr. Brown was well received by those who were present.

Not A Pair of Bloomers For The Woman Convict.

Iola, Kan., August 10.—D. B. D. Smeltz, judge of the municipal court here, was defeated in his effort to enforce his judgment that Mrs. Ella Reese, a city prisoner convicted of a vicious offense, should don bloomers and join the men members of the chaingang in working on the streets.

There were three reasons for this. First, the judge was unable to find a pair of bloomers in the town; second, his order was defied by Commissioner G. C. Glynn, and third the people here apparently had sympathy with the woman.

Unable to find the sort of attire ordered by Judge Smeltz, the jailer delivered Mrs. Reese to the foreman of the street department dressed in her usual clothing. Commissioner Glynn ordered the foreman to return her to jail at once. "I will not permit a woman prisoner to do such work," he said. "It is a disgrace even to suggest such a thing."

When Judge Smeltz learned that his orders had not been obeyed, he said emphatically that Mrs. Reese must go to work.

"If she does not work," said the judge, "she will stay in jail until she concludes to obey the court."

TENANT HOUSE BURNED.

On Thursday night a tenant house on the farm of Mr. F. D. Fletcher, near the city was burned. Henry Harmon and wife, colored, were living in the house at the time. The contents including nearly half a bale of cotton belonging to Mr. Fletcher were destroyed. The negroes were away from home at the time. Saturday afternoon Harmon's wife created a scene on the street corner near the Simmons Company, by weeping while the throng passed. Marshall Kendrick inquired the occasion of so much weeping and waiting on the public streets, the answer was: "They excuse me of burning my own home." Marshall Kendrick allowed one tear to drop on his club and ordered the woman to dry away her tears and move on or she would be run in. She moved on.

Attorney at Law, Statesboro, Ga.

IN MEMORY OF J. H. WOODS.

On the morning of Dec. 16th, 1910, the spirit of our dear grandfather passed away, making his stay on earth 92 years and 24 days. Since he lost his dear companion about 10 years ago, he resided with his daughter, Mrs. Penne Pelot, and was very feeble for several years before his death. He had never joined the church but was a firm believer in the Primitive Baptist, and said he wanted to join 30 years ago, but felt too unworthy, so we have the assurance that the dear aged man is sweetly resting with his Saviour and loved ones gone before. He and grandmother always attended church faithfully as long as they were able to go. Oh, our hearts are full when we recall the many happy hours spent with our grandparents in their peaceful, quiet home, in years gone by. They were always kind to every one, and especially to the very poor and needy.

Grandfather suffered greatly, and was almost blind in his last illness. He was a man of great vitality, and never would give up only from pure exhaustion. He left two children, ten grandchildren, and twelve great-grandchildren. His funeral was preached by Elder A. W. Patterson, who spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family, after which the body was interred beside his companion in the old Grimsbury burying ground.

"Far-well dear ones, but not forever. There will be a glorious dawn. We shall meet to part no more, On the resurrection morn."

Thou hast gone on just before us, O'er the river dark and cold, And ere long we'll go and meet thee, On the streets of shining gold.

Some may think we'll soon forget thee, And our wounded hearts be healed, But they little know the sorrow That is in our hearts concealed.

Forget thee? O, when life shall cease To thrill this heart of mine And not till then shall I forget One look or tone of thine.

Oh, my Saviour, how we miss him, But he is before thy throne. Help us to submit, dear Saviour, Gracious Lord Thy will be done. Written by his grand-children, Florence E. Pelot, John H. Pelot.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE AT HUBERT.

The third Quarterly Conference of the Guyton charge will be held at MacDonnell church, Hubert, next Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 19 and 20. Dinner at the church on Saturday, Rev. W. F. Smith, the presiding elder, will preside both days. The public are cordially invited to attend.

CLINT DO.

The farmers of the Clinton are most thorough and rapid, and the cotton is coming in rapidly, both long and short.

Oh, what a reckoning happened Sunday afternoon at Dover! A crowd of boys were in bathing in a public place where there was a sign to be passing.

The protracted meeting started at Macedonia Sunday and will continue one week, so far as known.

Quite a crowd attended Sunday school at Clito Sunday afternoon. Misses Ida and Tena Story, of Graniteville, S. C., are visiting their friends, Misses Fannie and Mary Strouse, near Clito.

Quite a crowd near Clito attended services at Middle Ground last Sunday.

Mrs. W. R. Newton, who has been confined to her bed, is improving slightly.

Mrs. Annie Ford was in our midst last week.

The little sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Strouse took a pleasant goat ride Sunday afternoon, and their son Rufus has treated himself to a new buggy.

Mr. C. H. Anderson has closed a trade for the old Guyton shop lot with Mr. J. F. Fields and will erect at an early date a large concrete livery stable there. The lot faces on Vine street, seventy-two feet and runs back about one hundred and fifty feet. The building will probably cover the entire lot. The price paid for the lot was three thousand dollars. Mr. Fields bought it in at administrator's sale about one year ago for fifteen hundred dollars.

OIL MILL GINNEY IN OPERATION.

Parties having cotton ready for the gin can now be accommodated at the Bulloch Oil Mill Ginney, which started up last week. During the summer the gins have been thoroughly overhauled and new machinery added, and they now have perhaps the best equipped plant in this section of Georgia. The management announces that they can now take care of a hundred bales of cotton per day. So there will be no long waits if you carry your cotton to the Bulloch Oil Mill Ginney. The chances are you can get it ginned while you wait, and take it on to market.

The Cause of Eczema.

is germ life that burrows under and feeds on the skin. The way to cure ECZEMA is to remove the cause by washing away with a clean, penetrating liquid, the germ life and poisons that cause the trouble.

We have a preparation that will do this. The first application will stop the itching and give prompt relief to an irritated, itching or flamed skin. If you are a sufferer from skin or scalp eruption in any form, try one bottle of this clean scientific preparation, we are confident you will be pleased with the results from the use of this standard preparation for eczema.

REMER CONE IS WATERMELON KING.

Mr. R. H. Cone, of Hubert, was in town one day this week. Mr. Cone comes from the very heart of the watermelon growing section of Bulloch county and that means Georgia. Mr. Cone has the reputation of growing better and larger watermelons than any man in the state. He shipped thirteen cars, raised on sixteen acres, using about one hundred dollars worth of fertilizers. Mr. Cone sold his melons on the track at the station and received over nine hundred dollars for them, realizing about sixty dollars per acre, net after all expenses had been deducted. He now has a fine field of new vine hay growing, and expects to reap two tons per acre, adding forty dollars more in one year. One hundred dollars per acre net on Briar Patch. District land is said to be farming some. But it has been done before. Mr. Cone had other melons and other crops, but he kept tab on this particular patch and the above is the result of his transaction the present year.

COTTON BEGINNING TO ROLL IN.

The Statesboro cotton market begins to show signs of old time activity. About thirty or forty bales a day are coming in now, and the number is increasing daily. The samples received so far are of good staple and well prepared. The ruling price is 11 1/2 cents.

But it now. Now is the time to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. For sale by all dealers.

COFFIN IS FOUND IN COTTON FIELD

Ghastly Visitor Discovered by the Baying of Dog in Cotton Field of Newt Clary.

On Wednesday afternoon while Newt Clary and family were picking cotton in their field on the plantation of Mr. Geo. W. Simmons, about seven miles east of the city, the faithful dog, which the brother in black is wont to possess, began to bay some hidden object in the tall cotton a short distance from where the negro and other members of his family were working. Attempts were made to call the dog off but he was not to be deterred. Investigation revealed a six-foot coffin found between two cotton rows. The coffin was of home manufacture and was neatly covered with black calico.

Clary naturally advanced towards the ghastly find with a great deal of care and discretion. He made sure there was no unearthly occupant who would all of a sudden burst through the lid and devour him, before he dared to approach. Making sure on this point the colored brother advanced sufficiently near to perceive that the coffin had been there several days; a rain which had fallen several days before had beat the sand upon the sides of the coffin; there were no tracks discernible, or at least the frightened clarks overlooked this feature in the case. The dog had grabbed beneath the coffin, leading Clary to suspect it held something that attracted him.

Messrs. J. A. Smith and Staff, Tucher, two white neighbors, came over and opened the coffin, to find that it was empty. The find has created considerable gossip in the neighborhood, but as far as we have been able to learn there is no clue to the identity of the parties who shouldered so much trouble as to build a coffin and place it in the cotton field belonging to the negro.

It is believed that it was the work of parties who want to scare the negro away. A short time ago there was considerable trouble between a former colored tenant of Mr. Simmons and a number of white neighbors. The negro was thrashed and about a dozen men were arrested for the act. One of them has been convicted in the city court and fined. Clary was a witness in the former trouble and had been warned not to testify in a letter which was left at his house by unknown parties.

The Golden Rule.

A young farmer went to his banker a short time ago and asked to borrow $300.00. After consulting the depositor's ledger and noting the condition of said farmer's account the banker said: "Alright sir, you can have it. I observe that while your account is not large yet it is gradually increasing, which shows that you are succeeding. I also note that you are apparently doing all your business with us, which shows that you are our friend, and we always feel like helping our friends." Was the banker's conclusion logical? This bank preaches and practices the Golden Rule.

DIRECTORS CITIZENS BANK HOLD MEETING.

Directors Hold Meeting, But Condition of Bank Seems to be in a Tangled Condition.

On Wednesday there was a meeting of the directors of the Citizens Bank of Pulaski, and its affairs were gone into as far as they were able to reach. An expert accountant has been in charge of the affairs of the bank for the past three weeks endeavoring to straighten out its entanglements, but it seemed that the end was not in sight. It developed that the books had not been posted since some time in the early spring. Letters containing checks and items for collection lay unopened for some time. At the time the State Bank Examiner took charge of it, about two and a half weeks ago.

The shortage of cash is explained by a large number of overdrafts, a large number of which are disputed. For instance one customer appears to be overdrawn to the extent of about thirteen hundred dollars. This he disputes in toto, and claims that he should have a balance to his credit in the bank, and there are several others in the same shape. Under the condition of the books it is next to impossible to tell what is the truth of the situation. The investigation is going on, but there is some feeling cropping out, and it begins to look like the courts will be called in to settle the matter. All parties at interest have employed counsel.
