WE ARE CUTTING THE

John T. Brannen Lands

Into Five Smaller Tracts.

One tract of Fifty-Six Acres—One tract of One Hundred Acres—One Tract of One Hundred and Twenty-Five Acres, and two tracts of One Hundred and Fifty Acres each.

(Above is approximate acreage—exact acreage to be determined by survey.)

TRACT No. 1.

Fifty-six acres, lying on both sides of public road.

Practically all fine pebble land. Plenty of timber for all farm purposes. Beautiful building site. This is an opportunity to get a small body of the finest Bulloch county land.

One hundred acres, lying on both sides of public road.

Every foot of this tract is as fine pebble land as there is in Bulloch County. Fifty acres cleared and under high state of cultivation; almost no trouble to clear balance.

Good small house. Here's your chance to get one hundred acres of the finest Bulloch county land without a foot of waste land on it.

Tract No. 5 (Home Tract) 150 acres on both sides of public road; 140 acres of the very finest pebble land with nearly 100 acres under cultivation. Balance can be cleared with but little trouble. Nice large dwelling with an abundance of barns, sheds, buggy and wagon houses, and other outbuildings. Also one good tenant house with barn and outbuilding. Plenty of timber for plantation purposes and some good saw mill timber.

There is no farm land in Bulloch County that is better than this property, and but very little that is as good. It is simply the very best.

See us at once, as we expect to close the entire proposition out at the earliest possible date. Prices much less than other lands of similar quality can be bought for.

TERMS: One-third Cash; balance one, two and three years, with interest from January 1st, 1912, at 8 Per Cent.

GOV. BROWN A CANDIDATE; MAKES THREE-CORNERED FIGHT

"Little Joe" Responds to the "Calls of Thousands" and Comes Out for Place Smith Will Vacate. Opposes Pope Brown and Dick Russell.

MAKES ONLY BARE ANNOUNCEMENT NOW.

Formal Statement Later. Expect He Will Take Conservative Prohibition Stand.

Atlanta, Sept. 23.—Former Gov. Jos. M. Brown today issued his announcement for governor, following a conference with his friends held here.

Gov. Brown's announcement is brief, merely stating the fact that he has decided to get into the race, on account of the insistence of many friends, in addition to many who were formerly opposed to him.

Gov. Brown has decided to make no extended statement at this time and it may be two or sign, I now feel it my duty to respond to the calls of thousands of my friends, and of many of our other fellow citizens in every part of the state, who have formally opposed me, and hereby announce that I have determined to be a candidate in the pending Democratic primary for Governor of Georgia.

Terrell vs. Smith.

Gov. Brown's announcement was not given out until late this afternoon but the rumor got out that it was coming, and in forecasting it the Journal stated that an interesting feature of the meeting of Gov. Brown's friends was that former Senator Jos. M. Terrell should offer for the senate in opposition to Hoke Smith, in the event of Gov. Brown's election.

It is also stated that Dr. L. G. Hardman of Commerce, one of the authors of the state prohibition law, is still a probability in the race, and that if he enters he will that direction in whatever he has to say on this subject.

What he will do to counterbalance the absence of the strong Hoke Smith sentiment, the presence of which has heretofore been the source of his greatest strength, remains to be developed.

A strange and somewhat mysterious feature of the situation is the fact that some of Governor Brown's former strong political friends have recently been indulging in the "gentle art of knocking." They have been "saying things" not calculated to help much in a political campaign, assuming this attitude because they have are not as close to the ex-governor as they used to be, or whether they are not in his confidence because they have been assuming this attitude, is a question nobody seems prepared to answer.

Anent the "Knockers."

It is also strange that these unpleasant and perhaps ungenerous remarks are always accompanied by the statement, "Still, I am for Joe Brown and will support him if he runs."

Mr. Brown's real friends consider that those who are circulating remarks of this kind, have turned against him for a purpose; there is a reason, it is charged, why they did not want him to enter the race. Some of them, it is alleged, had an eye on other candidates; or there may be other reasons.

The former governor, it is stated, has decided to enter the race only after very careful consideration. He and his friends have gone over the situation as it appears in every section of the state. Every county has been considered, and conferences have been held with men from nearly every one of them.

Fight of His Life.

From these conferences the former governor and his friends have concluded that he can win and he is going into it for the fight of his life. They realize that he might have had easier sailing if he had gotten into the fight earlier, when the agitation against Hoke Smith for failing to hustle off to the United States senate was at its height. But Mr. Brown was opposed to a long campaign. He did not believe the people of the state wanted it, and he thought things would be more favorable for him if he held back at that time, and waited until it was definitely known when Governor Smith would leave the executive office. The soundness of that political opinion may now be put to test.

Joe Brown's announcement means that several others who have been hanging on the edge, looking for an opportunity to get into the race, may now keep out of it. Others may stay out.

Among these are Murphy Candler, railroad commissioner, who recently stated that he would not make the race with Joe Brown in it, but that he might run if Joe Brown did not; Dr. L. G. Hardman of Commerce, former legislator and one of the authors of the state prohibition bill, who was all ready to lift his banner to the breeze, and was merely waiting for something positive and emphatic from the ex-governor; and finally, President John M. Slaton of the state senate who will be governor ad interim when Governor Smith resigns, and who said he would give $1000 to Joe Brown's campaign, but that if Joe Brown did not run, he would run himself.

Judge Russell in Lead.

Up to date Judge R. B. Russell appears to have had the best of the running. As between himself and Pope Brown, he has stirred up considerably more enthusiasm wherever he has been, and had it been left to the two of them there would probably have been little question as to the outcome.

Judge Russell spoke to an enthusiastic crowd of his followers in Atlanta last night, following Judge Spencer R. Atkinson, his campaign manager. His friends are now predicting that he will carry Fulton county regardless of the entrance of Joe Brown into the race. An enrollment of 2,500 Russell voters in Fulton county is claimed at his headquarters. This is about one-sixth of the county's voting strength with a full registration.

INFANT'S DEATH.

The infant of Dr. and Mrs. James Brannen of Savannah, died at the home of Judge and Mrs. H. B. Strange on South Main street, this morning. Mrs. Brannen had been visiting Mrs. Strange, her sister, for several weeks. The interment was here yesterday afternoon in Eastside Cemetery.

DEATH OF MISS ROBINSON.

On Sunday afternoon the angel of death entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Robinson, living out on the Ogeechee river side, and bore away their 22-year-old daughter, Miss Laura. The deceased was a victim of typhoid fever, and had been ill for the past two or three weeks. Her condition was thought to be as favorable as could be hoped for until a short time before her death when a severe hemorrhage set in, resulting in her death. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of all their friends in the loss of their daughter.

Notice.

Those indebted to my father, Dr. M. M. Holland, will please come and settle same.

TWO EXTREMES

Don't be a grouchy, tightfisted tight wad, scrimping, pinching, saving so everlastingly that you become so stingy that you are actually dishonest. You know the kind we mean.

On the other hand don't become so anxious to be known as a "good fellow" that you will squander your money on others who will only sneer at you for a fool when you finally go broke. There is always a happy medium if you will search for it. AS HE SEES THE SITUATION

Never in Better Shape to Hold Cotton for Good Price.

SOUTH HAS AWAKENED.

President Farmers' Union Calls on Business Men of All Kinds to Line Up With Cotton Grower to Get a Legitimate Price for the Fleecy Staple.

Union Point, Sept. 19.—President C. S. Barrett, of the Farmers' Union, who has just returned from the national convention of that organization at Shawnee, Okla., and from the cotton growers' congress at Montgomery, has issued a statement in which he states the impregnable position of the Southern farmers, and urges them to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the fight for fair prices during the opening season. Mr. Barrett also brands as absolutely without foundation the reports of a bumper crop, and declares the world will pay a legitimate figure for the staple if farmers, in cooperation with business men of the South will conduct the proper sort of campaign. His statement follows:

The Cotton Grower.

To the Cotton Growers of the Southern States:

The recent convention of the Southern cotton growers at Montgomery, Ala., has satisfied me that the South, as a unit, has at last wakened to the need of co-operating and of making a vigorous fight for insuring a fair price for its main staple, cotton. I do not remember to have attended a more enthusiastic gathering, a more representative one, or one more patronized by prominent, hard-headed business men. Commissioners of agriculture of the Southern states, and men in close touch with every class of farmer, were present. The incoherence of opinion was held for 15 cents. This was in line with the verdict of the national convention of the Farmers' Union at Shawnee, which decided that cotton should not be sold at prices prevailing, and should be held and financed for a higher figure. At Shawnee, more than a thousand telegrams were received from various parts of the South, declaring that the organization would work toward the end of holding the staple, and helping needy farmers, until the market reached a correct price.

At Montgomery the Hon. Thos. Heflin, congressman from Alabama, and myself, were constituted a committee to supervise publicity and propaganda. There is no doubt in my mind that concerted measures will defeat the movement to bear cotton, and will insure a just level throughout the selling season. Now is the time for the friend of the farmer to prove his friendship by substantial aid. Cotton is the best collateral in the world. The banker and the small merchant can, and I believe will, accept it as such in cases where "distress" cotton might otherwise be thrown on the market only to glut it.

It is to the first interest of the business men of the South, whether bankers or merchants, to join the farmers in this movement for their rights. Even one-fourth of a cent off the just price for cotton means a loss of millions visited upon every trade channel. It resolves itself simply into a question of letting the world know, by our actions, that we are going to market and not sacrifice our cotton. If the business man and the banker fails in his duty, if the public man fails in his often-repeated protestations of loyalty to the farmer, they will all suffer in similar degree. With regard to cotton, we stand or fall together. An unjust price for the farmer means lack of prosperity for the merchant, the banker, the business man—whether in the city or country. A just price means prosperity for all in some proportion. The mills of New England after a season of curtailment, are resuming operations. Does this look like there is an absence of demand for cotton?

It is incumbent upon us not to sell our birthright, not to yield the results of the year's toil at the behest of market manipulators.

You are in better shape than ever to make this fight a winning one. You have no excuse for failing in it. You have grown hogs, corn and other food-stuffs, less under the domination of the mortgage, than at any period in Southern history. You whipped the gamblers before when you were head over ears in debt. If you don't do it now, almost debt-free, you deserve little sympathy from yourself or the world.

As never in history, the farmer and business men of the South are prepared to battle side by side. The conference at Montgomery proved that.

My present purpose in this hour is to press upon all Southern elements the necessity of keeping the pledges of co-operation given at Montgomery, and of representing to all Southerners the prime duty and self-interest of participating in a movement that means the welfare of the South, without regard to business or location.

CHARLES S. BARRETT.

Thirty Years Together.

Thirty years of association—think of it. How the merit of a good thing stands out in that time—or the worthlessness of a bad one. So there's no guesswork in this evidence of Thos. Ariss, Concord, Mich., who writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for 30 years, and its best good and cold cure I ever used." Once it finds entrance in a home you can't pry it out. Many families have used it forty years. It's the most infallible throat and lung medicine on earth. Unequaled for laryngitis, asthma, hay-fever, croup, quins or sore lungs. Price 6c. $1.00. GATES' WILL FILED IN TEXAS PROBATE COURT.

Beaumont, Tex., Sept. 19.—The will of John Warner Gates was filed for probate here today. The application for probate states that the estate will amount to more than $5,000,000. James L. Autrey, of Houston, who filed the application, said this amount had been fixed as a mere formality.

Mr. Dollara Gates and Charles G. Gates' widow and son, are named as executrix and executor without bond. To Charles G. Gates is will $1,000,000 and an annual income of $100,000. There is only one other bequest, namely, $100,000 to the Mary G. Gates hospital at Port Arthur. A bequest of $3,000,000 to the "Gates old people's home" at West Chicago, Ill., was revoked in a codicil.

SLAVE TRAFFICKERS ARE HEAVILY FINED.

Meridian, Miss., Sept. 20.—In the federal court here yesterday afternoon Dr. R. W. Shaw, of Sumter county, Alabama, was fined $500 and Daisy Harper, of Meridian, $250 for violating the white slave law. The case grew out of the alleged abduction of Laura Jones, a 15-year-old girl, to Alabama, where she was detained several days by Dr. Shaw for immoral purposes.

On Saturday afternoon, between the Roundtree Hotel and the residence of Mr. Mike Bland, the farmer, they will all suffer in similar degree. With regard to cotton, we stand or fall together. An unjust price for the farmer means lack of prosperity for the

LESTER JOHNSON IS COMMITTED.

Mr. R. Lester Johnson was given a preliminary hearing on Saturday morning before Judges E. D. Holland and E. P. Durden, on a charge of selling whiskey contrary to law.

A large number of witnesses were examined, the prosecution relying largely on a drag net investigation, in that case a large per centage of those sworn knew no facts bearing on the case, but in the number sworn three witnesses testified to having bought whiskey from Johnson. They were two of Mr. Cage Groover's sons and a negro boy by the name of Minny.

The Groover boys testified to having bought the whiskey repeatedly, paying sixty-five and seventy-five cents a pint and a dollar and twenty-five cents per quart. One of them testified that he was only 16 years old. When the testimony was all in the judgment of the board of presiding justices was that the defendant be committed, and a five hundred dollar bond was made. The solicitor of the city court contested for a commitment in five different cases and announced that all five cases will be pushed, viz., selling whiskey in violation of the state prohibition law; selling beer in violation of the State near beer law, soliciting orders for whiskey contrary to law, selling whiskey on Sunday and selling whiskey to minors.

These cases will come up for trial at the city court next week.

BANK OF STATESBORO MOVES TO NEW QUARTERS.

On Monday afternoon the Bank of Statesboro moved into its handsome new building, which has been completed. They are now fully installed in the new bank, which is one of the prettiest in the state, equalling those of the largest banks in the large cities.

The old building vacated is still the property of the bank, and will be occupied by Messrs. Cone & Anderson, as soon as it can be fitted up for their line.

The Bank of Statesboro is the oldest bank in Statesboro and one of the oldest in this section of the state outside of Savannah, having been organized in 1894, occupying the same building until it moved out Monday afternoon.

Parties who bought fertilizer of the undersigned, will find their notes at Sorrier & Brannen's office.

THE STATESBORO NEWS.

(Incorporated.) J. R. MILLER, Editor and Business Manager.

Published Tuesdays and Fridays, At Statesboro, Ga., by The Statesboro News Publishing Company.

Entered at the post office in Statesboro, as 2nd class mail matter.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

After an absence of a little more than three months the name of the undersigned appears again today at the masthead of the Statesboro News as editor and business manager, a position held by us for the past twenty years, with the exception of the brief period since June.

We have really been in active charge of the paper since Aug.
15th, but not until yesterday was it made official.

The Statesboro News therefore, goes under new management, or to be more exact under the old original management, the change taking place with this in-sue, while the property does not change hands until the financial arrangement has been completed which will be within the next few days. At a meeting of the stockholders held in the court house yesterday afternoon, a new set of officers were elected, a list of which appears elsewhere.

When we tendered our resignation in June it was our opinion that all concerned would be benefitted by the change. The officers of another town had made us an attractive offer, and it looked best for us to accept it; it also appeared best at that time that there should be some new blood injected into the management of the Statesboro News, a young man having been employed from another part of the state to stop in and straighten out the kinks which our shortcomings had left as an unwelcome inheritance to the business. Just how far the plan was successful will be painfully remembered not only by the general patrons of the paper, but by those financially interested, for some time to come.

It is a source of deep gratification that we realize the fact that the people among whom we have spent all our life have that degree of confidence in our ability to run a newspaper, that they will go down in their pockets and subscribe to stock for the purpose of placing us back in charge and at the same time placing the business on a solid financial basis. It shows to us they endorse our administration of the paper's editorial policy.

It will be our highest endeavor in the future to give the people a paper that they will feel represents them and the best interests of this great county and section.

To that end we ask the earnest co-operation of the people, and assure them our best efforts are behind the business.

GOV. BROWN ANNOUNCES.

The definite announcement of ex-Gov. Joseph M. Brown that he would be in the race for governor came through the daily press on Sunday. While it had been expected for some time that he had the matter under consideration and would probably make the race, yet it was not expected at this particular period.

The entry of Governor Brown makes it a three-cornered race, the expected entry of Hon. Dupont Guerry will make it a four-cornered race. Then it will be "the devil catch the hindmost."

It will be interesting to know in what measure of support the announcement of Gov. Brown will be received, on this point depends a great deal. In this particular section the ex-governor has always been very strong. In his first race against Hoke Smith, Chatham gave him the largest majority in the entire state. As far as we have been able to see the former Brown support in this section has been absorbed by the Russell boom, declaring as he did for local option some time ago, the people of Wiregrass Georgia who favor that doctrine, seemed to have lined solidly up behind "Old Plain Dick," and as far as can be ascertained the entry of ex-Governor Brown has had little or no effect on this situation.

In Savannah for instance where the Joe Brown sentiment has always been rampant, there is absolutely no Brown support; in fact the people there who have always supported him, and who implored him sixty days ago to enter the race, now bitterly resent his entry. They say when they appealed to him to make the race on their platform he hesitated and continued to hesitate until another had declared and had been accepted. Russell's photograph will be found in most all public places and the entire population seem to be standing behind his candidacy.
In Bulloch it looks like the entire county Brown support has gone to Russell regardless of the entry of "Little Joe," or what his platform may contain. We understand that this is true in Tattnall, Liberty, Effingham, Screven, Bryan and other counties of the First district. One of the best posted politicians in Bryan county, a man who has always supported Brown and bitterly opposed Smith, stated on yesterday that Bryan county would give Russell a larger majority than it had ever given Brown or Estill. It looks like Russell is going to walk away with the First district committee.

Pope Brown is being supported by the prohibition element here and elsewhere throughout the state. It is said the prohibition strength is greater in middle and north Georgia than it is in this section, therefore Pope Brown will be found to grow more and more in strength as this section is left behind him.

The rumor that Dupont Guerry will enter the race as a straight prohibition candidate is interesting if true. If Mr. Guerry should go into the race, he has the ability to meet Judge Russell on the stump, a qualification not now enjoyed by any other candidate in the field. In that case it would be a warm race; the prohibition-ists would rally around Guerry and the local optionists would back Russell; then it looks to us that both Browns would be eliminated from the race and the fight between state-wide prohibition and local option would have a fair test. In the meantime the game grows more interesting every day.

EDWARDS FAVORS THE MOVEMENT

Says Unless Crop Can Be Mar-ketted at a Profit Cotton Growing is Doomed.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 23.—Congressman Charles G. Edwards urges in an interview today that the movement for holding cotton be given strong support, and he has sent a check for $100 to J. T.
McDaniel, of Union City, treasurer of the committee recently formed at Montgomery, Ala., to further the holding movement.

Mr. Edwards said:
"Unless cotton can be marketed at a profit above the cost of its production, cotton growing in the South is doomed."

"Magnificent trade balances are maintained for our country by the South's money crop, and it is, therefore, not only of interest to the South, but to the whole country that the farmers should get a profit on the cotton crop."

"In my opinion, the combination of spinners and New York speculators can best be dealt with by fighting them with their own fire. In union there is strength," and if the farmers will combine and agree to a plan, such as outlined in the Montgomery cotton conference, whereby the cotton crop can be gradually placed on the market, as the pressing needs of the manufacturer demand it, the farmers and not the spinners will be in command of the situation and will get better prices for the crop."

"All intelligent cotton producers should realize that their salvation depends upon their getting together as quickly as possible and upon their standing together until this fight for better prices is won."

"If they will but get together and pull together under the proposed plan, so that the market will not be glutted at any time, it will only be a question of a short time before the farmers and not the spinner will make the daily quotations of prices."

"This movement for the holding and gradual marketing of the crop is a wise and good scheme and it should strongly appeal to the Southern people as being the solution that confronts our cotton farmers."

"If the farmers will stand together, they will win, but failure and low prices will be the result if they fail to stand together."

"I am glad of an opportunity to contribute financially and to render any possible service to this important movement, which means so much to the whole country, especially to the people of the South."

REPUBLICANS WORK TO SIDE TRACK TAFT.

Nation-Wide Conference in Chicago October 16 to Select Head of Ticket. Houser Heads the Movement. Progressive Wing of Party Will Work Against Nomination of Taft in Convention.

Washington, Sept. 23.—A nation-wide conference of anti-Taft Republicans will be held in Chicago October 16, to consider plans for conducting and developing the movement to nominate some other man than the president as head of the national ticket in the 1912 campaign.

Announcement of this gathering was made by the officers of the Progressive Republican campaign committee from their headquarters in the Evans building in this city. The fact that the invitations had been issued became known today, and in answer to inquiries Walter L. Houser, chairman of the organization, made a statement as to the plans. It had not been intended to make formal announcement for a day or two.

Harvest for 1911 Is Estimated at Gain of 50,000 Tons.

New Orleans, Sept. 21.—That Louisiana has usurped the center of the stage as far as the sugar market is concerned because of the shortage of the 1911 crop, is the opinion of those interested in the marketing of the product in this city.

A committee of four prominent commission dealers and planters are now in New York and said to be in a position to dictate to the so-called sugar trust as to the price of this year's crop, which will be the first to reach the market and relieve the present shortage.

The 1911 crop of Louisiana sugar is estimated at 350,000 tons, about 50,000 tons more than the crop of last year, and if disposed of at the present market level will represent a gain of about $17,500,000 as compared with last year's prices.

The committee now in New York is composed of Charles Godechaux, Ernest A. Burginras, J. C. Lehoucq, and Earl Knoblock. It is said this committee controls the sale of about 300,000 tons. If not successful in getting 5 cents per pound or better from the trust it is said the committee will sell wherever the market is most favorable.

Accused of Stealing.

E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton,
Me., boldly accuses Backen's Armia Salve of stealing—the sting from burns or scalds—the pain from sores of all kinds—the distress from boils or piles. "It robs, cuts, cures, bruises, sprains and injuries of their terror," he says, "as a healing remedy its equal don't exist." Only 25c at

DANCING IS RUIN OF COLLEGE STUDENTS.

Such Is Verdict of at Least One Methodist Minister in United States.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—One Methodist preacher somewhere in the United States believes college students of the country are going straight to the bow-wows, down the dancing toboggan. This clergyman announced his conviction in a straw vote of Methodist preachers throughout the country taken by A. W. Harris, president of Northwestern University, the largest Methodist university, who asked for general criticism on the Christian standing of students.

The vote, however, was almost unanimous in declaring that Christianity is not foreign to students.

Another minister charged colleges with allowing young men to lose caste in the Methodist faith.
He cites a case where a dyed in the wool Methodist was turned out of school a full-fledged Episcopalian.

MORE BATTLESHIPS ARE PLANNED FOR U. S. NAVY.
Estimates Will Be Submitted to Secretary of the Treasury at an Early Date.

Washington, Sept. 20.—Estimates for the maintenance of the navy for the next fiscal year have been completed with only one important exception, namely, the provision for the construction of new ships. This item has been permitted to remain open awaiting the personal consideration of Secretary Meyer and it is expected he will take up the subject in the course of a week or two, as the estimates must be in the hands of the secretary of the treasury before the 15th of October.

It is pretty well understood that the secretary will adhere to the program which has governed for the past few years and suggest to congress the addition of two first-class battle ships and a corresponding number of submarines, torpedo boat destroyers, colliers and other auxiliaries. These battle ships will probably be of about the size of the New York and Texas, just being laid down at New York and Newport News, though strong pressure is being brought to bear to have the size increased to 30,000 tons in order to give the ships more armor protection than is planned for the New York type, as well as more and heavier guns.

It is urged that the recent striking tests of the effect of high powered naval ordnance upon armor belts as demonstrated in the firing upon the San Marcos, once known as the Texas has made it plain that none of the battle ships now afloat is safe against such guns as it carries.

The practical objections, however, to further increase in the size of battle ships such as the limited number of harbors that would be open to such ships, and their excessive cost and difficult handling are believed to incline the majority of the members of the boards which submit recommendations to the secretary of the navy for new construction, a conservative course at present.

SLOT MACHINE IS PULLED.

Messrs. E. S. and E. L. Hoeshead were committed to the city court under bond for one dollar each on the charge of operating what is commonly known as a slot machine in their soda water parlors on West Main street. The case was made at the instance of Mayor McDougald, who instructed the police to pull the machine. It will come up for another hearing in the city court next week.

COMMITTEE IN CHARGE

Belief Is Expressed That Concern May Meet Obligations. Depressed Market Brings Embarrassment.

Savannah, Ga., Sept. 22, 1911. A meeting of the creditors of the Perkins Lumber Company, of Ilagan, called by a committee of creditors at the request of that company, was held in the office of Major W. B. Stephens at 11 o'clock this morning. The meeting was largely attended, creditors representing 90 per cent of the total indebtedness of the company being present.

Mr. William V. Davis was elected chairman and Mr. Joseph M. Dwyer was elected secretary. Judge E. H. Callaway, of Augusta, and Mr. M. A. O'Byrne, of Macon, O'Byrne, Hartridge & Wright, of Savannah, attorneys for the Perkins Lumber Company, made statements to the meeting from which it appeared that a conservative valuation of the assets of the company exceeds the total liabilities by one hundred thousand dollars, but that owing to the depressed condition in the lumber business for the past two years and to inability of the company to make desired financial arrangements, the officers of the company, after conferring with several of the largest creditors, determined that the interests of all concerned would be best subserved by turning over the affairs and assets of the company to a committee of creditors for such direction and disposition as to them may seem proper.

The meeting was exceedingly harmonious and resulted in the selection of Messrs. William V. Davis, George W. Tideman and William B. Stillwell, all prominent business men, as the committee of creditors to take charge of the affairs and assets of the company in the interest of all the creditors, with plenary powers in the premises.

It was very apparent that the creditors were firmly convinced that this course would bring the best results. The committee of creditors immediately got down to business and organized. Mr. William V. Davis of the Savannah Trust Co., being elected as chairman and Major Wm. B. Stephens, attorney.

NAVAL EXPERTS DISCUSS COLLISION OF BIG SHIPS.

Accident Between Olympic and Hawke Due to Small Crew Says Writer.

London, Sept. 21.—Naval and nautical experts discuss at length in the newspapers today the collision between the liner Olympic and the cruiser Hawke. A naval expert in the Morning Post points out the danger arising from nucleus crews. Belonging to the lowest class of the reserves, he says the Hawke probably had a reduced crew and a handful of officers. The collision between the Gladiator and the St. Paul was a case similar in kind. It occurred in the narrow pilotage waters in squally weather and the Gladiator had only about half a crew aboard.

The expert says that it seems clear that the Hawke, which had a powerful ram, collided in precisely the manner her designer intended she should. The collision will again call attention to the question whether it is desirable that mercantile and naval ports should lie in such close proximity as Southampton and Portsmouth, compelling large vessels to use the same passages.

It has been suggested so far as Southampton is concerned that a remedy might be found in an arrangement whereby the passenger liners would proceed by the Needles passage and the men-of-war enter and depart by way of Helens. The crew of the Hawke were not allowed to land last night, and it is therefore impossible to obtain their version of the accident.

The White Star Line company announces that the Olympic must proceed to Belfast to be dry docked.

BLOW BETWEEN THE EYES

President, White Guest of St. Louis Club, Frankly Admits That Defeat of Canadian Reciprocity Was Severe. Day in St. Louis Had Busy Program.

St. Louis, Sept. 23.—Paying his third visit to St. Louis since entering the White House, President Taft today was received by larger crowds and with more applause and cheering than on any previous occasion.

He was the guest throughout the day of the Million Population club. Following breakfast at the Mercantile club, where the president frankly admitted that the defeat of Canadian reciprocity had hit him "between the eyes," there came a 40-mile automobile ride.

Citizens of the various communities turned out to wave a greeting to the president's automobile as it whizzed by.

The St. Louis reception was non-partisan, so far as it could be so, although tonight Mr. Taft will deliver one of his set political addresses on the subject of the tariff board.

Opens Football Game. Sports claimed a part of the president's time. He opened a college football game by tossing the ball onto the field and saw a National league game of baseball during the afternoon. At the football field Mr. Taft was introduced by Archbishop Gleason as "the best president the United States had ever had."

Mr. Taft smilingly replied that he always had had great faith in the good judgment of the archbishop, but he thought his sense of proportion as to president's might be a little wary.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF UNFORTUNATE MEN.

Funeral services over the remains of Messrs. Carl Easterling and Charles Woodcock, the unfortunate men who met such an untimely end in the wreck at Easterling last Saturday morning, were held at Board's Creek Sunday, being conducted by Elder W. B. Serews, the Primitive Baptist pastor.

The attendance was undoubtedly the largest of any funeral in this county in years. It is conservatively estimated that there were between fifteen hundred and two thousand people present, all of whom were relatives and sympathizing friends of the deceased. The most reliable information that we can get of the horrible wreck is an account given out by Mr. Pharis Stetson, who was a passenger on the ill-fated train.

He stated that when the car commenced turning over, he and the others were seated in the baggage part of the car and immediately made for the opposite door, but in some unaccountable manner the two unfortunate men were unable to reach it in time. Mr. Easterling was thrown out and dragged a considerable distance, when the car finally stopped his body was across that of Mr. Woodcock's. Mr. Woodcock was also dragged a considerable distance, but lived about five minutes after being extricated from the wreck and spoke two or three words. Mr. Easterling died almost instantly without uttering a sound, except groaning twice, both bodies were badly crushed from the waist down.

Mr. Easterling—or Carl, as he is better known to everybody in this section—was born and lived near the scene of his death almost all of his life. He was a young man of an exceedingly sunny and cheerful disposition and numbered his friends by the score. He leaves a mother, brother and sisters to mourn his loss. Mr. Woodcock was a prominent and well-to-do and popular man the county over. He is survived by a wife and several children.

This horrible affair will long be remembered in the history of Tattnall county, and the relatives of the unfortunate men have the deepest sympathy of all.

PEOPLES BANK OLIVER, GEORGIA. OSCAR H. MARSH, CASHIER

OBITUARY.

Brother Thomas J. V. Bloodworth was born in Wilkinson county, Ga., Feb. 19, 1862. In middle life, he united with Macedonia Baptist church of his native county. In 1909, he moved with his family to Bulloch county, and placed his letter with Bethel church. He soon afterwards moved his letter to Corinth church, where it remained until his death.

Brother Bloodworth was kind to his family and well thought of by his neighbors. He seemed to love his church and his seat was seldom vacant as long as he was able to attend. The last year of his life disease wasted his form and when we visited his bedside he always seemed to be cheerful, and expressed himself as being ready to meet his God. He died May 27th, 1911, at the age of 49, and was laid to rest in Corinth cemetery.

We trust that he is now "basking in the sunlight of God's love." A wife and four children survive him. May the loving Father comfort and sustain the bereaved family.

Be it, therefore, resolved, That we bow in humble submission to the will of our heavenly Father, who doeth all things well; and that in the death of Brother Bloodworth our church has lost a good member. Also, that these resolutions be published in the county paper, and a copy be presented to the bereaved family.

Three Distinct Advantages of this 2-cylinder, 16-h.p. Runabout

The New Maxwell Messenger

Costs less to buy than a four-cylinder car. Costs less to maintain than a four-cylinder car. Does as much work, goes just as far, almost as fast, at one-half the cost.

Any one of the 21,000 owners of the famous Model AB Runabout will explain these advantages.

Over 14,000 doctors, who, above all, require reliability, use the Maxwell Messenger in their daily practice. And nearly 7,000 salesmen, tradesmen, farmers and others find it the best car for their purposes because of its economy. Its simple operation has also made it popular for pleasure driving and as a ladies' car.

Let us show you the advantages of this car—demonstrate it thoroughly.

"THE UPTOWN CHURCH"

is trying to meet the requirements of God and the demands of the people in their needs of every character. The pastor seeks to have nothing in view but the great mission on which his Master has sent him. He believes that there is nothing in this world more practical than the Christian religion, and there is nothing so good. Next Sunday morning he will preach the first of two sermons on "Business in Religion," and the following Sunday the other on "Religion in Business." Next Sunday evening the subject will be "Courtship and Marriage."

The Sunday School is growing and the prayer meetings are interesting. Come and let us help you. All who come will be cordially welcomed.

RAILROAD EXPERT LOOKING OVER S. A. & N.

On yesterday morning Mr. Nicholson, a representative of a large financial syndicate, came into Statesboro, over the Central, and immediately went out over the line of the Savannah, Augusta & Northern Railway, a special train being in waiting for him. He made his stay in Statesboro very brief, going directly to the S. A. & N. depot, giving out no information whatever. He was accompanied by Mr. W. Armstrong, of the S. A. & N., where both gentlemen spent the night.

It is believed that Mr. Nicholson represents interests who are expected to finance the extension of the road, and the object of his visit here at this time is to report on the value of the property.

HAVING ROUGH SAILING GETTING COTTON PICKERS.

Messrs. Sam Helmet, of Registrar, and M. A. Newton, of near this place, had an experience akin to that of one of our Tattall county neighbors this week in getting cotton hands out of Savannah.

There are hundreds of loafing negroes in Savannah who will promise to come out to pick cotton, provided they are given money to buy tickets and a little extra for other needs. In nine cases out of ten they intend to jump their contract. This was done in the case of Messrs. Helmet and Newton this week, and the sooner our people learn to let their loafing class of labor alone the better it will be for them. It is discouraging to make a crop and then have it stolen from you in that manner.

BARACAS.

There seems to be some attraction with those boys of the "Up Town church." Their class room was crowded to overflowing last Sunday and it is thought that they will have to use the Sunday School room this coming Sunday. Meet with them some afternoon. They are finding something to benefit them there.

Attention, Friends.

Having accepted a position with the firm of Messrs. W. C. & O. S. Crumley, of Brooklet, I take this method of asking my old friends and customers to give me a call, where I will appreciate their patronage and do my best to merit a continuance of their patronage and esteem.

Respectfully,

HAMP LEE DESERTS FAMILY AND DEPARTS.

After having disposed of his farm about three miles east of Statesboro, together with all his personal effects, J. Hamp Lee went into the house and informed his wife on yesterday afternoon that it was his intention to leave her. With this statement he jumped into a buggy standing in front of the door and drove rapidly to town. Mrs. Lee notified her brother, Holland Newsome, who was at work in the field, of what had happened. Newsome, accompanied by his sister, came to town in pursuit of the fleeing husband and brother-in-law, who was driving a horse and buggy which he had sold to Newsome, together with the "crop in the field. When Lee learned that his wife and brother-in-law were in hot pursuit, he drove out of town very hurriedly, going back down the Savannah road. Later in the afternoon warrants were sworn out for him, and his arrest on a charge of wife desertion and several other minor charges, was sworn out.

Lee is said to have carried off more than two thousand dollars in cash, leaving his wife and several small children practically penniless. The farm, though a small one, was desirably located. It had been sold earlier in the week to Col. F. T. Lawler, at $75 per acre.

BIG CIRCUS IS COMING.

The advertising car, No. 1, of the Forepaugh and Sells Bros. circus, was in town one day during the week and a large number of bill posters were sent out all through the adjacent territory. It is given out that car No. 2 will be here next Wednesday to post the town and territory again and Wednesday week still another will be here. The advertising manager states that fifty cars of sights will be turned loose on Statesboro, that the street parade will be more than two miles in length, and that the show itself is the biggest on the road. It is said that it costs this circus seven thousand dollars a day to maintain itself on the road, therefore you can imagine what we will have here on October the 18th. Arrangements have been made here for supplies for the one day here, which is something like this: Four tons of hay, one ton of oat straw for animal beds, one hundred bushels of oats, one hundred bushels of corn, two cords of wood, eight hundred loaves of baker's bread, two thousand pounds of beef, etc., etc.

There are about six or eight hundred people, laborers and actors, along with the big circus. It is positively asserted that the entire circus will be here. They will show the day previous in Augusta and the day following in Savannah, going to Waycross on Friday and Jacksonville on Saturday following. Therefore, it is seen they have recognized Statesboro as being in the class of towns that can take care of the mammoth circus. It is probable that there will be the largest crowd of people in Statesboro that day ever seen here before, as people will travel a long ways to see a first class circus.

Don't be a grumpy, tightfisted tightwad, scrimping, pinching, saving so everlastingly that you become so stingy that you are actually dishonest. You know the kind we mean.

On the other hand don't become so anxious to become known as a "good fellow" that you will squander your money on others who will only sneer at you for a fool when you finally go broke. There is always a happy medium if you will search for it. Spend enough to supply all reasonable needs, lay aside a fair amount and deposit it in a reliable bank as a safeguard against misfortunes that are sure to come. We invite you to open an account with us.
