GOVERNOR'S THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 14.—Governor Smith, by proclamation, has fixed Thursday, November 30, as Thanksgiving day, it being the same set aside by presidential proclamation. It reads as follows: "In accordance with the custom of setting aside a special day after the harvest time each year, as a day upon which we can manifest our gratitude to God for His manifold blessings and in recognition of our dependence upon Him, I, Hoke Smith, governor of the state of Georgia, do hereby designate and proclaim the day set apart by the President of the United States, namely, Thursday, November 30th, 1911, a legal holiday and a day of general thanksgiving and prayer throughout the state. "Let us gather in church and home, remembering the peace and prosperity that are ours, forgetting and forgiving all bitterness towards one another, and in true Christian spirit of gratitude to God and good will to men, unite in praise and thanksgiving to Him for His goodness and mercy, asking His guidance that we may go forth strengthened for future service. "In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the executive department to be attached. Done at the capitol, in the city of Atlanta, this the fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of the independence of the United States the hundred and thirty-sixth. HOKE SMITH, Governor.

JEALOUS CRAZED MAN KILLS GIRL IN AUGUSTA.

Augusta, Ga., Nov. 15.—Crazed by jealousy, Ed J. Brazil, a white cotton mill operative, shot and killed Carrie Bell Duncan, a 16-year-old girl, in the presence of Brazil's sick wife this morning. Before the man could reload the single-barreled shotgun and turn the weapon on himself, his wife, though weak and feverish from illness, wrestled with him and prevented him from accomplishing his purpose. Officers soon arrived and placed Brazil under arrest. Brazil and his wife and the dead girl and her family lived in the same tenement house. He was enamored with the girl and was insanely jealous because of her alleged acceptance of attentions from another man. While the Duncan girl was in the room with the wife, and just after she had prepared for the Brazils, the husband seized a gun and blew the girl's brains out. The wife is prostrated and Brazil refuses to talk, although letters found in his pocket stated that he loved the girl, was jealous of other men and that he intended to kill her and end his own life.

Begin at The Bottom

That's good advice. First because it is the sure way; second, because for the most of us it is the only way. A step at a time, one dollar piled up beside another, careful, conservative, saving—these things will bring you gradually but surely up the ladder of success. Men fail because they get in too big a hurry, too anxious to grab at the golden apples just out of reach. Stick to your ladder, stick to your job, stick to your saving habit. The fellow who goes up like a sky rocket usually comes down like a thousand of bricks.

MRS. MARY HARRIS ARMOR WILL LECTURE HERE.

Under the auspices of the Statesboro W. C. T. U., the Evangelical of New Crusade, Mrs. Mary Harris Armor, "the greatest woman orator in America," on November the 28th will give two lectures at the Court House, 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon and 7:30 o'clock in the evening. Mrs. Armor is a woman of intense earnestness, with a bright mind that works like lightning, a command of language that is as remarkable as it is unusual, and an impetuous eloquence that seems to come from the very depths of her soul. She is a woman of rare convictions and of rare mentality, and with the faculty of forcible expression developed to a wonderful extent. Everybody is invited, requested and urged to attend—this is an opportunity. Come and hear Mrs. Armour. Admission free.

Brooks Simmons, Pres. J. E. McCran, Cash.

Directors: F. P. Register, M. G. Brannen, J. B. Rushing, F. E. Field, W. H. Simmons, W. W. Williams, Brooks Simmons

At a meeting at the Court House on Friday night the regular annual "giving account of stewardship" will be heard, and a primary called for the election of mayor and council to serve another year. The mayor and finance committee have engaged Mr. D. F. McCoy to make an abstract of the books and doings for the past year to submit to the mass meeting. As far as we have been able to learn there is nothing doing in the way of more than one ticket in the approaching election. Mayor McDonald will probably have no opposition. Just whether all five of the council will be returned or whether they want to serve or not is not known at this time.

ceed Mr. J. A. Brannen, resigning member of the Board of County Commissioners, appointed to succeed Mr. J. A. Brannen resigned, served his first time as a member at the meeting on yesterday.

MAY BRIDGE OGECHEE RIVER.

On yesterday a delegation from Screven county appeared before the Board of County Commissioners of Bulloch at their regular meeting, asking that this county meet the sister county half way in building two bridges across the Ogeechee river, one at Dover and one at Rocky Ford. The delegation was composed of Mr. Orin Burke and Mr. J. A. Lee. Mr. Lee is chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of Screven county, and stated that his board stood ready to join Bulloch in an effort to give the people a crossway at the two points mentioned, provided, of course, that the cost is not too great. The situation at both of these points was discussed thoroughly; there it means a new bridge from the start; the one at Rocky Ford means either the taking over of Capp's bridge and repairing it, or building a new one at the old crossing a short distance below. It is said that the piling in the river portion of this bridge is sound and could be used. The Capp's bridge has been discontinued as a toll bridge, and opened to free travel; this means of course that the owners take no risk of accidents made while crossing it. It is understood that the owners are willing to sell the bridge to the two counties at a nominal sum, but the burden of keeping up a mile or more of trestle work is one that causes the commissioners of both counties to hesitate. It is reported that if not taken, Mr. Capp will sell the bridge to the Ogeechee River Brick Co. at Rocky Ford, who will tear it down and use the timbers for fire wood in their brick kilns. This would cut the people on the Bulloch side of the river completely off from any transportation privileges; they would have no place to haul freight from nearer than Clito or Scarboro. It is urged that Bulloch county has neglected that side of the county in bridge building, while she has a number across the Cannochee river between Bulloch and Tattnall, has been one above Haledondale on the Ogeechee.

CITY CAMPAIGN WILL OPEN.

A meeting of the two boards will be held at Rocky Ford on Wednesday, Dec. 6th, for the purpose of looking into the plans and seeing what can be done.

TO PUT IN STEEL FRIDGES.

Bulloch county is preparing to do what some of her sister counties have already been doing, that is putting in steel bridges over her streams. The county commissioners are receiving bids for the erection of a steel bridge over Poll Belcher creek two miles north of Statesboro, and one at the Sand Hill Ford about 5 miles east of Statesboro. In addition to this a number of small ten foot steel bridges will be put in. Superintendent Cox states that with the increase in the cost of wood and the decrease in the cost of steel, the margin between the two is narrowing down so close until it is economy to use steel.

ORGANIZING BANK AT REGISTER.

A movement is on foot for the organization of a bank at Register. SAVANNAH COURSE
CLAIMS A VICTIM

J. D. McNay Is Killed Practicing for Races. Mechanician Is Badly Hurt.

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 20.—The Savannah automobile race course claimed its first victim today, which was the first day it had been thrown open for practice of those who are entered for the races next week. J. D. McNay, driving a Case car, lost control of his mount at the Montgomery cross roads and the car went off the track, turning over. McNay was killed and his mechanic, named Maxwell, was badly hurt. McNay was placed in another car and rushed rapidly to Savannah hospital, but was dead when he got there. Maxwell is badly hurt, but his injuries are not fatal. This was the second accident of the morning on the course. Joe Dawson, driving a Marmon car, having been in a collision a little earlier with several other drivers and a touring car which was on the course.

Dawson Badly Hurt.

Dawson is hurt so badly he may not be able to enter the Vanderbilt car race or the Grand Prix race. The other drivers in this general mix-up were Knipper, in a Mercer, and Barnes, in a Mercer. They were not hurt. Nickrent was driving the car in which Dawson was riding when a touring car came along on the course and the four cars ran together, the drivers apparently becoming confused. The Mercer cars were badly damaged.

McNay's Neck Broken.

McNay's remains were carried to a local undertaking establishment. His body bore few marks to show what caused death, but it is believed his neck was broken. McNay began his racing career in Texas, but has been on all the famous tracks of the country.

SLATON ISSUES ELECTION CALL.

Special Election for Governor on January 10th.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 20.—The special election to fill the vacancy in the governor's office created by the resignation of Governor Hoke Smith will be held on January 10, 1912.

The call for the election on that date was issued this afternoon by Acting Governor John M. Slaton, who at the same time ordered a special session of the general assembly for January 21 to canvass the returns and declare the winner. The inauguration exercises will be held on January 25.

As the result of the gubernatorial race will be decided in the primary election to be held on December 7th, the date fixed by the state executive committee, the special election will be little more than a formality.

At the time the election is being held for governor the people will also vote for the first commissioner of commerce and labor who is to be elected at that time.

ENGLAND MAY DECLARE WAR AGAINST GERMANY.

England on Verge of Taking Sides With France in Morocco-Congo Affair.

London, Nov. 20.—Knowledge that England was on the point of going to war with Germany in support of France, in the Moroccan trouble and it being generally known that the government had apparently consented to Russia's advance upon Persia, has precipitated a storm of criticism over the extreme secrecy with which the nation's foreign affairs are conducted.

Foreign Secretary Grey has promised to make to parliament on November 27 a statement of the empire's foreign relations.

VIDALIA CITIZENS ARE INDICTED.

Charged by U. S. Grand Jury With Delaying Mail.

(Savannah Press.)

Fifteen residents of Vidalia, members of and sympathizers with labor organizations, have been indicted by the grand jury of the United States court on the charges of obstructing and retarding the United States mails.

The parties made defendant in this action are alleged to have stopped two mail trains on the Georgia and Florida railroad and forcibly removed therefrom trainmen who were in the service of the company at the time the strike was called. Both trains operated between Augusta and Vidalia. The road operates between Augusta and Madison, Fla.

The trains were held up on separate occasions. There are not many defendants as there are indictments, some of the parties being indicted twice.

The indictments were returned into court in Savannah last Friday. The marshal will leave shortly to arrest the defendants and they will be brought into Savannah to give bond.

The trouble for which these are indicted grew out of the strike on that road on Sept. 30 and Oct. 4, when trains were held up and delayed from getting through with the government mails.

SAYS CANADA REFENTS REJECTING RECIPROCITY.

Canadian Editor Declares People Have Softened Since "Acting Rashly."

Chicago, Nov. 20.—According to J. A. McDonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, and prominent member of the liberal party, Canada is sorry she rejected reciprocity. Mr. McDonald said declared in an address before the Sunday evening club last night.

"The people have returned to their thinking and regret their action," he said.

"The voters were swayed by the unintelligent emotion of the crowd. The immigration bog heard on that road on Sept. 30 and Oct. 4, when trains were held up and delayed from getting through with the government mails.

OBITUARY.

It is with feelings of great sadness that we chronicle the death of Delmer Hendrix, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hendrix. He was born March, 1894; died Oct. 28, 1911, making his stay on this earth 17 years, 7 months and 4 days.

He was stricken with meningitis, and never rose from his bed again. Although suffering much he bore it cheerfully, portraying even in his hours of greatest agony, a hopeful spirit and a desire to inspire those around him in the same way.

Being a youth of great promise, just entering into a bright young manhood, his end, to our finite minds, seems unthinkably. But God in His inscrutable wisdom, called him, and left us to mourn his loss, and left us to mourn his loss, and left us to mourn his loss.

Knowing him intimately for the

DEMOCRATS AFTER
"RULE OF SEASON"

Washington, D. C., Nov. 13.—Amendment of the Sherman anti-trust law at the coming session of Congress is to be undertaken in earnest by Democrats of the House, according to a declaration today by Representative Henry of Texas, ranking member of the Committee on Judiciary.

In addition to anti-trust legislation the Judiciary Committee also has decided upon revision of the injunction statutes and the laws regulating indirect contempt cases.

Efforts of the committee will be directed chiefly toward elimination from the statute of the "rule of reason" as interpreted by the Supreme Court.

A law providing trial by jury in cases of indirect contempt of court and modification of the injunction restrictions are regarded by the Democratic leaders as essential to fulfillment of the party pledges as expressed in the platform of the Denver convention.

HUNTERS GIVE WARNING TO LAX GAME WARDENS.

Quail Being Slaughtered Out of Season—Where Are the Lawful Protectors?

(Atlanta Georgian.)

"Where are the deputy game wardens? Why are they not on the job?"

Any light upon the above questions will be appreciated by a number of Georgians, headed by Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue W. J. Martin, who, as true sportsmen, want to put a stop to the swiftly approaching extermination of the quail by the alleged laxity of those officials who are paid by the state to prevent quail shooting out of season.

The matter has been brought to the attention of local sportsmen by Mr. Martin, whose duties lead him to make many expeditions into the country where quail and game abound. Upon many occasions lately he has found men with dogs, shooting quail to their hearts content, despite the fact that the open season for quail does not begin in Georgia until December 1, and that game wardens have been appointed by the state game commissioner in every county, and they in turn have named their own deputy game wardens to see that those who shoot quail before the open season are dealt with by the law.

Two occasions are cited by Mr. Martin when hunters were seen by him flushing and shooting quail without apparent regard for the game laws.

Last Friday, says Mr. Martin, he had occasion to go into the woods between Peachtree road and the Roswell road. While there he says he met two different hunting parties with dogs, hunting quail as though December 1 were far in the past. Monday, Mr. Martin spent the day in Clayton and Fayette counties, and while there says that he saw many hunting parties flushing quail and shooting them with indifference to the fact that deputy game wardens should have been patrolling the community.

"This apparent laxity on the part of the game wardens," said Mr. Martin, "is outrageous. Like many other hunters I know at with whom I have talked over the matter, I am am fed of quail shooting, and I believe that if the game laws are not obeyed, the extermination of the little bird is sure to result. The matter should be brought to the attention of the state commissioner and something should be done to force his deputies to fulfill the duties for which they are paid.

WORKED ON GANG NEAR HOUSE HE HAD ROBBED.

Burglar at Atlanta Didn't Like That, So He Fleed.

Atlanta, Nov. 14.—This burglar had a sense of the eternal fitness of things and it was violated when he was set to working in front of the very house for the robbery of which he was sent to the pen. His name was Oscar McLendon, and the home he robbed was sent to the pen. His name was Oscar McLendon, and the home he robbed was that of Reuben Arnold, one of Georgia's best known lawyers. The booty he secured was worth $2,000.

When he found he was working in front of the house he had robbed, he thought it time to make his escape, and since this morning has not been heard of, although city and county police are after him and several rewards have been offered for his capture.

One of the saddest funerals that has occurred in this county in some time was that of Ruth Lee, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. Charles Lee, of Claxton. A large number of her school mates came over to pay their last respects.

POTATO LIKE A FOOT ARRIVES FROM MAINE.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 14.—From Arrostock county, Maine, comes a potato that resembling so closely a human foot that, according to the pedigree that accompanied the spud to J. J. Barnes-Fain Company, of Atlanta, who are the proud possessors of the freak of nature, the farmer who picked, plucked or dug—however they get potatoes—became terror-stricken at its sight, believing that murder had been done on his place.

The potato is truly a curious looking object, with its five appendages, looking exactly like toes of a man suffering from a club foot. The vegetable is just about the size of a human foot—size 14.

LEPER IS STILL AT LARGE.

Escaped From St. Louis and Now Can't Be Found.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—A leper who escaped from quarantine at St. Louis is at large somewhere in the country, according to a report just issued by the Public Health and Marine Hospital service. He is 27 years old, was born in California, lived for a time in New York city, then in Maryland, Pennsylvania and other Eastern states.

In April of this year he reached St. Louis from Pittsburg, where he was placed in quarantine June 4, after examinations made by the city bacteriologist. He got away the following day.

OTTOMAN EMPIRE
CRUMBLING FAST

Constantinople, Nov. 14.—With her national treasury impoverished by the war with Italy and with her military forces steadily losing on land and sea, the Ottoman empire is finally on the verge of stuning for peace, taking the best terms possible as indemnity for the loss of Tripoli. The Sublime Porte is expected to take action looking toward peace some time this week. Such representations are either being made to the powers or will be according to information from an authentic source. Turkey has at last become convinced that her forces are no match for Italy.

However, it is believed that the formal declaration of peace will not end hostilities in Tripoli. The turbulent tribesmen who have declared a holy war against the Christian invaders will probably keep up a long and bloody campaign until they are either subdued by the strongest of measures or are annihilated entirely.

THE GUBERNATORIAL SIT- UATION.

As the gubernatorial race draws nearer its finish we find as would be expected, the friends of all three candidates claiming the election.

The latest developments seem though to favor the election of Judge Russell. His management seems to be more definite in their claims; this together with the admission of many of the conservatives of the opposition, rather forecasts the election of Russell.

It was expected that when ex-
Governor Brown entered the race that it would have a tendency to divide the opposition vote to Pope Brown. The very reverse of what was expected has happened.
"Little Joe" seems in this case to have thrown off the old "sheep hide" that he has been wearing
all these years, obtaining votes
from the local optimists, claiming to have been with them, at the same time keeping a weather eye
on a lot of temperance women agitators. But in this case things got where "Little Joe" could straddle no longer and finding that the local optimists had already been provided with a candidate, went back to his first love, and went back home to the prohibition camp. So it is now a question which of the two Browns will get the bulk of the prohibition vote.

Both seem to be good prohibition-ists, with "Little Joe" seemingly having the advantage in the record over Pope. The prohibition-ists like Len Broughton and that crowd of cranks, who denounced
"Little Joe" for everything that was mean in 1908, when he was elected, are now out advocating his candidacy from the house tops,
so to speak.

Taking the state over, the situation seems to be about this: In Middle and Middle South Georgia
Pope Brown will get a pretty strong vote, with Russell running second and Joe Brown third. In Northeast Georgia Joe Brown will get a small slice, but it will be rather a small one, with Russell
taking almost as many counties,
and Pope Brown running third.
In the First Congressional District Russell will carry practically every county in it, including of course the old First as it stood before the re-apportionment. He may miss one or two counties but his friends believe he will carry them all. In the Seventh Congressional District the opposition to Russell acknowledges that "Old Plain Dick" will make a practically clean sweep of things,
carrying almost every county.
The same is true of the Ninth and the Fourth. He will get half the counties in the Eleventh, and about half in the Tenth, and will make a good run in the Third and Eighth. His weakest spot seems to be in the Sixth. Russell will carry two-thirds of the Fifth, including the Big City of Atlanta and Fulton county. It is believed in Atlanta that he will beat Joe Brown in Cobb county, which is the home of the ex-governor, Pope Brown having not even a look-in there. Russell is conceded all the big six vote counties with the exception of Bibb, that is a race between the two Browns. The probi-tionists supporting one, and the blind tigers the other.

We believe it is pretty safe that Russell will go into the convention, if there were to be one, with a majority of the county unit votes.

DARSEY THINKS RUSSELL ALL WRONG.

In this issue will be found a communication from Rev. B. W.
Darsey, who takes a few hot shots at Judge Russell.

Mr. Darsey, like all the balance of the prohibitionists, looks upon the question of submitting the liquor question to the people for settlement as the monumental crime of the age. In this they confess by their acts that they do not believe a majority of the people would vote their way.

Mr. Darsey is in error when he says that this question was submitted to the people in 1907. If our memory is correct we had no issue in that campaign on the prohibition question. The successful candidate for governor at that time stood for local option,
just like Judge Russell stands
now, viz: the Hon. Hoke Smith.
And again if our memory is not very much out of joint, the Rev.
B. W. Darsey was one of the Hoke Smith shouters in that campaign, voted for local option then but thinks it a crime for a man
to stand for it now.

The legislature passed this bill
at the instance of a lot of probi-tionists, men and women, who thronged the capital from day to day, many of whom didn't represent the sentiment of the people in their respective counties who were not given an opportunity to vote on the question.

In every legislature since then,
when the question came up touching the whiskey question, the prohibitionists have invariably fought every amendment to submit anything to the people. They are scared to let it go to the people.

The spirit of his position is that the few shall rule the many, that the many are not capable of taking care of themselves. He is opposed to the great underlying principles of local self government and therefore has no place in a party that has always stood for this. He belongs to that class who would like to see the automatic few meet and dish out to the common people that which they think they should have without ever consulting them about it.
Mr. Darsey's doctrine would have suited the policies in vogue
in the dark ages when the average citizen was never consulted about the question of government and knew better than to open his mouth, these things were not considered a part of the business of the average, common, everyday citizen, just like he thinks the prohibition question should be settled now.

Mr. Darsey, like all other probi-tionists, confuses the whiskey
along with the question of murder, rape, burglary, etc. Now that might catch a fellow who didn't have a thimble full of sense, but nobody with one eye and one third sense would pay any attention to such tommyrot. Whiskey is the product of the orchard, field and vineyard, it is distilled
in a fluid and put up for the use of mankind, unfortunately a great many men cannot restrict themselves to its proper use. It is regrettable that the weaknesses of men brings this question up, but this does not justify the classing of it along with the crimes mentioned above. Their effort to do this is an effort to prejudice the question before men who are too weak to think for themselves.

Just why it is that every man who is in favor of local option is classed as a whiskey man is hard to say, except that it has become a crime in this advanced age of the world's civilization to stand for that principle of the right to govern ourselves by the majority rule, a principle that our forefathers waded through the hardships and privations of two bloody wars to preserve. The writer has never voted a whiskey ticket, but perhaps contributed as much to keeping of the sale of whiskey out of Bulloch county as any other man, his newspaper was given over to the side of the folks who didn't want it here,

and we won. That was local option, submitting it to the people,
just like Judge Russell stands
for now. That and nothing more.
Let each and every county control its own affairs on this question.

Tom Watson is out in an interview telling us that "Little Joe" is sure to be elected. Now, Tom said that same thing last year,
when he was running this same
"Little Joe" as an independent
against the Democratic nominee, didn't happen then, and we have some serious doubts about it this time. In fact we are inclined to believe that history will repeat itself.

The Capitol City club in Atlanta has seen the handwriting on the wall and is getting ready to move off Peachtree street next to the Governor's Mansion. The sight of the thirteen little girls all dressed up with homespun aprons
playing on the lawn of the Mansion grounds was too much for the rich nabobs who meet and carouse around this swell, secluded club for rich men only. But it will be a glorious sight to the great common people of this state.
It will show them they are represented for the first time in the Ship of State.

One straw showing how the Joe Brown boom is sweeping the state was evidenced a few days ago, when Hon. Fletcher Johnson, of Jacksonville, one of the patriots who placed his services at the command of the ex-governor, appeared in Banks county to speak.
The occasion had been thoroughly advertised, and the audience is reported to have been composed of three people, two of whom were colored. The Hon. Fletcher hasn't been heard from since.

PROCLAMATION.

State of Georgia, Executive Department, Atlanta.

Whereas, the Honorable Hoke
Smith did, on the 15th day of November, 1911, resign the office of Governor of this state, thereby creating a vacancy in said office;
Therefore, I, John M. Slater,
President of the Senate, exercising the executive powers of the government as provided by Par.
8, Section 1 of the 5th Article of the Constitution of this state and laws in pursuance thereof, do issue this my proclamation ordering a special election for Governor to fill the vacancy so occasioned for the unexpired term, to be held on the 10th day of January, 1912, under the laws of this state governing general elections. I also convoke the General Assembly of Georgia in extra session, at the Capitol of this State, on the 24th day of January, 1912, at 10 o'clock, a. m. to receive the returns and declare the result of said special election, or to elect a Governor in case no person shall receive a majority of the whole number of votes cast at such special election, as provided in the Constitution of this state.

In witness whereof I have here-unto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed hereto, this 20th day of November, 1911.

The Woman's Christian Tem-

Below we give quotations from some very celebrated Christian

"Had alcohol never been dis-power to portray the effects of such a discovery, all men, without exception, would declare it impossible to conceive of any more diabolical plan for the degradation and destruction of the human

Our greatest foes are the manufacturers and the distributors of alcohol
it is inconceivable that any intelligent, rational man can deny the necessity for strong, united action
to rid the land of both manufacturer and distributor!"—Dr. Howard A. Kelly of Johns Hopkins hospital of Baltimore.

Over one hundred counties in the state have had prohibition for years. They have outgrown counties similarly situated which have permitted the sale. There is no doubt that prohibition is wise from an economic standpoint. The overwhelming sentiment of the white people of Georgia is for prohibition, and the law will be enforced."—Hoke Smith, Govern-

HARVESTER TRUST FINED $50,000

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 14.—The supreme court of the state of Missouri today granted a writ of habeas corpus against the International Harvester Company and fined the company $50,000 in the case of the state of Missouri against the company.

The International Harvester Co. of America, Commissioner Bruce found, was used merely as a selling agent by the Harvester trust, the New Jersey corporation, in violation of the Missouri laws which prohibit the licensing of the trust because of its enormous capital of $120,000,000.

Recent dispatches from Washington stated that although papers in the government's dissolution suit against the concern have been prepared, no action will be taken pending the result of conferences between Attorney General Wickeshaam and attorneys for the company. The government, it was reported, was ready to permit the trusts to adjust its organization to interpretations of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The case was begun in 1907 by Attorney General Hagley. Last spring the Harvester company filed its brief in the supreme court, declaring Special Commissioner Theodore Bruce's report showed it had done no injurious acts and had in no manner restrained trade.

Later the company filed another brief with Commissioner Bruce, contending it was a "good trust." In September Mr. Bruce reported back to the supreme court that the company was a trust and combine formed for the purpose and with the effect of destroying competition.

The original action was a quo warranto, which asked that all franchises and privileges of the company in Missouri be revoked, and that its property be confiscated or a fine imposed.

The filing of the exceptions and arguments took up months before the case came up to the present term of court for a final decision. Wall Street heard news before Decision Was Given.

Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 14.—Wall street learned of the Harvester trust decision today before the state supreme court met here. The judges expressed indignation at the "buck" and declared they would order an immediate investigation. International Harvester stock declined 3 points in the forenoon.

$2,500,000 FOR GOOD ROADS IN GEORGIA.
This is 1911's Record Now. Secretary Wilson Says South Has Spent $14,000,000.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 14.—Speaking of the advantages of good roads and of what is being done in that direction, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson declared today that nearly $14,000,000 has been expended during the present year for good roads in the Southern states alone. The Secretary will speak on the subject at the good roads congress to be held next week in Richmond.

"Reports to the department," said Secretary Wilson, "show that Florida spent $1,505,000, Georgia $2,500,000, North Carolina $4,505,000 and South Carolina $1,100,000.

"The 'The department is co-operating with state or local authorities in practically every state, and reports show that over 200,000 miles of roads were built during the past twelve months.

BIG McNAMARA FUND MAY CAUSE HOT FIGHT.

California Delegation Wants to Appropriate $50,000 for Defense Fund.

(Atlanta, Journal.) Labor leaders are making a strenuous effort to prevent the introduction into the convention of the American Federation of Labor now in session here, of a resolution framed by the California delegation appropriating $50,000 for the defense of the McNamara brothers.

A large sum already has been raised for this purpose by private subscription and the leaders contend, it is said, that whatever money is needed for the McNamara defense can be obtained in this manner without drawing upon the funds in the none too well stocked treasury of the federation. Opponents of the resolution assert that the leaders are fearful lest it precipitate a fight on the floor since some of the delegates are known to be opposed to such an appropriation.

The convention already has placed itself on record pledging continued "moral and financial support" to the McNamaras in a telegram sent yesterday by President Gompers by direction of the convention. Delegates have but one more day within which to present resolutions. The California committee must decide shortly what they intend to do. A stormy conference at labor headquarters Tuesday night is said to have ended without any decision being reached.

IDENTITY OF WOMAN WHO GAVE HOSPITAL UNKNOWN.

Omaha, Neb., Gets the Building as Gift From Former Memphis Woman Who Left $250,000 Estate.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 14.—The identity of "Anna Wilson," the woman whose gift to the city of Omaha of a $50,000 building for an emergency hospital precipitated acrimonious discussion, many persons opposing its acceptance on the ground that the property was "tainted" has just been learned. She was Margaret Alice Platt, who mysteriously disappeared from Memphis, Tenn., in 1867, according to a story printed today.

The same year "Anna Wilson" arrived in Omaha and for more than thirty years was a well-known character of the city. She left an estate of $250,000 wholly to charity. She died four weeks ago.

TWO U. S. CARDINALS SAIL FOR ROME, ITALY.

30,000 Roman Catholic Children Cheer Archbishop Farley and Mgr. Falconio.

New York, Nov. 14.—Thirty thousand Roman Catholic school children, each carrying a paper and United States flag, took part in an impressive farewell to Archbishop John M. Farley and Mgr. Dionisio Falconio, the retiring apostolic delegate at Washington, who sailed today on the steamship Kron Prinzessin Cecilie en route for Rome, where they will be elevated to the cardinalate by Pope Pius X on the 27th of this month. Grandeur and simplicity were blended in the farewell which was accorded the dignitaries.

"God bless our cardinal" rose in a chant from thousands of childish voices ringing through St. Patrick's cathedral like the antiphonies of choral service.

BIG CROWDS WILL GO TO THE RACES.

Unless all signs fail Bulloch county will be almost depopulated next week on account of the immense crowds who will attend the automobile races in Savannah. All railroads leading out of here are going to run special trains with low rates, and this, together with the large number who will go down in automobiles, will make this county very much in evidence at the big event. This is about the season of the year when the average fellow is ready to go to Savannah anyway, and it looks like he is going to take advantage of this occasion.

GEORGIA AND COTTON STATES BREAK RECORD.

More Cotton Ginned to November 14 Than Ever Before, Georgia's Record Figures Already Passed.

Washington, Nov. 21.—In no previous year has so much cotton been ginned to Nov. 14 as during the present season, the census bureau's report today showing a total of 11,269,986 bales, which is almost a million and a half bales more than was ginned to that date in the record year of 1904.

The feature of today's report, however, was the figures of Georgia, which show 2,103,979 bales had been ginned to Nov. 14. This quantity of cotton is more than ever grown in Georgia before, and by the time the final ginning reports are received it will have far surpassed the previous crops of any year. Every cotton state except Mississippi and Oklahoma showed a greater amount of cotton ginned than during the past two years.

While the total was greater than any other year the amount ginned between Nov. 1 and 14 this year was not so large as that ginned last year during that time. Only 1,299,081 bales were ginned this year, compared with 1,359,279 bales during the period a year ago.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—The census bureau's fifth cotton ginning report of the season, issued at 10 a. m. today and showing the number of running bales, counting round as half bales, of cotton of the growth of 1911, ginned prior to November 14, with comparative statistics to the corresponding date for the past three years, is as follows:

United States: 11,269,986 bales compared with 8,780,433 bales last year, when 75.9 per cent of the entire crop was ginned prior to November 14; 8,112,199 bales in 1909, when 80.5 per cent was ginned, and 9,595,809 bales in 1908, when 73.3 per cent was ginned.

The number of round bales included were 76,011, compared with 93,304 bales last year, 123,757 bales in 1909 and 173,908 bales in 1908.

The number of bales of Sea Island cotton included were 71,199 compared with 56,634 bales last year, 68,945 bales in 1909, and 56,701 bales in 1908.

TO KISS HIS DYING BABY. STRIPLING IS SENT HOME FOR A SINGLE DAY HOUR.

(Atlanta Journal.) In order that he may kiss his dying baby before the little one breathes its last, Thomas Edgar Stripling has been taken from the prison farm to Columbus, Ga., under heavy guard, and will be permitted to spend an hour or two with his unhappy wife and family.

The necessary orders were signed early Tuesday morning by Governor Slaton, with the concurrence of Chairman Davison of the prison commission.

The action was the result of a heart-rending letter received Monday by the governor from Mrs. Stripling. She told how she and her ten children had suffered actual destitution since the husband and father had been taken from them, and that her distress had now been rendered almost unbearable by the approaching death of one of her little ones.

In the name of humanity she begged the governor, if he could not see his way clear to sign a pardon or parole, at least to accord her husband the privilege of returning home if only for a moment for a last look upon the face of their dying child.

The governor and Mr. Davison were profoundly touched by the letter, and decided at once to grant the request. As a necessary precaution, Stripling is accompanied by two guards, who are instructed not to take the slightest chances with their prisoner.

The Stripling case is recalled by all Georgians.

Thomas Edgar Stripling killed William Corbett in Harris county years ago and was convicted of murder. Shortly after beginning to serve his life sentence, he escaped, and disappeared. After a decade or more he was located in Danville, Va., where he had become chief of police and was a highly regarded citizen. He was brought back to Georgia. The whole South watched the outcome of the appeal for pardon. The pardon was recommended by the prison commission, but was turned down by Governor Brown, and Stripling went back to prison. Gov. Hoke Smith took no action in the Stripling pardon appeal, and Governor Slaton will take none.

SIMMONS COMPANY'S GREAT SALE.

There was one place in Statesboro yesterday that gave the lie to the impression that times were hard, that was along the counters of the Simmons Company. Their Great Removal Sale, notice of which went to the public in our last issue, had carried to the people the news that there was such a cut in prices of staple, everyday need stuff that the store was thronged from morning until night. Every clerk was run all day long to wait on the eager buyers.

One reason for this is, the prices named were such that it commanded attention; the people who have got to buy goods in the face of the present low price of cotton are going to buy them where they can get them the cheapest, and they are taking advantage of the things that this firm is offering.

Just received big lot men's and boys Sample Hats at 1-2 the regular price.

The fixtures for Messrs. Cone & Anderson's new store have arrived and are being put in place. They will soon occupy the building formerly occupied by the Bank of Statesboro.

Mr. S. F. Oliff is placing the material for the erection of a neat cottage home on North Main street. He will start the work on it as soon as he can secure a contractor.

The friends of Mr. Bartow Groover will regret to learn of his illness at his home at Ivanhoe. He had a serious attack of kidney trouble on yesterday, a physician being called from here. He was better at last accounts.

It is currently rumored that Mr. J. H. Anderson will be in the race for County Treasurer at the next election. Mr. Anderson was in town on Monday and admitted to a number of his friends that he had the matter under consideration.

Mrs. J. M. Duris, of Seagrboro, spent the day in town on yesterday.

Mr. D. D. Arden has returned from a trip to Chicago, where he went to look up a new locomotive engine for the Savannah and Statesboro railway.

If you want to buy a home in town or a farm in the country; a good mule or horse; a milk cow; a load of wood or a Thanksgiving turkey, see me.

J. J. E. Anderson.

Don't carry your cotton seed elsewhere, bring them to E. A. Smith at Statesboro, where you can get the highest market price for them, cash right down.

Road Superintendent Cox informs us that he will finish the work of grading the Savannah road to the county line this week, and will then move on the road between Emmitt and Pembroke, which will be graded and put in first class shape to the county line in that direction.

A tenant house on the farm of Mr. D. A. Brannen, near Emmitt, was burned on Monday afternoon. The negro who was living in it lost two hundred and ten dollars in cash which he had laid up in the house as a result of his labors this year, together with his household effects.

In this issue will be found the announcement of Mr. J. M. Fordham, who tells his friends that he is a candidate for the office of County Treasurer, subject to the Democratic Primary for the nomination of county officers. Mr. Fordham is a good, deserving man, he is a cripple, and would appreciate the place. It is believed that he will make a strong race.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 15.—Curt Jett, serving a life term for the Breathitt county assassinations and Henry Yontsey, serving a life term for the assassination of Goebel, both of whom have grown religious in prison, were rival candidates for president of the penitentiary Christian endeavor society. Yontsey was declared winner, but the balloting was so close that Jett has filed a contest with Warden Mudd. The race finally became partisan, the Republicans lining up with Yontsey and the progressives with Jett.

murder of James H. Turner, a coladjudged guilty in the superior court and sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary. The young Alabamian pleaded self-defense, declaring the dead man had drawn a gun on himself and begged the co-defendant, who is now facing trial on a similar charge. Judge Charlton did not finish instruction to the jury until long after midnight and the jury did not retire until 3 o'clock this morning. Turner was killed on the Augusta road following an automobile ride contracted for by the two defendants and his body

thrown into an abandoned well.
The young men state that the difficulty followed an attempt on the part of Turner to charge them
an exorbitant rate for the ride.

Brass Band and Auction Land Sale at Wesley on Thursday the 23rd of this week.

The band I have employed for the above date has few, if any equals in the south. Out of 22 bands at general reunion of the Confederate Veterans in Little Rock, Ark., last May, it was the most noted. It is no tin pan arrangement with three months practice, but a band of real musicians that you would go farther to hear a second time.

The town of Wesley is located where the G. & F. R. R. from Augusta to Madison crosses the Central R. R. from Dublin to Savannah. It is not near enough to any town to hurt or be hurt, being 20 miles south to the next town, Vidalia. Nor is it built on short lived public works. Instead it is backed by one of the richest farming sections in Georgia.

The surest guaranty of its bright future is the unselfish and progressive people behind it. Proof that it has such people is the remarkable growth. Only 8 months ago the depot was the only building. Now there is a brick building 90 feet by 120 feet, containing a bank and general supply business; a cotton gin; a 19-room hotel nearly completed; several costly dwellings, and lumber is on the ground for several more. A deal has just been made for a brick dry kiln and novelty works, and also a drug store. A guano factory and marble yard are quite certain. I have yet to learn of a town with such a history and brighter future.

On Thursday of this week you will have an opportunity to buy lots in the very heart of the business and resident sections at your own price. Such easy terms will not keep any one from buying at least one. That in buying in an older town you are paying some one else the profit you could have made. Remember that only 15 per cent is required on that day, and balance in monthly or quarterly installments without interest or taxes. No contract to run longer than January 1st, 1913. 8 per cent discount at any time. Lots range in size from 30 feet by 90 feet to 70 by 200 feet. Our richest men have become so by taking advantage of such times. Though times are financially hard just now, remember that it is the time to invest. You may feel sure that no one would put on a sale at this time unless forced to.

Don't forget the date and the place---Wesley on Thursday of this week

A FEW WORDS ABOUT R. B. RUSSELL

Mr. Editor: I have carefully noted Mr. Russell's platform with his request, begging people to assist him in his race for governor. His platform is fairly good with the exception of that part in regard to the prohibition question. He says that he favors its repeal. I am surprised that any man of his standing would favor the turning loose of one of the greatest evils the devil has ever invented upon our people. But he has lived to almost anything to get into a fat office. It is considered by all good people that the liquor traffic is the greatest curse the world has ever known. He says the people should say by their votes whether they want prohibition or not. Well, that was an issue in 1907, and they voted for temperance men to the legislature and they passed the prohibition act almost unanimously.

There is a law against murder, against burglary, against larceny and other crimes. Why not have them repealed and leave it to the people to say whether they want them or not. When this prohibition law was enacted the whiskey crowd howled and tried to make it appear that the state was ruined. But the state has prospered in more the last four years than in more the last four years before. Georgia has never known before. Many homes that were blighted by the whiskey traffic are now as easy circumstances and happy. But Mr. Russell says the prohibition law is a failure. It is true the law is violated too often, but that is no pretext for their being repealed. God Almighty never enacted a law but what is violated, but that doesn't prove that the good Lord was wrong in making such laws.

But Mr. Russell and the whiskey crowd say that there is more liquor used now than there was before we had this law. If that noon.

COUPLE WEDDED IN COURT BY RECORDER

Statesboro Couple Go To Police Court To Marry.

From the Morning News. With Sergt. J. J. Deignan presiding and Robert L. Colding Esq., as best man, Recorder John E. Schwarz yesterday in police court married a couple from Statesboro. Homer H. Groover and Miss Fannie M. Rigdon came to Savannah Saturday to have the ceremony performed, but in anticipation of the wedding the prospective groom indulged a little too freely in intoxicating beverages and it was necessary for Patrolman Long to give him attention. The couple were married in the court room, door for side the court room door for Recorder Schwarz to finish the court docket, but his honor did not think it necessary to keep them waiting and asked Sergeant Deignan, who was on duty at the court desk, to do the ushering stunt and to show the couple in. They came in, and with Sergt. Deignan in the chair, the wedding ceremony was read by Recorder Schwarz.

There was a deadly stillness in the court room while the couple were being made man and wife, but at the conclusion of the ceremony when Recorder Schwarz told the groom to salute the bride and Mr. Groover clasped her in his arms the court room resounded with the laughter of the large crowd of spectators. The couple left for Statesboro in the afternoon.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE HAD NO QUORUM

On account of a lack of attendance, caused partly by illness of one or two members, there was no meeting of the Bulloch County Democratic Executive Committee on Saturday. The committee has been called together again on Thursday of this week, when the question of calling a primary for superintendent of education, and providing for the holding of the state primary on December 7th will be taken up.

Per County Treasurer.

I take this method of announcing to my friends and the public generally that I will be a candidate for the office of County Treasurer for Bulloch county in the next Democratic primary called for the purpose of nominating candidates for this place. Feeling that I am competent to discharge the duties of this high office and assuring the people of my sincere appreciation, I respectfully ask their support when the primary is held.

Respectfully,
J. M. FORDHAM.

A Card to the Voters.

I have had a talk with the State School Superintendent over the 'phone, and he advised me that the State Board has not decided any of the applicants ineligible, said the State Board will act on the matter at an early date.

Before you promise your support to another man, please wait till you hear further from me. I am still in the race to the finish.

Very respectfully,
B. R. OLLIFFE.

HODGES RETURNED MONEY FOR RAISED CHECK.

Our readers will remember some time ago of the experience of the Bank of Metter had with a fellow named C. R. Hodges, who raised a check on them from four dollars and made it read forty dollars, thus obtaining thirty-six dollars too much. The bank people inform us that Hodges, who is now serving an eight year sentence in the penitentiary for tampering with a bank at Thomasville for over a hundred dollars, about the time he made the raise at Thomasville and soon after leaving here, learned that Bank of Metter was close on his heels, so he sent them their thirty-six dollars back. The father of J. S. Castleberry, who touched the cashier of the Citizens Bank of Metter out of ten dollars, was in Metter soon after and paid up the shortage of his son. But, like Hodges, Castleberry had other troubles, and is now in jail at Fitzgerald on a similar charge.

The remains of Martin Hodges, colored, were brought in on Sunday morning from Fitzgerald, where he died on Saturday. Martin was well known in this county before he went out to Fitzgerald.

Begin at The Bottom

That's good advice. First because it is the sure way; second, because for the most of us it is the only way. A step at a time, one dollar piled up beside another, careful, conservative, saving—these things will bring you gradually but surely up the ladder of success. Men fail because they get in too big a hurry, too anxious to grab at the golden apples just out of reach. Stick to your ladder, stick to your job, stick to your saving habit. The fellow who goes up like a sky rocket usually comes down like a thousand of brick.

LEE MIKELL.

On Wednesday afternoon at two-thirty at the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Lee, about four miles from town, Miss Bertha Lee and Mr. Brooks Mikell were united in marriage. The wedding was a quiet affair only a few of the close friends and relatives of the contracting parties being present. After the ceremony refreshments were served the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Mikell are at home to their friends at the home of the father of the bridegroom, Mr. J. S. Mikell.

JOE WOODS STILL IN JAIL.

Man Four Times Convicted and Doomed to Life Imprisonment Addresses Letter to the Public.

Joe Woods, the slayer of Wink Mikell, whose case the supreme court has just passed upon is still in jail here, the authorities awaiting the arrival of the supreme court remitter, which has to come back and be recorded as part of the court proceedings here, then directions from the Prison Commission as to the disposition of Woods will be forthcoming.

Realizing his fate Joe has addressed the following letter to the people:

Nov. the 20th, 1911.

I this day, Joe Woods, will take the greatest of pleasure in thanking the good people of old Bulloch for the kindness which they have shown me since I have been in prison. The jailors and officers have been kind to me and the good ladies have shown me many favors and God knows I never will forget their kindness as long as I live, and I do hope and trust to the good Lord that there will be better and happier days for them, for God knows my heartfelt thanks are with them all.

I do want to say to the good people throughout this state and county, it is mighty hard that I have got to go to the penitentiary for the rest of my life for something God knows I did not help, and I do hope and pray to my God that the good people will see where I have been treated wrong before it is too late. If poor old Wink Mikell could only raise his voice and speak to the good people of the county, I would go home rejoicing, for God knows I have told the truth and I can meet my God with a clear conscience and I will say to all that some day we have all got to stand before a just and true God and the ones that swore lies against me and caused the good people to take my liberty, they will see it again at the resurrection day. I want everybody to pray for me and my darling little motherless children, Oh, it is hard for me to know that I have got to give up my liberty and leave my poor little children for something God knows I could not help, but it is the good Lord's will for me to go and suffer. His will must be done, not mine. All I can do now is to pray and beg God to show the good people where I have been treated wrong and where I have told the truth, and I do hope and pray God we can all meet some day where there is no troubles nor sorrows. Will close with my best wishes to all.

LESTER JOHNSON IS ARRESTED.

Sheriff Donaldson returned from Savannah this morning, accompanied by R. Lester Johnson against whom there are two or three charges of selling whiskey. It seems that Johnson had telephoned his counsel to meet him in Savannah to discuss the question of coming back and giving up.

Col. J. J. E. Anderson went down to Savannah to meet him and while the two were in conversation in a restaurant the Bulloch county sheriff walked in, unexpecting to either. The sheriff smiled and said, Lester, let's go home." Johnson replied that he was ready to come. The case will come up for trial at the city court next week.

DEATH OF HENRY RICHARDSON

On yesterday afternoon about seven o'clock, Mr. Henry Richardson, one of Bulloch's oldest and most highly respected citizens, suffered a stroke of paralysis at his home near Emmitt. He lived only a short while and passed away. The funeral and interment will be at Upper Black Creek church today. The funeral services will be conducted by Elder F. M. Donaldson.

FOUR DEATHS IN FAMILY IN FEW SHORT WEEKS.

Members of Three Generations Taken From Household at Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald, Ga., Nov. 23.—The Varndell family, of this place, have met with much sorrow within the last six weeks, four deaths having occurred in that time, and all in the same house.

The last death was that of Geo. Varndell, a grandson of the late Mrs. Varndell, who died Oct. 12, of pneumonia. The second was that of Harry Varndell, a son, who died of fever, and the third, the death of Mr. McDowell, a son-in-law of Mrs. Varndell, who died of paralysis. This week the friends and neighbors of the family were called upon to follow to her last resting place the aged Mrs. Amanda Varndell, of 74 years, who had cared for and nursed the three members of the family who preceded her. Her death was due to the infirmities of old age, having hastened, no doubt, by a fractured limb, which accident occurred while she was nursing her grandson. Although these deaths were all in the same house, the causes were all so varied that no significance is attached to the locality.

Lot wool Dress Goods, worth up to $1.25 yard, special to close out 69c. yard.

THE RACKET STORE.

Mrs. Dr. R. L. Durrance returned yesterday afternoon from Atlanta, where she has spent the past several weeks.
