STATESBORO, Ga. – Junior lefthander Jason Richman was named a Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week on Monday.

Richman posted a 2-0 record and a 0.00 ERA over three appearances last week.

The junior was the winner in games one and two of the series against #18 Georgia over the weekend.

Richman struck out 14 batters over 9.1 innings to extend his streak to 19 innings without allowing an earned run.

He held opponents to three hits and opened the week with a seven-strikeout performance against The Citadel.

After earning the win in the series opener against the Bulldogs, Richman tossed four scoreless frames in game two to earn the victory in the 1-0 shutout.

The Eagles return to action Tuesday against Mercer. First pitch is set for 6 p.m.
