Quotables from Coach Chad Willis
"It was a disappointing result tonight. We really struggled to find a rhythm offensively and gave away a lot of points. There were moments we showed some good things, and we'll regroup this week to focus on putting those together more consistently heading into Foley. The conference tournament is a whole new season. We're looking forward to the reset and going down there to put together a great week of volleyball."

Next Up
The Eagles will be the third seed from the East and face the sixth seed from the West, ULM, in the first round of the Sun Belt Tournament next Thursday at 1 p.m. ET in Foley, Alabama.
