Ecclesiastes 12:1-7

"member now thy Creator in the days of thy youth. While the evil days come not, or the years draw nigh. When thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, are not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain; In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, And the doors shall be shut in the streets. When the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low. Also when they shall be afraid of that high, and fears shall be in the way, n Almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and the desire shall fail; because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets; or even the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit return unto God who gave it."
Vada Conrad Montez Curtis Saturday

Vada Conrad Montez Curtis Saturday was born, Sunday, October 27, 1985 to Zinea Fambrough and Vada Ollis in Cincinnati, Ohio. Vada was the eldest of three sons. Vada’s pride and joy was his beautiful daughter, Zaniyah. He was anticipating the birth of his second child in March of 2009.

Vada worked as a commercial painter. He was presently enrolled in Cincinnati State Technical and Community College. He always had a smile and loved joking around with everyone he came in contact with. Vada spent lots of time with his mother and brothers. They had all been together, along with his grandmother on the day of Vada’s passing.

Vada attended Mount Healthy High School and Winton Woods High School. He was an excellent artist and had numerous awards for his skills in drawing and painting.
