Only God Knows

*My dear sister, God said, "Carless, it's time to rest.
You've finished your course, you've completed your callings, only God knows what's best." Don't worry,
I am fine, the long-suffering was only a test.*

God said, "Come unto me and rest, my child. Give me your weary soul. Your journey was long, your journey was hard, but now, you're completely whole."

Life is like a vapor that appeareth for a time and then vanisheth away. Live your life, as it could be your last, for we know not the hour or the day.

Acknowledgements

*A friendly smile,
A casual touch,
These are the things
That mean so much.
To know you are with us
In our time of sorrow
Sharing our prayers
Today and tomorrow
God gives us comfort
In the form of good friends.
May His peace be with you,
His love never ends.*

Obituary

Your life is a beautiful memory; your absence is a silent grief; you're asleep in God's beautiful garden of sunshine and perfect peace. You left a beautiful memory, a sorrow too great to be told, but to us who loved and lost you, your memory will never grow old.

Mrs. Carless Cooper Lawyer was born April 4, 1950, in Savannah, Georgia, to the late Hattie Mae Hill Cooper. At an early age, she moved to Cleveland, Ohio, and was educated in the Cleveland Metropolitan School District, where she graduated from East High School.

After returning to Savannah, Georgia, in 1969, she attended Savannah State College, where she graduated with a bachelor of business degree. Ms. Lawyer retired from the Savannah State College with 29 years of service as an administrative assistant. She was also a former employee of the Chatham County District Attorney's office and held many other job titles in her lifetime.

She was a member of Jerusalem Baptist Church, where she served as a former secretary. Carless had a love for music and reading.

She is preceded in death by a sister, Sara Jane Cooper. On Sunday, September 16, 2018, the Lord, in His infinite wisdom, called her to rest from the daily toils of this world. She leaves memories to be cherished by her sisters, Arline White, Tommie Lee Walker, Daisy Wesley, all of Savannah GA, and Essie Mae Baldwin, Cleveland, OH, and a host of loving nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
