

Mrs. Moore returned from her Florida visit yesterday, much to the delight of Col. R. Lee.

Mr. Geo. W. Williams, who went from here last Sunday to attend the Superior Court at Rockville, returned home last night a full-fledged lawyer, having stood examination and been admitted to the bar while away.

Judge Martin went out to investigate his potato patch before breakfast Monday, and found that the product was altogether too scrappy for home use; so he just tumbled it into a basket, and brought it up to the Times office. One of the little roots weighed at Donaldson's tipped the beam at 4 1/2 pounds.

Mr. D. B. Rigdon, for several years an employee in the railway mail service, has secured a new appointment, and went to Atlanta this week to take a run between that point and Brunswick. We learn that Mr. Rigdon is an efficient mail clerk, whose services were dispensed with by the last administration on account of his politics.

Postmaster Johnson has sold his lot in the Lee Hotel block to Mr. S. T. Chance, and has invested in a house and lot on South Main, about a quarter of a mile from the public square, purchased of Messrs. H. S. Blitch and J. W. Olliff. Mr. Johnson is arranging to have the house completed, and will soon occupy his own premises.

Rev. W. C. Cleveland preached in the Fields hall night before last, and Rev. J. D. Draughn, of North Carolina, last night. These gentlemen are above the average preachers of any denomination, Mr. Cleveland being a classic scholar, and we hear nothing but the highest commendation of the discourses delivered on the occasions referred to. Their large audiences were well pleased.

Walter Reeves's sign, which is now being executed by Mr. D. B. Glynn, attracts crowds of spectators who call in to see the work as it progresses. It is a beautiful painting, executed on canvas, each side presenting a different landscape scene and differently lettered. Mr. Glynn is an artistic sign painter, having followed that particular occupation for many years. We learn that his first job in Statesboro has been the result of already securing him a number of orders in the same line.

The "Grand Millinery Opening" announced by the World's Fair Store seems to have been a great success, our reporter being positively unable to remain away from the display that was made there last Monday, Tuesday and yesterday. Monday was a specially attractive occasion to him, when, dropping in constantly, he noticed that while pretty hats got scarce pretty (being a married man and a good judge he says so) women kept getting more plentiful. If they all didn't go away prettier and happier it wasn't the fault of the World's Fair Store.

If you don't believe that we are determined to sell every suit we've got this season, call and see the bargains, for they'll surprise you. J. W. Olliff & Co.

In Justice Court.

The regular monthly sitting of the Justice Court for this district was held in the Court House Monday, when Esquires Lee and Rountree disposed of several cases.

Justice Rountree handled five cases as follows: J. V. Simmons vs. Z. H. Lee. Sued on note, against which Lee produced receipts. Submitted to jury. Verdict for Lee.

Mrs. Henry Peterson vs. T. F. Brannen. Brannen attached cotton as Peterson's, and his wife claimed the property. It was proved that Peterson did the work that produced the cotton and had not been paid for his labor. Judgment for Brannen.

J. W. Smith vs. Dempsey Smith. Judgment for plaintiff.

J. L. Brown vs. Dan Alderman; two cases. Judgment for plaintiff.

Justice Lee had but two cases; B. F. Lanier, Jr. vs. John S. Mallard. Settled.

Blitch & Newton vs. John S. Brannen. Suit on note. Judgment for plaintiff.

This morning each of the Justices disposed of a case against Mr. John D. Ford, brought in the state's name.

That before Justice Lee was for a peace warrant, sued for by C. H. Stephens in behalf of his wife. A $50 bond was required.

That before Justice Rountree was for assault upon J. E. Stephens. Dismissed.

The Stephens family are tenants upon the farm of Mr. Ford, and he objected to their pulling pea vines for their cows, last Tuesday evening. J. E. Stephens persisted in the offense, and the old man crawled over the fence and ran the boy away from his job, indulging in threats and considerable profanity; hence the two cases.

A SIX-SIDED CONTEST.

An interesting contest will be made in the approaching Superior Court, over the estate of late Rev. James Ellerbe.

February 11, 1889, Mr. Ellerbe made a will, bequeathing 1170 acres of land to the Executive Committee of the Baptist Convention of Georgia, and the remainder of his property to his cousins, Mr. John E. Mallory of Savannah and Mrs. Sarah Welsh of Baltimore.

April 22, 1892, he made a new will, in which he bequeathed $175 to the trustees of the Salem Baptist church, 180 acres of land to Willie Edensfield, and the remainder to the aforesaid relatives, John E. Mallory and his sister, Mrs. Welsh. The Executive Committee of the Baptist Convention of Georgia has entered suit to set aside the last will of the testator, on the ground that he was not of sound mind at the time of making the document, while Mrs. Mary A. Young, of Axtell, Tex., being a niece of Mr. Ellerbe, and next of kin, enters suit to upset all the wills in her own behalf.

Col. D. R. Groover represents Mrs. Young, Col. J. A. Brannen represents Mr. Mallory and Mrs. Welsh, and Messrs. Steel & Wimberly of Macon, and Col. Geo. W. Williams, Statesboro's new attorney, represent the Baptist interest.

So far the contest has but three sides; but Salem church and Willie Edensfield, both being interested in the last testament, will have to protect their interests, which will take off two of the corners, while Col. H. B. Strange will complete the hexagonal shape of the contest by pressing the claims of Mrs. Loretta Stone.

It appears that Mrs. Stone had served in the family of Mr. Ellerbe for a period of about twenty years; and to compensate her for her faithfulness, and in the further consideration that she should serve him as long as he lived, he, in 1885, decided her certain real estate, and then in 1891 gave her personal property of the value of $700. Lands of the old gentleman became dissatisfied, took legal steps to oust the woman from the premises, and incorporated in his last will the property which he had transferred to her.

However the contestants of the will may come out, it would seem that Col. Strange's client stands a good chance of getting possession of her property.

PUBLISHERS' NOTICE.
We have to again beg indulgence of our readers for delay in coming out, but assure our readers that next week we may be looked for on time. David, our foreman and compositor in chief, is again at his post after a severe spell, but did not get there quite soon enough to enable us to recover all the lost time. We are on the home stretch, however, and next publication day will bring us in "on the dot."

SUPERIOR COURT.
The mills of justice are still grinding, and have been turning out grist with great celerity and certainty for the past ten days; and still there is remaining much to be done. The cases disposed of have largely been of an unimportant character, so far as the public interest is concerned, being for such trifling as the carrying of concealed weapons and fighting and quarrelling among negroes.
Perhaps the most important case was one that was disposed of this (Thursday) morning, consuming most of the day yesterday. It was a three-cornered fight, in which John G. Williams, David A. Williams and Nicy Williams were the participants, represented respectively by Judge Hines, Col. Lester, and Col. J. A. Brannen.
It appears that about the middle of 1890 D. A. Williams sold to J. G. Williams a certain piece of land, and took a $500 note in part payment. About the same time D. A. Williams and Nicy Williams separated, and the divorce granting the divorce set apart this same land as support for the children left in charge of the wife. J. G. Williams refused then to pay the note, and D. A. Williams brought suit for the amount. The result of the case depended upon whether D. A. Williams was living with his wife at the time of disposing of the land, otherwise he could not legally do so; if he was, then the land was illegally set apart for the support of the children, being at the time the property of John G. Williams.
The jury decided that D. A. and Nicy Williams were living together as husband and wife at the time the land was transferred; therefore, John G. Williams's title to the land was perfect, and J. G. Williams owed David A. Williams $500, and interest on the amount.
The effect of this verdict is to dispossess Mrs. Williams and her children of the home set apart for them. But we understand that Judge Gamble's decree in the matter will provide that the money now due to David A. Williams by John G. Williams shall be set aside in lieu of the land, with which a home shall be provided for the children during their minority. It seems that Mrs. Williams has been frozen out.
LATER—The Judge has rendered his decree in the above case, as follows: J. G. Williams secures possession of his land Jan. 1, 1894; the $500 due by him to D. A. Williams is to be placed in the hands of a trustee, under a bond of $1,000, to be invested in a tract of land for the use and benefit of the children of David A. Williams during their minority, at the expiration of which the property so held reverts to D. A. Williams.
Among the criminal cases disposed of is that of the negro, John McLean, who came into town the first day of court and sold a stolen horse to Dr. White for $10. He was given 8 years in the penitentiary. Walter Brown, Tom Lawton and Hayward Burns, implicated in the killing of William Pierce, at Blitch, escaped without an indictment, the grand jury deciding it to be a case of accidental homicide. The three negroes held for assaulting Isaac Jacobson with intent of robbery were acquitted, while "Jake" was fined $10 for persisting in relating his story not exactly in legal form.
James Jackson has been released under two bonds for his appearance at the next term of Emanuel county court; one of $100 for carrying concealed weapons, and one for resisting and shooting at an officer. Lewis Jackson is still in jail under requirements for similar bonds, as well as the sentence of the Court for the $500 fine and costs in the case disposed of last week. His father is earnestly endeavoring to arrange for his release, but stated to a Times reporter that the chances of doing so appeared rather slim. The Times will endeavor to give full reports of the proceedings after the work shall have been completed.
A complete line of Dress Goods, the prettiest ever seen in Statesboro, together with Trimmings, of the latest and newest design, at The World's Fair Store. Come early, so as to have the great advantage of first choice.

THE D. & S. SOLD.
At noon yesterday the Dover & Statesboro railroad was put up to the highest bidder, before the Court House door, and was knocked down to Mr. Fred T. Lockhart, of Augusta for the sum of $35,000, the only bid offered.
Mr. Lockhart bid on the property as the representative of Messrs. James L. Fleming, L. C. Hayne, J. T. Newberry and Fred T. Lockhart, a syndicate of Augusta capitalists. These gentlemen will be joined by others, and the new company will organize and be ready to set forth and take charge of the road at the next sitting of the United States Court, the 15th inst.
The name of the road will be changed, but Mr. Lockhart was not prepared to say what it would be styled. What other changes and improvements would be effected it was impossible to state until the company should be organized and get its hands upon the property.

NO NEW COURT HOUSE.
It is to be regretted that the grand jury failed to recommend a new Court House for this county.
A report made by the Acting Superintendent of Census, in Washington, exhibits Georgia as in next to the best financial condition, so far as mortgage indebtedness of its inhabitants is concerned, of any state in the Union.
Arkansas has a mortgage indebtedness of $13 per capita, and Georgia comes next with a debt of $15 for every man, woman and child in the state.
All the cities in Georgia, the Times believes, that Bulloch is in about the best financial condition. Her soil is good, her people are industrious, and the comfortable homes all over the county show that they are prosperous. They are not taxed heavily, it being very doubtful if the people of any other county get away from the collector so lightly as they do here. The fact that no property ever has to be exposed to public sale in this county for taxes, affords the very best evidence of the general prosperity. Bulloch could and should build a better Court House.

A CORRECTION.
The Times erred last week in the statement that the sentence in the case of Lewis Jackson was "$1,000 fine or one year in the chain-gang." The fine imposed by the Court was $500. The error erred in to the statement by the impression which was made upon the mind of the reporter, that the total cost to the defendant in the case would amount to a thousand dollars.

APPOINTMENT.
The Lord willing, I will preach next Sunday at 11 o'clock in Fields' hall in Statesboro, Ga. M. F. STUMPS.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to return our thanks to our friends for the many kindnesses shown us during the sickness and death of our little babe, which occurred last week.

We find work on said building worth only twenty-five dollars; also, on account of bad mechanical work, find the same to be an injury to said building. We find, further, that said work has never been received by a committee, as the law directs, but find that the same has been paid for in full. We find said home neatly kept, and well furnished; find inmates four in number and in good condition, except one Roland Grover, who is scantily clad but claims to pick fifty pounds of black seed cotton per day. We call the Ordinary's immediate attention to this matter.

COUNTY ROADS AND BRIDGES.

Roads and bridges of 1200th District we find in good condition, except bridge across Mill Creek at Roberts' mill.

Roads and bridges of 47th District.—We recommend that bridge across Black Creek known as Burnides be extended twenty feet at each end. We find that the River road from thirty-three mile post opposite M. F. Huggins is obstructed by the storm, and recommend that the same be opened and put in good condition at once. We find road leading by Miletta Waters' across Black Creek at Blitch Ford in bad condition.

Roads and bridges of 44th District, we find in good condition, except bridge across Little Lot's Creek, near the Sink Hole, which we recommend repaired at once.

Roads and bridges of 1340th District in good condition, except bridge on the Dublin road at J. C. DeLoach's mill. We recommend repairing said bridge and balusters at once.

Roads and bridges of 45th District in good condition, except bridge across Ten Mile Creek, near Exel's mill, which we recommend repaired at once.

Roads and bridges of 1200th District.—We find roads and bridges of said District in good condition.

Roads and bridges of 46th District.—We find roads and bridges of said District in good condition.

JUSTICES AND NOTARIES.—We find the books of Justices and Notaries of the various districts of the county as follows: Justice and Notary of 16th Dist. correct. Justice and Notary of 45th Dist. correct. Justice and Notary of 48th Dist. correct. Justice of 1200th District, Criminal Docket, correct; Civil Docket, incorrect by failing to give dates of subpoenas, itemizing cost bills, and giving amount of judgment. Notary of 1200th Dist., Criminal Docket, correct; Civil Docket, incorrect by failing to give amount of judgment in one case.—Notary of 44th Dist. correct. Notary of 1340th Dist., Criminal Docket, correct; Civil Docket, incorrect by failing to itemize cost bills. Justice of 1340th Dist. correct. Justice of 1320th Dist. correct. Notary of 17th Dist., Criminal Docket, correct; Civil Docket, incorrect by failing to give amount of judgment. Notary of 17th Dist., correct, but not neatly kept.

MISCELLANEOUS.—We recommend that L. M. Sanford be paid five dollars per month. We further recommend that Mrs. Abston be paid five dollars per month, and that the same be placed in the hands of Israel Smith.

We recommend that Samuel Harville be reappointed as Notary Public for the 1340th District.

We recommend that W. R. Sexton have until April term, 1894, to use all diligence in securing Shep. Wilson, the principal of his bond.

We recommend that that another story be added to the jail and the lower story be well ventilated at the top of said story. We further find that the sewerage of said jail is insufficient, and recommend that the flow of water be made sufficient to cleanse the same.

We recommend that S. J. Williams, ex-Sheriff of Bulloch County, be paid the sum of $131.50 for services rendered for which he failed to receive pay while in office.

We have appointed J. W. Rustin, Jas. Bland and S. A. Richardson as a committee to examine the books of all county officers. We also recommend that said committee be paid $3 per day for their services.

We cannot recommend the making for sale, or selling, of domestic wine in this county, as we believe it would lead many to ruin, multiply crime and impose a heavier tax upon the citizens.

We recommend that the Ordinary have these General Presentments published in the Bulloch Times and Bulloch County Banner.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE TO THE Grand Jury of the Superior Court of said County—October Term, 1893.

We, the undersigned committee appointed at the April term of the Superior Court, 1893, by the Grand Jury, to examine the books and records of the county officers, beg leave to make the following report:

We have examined the books of the Ordinary, Clerk of the Superior Court, Tax Receiver and Collector's books, the books of the County Treasurer, and County School Commissioner, and we think they are correctly kept.

We find tax executions to the amount of ($32.50), sixty-two dollars and fifty cents, in the Sheriff's office unaccounted for, which executions were placed in the Sheriff's hands by our former Tax Collector, J. N. Atkins.

We further find J. N. Atkins, our former Tax Collector, is due the county the sum of eighty dollars.

We find the amount of money received in the Treasurer's hands to be $7,017.92. Amount of expenditures, $3,939.93. Leaving, $3,077.99.

Treasurer's Commissions, on receipts, $96.99, on expenditures, 98.493. $195.10. Total amt of com. as above, $195.10. Amount left, $3,077.99. Less commissions, 195.10. $2,882.89.

Which shows a balance on hand in Treasurer's office of $2,882.89. In conclusion we find that just to state that the Ordinary and Clerk of the Superior Court deserve special mention. The records in the Clerk's office are, in our opinion, correctly and neatly kept, with the books and papers so systematically arranged that the books, records and papers, when sought, can be found with the least possible trouble.

We think the Ordinary of our County, the Hon. C. S. Martin, should be congratulated for his economy and reduction in public expenditures, and we feel hopeful, under his able management, that our county will soon occupy her former proud position among the first counties of the State. Out of debt, with a handsome sum in the Treasury, obtained by lower taxation, all of which is respectfully submitted. This August 25th, 1893.

Oct. 30, Addresses by Revs. W. P. Cromody and S. H. Jordan at 7:30 p. m.

Each of the executives was full of good thoughts, monologues were at the altar from time to time, and the meeting is thought to have done good among the colored people.

Don't flatter yourself that you know all about, for you don't. You are in the dark completely if you imagine that other men are as good as the "New Home." Try one and if you don't find this true let us hear from you.

JAMES HARKNESS, Agent. Office, Lee's Hotel, Statesboro, Ga.

Ignorance is blinding only for a short time when you make the mistake of buying some other machine, thinking it as good as the "New Home." Therefore be wise in your day and generation.

COMPARISON RHYME. BY JOHN F. MYERS. Wild as a hawk, meek as a lamb; Gentle as a dove, happy as a clam. Brave as a lion, strong as an ox; Fiery as a tiger, cunning as a fox. Nimble as a squirrel, spry as a cat; Proud as a peacock, gray as a rat. Dumb as a post, crafty as a fox; Red as a lobster, brown as a berry. Wise as an owl, black as a crow; Bright as a button, dull as a hoe. Such as a Jew, dirty as a pig; Dizzy as a cat, merry as a gig. Time as a fiddle, cold as a frog; Fresh as a daisy, tired as a dog. Still as a mouse, bright as a spoon; Dead as a post, crafty as a lion. Sound as a nut, cross as a bear; Mad as a hatter, or a March hare. Grave as a judge, wise as a seer; Gay as a lark, swift as a deer. Quick as a flash, fair as the dawn; Mad as a cat, fat as a fawn. Knew as a razor, did as the times; Old as the hills, or as these rhymes.

THE TOWN AND COUNTY. Mrs. H. B. Strang went down to Guyton Tuesday, to spend a few days with her parents. Are you out of money? If so suppose you notice the little advertisement of J. L. Mathews in today's Times. Canned goods of all kinds at Reaves'. Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sasser, on Christmas day, a fine daughter; making the fourth daughter in the family. The vault in the bank building is about completed, and the fixtures are expected to be ready to open regular business with the new year. Don't let it escape your mind that Statesboro is to have a public meeting Monday in the interest of the Cuyler & Reaves'. There seems to be no reason why the removal of the seven marriage licenses having been issued from the ordinary's office the present week. It is very seldom that the people of this section experience a more pleasant day than was Christmas of this year. The weather was simply lovely. Prof. Hagin made the teachers of the county happy for Christmas, by distributing some $5,000 among them on the Friday and Saturday preceding. Gentlemen's Hats as well as Ladies' Hats, a specialty at The World's Fair Store. Mr. Ben Turner went over to Buena Vista the latter part of last week, for the purpose of visiting his first wife's parents whom he has not seen for several years. Mr. Charlie Martin, who so satisfactorily has the Ordinary's chair so satisfactorily so the young people during the town. Business, will remain a citizen of the town. Somebody says Sam Sasser is on the road to wealth. He now has four girls, and his girl was ever known to wear out her pants polishing barrel heads in grocery stores. Go to Reaves for your candy and crackers. Mrs. C. A. Lanier is visiting in Savannah this week, and during her absence Mr. Lanier is transferring his furniture into new quarters, having taken rooms at the Rustin House. It is not often that this section enjoys the pleasant weather at this season of the year, such as has prevailed during the past ten days or more. It has been a genuine South Florida spell. Col. Groover has in his custody a number of good farms for sale or rent, not very far out in the country. Any one desiring such property would do well to scan his list in these columns. The most stylishly trimmed Hats South to be found at the World's Fair Store, at prices astonishingly low. Mr. Z. Fordham, from Black Creek neighborhood, about eight miles in the country, has moved into town, and now occupies the house lately vacated by Mr. John Mitchell, the blacksmith. To have seen the hundreds of dollars worth of fireworks that were destroyed in this town during the past week, any one would have wondered where that much talked of hard times had led to. Mr. James L. Fleming, General Manager of the D. & S., came over from Augusta Wednesday on business interests. The Times Editor regrets to have been absent when Mr. Fleming called to see him.

Marshals Kondrick and Ben Mercer went out to a party at Mr. Steve Richardson's Thursday night, which they complain(?) of as being one of the most enjoyable affairs that they have been permitted to attend. Col. J. A. Brannen went down to Savannah Tuesday, to give a day or two's attention to business in the city. He will then come up to his mother's, in Bryan county, for a few days' visit before returning home. Fresh Country Butter always for sale at Reaves'. Ben Mercer looks well after his boat with a good deal of the grip. Some say it was the good attention that brought the patient out so rapidly, while others assert that Ben was only playing off to make a test case. Mr. B. T. Outland has transferred his turpentine still from near Blitch, to a point about four miles out from Statesboro, and will hereafter make his headquarters in town, having taken rooms with Capt. Taylor's family. Rev. Mr. Rustin delivered some very forcible remarks at the Thursday night's prayermeeting in the Baptist church, but, unfortunately, the audience was small, and those who deserted the sacred day just past were very conspicuous by their absence. New line of fashionable Cloaks just received at the World's Fair Store. By the kind invitation of Miss Emma Griner, the "eating editor" enjoyed a sumptuous Christmas dinner at the Rustin House last Monday. Several other guests were equally fortunate, and will bear a lasting recollection of the pleasant occasion. Miss Alice Burke, a beautiful young lady of Tenille, who has been teaching a music class in the Enal neighborhood to her home. The Editor of the "Bulloch Times" is a great admirer of the "Bulloch Times" and its editor. Steve Blackburn says the merchants of this town have acted so nobly towards him that they've made him feel, and that he never traded with any of them now without paying the cash. The merchants would be glad to see all their customers that had.

We learn that there is a likelihood of an early change in the presentment of J. W. Olliff & Co. It is stated that Mr. Gordon Blitch has been elected to the position of the business, and will probably purchase the share of W. W. Hill, now the property of his estate. We are still selling a finest patent Flour in the sacks at $4.50 per barrel. Come and get a barrel at the World's Fair Store. We regret to learn that young friend, Rustie Hall, who was with typhoid fever three weeks ago, having a very severe attack and is still in the hospital, however, that attending physician, Dr. Quate, believes the case is progressing favorably. Jasper Harper, who marries Miss Newman, daughter of Mr. J. H. Newman, of this county, Sunday morning, next, Wednesday, Wednesday week, by taking two bottles of champagne. Harper had been on a league before committing the rash act. Cards are out for the many Miss Anna Brown to Mr. Henry. The happy event is announced for next Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Sasser, at the Rustin House. In advance, the Times extends congratulations to the fortunate couple. The young people, and a so young, enjoyed a pleasant at Miss Pety Lee's last Tuesday. A number of presents were distributed on Christmas tree. Our reports being absent on the occasion has so kindly remembered with us. Sugar, Coffee, Cheese, kinds of Groceries, boys, at the World's Fair Store. Mr. S. S. Sasser has purchased a two-acre lot of Mr. W. L. North Main street, near a church, and last Wednesday family is from the country. stand that Mr. Sasser has succeeded in the introduction of fine cattle, that he contemplates the sale of the business, and will also add the sale of horses to his trade. His location in a nearby, so as to have the great advantage of reaching the markets of first choice.

A complete line of Dress Goods, the prettiest ever seen in Statesboro, together with Trimmings, also add the sale of horses to his trade. His location in a nearby, so as to have the great advantage of reaching the markets of first choice.

Bro. McGee preached his farewell sermon to a large audience last Sunday night, and Tuesday took his departure for his new work at Baxley. The new pastor will be on his work during the next few days, and will meet his first appointment in the town on Sunday, the 14th. Mr. D. Q. Stanford held the lucky ticket, No. 450, which took the handsome sewing machine presented to his customers by Mr. C. W. Ennis. Mr. Stanford's name appeared but one time on the list, but it happened to appear in the right place. Messrs. L. K. Fuller and O. E. Kearns, who represented the Guilford Nurseries, of Vandalia, N. C., last year, are spending their holidays in our town. They will be engaged in this section during the approaching season also, having transferred their services to the Jamestown Nurseries. 100 boxes herrings just received at Reaves'. Going at 25 cents per box. Miss Seelson, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. McGee, for some months past, left for her home in Gwinnett county Wednesday morning, on the 5 o'clock train. The young gentleman who overstepped himself that morning is the object of much sympathy from his numerous friends. We regret to learn of the death of Charlie Simmons, the son of Mr. Tony Simmons, which occurred last Sunday night after an illness of some six or seven weeks with typhoid fever. Charlie was a promising young man of some 17 years of age, and his father is reported as being deeply afflicted upon the sad occasion. A great attraction in Crocker, Glassware, etc., at the World's Fair Store. Our foreman, Darcy, returned from his Florida visit today—Friday—and was met by his wife Estelle and Master Fred and their relatives in the country. The Editor, "bottle washer" until everything was pretty well wrecked, was very glad to see them arrive. Mr. Willie Griner and his sister, Miss Zada, came down from Zieledgeville last Friday to enjoy Christmas with relatives and friends in Statesboro. Miss Zada took the return train Tuesday forenoon, to answer to her name at roll-call in the Industrial School Wednesday morning; while her brother remains over the balance of the week, for the purpose of arranging some business matters. The World's Fair Store guarantees to save you money and give the best bargains ever had in shoes. Come and see for yourself. Attention is invited to the call meeting of the stockholders of the Statesboro Academy, to be held next Wednesday night. The Times understands, though not authoritatively informed, that the object of the meeting is to make some arrangement between the stockholders by which the property may be offered to the town board of education. The movement is to be commended, and we hope that harmony will prevail. Mr. Ivy L. Dekle, for the past three years in Texas, is again with his friends and family in this vicinity, where he expects to remain. Mr. Dekle's father is in rather feeble health, and Ivy feels it his duty to return home and assist the old gentleman in his private affairs, for a while, at least. He was a pleasant caller at the Times office for a few minutes Tuesday morning, when he settled his subscription and had the address of his paper changed from Palestine, Tex., to Dekle, Ga. Holmes' Sure Cure Mouth Wash for sale by L. J. McLean & Co. D. J. Huggins, who was under bond for his appearance before the superior court to answer to the charge of carrying concealed weapons, and who was apprehended by his bondsmen some three weeks ago, under the impression that he was necessary to the killing of James Thorne, and that he was harboring the murderer, W. P. Huggins, has been again turned loose from the original bond; no one having appeared to testify against him at the preliminary hearing in the prior Patch district, last Saturday. A complete line of Dress Goods, the prettiest ever seen in Statesboro, together with Trimmings, also add the sale of horses to his trade. His location in a nearby, so as to have the great advantage of reaching the markets of first choice.

PUBLISHER'S NOTICE. The Times has to apologize to its friends this week for its somewhat late appearance. The usual force, with the exception of the Editor, has been taking a holiday vacation for the past week, and this issue has been gotten out with the aid of but one compositor, who also persisted in "taking Christmas," with the interference of several orders for job work, which were obliged to receive attention. In addition to these hindrances, contractor Alderman has had a force of hands at work inside our office, making some improvements very necessary to our future comfort, and cuses and galleys, etc., etc., have been in a rather mixed state for the past several days; in fact, they are not exactly
