

Eagle Techxpo

Eagle Techxpo is Georgia Southern's annual Information Technology conference and exposition. Join us for this free conference to explore current and future technology trends and products. Meet representatives from over thirty technology companies and attend breakout sessions to dig deeper into today's technologies with technology industry leaders.

This year's keynote speaker is Sheryl Bunton, Chief Information Officer for Gulfstream Aerospace Corporation. Read more about Ms. Bunton.

Friday, September 16 at 9:00am to 3:00pm

Information Technology Building, Atrium

Rural HIV Research and Training Conference

The Rural HIV Research and Training Conference is a two-day forum for exchanging the latest information and learning the newest tools to address the challenges of the HIV/AIDS epidemic in rural communities.

Please visit the conference website for registration information.

Friday, September 9 → more dates through September 10, 2016

Coastal Georgia Center, Savannah, GA

Grand Opening - FabLab and Innovation Incubator

Area businesses and entrepreneurs will soon have access to office and meeting spaces, computers and software, 3-D printers and other tools through the Georgia Southern Business Innovation Group's Innovation Incubator and Fabrication Laboratory (FabLab) located in downtown Statesboro at the University's City Campus.

A grand opening for the new facility is set for 4:30 p.m., Sept. 9, at 62 E Main St., Statesboro. The event will feature guest speakers, tours of the facility and demonstrations of different machinery and programs offered in the makerspace and incubator.

The Innovation Incubator and FabLab is a joint venture between Georgia Southern University, the Downtown Statesboro Development Authority, City of Statesboro, Statesboro Arts Council, and the Economic Development Administration, and is associated with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) established Global FabLab Network. The incubator is designed to create sustainable jobs, increase the number of local businesses, and improve and diversify the economic drivers in coastal Georgia.

Friday, September 9 at 4:30pm to 6:30pm

BIG/City Campus

Eagle Nation On Parade Unveiling

On September 9, an unveiling ceremony will be held for the newest addition to the Eagle Nation on Parade project. The event will be at Howard Lumber and Hardware and will begin at 10 a.m.

The sculpture, commissioned by C. Arthur and Carol Howard, was designed by Georgia Southern University Betty Foy Sanders

Department of Art graduate students, Courtney Ryan, of Columbus, Ga., and Jessamy McManus, of Lilburn, Ga.

Eagle Nation On Parade is a public art project that salutes the University's traditions, celebrates the unity of campus and community, contributes to the economic vitality and quality of life in Statesboro while supporting student scholarships.

Friday, September 9 at 10:00am to 11:00am

Howard Lumber & Hardware

John Michael Montgomery

Kick off the new Performing Arts Center season with the musical stylings of John Michael Montgomery! This country music superstar is best known for his seven number-one hits, including "I Swear," "I Love the Way You Love Me," "I Can Love You Like That," and "The Little Girl." Even with a storied career and roomful of awards and accolades, John Michael Montgomery has an uncanny ability to relate to his fans. Few artists in any genre sing with more heart than this handsome Kentucky-born musician, and in addition to his earnest love songs, upbeat hits like "Be My Baby Tonight" and "Sold (The Grundy County Auction Incident)" make for a night of pure fun! Do not miss this evening of country hits that helped set the standard for a generation and still resonate with audiences all over the country.

Join us for a pre-show party with country karaoke games and prizes, starting one hour before the performance.

Thursday, September 8 at 7:30pm

Performing Arts Center