V. Stough, a brick layer in Raymond, St. Louis, was shot and instantly killed during a quarrel over cigarette smoking in a rooming house. Another argument against the cigarette evil.

Ernest Camp, the former editor of the Dublin Times, who resigned because the proprietors of the paper directed it into the Smith column, has got a job on the road for the Constitution. Loyalty rewarded.

The epidemic of lynchings that has recently broken out threatens to force the Associated Press to return to its old policy of "D. X. Q." meaning, "A posse is in pursuit, and if the villain is caught he will be lynched."

Tift was the first one of the proposed new counties to have a hearing before the new county committee of the legislature. Tift's trouble is an entirely unique one—the only difficulty seems to lie in the fact that so many people want to get into the new county that it will be hard to decide who should and who should not be included.

There are evidently a great many new compositors scattered throughout the state in the weekly newspaper offices. We observe that one out of about every three refers to the gubernatorial campaign as "gubernatorial," and one uses the word "gubernatorial." Why not make it "gubernatorial?" Then it would be understood to be a campaign of peanut politicians largely.

President Harvie Jordan's advice to farmers is to go slow in selling their present holdings or signing contracts for future delivery of cotton at present prices. He reasons that if an eleven million bale crop should be grown, which seems impossible, prices should go to 12 cents; and, he adds, "if only ten million bales are harvested, which the present conditions indicate, it is hard to predict just where the price will go."

A few days ago Capt. J. R. Bricker of Warwick, Pa., received an umbrella that had been "borrowed," July 4, 1876. Attached to the handle was a note asking that the needed repairs be made, as the gentleman in whose possession it had been for 29 years might need it again. This causes the Columbia State to remark that, "a state where men return umbrellas, even after the lapse of nearly the third of a century, cannot be wholly bad."

A Berlin miller, his tongue loosened in convivial company, remarked: "All is not Solomonian wisdom that drops from the Emperor's lips." And now for three long months in the seclusion of prison the miller will have opportunity to exalt the blessings of American free speech, says the Columbia State. For even under the reign of the Great and Good Theodore it is possible to whisper a doubt of his divine inspiration without landing in the lock-up."

A month ago a farmer held his cotton for 9 cents. He then admitted that to be a good price. Two weeks ago he held it for 10 cents; then for 10½; now for 11. And if the market advances to 11 he will, as likely as not, hold for 12 cents. He has a perfect right to do what he pleases with his cotton. But he is gambling. And when gamblers are encouraged to inflate the price, they may be expected to depress it to 7 or 6 cents if they can. Farmers should unite for a stable price. There is a golden harvest in 10 cent cotton.

DIDN'T NEED THE PAPER.
In these columns recently the woes of a man who borrowed his neighbor's paper were vividly portrayed. If there was anything evil that didn't happen to him, nobody ever heard of it.
But there is another picture—a picture of a man who didn't borrow his neighbor's paper. It is said of this man that he got mad with the editor and stopped his paper. The next week he sold his corn for four cents below the market price. Then his property was sold for taxes because he didn't read the sales. He was arrested and fined $8 for going hunting on Sunday, simply because he didn't know it was Sunday, and paid $300 for a lot of forged notes that had been advertised two weeks and the public cautioned not to negotiate them. He then paid a big American with a foot like a force hammer to kick him all the way to the newspaper office, where he paid four years in advance and made the editor sign an agreement to knock him down and rob him if he ever ordered his paper stopped again.

This causes our valued friend of the Lyons Progress to declare that this man was not of the kind he has to deal with, for they don't quit reading his paper when they get mad and have it stopped—they go borrowing from their neighbors.
We might add, further, that this unfortunate man was not a country postmaster—not of a certain kind we could mention in Bulloch. One of these recently ordered his Times discontinued with the curt explanation, "Don't need it." For three weeks in succession one of our cash-in-advance subscribers at that office complained that he didn't get his paper. During this time members of this don't-need-it postmaster's family were heard to speak pleasantly of a bit of humor which appeared in these columns and which they had read somehow. Didn't need it, indeed! If he didn't his family needed it; and so did the cash-in-advance subscriber who was missing his paper.

TILL THUNDER STRIKES.
Immediately following the gubernatorial race three years ago, Col. J. H. Estill, who made a strenuous and credible race in the primary, allowed the impression to stand that he would again be in the race. His friends, who stood by him loyally to the last ditch have been waiting to hear something from him since the present campaign, but he remains silent as to his intentions.

In the meantime it begins to look like the race is far under way and the Colonel is to be left at the stake. There are those, however, who yet hope to see him in the running, and among them is the editor of the Waycross Herald. He says:
"The Herald is on record as desiring a South Georgia candidate for Governor. We are in favor of running a man if he is beaten. And we advocate keeping up our lightning rod until thunder strikes us. It is entirely unnecessary to rehearse the tale of South Georgia's many grievances. All the world knows about it, and future history will record it.
"On the other hand we do not deny that to some extent we are ourselves to blame for lack of proper recognition by the balance of the state. We have been wanting a co-operation and concentration. We have been divided while North and Middle Georgia have stood together.
"South Georgia has a number of gentlemen who would fill the gubernatorial chair with credit to themselves and honor to the state. Such a man is J. H. Estill, of Savannah, and for some months past we have looked to him as our probable standard-bearer. We still hope and believe that he will decide to enter the contest, but what is done in this matter should be done quickly.

"South Georgia must have a candidate, and if we go into the convention shoulder to shoulder, and with our forces well organized, we can nominate our man or we can say who the nominee shall be."

STATE'S EXPENSES.
Over Four Million Dollars to be Asked For.
Four million one hundred and eighty thousand two hundred and ninety-eight dollars and fourteen cents is the amount asked for in the general appropriation bill introduced in the house by Mr. Davis, of Burke, chairman of the general appropriation committee.
This amount is for the fixed expenses of the state for the ensuing year and is entirely exclusive of all separate appropriations asked for other purposes.
Chairman Davis has tabulated the amount needed by each division of the state government and announces them as follows:

Executive department.....	$ 58,000 00
Judicial.....	103,000 00
Public institutions.....	550,714 14
Public schools.....	1,735,704 00
Public debt.....	407,880 00
Pensions.....	860,000 00
Prison.....	130,000 00
Miscellaneous.....	151,000 00
Legislature.....	70,000 00
Total.....	$4,108,298 14

In addition to this special appropriation amounting to over $3,500,000 have been asked for, and there is left in the treasury for this purpose something less than $250,000. The military bill, asking an appropriation of $50,000, is yet to be introduced.

RESTRICT NEGRO SUFFRAGE.
Upon County Legislator to Introduce Such Measure.

ATLANTA, July 14.—A bill proposing an amendment to the state constitution with a view of taking from the negro the right of suffrage, will be introduced in the House early next week by Mr. Rose of Upson, who holds on this question, views similar to those of Congressman T. W. Hardwick of the Tenth district.
Mr. Rose's bill, it is stated, will be similar in its provisions to the Hardwick bill, which was twice defeated in the House of Representatives, of which Mr. Hardwick was a member when he introduced it. The bill, as will be remembered, prescribed an educational qualification for voters.

For fire insurance see E. D. Holland, Resident Agent.

ROBBERS GOT $5,000.
But It Was Recovered in Less Than Five Minutes.
BIRMINGHAM, July 15.—L. D. Burr, paymaster of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Company, was held up by two masked highwaymen this afternoon on the railroad between Littleton and Flat Top, and relieved of $5,000, which was to be used in paying off the men.
Less than five minutes afterwards Detective George Bodeker, Police-man Joe Nix and Charley Pickard, a Flat Top guard, had shot and killed one of the highwaymen and recovered the money. The other robber effected his escape.
The story is unique in criminal circles. Some time ago Vice President J. W. McQueen, of the Sloss company, learned that an effort would be made to hold up the paymaster between Littleton and Flat Top, a distance of several miles, which the paymaster always walked, carrying the money with him, well guarded by one of the guards of the company.
Several days ago Mr. McQueen learned further of the plans of the robbers and that they intended executing their design today. With that information, Frank D. Gafford, mine superintendent, requested the police department to detail officers to work on the case. Two officers left the city today and spent the entire morning watching the river bank of the Little Warrior.
It was by this means that the officers were able to be on the scene almost immediately after the robbery occurred. When confronted, one of the highwaymen offered resistance and was killed, while the other made his escape. The money was recovered from the man killed.

Howell Loses Supporter.
BRUNSWICK, Ga., July 15.—With the severance today of Rev. Sam Small's connection with the Brunswick Journal, the candidacy of Hon. Clark Howell will lose its strongest advocate in South Georgia. Up to the present the Journal has been a red hot Howell sheet, but not through any policy as outlined by the stockholders of the paper. The support given the Howell cause has been personal with Mr. Small, who leaves Brunswick to engage in business elsewhere.

Ogechee Lodge F. & A. M. will hold a special meeting tomorrow night to confer the third degree on Mr. S. A. Rogers, having been elected at the regular meeting Tuesday night.
The neighbors continue to please the Times family pleasantly. The latest token of remembrance is a basket of tomatoes, peaches and other vegetables from the garden of Mr. Edward Stone.
The new night watchman, Mr. J. J. Hagin, who was last week elected to that position by the town council, has not yet moved over to his home in Screven to take the position, and Ex-Watchman J. J. Hagin is now doing duty on the force.
C. H. Shockley, who was recommended by the last grand jury for the appointment of notary public for the 120th district, received his commission this week and has assumed the office, relieving Judge J. D. Holland, whose term had expired.
Mr. J. J. Biggerstaff, who has been superintendent of the cotton mill here since its establishment, has secured a similar position with the Davisboro oil mill. Mr. E. A. Smith, formerly of Savannah, takes Mr. Biggerstaff's position with the Statesboro mill.
The regular meeting of the Statesboro Council R. F. U. held Monday evening. The minutes of the meeting were read, and the name indicates, is an insurance organization with accident, sickness and death benefit provisions. It is in a flourishing condition here, and many members are expected to be added shortly.
The Statesboro Buggy and Wagon Company's store building north of the court house square is nearly ready for occupancy, and the new concern expects to be ready for business early in August. The stockholders of the company are J. G. Blitch, F. E. Field and W. H. Kennedy, the latter to act as manager.
Statesboro is again waking up to the necessity of keeping an eye on the various new county moves which promise to cut into Bulloch territory. A meeting will be held the first of next week to take active steps against the Stevens county move at Metter. This county's claims are to be heard by the legislative committee on the 26th.
Though very little talk has been heard regarding the soldiers reunion here today, the indications are that the occasion will be a great one. Our country friends will be here in great numbers and without creating any great noise, the town committee has arranged for pleasant entertainment. A string band from Savannah will furnish music for the occasion.
The adjourned term of the city court closed yesterday evening, having been in session for three days. A number of important damage suits, among them being that of Daughtry vs. Hendrix, for $5,000; Anderson vs. Anderson, for $20,000; and Anderson vs. R. G. Railroad, for $5,000, were expected to come up, but were postponed until the quarterly term in October.

CUTTING AT ADABELLE.

One Man Assailed by Three Receives Six Gashes.

A serious cutting affray occurred at Adabelle last Saturday afternoon, one man, Monger Jernigan, being cut in no less than half a dozen places.

It is said there were three men onto Jernigan with knives, two Shuman brothers, of this county, and one Sharpe from Tattall county. At first Jernigan succeeded in defending himself by knocking his assailants down with his fists, but finally he was approached from the rear and the muscle of his right arm severed, after which he was powerless. It is said he would have been killed but for the interference of one Joe Tucker, who came to his rescue with a knife and put his assailants to flight.

The fight occurred near the scene of a picnic and all the parties were drinking more or less. The trouble first began between the Shuman and one Sapp, from Tattall county. They met in the road and because Sapp didn't give enough of the road, he was roundly abused. Jernigan took Sapp's part and carries his wounds as a result.

EXPENSIVE KISSING.

Bulloch Young Man Finds It Dangerous as Well.

The Savannah papers related last week the sad experience of a young man, John Malone, who, for stealing a kiss from a married woman, was beat on the head with a baseball bat, run in by the police, fined $25, and then turned over to the city court for carrying a pistol concealed.

Malone is a Bulloch county young man, living near Clito. While in Savannah having a gay time he got into the bed room of a Mrs. Grant, on Congress street, and finding her asleep, softly kissed her. This act aroused the lady and when she called for help a neighbor came with a baseball bat, and then the trouble commenced for the young man. As stated he was arrested and in recorder's court next morning fined $25, and then held to answer in the city court for having on his person a concealed pistol.

REACHES OVER $1,150,000.

Property Valuation About $300,000 Above Last Year.

The board of tax assessors for the town finished their labors last Thursday and have handed their report in to the mayor and council. The figures have not yet been made public, and will not be until the council has acted upon the report, but we are told that the assessments slightly exceed $1,150,000, including both real and personal property. This is an increase of something like $300,000 above last year's assessment, and was secured largely by increasing the valuation of property that has heretofore been returned at too low values.

The figures will show that the colored population of the town own approximately $14,000 worth of property.

JORDAN TO FARMERS.

Advices That They Hold Cotton For 12 Cents.

President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, has issued the following statement.

Heavy and continuous rains throughout the cotton belt during the past week have seriously affected growing cotton. The plants are taking on too much growth and too little fruit where well cultivated, and inability to plow in the fields has retarded the growth of the cotton. Present conditions indicate a shorter crop each day they continue.

"If an 11,000,000 bale crop should be grown, which now appears an impossibility, it should easily bring to the planters twelve cents per pound. If only 10,000,000 bales are harvested, which present conditions indicate, then it is hard to predict just where the price will go. Cotton producers should go slowly in selling their present holdings, or in signing contracts for the future delivery of their cotton at present prices. A minimum of ten cents per pound should only be adhered to in the production of full normal crops to meet the needs of consumption."

RAWLINGS' TRIAL ON.

Loaded Pistol Taken from Mrs. Rawlings' Satchel.

The trial of the Rawlingses, father and three sons, at Valdosta, for the murder of two Carter children a month ago, began Tuesday. It will continue several days.

Mrs. Rawlings, mother and wife of the accused, sprang a sensation at the first day's trial by bringing a pistol in her hand satchel into the court room. She had left the satchel down stairs and during the trial asked the sheriff to bring it to her. When the sheriff returned he announced that he had found a loaded pistol in the satchel. It was suspected that she desired to slip the weapon to her husband, but Attorney Cooper, for the defense, stated that Mrs. Rawlings had a long way to come and that she carried the weapon for her own protection. The court instructed the sheriff to take the weapon from the satchel before giving it to Mrs. Rawlings.

Slings Versus Hay.
At the recent meeting of the Connecticut Dairymen's association C. S. Phelps said he believed in slings, but thought its value overestimated. Hay can be grown at the rate of three tons per acre more cheaply than slings at the rate of fifteen tons, and the hay contains more dry matter per ton than the slings. If the hay is cut early it is as digestible. Hay lacks something in succulence and in palatability in comparison with slings, but its low cost to produce is much in its favor.

NO ANTI-PASS BILL

WAS DEFEATED IN THE LEGISLATURE.

LACKED TWO VOTES OF PASSING.
Was Placed on the Calendar Again, but Will Not Come Up the Present Session.

ATLANTA, July 24.—Again the anti-free pass bill by Mr. Hall, of Bibb, stands upon the calendar of the House awaiting its turn. Defeated on Friday for the lack of two votes, the House today reconsidered its action, after a brief debate, by a vote of 72 to 66. The friends of the measure promised that it would not be brought up again at the present session.

HOW THEY VOTED.

The Anti-Pass Bill Was Defeated by Small Margin.

Below is printed the detailed vote in the lower house of the Georgia general assembly Friday afternoon on the anti-pass bill.

The bill failed by two votes of the constitutional majority necessary for its passage. A constitutional majority of the lower house is eighty-eight. The number of votes cast for the bill was eighty-six; the number against it seventy-two. There were sixteen absentees, and one member, Mr. Mann, of Catawba, failed to vote.

During the debate on the bill Mr. Hall, of Bibb, its author, asserted that he could go into the county of any man voting against the bill and beat him for any office he might seek before the people on that vote. The names of the men whom Mr. Hall thus classified as "easy marks" for defeat are found among those recorded below as voting against the bill. The detailed vote follows:

In favor of the bill: Adams of Elbert, Alexander, Almond, Barkdale of Wilkes, Beauchamp, Bell, Blackburn, Booker, Bowden, Boykin, Brinson, Buchanan, Callaway, Christopher, Clark, Connor, Covington, Davis of Bibb, Davis of Burke, Duggan, Edwards, Felder, Flynt, George, Hall, Hardeeman, Hayes, Hill, Hynds, Holder of Jackson, Hutcheson, Jackson of Jones, Jenkins, Johnson of Crawford, Kelly, Kendrick, King, Knight of Berrien, Lane, Lawrence, Leigh, Little, Longino, Longley, Lumpkin, of Sumter, McClure, McMichael, McMullin, Martin, Mayson, Millikin, Mitchell of Thomas, Moore of Cherokee, Nix, Orr, Overstreet, Owen, Parker, Perry, Pearsons, Porter, Proctor, Ramsey of Jefferson, Reeves, Richardson, Rountree of Thomas, Rucker, Schultz, Smith of Green, Smith of McDuffie, Steed, Stovall, Swilling, Thorn, Ward, Walker of Monroe, Walker of Washington, Waters, West, Wilcox, Williams of Madison, Wilson of Gwinnett, Wise, Wooten, Wright of Richmond, Wright of Floyd—86.

Against the bill: Alford, Anderson of Bulloch, Anderson of Chatham, Arnold, Bacon, Beall, Black, Bush, Butts, Calvin, Clements, Clifton, Conolly, Corcoran, Derrick, Donaldson, Dougherty, Duckett, Dunbar, Fussell, Galloway, Green, Griffin, Grovenstein, Harrell, Harris, Holder of Floyd, Horn, Humbert, Jackson of Muscogee, Johnson of Baker, Knight of Polk, Land, Lewis, Lumpkin of Wilkes, McLennan, McLendon, Mann of Dougherty, Mitchell of Taylor, Mizell, Mobley, Moore of Columbia, Moyle, Nolan, Nowell, Prescott, Rainey of Terrell, Rainey of Schley, Revell, Roper, Rogers, Rose, Rountree of Emanuel, Russell, Russell, Saffold, Scruggs, Sears, Seymour, Simmons, Singleterry, Smith of Calhoun, Smith of Tattall, Spence of Mitchell, Spence of Ware, Sutton, Terry, Trammell, Way, Whitley, Williams of Laurens, Woodliff—72.

NEGRO TROOPS MUST GO.

To be Mustered Out of the State's Service.

Georgia's negro troops may be mustered out by an act of the legislature in a very few days. The bill which disbands all negro troops has been reported favorably by the house committee on military affairs, and has been read the second time in the house.

The measure was introduced by Representative Max E. Land, of Wilcox county, who has done a great deal of work in advocacy of the bill. He has been greatly assisted by a large number of the leading officers of the state, who have taken an active interest in the matter.

When Georgia is fully placed under the regulations of the Dick bill the negro troops, if they are allowed to remain, will be on an equality in every way with the white troops, and no act of the governor could keep them from participating in the national encampments. For this reason the white officers have been very anxious to get rid of them.

There are one or two members who are opposing the measure, but Mr. Land is confident that the bill will pass by a big vote. He takes the position that the negro troops are being maintained now at a large expense, and that they are of absolutely no service to the state. They are never ordered out for riot duty, and all they accomplish is to display themselves on parade.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Terrific Bolt Penetrated Young Man's Head.

MARIETTA, Ga., July 21.—Lightning at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon struck a shed in the peach orchard of W. F. Moore, about one mile from Marietta, killing Charles Jones instantly and dangerously injuring eight other persons.

The injured are: Oscar Benson, one of the most prominent farmers in Cobb county, George Ruff, John Tucker, Tom Gasaway, four negroes, two men and two women, names unknown.

One of the negro men is not expected to live. All of the parties are burned more or less.

The force of the bolt was terrific, making a hole entirely through Mr. Jones' head. The crowd was gathered peaches in the orchard of Mr. Moore and Mr. Cunningham and when a light shower came up went into a shed in Mr. Moore's field in order to get out of the rain. There was about fifteen in the party and all were terribly shocked.

Besides those who were fatally injured, others had their clothes torn from their bodies.

One man was sitting on a peach basket and the basket was entirely burned.

$50 For a Stray Dog.

A story is told of one of the Vanderbilts bringing out automobilizing. While going along a quiet country road the driver of the car saw ahead of him an old farmer walking along by the roadside, and also a dog. The dog was not quite contented to remain on one side, but kept going from side to side, and, unfortunately was caught by the car as it sped on and instantly killed.

The driver turned back as quickly as possible to find out what damage had been done, and found the old farmer gazing sorrowfully at the remains of the dog. Vanderbilt took out his pocketbook, gave the farmer a $50 bill, and ask him if that would repay him for the loss of the dog. The farmer said "yes," and the car started and was soon lost to view.

The farmer stood beside the remains for some few minutes, and then, scratching his head, said in an undertone, "Wonder who that dog belonged to?"

ONE FOUND GUILTY

WITHOUT RECOMMENDATION TO MERCY.

TWO OTHER RAWLINGSES ON TRIAL. Evidence Against The Three Boys is Practically the Same, and all Will be Convicted.

VALDOSTA, Ga., July 24.—The trial of Jessie and Leonard Rawlings, indicted jointly with Milton Rawlings for the murder of Willie and Carrie Carter, was begun in the superior court this morning at 9 o'clock.

The two boys were accompanied by their mother and sisters, and later in the morning, at the request of Attorney Cooper, their father was brought from the jail to be with them.

When the state had challenged ten jurors Mr. Cooper said that that exhausted the number allotted the state but the state's attorney claimed that he was entitled to double the usual number of strikes, on account of the fact that two men were on trial at once.

The matter was argued some minutes and Mr. Cooper finally acknowledged that he was wrong but later he held out that the state was entitled to only ten strikes, and asked that his objection be allowed to go on record.

Jessie Rawlings, who is said to have fired one of the fatal shots, is the youngest of the boys. Leonard did not do any of the shooting, but it is said to have been with the crowd.

VALDOSTA, Ga., July 21.—Guilty without a recommendation of mercy is the verdict which the jury in the Milton Rawlings case returned tonight at 8:45 o'clock.

The verdict was not a surprise. On the contrary it was generally conceded that such would be the verdict. Rawlings was in court without his parents and sisters for the first time during the trial, and it was the first time that he has shown the deep feeling that stirred him as he sat waiting for the verdict to be brought.

There was a wait of probably twenty minutes on the defendant's Rawlings, and in the meantime Rawlings sat in the prisoner's box peering eagerly at the door through which the jury was to come with its verdict. His sharp features were almost rigid, and the air of confidence which has been with him during the trial was gone. He looked as though he felt completely conquered.

After the judge's charge this afternoon, a recess was taken until next Monday, when Jessie and Leonard Rawlings will be put upon trial on the same charge. After them will come the trial of J. C. Rawlings, who is said to be the instigator of the crime.

It is said that the evidence against J. C. Rawlings is much stronger than that against either of the boys. That evidence could not be brought out in the trial of Milton Rawlings, though the state's attorney hoped that it would come out when the elder Rawlings was put upon the stand as a witness for Milton, but the defendant's counsel would not let him go upon the stand.

J. C. Rawlings has worn an air of defiance all through the trial and he showed that defiant spirit this afternoon after the jury retired. The prisoners remained in the room for some time, and many people gathered around them. Detective Walter Fleming was near and Rawlings called him: "I see you have one gun in evidence; why didn't you bring the other?" he asked.

"I think there are enough right here to satisfy you," returned the officer.

"Well," said Rawlings, "I would rather see the other."

CIGARETTE FIEND

HIS MIND AFFECTED HE THREATENS MURDER.

IS SENT TO JAIL BY HIS MOTHER. Declares that When He is Released He Will Kill Both His Mother and Sister.

ATLANTA, Ga., July 22.—A prisoner behind the bars of the police station, because he struck his mother with a shoe, and also because his mother and sister are afraid of him, Edwip Smith, 17 years of age, of 22 Gresham street, a cigarette fiend, declares that as soon as he secures his freedom, he proposes to kill both relatives. In a high rage this morning over his incarceration, the youth heaped horrible vituperations on his mother and sister, even going to the extent of wishing them both dead.

Smith declared he did not care if he was hung or given 100 years in the penitentiary.

Smith's father is dead, and he asserts his mother and sister have not been treating him right. He says they are angry at him because he wants to marry a 14-year-old girl. In addition to threatening the life of his mother and sister, he declares his intention of wedding the girl when he is released.

The boy flew into a rage at his home Tuesday, and after acting in a disorderly manner, struck his mother with a shoe. He admits this act and says he threw the shoe with all the strength he could command.

Attorney Malvern Hill has been retained by the family to look after the case and this morning had a conference with the boy in the police station. Mr. Hill informed Smith his sister is ill, and instead of being touched or expressing sympathy, the prisoner brazenly exclaimed:

"Well, I hope she will die! I hope both her and my mother will die and go to hell!"

Smith informed the attorney he was not the least sorry for anything he had done, and did not care what was done with him. He also insisted that he intended to kill his mother and sister.

"I am sure going to raise hell when I get out of here," he added.

His entire conversation was interspersed with vile epithets, many of which were applied to his mother and sister.

"I don't care what they do with me," he boldly asserted the boy. "They can hang me if they want to, or give me 100 years in the penitentiary."

He later asked the reporter what term he thought he would get for his conduct, remarking, in a composed tone:

"I suppose they will give me about two years for my threats."

Smith says he began smoking cigars when he was seven years of age and of late has been smoking cigarettes almost incessantly. Some of his fingers bear unmistakable evidence to this effect, being stained almost black with nicotine. The youth declares, however, that cigarettes are not the cause of his hatred for his family, asserting they have not hurt him in any way.

rather be on the gallows with my head in the noose than to be in your fix."

"I would rather not," returned the officer, "and each of us is entitled to his 'rutters.'"

HOKE SMITH'S ERROR.

Should Have Beat the Gang Out of That $40,000.

To the Editor of The Journal: I have been reading the Atlanta Constitution for weeks on the gubernatorial race. Especially have I noted the manner in which it has dealt with the fifty thousand dollar loan proposition. I thought I was honestly for Hoke Smith for governor up to a few days ago and was thoroughly convinced that he was the best and most available man for this important position. But just think of a citizen of our great state being disposed and able to borrow fifty thousand dollars and pay it back with interest! Hoke Smith is a good lawyer. Why did he pay this money back? He could have put all of his property in his wife's name, depreciated his collateral, gone into bankruptcy and had a relative to buy in the collateral at five or ten cents on the dollar and beat that New York gang out of every cent of fifty thousand dollars.

Mr. Smith, with this record staring you in the face and the facts now being known through the Constitution to a great majority of the honest voters of our state, do you expect their votes? Why didn't you beat them out of this money? If you had I am sure the Atlanta Constitution with its kin and "me and all my folks" would have been for you for governor. It is an awful thing to borrow money and especially to pay it back, as I gather from a careful reading of the Atlanta Constitution, and you, Mr. Smith, have been guilty of this awful thing, and the Constitution has absolutely told it on you. For goodness sake, Mr. Smith, why did you let them tell it? You may answer that it was purely a business matter, with which the general public had nothing to do, but I submit, will that satisfy the Constitution? I have made up my mind never to borrow fifty thousand dollars and especially pay it back if it is going to cause all this kind of a rumpus.

Suppose it was true that you needed the money to pay some honest obligations you owed here in Atlanta, why didn't you beat your creditors here at home? You have admitted borrowing the money and paying it back, and while possibly 90 per cent. of the people of the state of Georgia may think that you did the right and proper thing by borrowing this money and paying it back, it does
