WEDNESDAY, MAY 2, 1906.

John Temple Graves new afternoon paper, the Georgian, is out. It is all right.

It is reported that there is a man in Missouri with whiskers eleven feet long. What would Senator Peffer have given for such a set!

When a fellow tells you that the gubernatorial situation is badly mixed, put it down he's on the losing side. Hoke Smith supporters don't see it that way.

The question, "Is life worth living?" seems to have been decided overwhelmingly in the affirmative. As for ourselves, we are not open to argument on the subject.

The Howellites claim they are electing their legislative candidates easily all over the state. Pity for Clark that he didn't run for the legislature instead of governor.

The ring leaders in the Springfield, Mo., mob were fined the enormous amount of $1 each. The judge very leniently suspended sentence, however, pending good behavior.

An exchange says Hoke Smith claims 90 counties, Howell 80, Jim Smith 50, Russell 40, Estill 30 and Nunnally all he can get. Pretty good. Guess it's up to the legislature to make us some new counties this summer.

"Mr Joseph Medill Patterson, the young millionaire socialist from Chicago, wants Mr. Andrew Carnegie's wealth divided among the poor. Why not have Mr. Patterson start the ball rolling by doing his own money that way first?" asks the Atlanta Journal.

A boy who stole a nickel in Chicago was given a year in the reformatory. On the same day a man who had embezzled eight thousand dollars was given a sentence for a similar length of time. All of which proves that the rich have no license to rob in Chicago.

There promises to be great political straddling in Bulloch one of these days, about the time of the state primary. There is a little coterie of politicians who, within a week, gave the county to Howell, Russell and Estill. How they can keep up the straddle on election day is the feat we are anxious to see.

In California, where the land syndicates own the waterways and monopolize them for irrigation, they have secured an injunction to restrain the small farmers from pumping water from their own wells, claiming it drains water from the streams. They offer to sell to the farmers a water supply from these streams.

Dick Russell's proposition to prohibit the transportation of whiskey into dry counties by the express companies is good enough to catch the prohibition vote, but he ought to be careful how he preaches such doctrine through this section, where many jugs are daily brought in. If Dick Russell hadn't been so pleasant about the whole thing here, we believe there are some who would have revolted at this part of his platform.

One of Col. Estill's strongest arguments in favor of his election is that there is a fight between the Journal and the Constitution, and that if either Smith or Howell is elected governor, the organ of the other will continually discredit the action of the governor and thus bring discredit upon the state. Therefore Estill argues that he ought to be elected governor. But in that event both the Journal and Constitution would discredit his actions, and the state would be doubly injured!

Look All Except the Voters.

There is nothing gained in having a machine if the machine is not made to work.

Clark Howell's machine works. It does what he bids it, and he bids it to do what he wants done—everything except to get the votes.

In Monday's executive committee meeting Clark wanted a late primary, and the machine gave it to him. He wanted rules that would exclude every former populist who was not ready to pledge eternal allegiance to the democratic party, and they gave him the rules.

Now, what more can he want? Nothing but the votes of the people who are willing to take the obligation and vote in the primary. Howell would have asked this if the committee could have given it to him, and they would give it to him if they could.

But the Howell ring can't control the voters. They are free and will vote for Hoke Smith.

Some may be barred by the state loyalty pledge, but they should not be. If they are really democrats, they should not hesitate to take the pledge and help their man; if they are not democrats, they should not ask to be allowed to participate.

One-fourth of the members of the United States senate are said to suffer more or less from deafness. Senators Platt and Deussen were to be the greatest sufferers, for they are so deaf that they can't hear the roar of public opinion demanding that they resign.

Are Easily Pleased.

It might be truthfully said of Col. Estill and Mr. Howell that there are not two other candidates in the gubernatorial race who can compare with them for amiability and complacency.

When Mr. Howell was here on Monday of last week and made a fine speech of more than an hour and a half, which elicited barely the faintest applause, he telegraphed to his paper more than two columns about an ovation at the hands of Bulloch county citizens.

He was easily pleased. He told in his paper how he would carry the county, and gave a list of a dozen names of those who told him he would. That list consists of every known Howell supporter in the county, and at least three who were opposed to him, some of whom never spoke to Mr. Howell during his visit here. Not one of Mr. Howell's supporters here has ever felt the faintest hope of his carrying the county, and certainly would not care to deceive him by telling him he would, but Howell is easily pleased, and he called this an ovation.

Col. Estill came along Wednesday found a big crowd at court and shook the hands of many. Most of these people had come here to court, and only shook the Colonel's hand as they would any other gentleman to whom they might have been introduced. When he spoke for a few minutes in the court house he was given two faint rounds of hand-clapping—when he arose and when he finished. To one uninitiated the reception looked weak, but the Colonel's paper next day had a three-column story about an ovation here.

Webster defines "ovation" to mean "the tribute of the multitude to a public favorite." The Howell and Estill receptions here would more accurately be defined as "a tribute of candidates to the public," for really the candidates were the ones who paid the tribute.

But they are easily pleased. Wearing a large silver badge with the words, "Randolph Milburn; I am a man," inscribed thereon, an Ohio music teacher has inconvenienced the law which has hitherto forbidden masquerading. After being arrested once, Milburn searched the law books and found that he could wear female attire provided he was not trying to conceal his sex. He claims that he has as much right to wear women's dresses as Dr. Mary Walker has to wear men's clothes.

Passing Away.

The annual remembrance of the old soldiers, whether Northern or Southern, are characterized by undiminished enthusiasm, and enormous crowds attend though the number of those who participated in the great war is constantly diminishing. These reunions are valuable to the whole country in calling to mind things worth remembering. The things worth forgetting have already been forgotten.

The veteran element is now a very small one in the population of this country. The South sent into the war 600,000 men. Of these not more than 450,000 survived it. The North put 2,750,000 soldiers into the field from first to last. Of these probably 2,500,000 were alive at the close of the war.

Accepting these figures as correct and estimating the average age of the survivors at 25 years, making no allowance for shattered health, life insurance figures would indicate the following as the number alive now and at the end of each ten-year period hereafter:

The old soldiers constitute only about five per cent. of the voting population of the South and about thirteen per cent. of the voting population of the North. Ten years hence this will be reduced to two and five per cent., respectively, and twenty years hence it will be less than one-third of one per cent. in the South and less than one per cent. at the North.

The old soldiers are going gradually, but what they did will not go. It will always remain a cause for honest pride and an inspiration for manliness.

New Subscribers Come.

Last week was a great week with the Times and the new subscribers came in great numbers. Among those added the last two days of court were: J. M. Thompson, S. L. Nevils, W. H. Rushing, Bedford Everett, Amos Hart, W. B. Hart, E. A. Proctor, W. M. Martin, B. M. Smith, P. L. Anderson, E. S. Lane, J. T. Rivenbark, J. B. Brannen, Mrs. W. A. Wilson and J. W. Doneho. Besides this, many old ones came in and renewed, and the Times was made to feel that it is indeed appreciated by the good people of the county.

THE FARMERS' MUTUAL LIFE PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION
Is one of the safest societies in the United States issuing a policy paying death benefits, old-age benefits, total disability benefits, sick and accident benefits.
It is the object of the Farmers Mutual Life Protective Association to put in operation a plan of Life Insurance that will not only provide support for those dependent on him after he is dead, but also to provide means for the care of the sick or unfortunate ones who look to him for protection.
Twelve Hundred and fifty men and women make a division; Twelve hundred and fifty dollars is the limit of the policy in any one Division.
The first Twelve Hundred and fifty men and women, joining the Association, shall constitute the first Division. Should a vacancy occur in that Division, the next person joining will be placed in that Division, thereby enabling us to keep each Division up to the full standard of 1250 members, making your policy worth what it calls for.
It is the only company that placed the mortuary and reserved funds in banks, under a contract so that no officer of the Association can take one dollar, for any purpose, out of the bank of Depository to be used by them for any purpose and that said Bank of Depository can only pay out said amount for the purposes for which it was placed in the bank and upon proof of the necessity of such payments, and only then to the parties who are entitled to receive it.

Little Locals.
The season for street tax collections is again at hand and the marshal is abroad in the land with his little receipt book.
City court is in session to-day. Judge Mitchell of Schönsboro presiding in the place of Judge Brannen, who is off for his health.
A great many Statesboro people attended the general meeting at the Primitive Baptist church held in Savannah last Saturday and Sunday.
With the increasing warmth of spring, the baseball fever is laying hold upon our local fans, and already frequent practice games are being held. Within a short time challenges will be going out from our town.
Services have been in progress at the Primitive Baptist church since Sunday, both morning and evening, the pastor being assisted by Elds. S. H. Whitley, of Hogshead, R. H. Barwick, of Pavo, and W. A. Lamb, of Kite. The services will continue until Sunday.
The general meeting of the Bulloch county Baptist association was held at Clito church last Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and was largely attended. Rev. M. H. Massey, of Statesboro, occupied the pulpit at the Sunday morning service, and preached an able sermon to a large congregation.
Mr. H. R. Williams, of Pulaski, was in Statesboro Monday making arrangements for the removal of his family to this place to obtain the benefit of our school facilities. He purchased from Mr. E. Kennedy a residence on South Main street (price paid, $2,700), and expects to move here during the month.
Julian Anderson is one of the kind who, when he gets in a race, does some running. Not alone is this true politically, but literally. His friends realize this more than ever since Julian drove down the streets Sunday afternoon at breakneck speed behind a pair of bays, calling to the onlookers at every jump. "There is some dispute as to whether he was yelling 'stop!' or 'watch me!' but it is certain that Julian rode as fast as the horses ran and he made the race from the walnut tree to the mile branch in record time.
It was really faster than he cared to go on that occasion, but the incident serves as a reminder to any would-be opponents that Julian is still a swift runner.

The members of the Statesboro carpenters' union will have a fish fry at the Dover trestle next Saturday, in which their friends are invited to participate. Those who go are expected to carry along a small basket of lunch, and the committee which will go over the day before hopes to have enough fish to make the day pleasant.

Literary Society Met.
The Thespian literary society, of the Statesboro institute, held a regular meeting last Friday. There being no specially prepared program, the society was addressed by Orville McLemore on the subject of character, followed by impromptu speeches by other members of the society.
Mason Burke was elected treasurer in the place of Penton Wilson, who has left the school.
All Were Commended.
It is pleasing to their friends to notice that every county official whose books were reported upon by the late grand jury, received commendation at the hands of that body.
Especially is the report of the county school commissioner a creditable one, showing a balance on hand at the beginning of the year of $3,123.24, as against $2,197.94—a gain of $952.30 for the year.

The Georgian.
John Temple Graves' new daily, the Georgian, made its appearance last week. Notwithstanding the fact that it is somewhat of a departure from the old line of journalism, as it eliminates whiskey and certain other advertisements and has some other very stringent rules, the Georgian can but succeed, as it contains a complete report of the death losses. As an antidote for this gloomy feeling, we are writing insurance on the lives of these and other valuable animals.
We wish to explain our contract to every farmer, physician, carpenter and saw mill owner in Bulloch, Tattnall, Toombs, Emanuel, Jenkins and Effingham counties.
We are representing the Georgia Life Stock Insurance Company, of Tifton, an incorporated company, who, in our judgment, issues the most up-to-date and popular form of live stock insurance on the market, giving in the face of its policy the actual amount of insurance carried on each animal insured, and furnishing a contract that is plain and simple and gotten up in a way that makes it easy to understand. It is not insurance carried by you.
It costs you nothing but a two cent stamp to know how this insurance is written, and what the expense will be to insure your stock. Simply fill in the blank that appears below, and send the number of Mules, Horses or Cows that you wish protected and forward it to our Atlanta office.
We have organized a force of gentled agents to cover the territory above mentioned, and will be pleased to give all inquiries prompt and courteous response, either by personal letter or by the personal attention of one of our office force. Reliable agents wanted.
Respectfully,

WITH THE GRAND JURY; DOINGS OF APRIL TERM.

GEORGIA—BULLOCH COUNTY.

We, the grand jury, chosen and sworn for the April term of the superior court of Bulloch county, beg to submit the following general presentments:

We have received and adopted the report of the committee appointed by the former grand jury to examine the books of the county officers. Said report is hereto attached and made a part of our general presentments.

We have examined the books of various magistrates and justices of the peace, and find them correctly kept, except the civil docket of the justice of the peace of the 44th G. M. District, who failed to make constable entries and made an error in itemizing cost in some cases.

1. We have elected Messrs. J. W. Wilson, W. H. Blitch and W. L. Jones as a committee to examine the books of the various county officers and to make a thorough inspection of all the county property, such as school houses, mules, plows, road-machines, etc., and to make a thorough inspection of the working of the public roads in said county. We specially instruct this committee to take sufficient time in this inspection, and to make a full report to the grand jury at the October term of superior court.

2. We endorse the efforts of the board of education in building new school houses, and laying off school districts as the law directs.

3. We heartily endorse the present method and system of working our roads.

4. We recommend that the chain-gang be required to work the two public roads leading through Statesboro, within the city limits in the same manner as the roads in the county beyond the city limits. These roads are known as North Main, South Main, East Main and West Main streets. We respectfully ask that the ordinary see that this is properly carried out as soon as possible.

5. We recommend that the ordinary of Bulloch county pay to Ira Wood such amount as he may deem necessary to send his three children to Atlanta, Ga., for treatment.

6. We recommend that the representatives of this county have a law enacted by which the board of education and the county school commissioner shall be elected by a popular vote.

7. We recommend that the ordinary pay $5.00 to T. L. Sharp, constable of the Brooklet district, for services rendered to the county in taking care of a lunatic for four days and nights.

8. We recommend that E. P. Durden be appointed notary public of the 45th G. M. District to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joshua Everett, the present incumbent.

9. We recommend that John R. Gay be appointed notary public of the 46th G. M. District.

10. We recommend George E. Wilson as a member of the board of education to fill the vacancy caused by J. A. Fulcher leaving the county.

11. Mr. Howell Cone not being an applicant for solicitor of the city court, we hereby recommend the appointment of Fred T. Lanier.

12. We have examined the jail by committee and find it neatly and well kept, and in good repair, except that the bath tubs and water closets need painting.

13. We have examined the court house by committee and find it in good repair and well kept, except sashes being loose in the frames, and trash not being properly removed from the floor in different jury rooms.

14. We especially call the ordinary's attention to former recommendation of the grand jury relative to a public water closet, and respectfully ask that he have one erected at once at some suitable place. And that he have the trash cleaned out of the steeple where the clock is located and have all openings in the steeple screened.

15. We find the chairs of the traverse jury in the court room very uncomfortable and recommend that good spring bottomed chairs be put in their places, and also that the furniture and chairs in the grand jury room and the petit jury room insufficient and ask that the ordinary have same properly furnished.

16. We recommend that the ordinary appropriate out of the county funds fifty dollars to each militia district where they can secure leases or titles to land for the purpose of building and improving the court houses.

17. We have made a careful examination of the paupers' list and recommend the following changes: That Mrs. Mary Abstance be raised to five dollars a month, Jack Hodges from four to five dollars per month, Isaac Holloway, colored, from three to five dollars per month, Betty Harrison, colored, from two to three dollars per month and that the same be paid over to Mr. J. W. Wilson; Henry Vest, colored, from three to four dollars per month, that Mrs. Ella Bland and children be reduced from five dollars to two dollars and a half per month, that W. P. Bobbitt be discontinued, that Mrs. Maggie Green be increased from three to four dollars per month.

18. We recommend that Mrs. Mary Edenfield of the 137th district be placed on the paupers' list and paid three dollars per month, said money to be paid over to J. N. Atkins, that Enoch Beasley be paid two dollars per month, the same to be paid to J. L. Hutchinson, that Hepzibah Bowen be paid four dollars per month, the same to be paid to R. E. Brannen.

19. We recommend that the jurors and bailiffs of this court be paid two dollars per day.

20. It having come to our knowledge that there is an effort on foot to transfer Bulloch county from the Middle to the Atlantic Circuit, we hereby enter our protest against such action and respectfully request our senator and representatives to use every honorable means to prevent the enactment of any law making any change whatever that would affect the present status of our circuit, as we are supremely satisfied with the present condition of affairs.

In taking our leave we tender our thanks to Hon. Alfred Herrington, solicitor, for instructions and courtesies shown our body. We tender our thanks to his honor, Judge B. T. Rawlings, for his able charge to this grand jury and for the manner in which he despatches the business of our court. We take pleasure in commending him to the voters of this circuit for reelection for the full term.

We recommend that these presentments be published in both the county papers, and that they be paid five dollars each for publication.

MADISON WARREN, Foreman.
W. H. BLITCH, Clerk.

The within presentments read in open court, and pursuant to recommendations, therein, ordered that same be entered upon the minutes of this court and be published.

This the 27th day of April, 1905.

B. T. RAWLINGS,
Judge S. C. M. C.

Report of Book Committee.

To the Grand Jury, Spring Term, 1905.

We, the committee appointed by the grand jury, October term, 1905, to examine the records of the various county officers beg leave to make the following report:

We have examined the office of sheriff and find the same correctly and well kept.

We have examined the office of the county school commissioner and find the same neatly kept, and so far as our knowledge goes, correct. We hereby attach commissioner's report in full.

We examined the ordinary's office and find said office correctly and well kept, also the minutes of county commissioners and find same correct, but would suggest that a separate record be kept of all road defaulters.

We examined the office of the clerk of the superior and city court and find the records of said office neatly and correctly kept.

After a careful examination of the treasurer's books we find them neat and correctly kept, with a balance in hands of treasurer at this time ($18,312.73) eighteen thousand three hundred and twelve and 73 one-hundredths dollars and the further sum of ($150.83) one hundred and fifty and 83 one-hundredths dollars as money arising from fines and forfeitures.

We find the tax collector has made full settlement with the ordinary from amounts collected, as follows:
