

Attention: Karen Heller
Gifts

Here are the books I spoke about earlier today. There are only fourteen books and many are not really worth very much because they are pretty common. Surprisingly, the little picture book in the slipcase that I bought in Saigon in 1999 was the highest priced - $2500 (!!!) - who would'a guessed.

Anyway, these are gifts. Do what you will with them.

But, I would appreciate a tax letter.

Paul Rodell
8-5693