Dear Charles:

My wife and I would like to donate a book to the Irish Studies collection at Henderson Library in memory of Harry O'Donoghue's father, who died last year.

We would like the Irish Studies bookplate placed in the front of the book with the following information (arranged in the appropriate way for the bookplate):

Given in memory of Tom O'Donoghue
father of Harry O'Donoghue
by
Fred and Donna Sanders

We would also appreciate a note being sent to Harry and his wife indicating that the library has received this gift honoring his father. Harry's address:

Harry and Traci O'Donoghue
403 E. 51st Street
Savannah, GA 31405

I am enclosing a check for $50.00 to pay for the purchase of the following book for this gift:
Diarmaid Ferriter, The Transformation of Ireland
(Hardcover ISBN 1861973071)

I am including information listing the publisher as either "Profile Books Ltd." (Amazon website), or "The Overlook Press" with the price $37.50 (Irish Literary Supplement review by Lawrence J. McCaffrey).

If there is a balance left from my check after costs, please add it to the fund for purchasing books for the Irish Studies collection.

Thank you for your help with these requests.

Sincerely,

Frederick K. Sanders
