

The Common Zine:

Responding to the Common Reader as a
Community & Building Information Literacy
Skills Together

Lauren Kehoe lsk221@nyu.edu

Undergraduate Instruction & Outreach Librarian, NYU
Libraries

<http://bit.ly/NYUCommonZine>

Objectives for Today:

- ★ Identify ways to respond to a common reading initiative that goes beyond the first year experience
- ★ Learn about a strategic library program to build community
- ★ Understand how zines can be used to inform information literacy

*****

High Impact Practices of Common Read Program:

- ★ Building Community
- ★ Shared Experience
- ★ Ease the Transition to College
- ★ Deepening Engagement with the Reading Process
- ★ Library Research

<https://www.aacu.org/publications-research/periodicals/creating-common-ground-common-reading-and-first-year-college>

What is a zine?

*****

Zines & The ACRL Framework for Information
Literacy

<http://zinelibraries.info/running-a-zine-library/teaching-with-zines/>

Notes & Questions:

