MORNING PARTY FOR MISS BRANNEN

Mrs. J. Frank Oliff and Mrs. Dew Groover honored Miss Barbara Ann Brannen, bride-elect of July 18, at an informal morning party Monday at Mrs. Oliff's home on East Grady street.

The home reflected charm in the lovely flowers, dahlias, roses and gladioli, arranged in the rooms where the girls were entertained. Chicken salad sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and Coca-Cola were served.

The girls had not all been together for such a long time that conversation ruled out any other form of entertainment. However, the hostesses, during a single moment of silence, suggested that each girl present give an account of the most embarrassing incident she had experienced. The results—hilarious outbursts, and eyes red from laughter.

Barbara's gift was a plate in her china pattern.

Eighteen of her friends were present.
