The Jesup Yellow Jackets defeated a stubborn Statesboro team 13-0 in Jesup Friday night before 2,500.

Short punts set up both Jesup touchdowns. Statesboro received the opening kickoff, but had to punt after three plays. Halfback Raymond Ogden returned 16 yards to the Statesboro 34. With halfbacks Ogden and Jerry Joyner and fullback Len Hauss alternating carries, Jesup scored in eight plays, all run inside the tackles. Ogden punched over. The Jesup defense held Wendell McGlamary returned the kickoff from the seven to the 46, with a shoe-string tackle from behind preventing him from going all the way. This was Statesboro's best scoring opportunity, although they penetrated Jesup territory seven times.

John Donaldson's Yellow Jackets scored again in the 10th quarter when he threw a 20-yard pass to Jerry Joyner for a touchdown. Jesup fullback Len Hauss led all ball carriers in the game with 82 yards in 20 tries.

Statesboro did not attempt a forward pass, and Jesup tried only four. It was a bruising defensive game, led by Jesup's David Conners, Hauss, Marty Fender, and Brooks Purvis, and Billy Aldrich, Jimmy Searce, Jimmy Brock, and Lindsey Johnston.

Statesboro Midget Varsity wins first game from Waynesboro

Statesboro's Midget Varsity opened their season with an exciting 12 to 6 victory over a visiting Waynesboro team.

Wayne Howard, the 80 pound quarterback, scored a touchdown for Statesboro on runs of two yards and 60 yards. The first Statesboro touchdown came late in the first quarter after Statesboro had recovered a Waynesboro fumble on the latter's 25 yard line. Robert Mallard and Jimmy Wiggins pounded away at the Waynesboro line to set up the touchdown. Then Howard sneaked the piskin across from two for Statesboro's first tally.

The defensive squad was spear-headed by little Ronnie Street who is known by his teammates as the "Tiny Terror." Street quickly established himself as a strong defender by making or assisting in 18 tackles. Other defensive standouts were John Hart, Wayne Jackson, Mike Miller, and Larry Deal.

There was a large enthusiastic crowd at Memorial Park Stadium to witness the opening game of the 1959 season.

The Varsity squad will travel to Vidalia this coming Saturday night, September 26, to play Vidalia's Midget team. Game time is set at 7:30 P. M.

HOW MUCH IS YOUR TV SET WORTH?

It would take a lot of money to make most folks forego the entertainment they get from their TV sets. But how about when your TV picture tube goes dead? How much will it be worth then?

If your only interest is getting back a picture without regard for the quality of that picture, you can save money by buying a cut-rate, off-brand picture tube. But nationwide tests show that the average brightness of cut-rate tubes is so low, you might set your TV reception back as much as five years.

If you want up-to-date performance—pictures that are brighter than when your set was new—we recommend a Sylvania Silver Screen 85 picture tube.

Picture tubes used in today's TV sets are much brighter than they were five years ago. And seven out of ten leading TV manufacturers use Silver Screen 85 picture tubes in their new TV sets.

Statesboro felt effects of Hurricane Gracie Tuesday

Hurricane Gracie brushed against Statesboro and Bulloch County Tuesday on her way from the Atlantic across the coast of Georgia and South Carolina to the interior of South Carolina and North Carolina where she blew herself out yesterday.

Hitting Beaufort, S. C. with full force the hurricane was the city Tuesday with the wind blowing between twenty and forty miles per hour, with gusts reaching a high of about forty miles per hour over the city.

Mr. James Bland, city engineer, states that there was no major damage on the streets in the city. Trees and limbs were blown down but there was no damage to water and gas lines. "It just created a clean-up job for the city," Mr. Bland said.

Mr. Tom Martin, district manager of the Georgia Power company said that they had power lines down all over the city with power failures in some sections. Eighteen street transformers were knocked out. Power crews worked all day and most of the night putting power back into homes and businesses.

All past members are especially invited for the Homecoming service October 4.

Revel services began at the church on Monday, September 28, and will continue throughout this week.

Coach Ernest Teel's squad dominated play far more than the score indicated. Unchecked Dublin will be the opponent at Memorial Park Stadium at 2 p.m. Friday night.

Joey Hagan scored both touchdowns, one on a 41-yard keeper play from the quarterback post, and the other on a 10-yard scamper from the left halfback position. Little Jimmy Seace added both extra points on perfect placekicks.

Cochran won the toss and chose to receive. On the first play they attempted a fake pass, with the left end hiding out near the left sideline. The receiver was open, but the pass underthrown and halfback Jimmy Brock intercepted it, returning to the Cochran 48.

After two plays gained short yardage, Hagan ran an option play for his right for 41 yards, getting an important block from halfback Herbert Wiggins at the 25.

The half ended with Statesboro still leading, 7-0, but the Blue Devils threatened three more times, once after a brilliant 45-yard punt return by Brock moved the ball deep into Royal territory.

Several more second half threats went by the boards, but with only three minutes remaining in the game, Jerry Newsome blocked a Cochran punt and Billy Aldrich covered the bouncing ball at the Cochran 43.

Hagan, Wendell McGlamary, and Jimmy Cason moved the ball short gains to the 10. Hagan finally took a pitchout from quarterback Austel Youmans and scored.

Bulloch 'owes' state hospital at Augusta 59 pints of blood

Citizens of Bulloch County will no longer be admitted to the Talmadge Memorial Hospital in Augusta until a blood deficit of 59 pints is made up. Dr. Rufus S. Payne, Superintendent of the Talmadge Memorial Hospital, made this ruling in a letter that was addressed to Miss Sarah Hall, head of the Bulloch County Department of Public Welfare.

Miss Hall received the letter recently which said in part: "I regret very much that I will not be able to accept any more applications from your County until satisfactory arrangements have been made to replace the blood which patients from your county have used. This step became necessary when we had to cancel surgery because blood was not available. We have no justification for taking blood from patients in one county and using it on patients from other counties."

Neither Richmond County nor the Talmadge Memorial Hospital are members of the Red Cross Blood Bank. But it has been agreed that the South Atlantic Regional Blood Bank of the Red Cross would replace any blood used on patients from counties in the Red Cross Blood Bank. Bulloch County has sent quite a few patients to the Talmadge Memorial Hospital since it was opened. Since the Hospital is a state institution, the vast majority of the patients treated are charity patients, it is a normal procedure for each county to replace the blood used by its citizens.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Bulloch County on Thursday, (today) October 1, from 1:00 to 6:00. It will be located at the Recreation Center on Fair Road in Statesboro.

An special appeal is being made for donors for this trip so that the shortage can be made up and the citizens of Bulloch County will again be allowed use of the facilities at Talmadge Memorial Hospital. This will be in addition to the regular donations that are used in the Bulloch County Hospital which amounts to an estimated 900 pints a month. Several people in Bulloch County have scheduled surgery for October and there are commitments to be met for them. All those giving on Thursday should be ready to tell the Red Cross Gray Ladies who take the personal history if they wish their pint of blood to go to some particular person, to be uncompensated for use by the local hospital, or to go to make up the shortage at the Talmadge Memorial Hospital.

This new census will help us take a look at the changes in agriculture since 1954, the date of the last census. The census will help answer such questions as: What is happening to the number of farmers as substantially fewer younger farmers replace the older farmers? How many farms are there today? What sort of changes have taken place in the intensive type farming—vegetable, poultry, dairy, etc.

The information furnished by the farmer about his farm and himself is required by law to be kept confidential. Each census taker will take an oath that he or she will not tell anyone an employee

Editorials

Let's pay our blood debt today

Bulloch County citizens are being denied admittance to the Talmadge Memorial Hospital in Augusta, a state hospital, because our county "owes" fifty-nine pints of blood to the hospital.

This situation was revealed by Miss Sarah Hall of the Bulloch County Department of Public Welfare when she was notified of it by Dr. Rufus F. Payne, superintendent of the Talmadge Memorial Hospital, in a letter dated September 11.

Dr. Payne's letter begins: "I regret very much that I will not be able to accept any more applications from your county until satisfactory arrangements have been made to replace the blood which patients from your county have used. This step became necessary when we had to cancel surgery because blood was not available. We have no justification for taking blood from patients in one county and using on patients from other counties."

According to Miss Hall the number of Bulloch County citizens who go to the state hospital in Augusta is fairly large. She points out that not all these are patients on welfare. She only has to certify the patient's residency in Bulloch County.

It's a sad state of affairs. But it is not beyond remedy.

We salute the B.P.W.

We salute the members of the Statesboro Business and Professional Women's Club this week. There's no way of getting around it, the ladies of today are playing a tremendous role in the business and professional fields in our nation.

One has only to look around in one's office, one's store, one's business, one's industry to see how true this statement is.

The ladies in the organization are using next week, October 4-10, as National Business and Professional Women's Week to focus attention on the important role of B.P.W. to all women, especially to working women.

And we'll do all we can to help them. So we ask you to join us in this salute to the local B.P.W. and say to them—"We do appreciate you and the great work you are doing!"

She's ours too

This week we lose up our hat for Mrs. Paul Sauve of Millen. Mrs. Sauve was named Georgia Homemaker for the First Congressional District and goes to Atlanta on October 8 where she will compete for the title of Georgia Homemaker.

Though Mrs. Sauve now lives in Millen, it's hard for us to think of Alfred Merle Dorman Sauve as belonging anywhere except to Statesboro and Bulloch County. The daughter of Mrs. Alfred Dorman and the late Mr. Dorman, she and her husband, Paul Sauve, moved to Millen not many years ago.

The accomplishments upon which Mrs. Sauve's title is based is impressive and even we can see how the judges selected her to represent the First District.

We are hoping that Mrs. Sauve

It appears to be a simple matter of paying our "debt."

And we can do that today. The Regional Bloodmobile is at the Recreation Center today (Thursday) and will be here from 1 to 6 p.m.

Mr. Jimmy Gunter, chairman of the Bulloch County Blood Program urges all citizens of our county to help put our "credit rating" in good shape, so that those in our county who need to be admitted to the state hospital in Augusta will not be embarrassed and admittance refused just because a blood deficit is against our county.

We need to contribute nearly 150 pints of blood to take care of our normal needs at the Bulloch County Hospital and to pay our debt at the Talmadge Memorial Hospital.

We can't afford to let it get around that Bulloch County is not meeting its commitment in something as important as providing for its citizens who must be admitted to a hospital.

Become a blood donor today. Go to the Recreation Center and give a pint of blood. You'll be rewarded by the feeling that you have performed a public service which may be translated into the saving of someone's life—even your own.

We say 'good luck'

may follow in the footsteps of 1958's Georgia Homemaker from the First District, Mrs. A. M. Braswell Jr. of Statesboro and Bulloch County, who went to Atlanta and won the state title of "Georgia Homemaker."

We are proud of our Homemakers.

It was announced this week that Mr. Johnson Black, personnel director of Rockwell Statesboro Corporation, is leaving the company to accept a position with another company.

Mr. Black came to Statesboro with Rockwell in 1956. He and Mrs. Black became active in community activities. He became identified with the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Black with the Junior Woman's Club, serving as president for two years.

Do you claim to be a night owl when it comes to seeing after your eyes? Unless you're sure that you have owl eyes, you better use your driving lights and not your parking lights when dusk sets in. Parking lights just won't do the job! This advice from the State Patrol!

To be safe after dark, bike riders and pedestrians should be sure they can be seen—and that they can see. If you're walking, don't forget to walk facing traffic and carry some kind of light or wear light colored clothing. If you're a bike rider, use headlight and rear light reflectorized tape on handlebars and mudguards. Anything you can do to be easily seen will be a lifesaver for you!

BEWARE THE TRAP

TWO ARTICLES have claimed my attention in the past several days. The first is in the October issue of The Reader's Digest, John G. Hubbell writes about "What Tomorrow's Army Will Look Like."

He gives the average layman some insight into the future of American warfare. There is the Infantryman made of tough dactin and nylon. It weighs two hundred and five pounds, has a 22-foot wingspan, and requires only one hundred yards for take-off. It can be dropped behind enemy lines to surround GI's who can inflame it within seconds and zoom to safety.

AS TO FIREPOWER, new rifles will permit two men to generate more firepower than ten men using older weapons. The magic carpet, which will lift a soldier a few feet off the ground and carry him toward his objective at about sixty miles per hour, leaves me spellbound. A jump belt will vault a man to the top of a two-story building, or permit him to walk across water at thirty-five miles an hour. (Shades of Buck Rogers).

ONE OF HUBBELL'S statements with which I agree is: "The Army is working at crash speed to ensure that the ground forces which fight tomorrow's wars will be the most lethal and best-protected ever developed."

The other article is found in the October issue of Reader's Digest, Dr. Werner von Braun writes on "Missiles and Civilization." He deals with the hesitancy of many Americans to believe that we have a right to venture into space. "Technology," he affirms, "is the key to the future of the individual person to physical labor so that he can devote himself to the development of his mind and spirit."

Later, he warns: "If the world's ethical standards fail to rise with the advances achieved by technology, we will perish."

THE TASK of the Christian appears quite plain in the face of such facts. We must develop a crash program to keep our ethical and moral standards rising to give meaning and purpose to our daily lives.

In a day of mechanization, technological progress, and mass production, the dignity and the right of the individual person must be protected; the ethical standards of a swiftly moving scientific era must be judged; the ultimate goal of a universe with Divine purpose must be proclaimed.

The ethics of the space age must be taught within the Christian faith. The responsibility is ours.

THERE ARE many causes of delinquency which have been listed over and over by agencies studying the problem. There are also many different "climates" in almost every community which contribute their share of the "germs" which seed this social evil. The juvenile crime problem is fast growing into an immense proportion, so big indeed that it almost crowded the visit of Mr. Moscow off the front page of some of our great daily newspapers.

From Washington has come the news that the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, in one of the strongest statements yet made by a national leader has called for a crack down on juvenile hoodlums. Speaking from the Nation's Capital Mr. Hoover calls the situation frightening.

Pointing to an increase in juvenile crime in excess of 8 per cent over 1958 he points out the steady increase in this category of criminal activity while the national crime picture as concerns adults is showing a slight decrease.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

THE FIRST STANDARDIZED City Directory ever published for Statesboro is now being delivered to subscribers by R. L. Polk and Co. of Richmond, Va. The new reference work is a handy volume listing 8,117 names of adult residents and business places in Statesboro and Collegeboro, with eighteen established as the minimum age. By a standardized City Directory is meant that it contains all features, and in the same sequence, as most City Directories in the country, including those of the great cities, the publishers said.

Departments of the 1959 guidebook are as follows: In order of importance: "How to Use the Directory," "Business Directory," "Classified Section" (yellow pages), alphabetical list of names of all residents and firms, directory of householders, and a numerical telephone directory.

The Classified (yellow) pages catalog over 200 different kinds, or varieties, of enterprises. "Accident Insurance to 'Workman's Compensation Insurance,'" testifying to the diversity of the city's commercial, manufacturing and professional life. The publishers explained that these represent only the basic heads of trends and do not cover the numerous varieties purchased by the subscribers as "displays" and listed in the Classified Section.

Special features of the alphabetical list of names are the listing of the names of wives, the names of children, and the designation of households.

Come back feeling fresh as a breeze. If you like activity there's a heated swimming pool, square dancing, horseback riding, craft making, wilderness pack trips and more.

There's no way of knowing why we get so feverish with these jobs. Maybe it's because we know how spring will reward us for our efforts, or we know that there's no place for wasted time and wasted energy. We need to live each one enjoy it, and drink it in the fullest.

Maybe it's that the season in our lives has finally come when we've learned what real happiness is.

Anyhow, we love the fall, and all it brings.

SOIL CONSERVATION

BY E. T. "RED" MULLIS

Mr. Robbie Belcher, a co-operator of the Ogeechee River Soil Conservation District, has had some interesting experiences with soybeans following combined grain. Mr. Belcher, a progressive farmer who doesn't believe in burning any crop residues, has been turning his straw under. Last year he was rather late getting his beans in due to dry hard ground (which he had to break and plant in).

But Mr. Belcher made beans after all, maybe nothing to brag about, but fair yield.

This year is a different story with Mr. Belcher. He had plenty of rain to soften up the ground for breaking and planting after breaking. His beans have grown off beautifully. I've seen them - and prospects are bright.

Mr. Belcher's experiences point up some important points. In a dry year, much planting without breaking or burning has advantages over turning because you get your beans in on time and the mulch on top conserves moisture, keeps down weeds, and protects the soil from the hot sun and beating rains. But in wet seasons, these advantages may be somewhat minimized. It then boils down to costs. Costs of breaking the land against the cost of an extra plowing and heavier planting in the mulch.

These are the kinds of experiences we need. Progress is not made overnight. By trial and error and close observation, we can improve many of our present methods of doing things. But let's not condemn or elevate a practice or method out of proportion just by one year's results. Seasons vary very much, that what looks like the very ticket one year may turn out exactly the opposite the next.

It's important to destroy cotton stalks says County Agent Powell

By Roy Powell County Agent

Now that cotton picking is about over, it's important to consider destruction of the cotton stalks. There are several good reasons why this should be done.

First, boll weevil propagation and build-up will be stopped. Second, the adult boll weevils will starve or go into hibernation in a weakened condition that will lessen their chances of surviving through the winter.

If cotton stalks are left in the field, new growth will take the plant nutrients that could be used for future crops from the soil. Chopped and shredded stalks on the land give some protection against erosion. Broken up stalks will decay before another crop season and will add beneficial organic matter to the soil.

Many farmers have found the rotary mower to be an excellent tool to use in destroying cotton stalks.

VEGETABLE GARDEN

You all know how weeds and grass are a nuisance in the vegetable garden. Now is the time to do something about this nuisance. Plow weeds under now before the seeds reach maturity. This will help prevent them from germinating next spring when the soil warms up.

If grass and weed plants are kept from maturing their seeds, it will greatly reduce their population in your garden. You will not only kill many grass and weed seeds, but you will be adding a green manure crop to your soil. This also serves as a means of starving out the nematodes so injurious to vegetables. Coffee weeds are especially susceptible to infection with root-knot nematodes, so they need to be controlled as much as possible.

Bulloch County farmers interested in getting an analysis on their fertilizer, bring purchased this fall are urged to contact Dan Fitch, Rt. 1, Pembroke, Ga., the fertilizer inspector.

Placing clothes in the refrigerator a few hours prior to ironing them will make them easier to iron. Mrs. Doris Oglesby, housing engineer, Agricultural Extension Service.

Applicants for crew leader jobs must be a United States citizen, at least 18 years old, have access to an automobile in good condition and a telephone. They must also be able to devote full time to the job and be in good physical condition. Those applicants meeting preliminary qualifications must pass a written test.

JAYCEES GET THREE NEW MEMBERS AT MEETING IN SEPTEMBER

Buddy Barnes, president of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that Doye Collins, John Skelley and Jim Higgs, were installed as new Jaycees at their meeting in September.

Georgia ranks fourth in acreage planted to vegetable crops in the United States; it is seventh in production and ninth in value, according to W. C. Carter, marketing specialist-fruit and vegetable, Agricultural Extension Service. Fruits, nuts, and vegetables are of great economic importance to many Georgia growers, he says, as they usually account for about 50 to 60 million dollars a year.

The Fire Department and the schools can perform particularly valuable service in observing Fire Prevention Week, the Mayor said. "The reward is a safer community for all our citizens," he concluded.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is conducting a door-to-door sale of home fire extinguishers to focus the attention of the home owner on the importance of fire prevention.

THE SUPERLATIVE '60 CHEVY

This is the one that says '60 like no other car. From its clean-thrusting grille to its dapper rear deck, there's so much that is new and different about this superlative Chevrolet it stands out from the rest like a fresh-minted coin. And you'll be just as wide-eyed over what's inside—the relaxing roominess, tasteful trim, hushed elegance, all comfortably cradled by Full Coil Springs at all four wheels. Yet, sumptuous as this new Chevy is, you'll find new economy of operation, new dependability, new longer life. Here, then, we're confident both you and your budget will joyously agree, is the nearest to perfection a low-priced car ever came!

Here's the car that introduces a whole new decade of design—with so much that's new and different the other ones can only hope to come close. It's the superlative '60 Chevrolet—with new space inside, new spirit under the hood, new splendor in every clean-etched line.

Freshly shaped contours rake back from the unified new grille to the jaunty rear deck, fitted with craftsmanship you'd expect only on the most expensive makes. Inside, there's room to sprawl in, room to sit tall in—generously provided by Chevy's sofa-wide seats and extra margin of hat space. And there's even more leg room for the man in the middle—thanks to the way Chevrolet engineers have shaved down the transmission tunnel.

Out on the road, as Chevy's Full Coil ride will permeate you most gently, there's not a car near the price that comes close to the hushed comfort of this one. And, adding to your sense of silence and solidity are thicker, newly designed rubber body mounts that do an even more efficient job of filtering out road shock, tire hum and vibration.

Quiet, quick-responding power is provided by a choice of two standard engines—Chevy's famed Hi-Thrift 6 and a new Economy Turbo-Fire V8 that gets up to 10% more miles out of a gallon of regular while delivering greater engine torque at normal speeds.

Shifting engine weight to the rear also makes for smoother, easier compact car handling and gives glued-to-the-road traction on ice, mud or snow.

Corvair's size—some 5 inches lower, 2½ feet shorter and 1,300 pounds lighter than conventional sedans—makes it a joy to jockey through busy streets, a pleasure to park (no need for power assists). Its revolutionary Turbo-Air 6 gets up to 30% more miles on a gallon of regular (a real magician on mileage). And, because the out even the smallest engine imparts more effectively than ever and a trim new two-toning motif that's available on all 16 fresh-minted models.

But, impressive as all this may look in print, there's really only one way to tell how near to perfection this superlative '60 Chevrolet actually comes—and that's to drop in on your dealer and drive one!

Chevy's accent on comfort and convenience even extends back to its easier-to-load (and tremendous) luggage compartment. You'll also find a convenient new parking brake that automatically returns to normal height after application, a new clutch linkage that filters

THE REVOLUTIONARY Corvair BY CHEVROLET

America's only car with an airplane-type horizontal engine! America's only car with independent suspension at all 4 wheels! America's only car with an air-cooled aluminum engine!

Here's the car created to conquer a new field—Chevrolet's low-priced compact Corvair. The product of nine years of research and development at the auto industry's most advanced facilities, it's America's first truly compact, economical car that retains the ride and 6-passenger comfort you're used to in a big one.

The key to this small miracle: America's first and only modern rear-mounted aluminum engine—a lightweight 6 that's so revolutionary it can be packaged with the transmission and drive gears as one compact unit.

By putting the engine in the rear, Chevrolet has made the floor practically flat, front and rear. There's plenty of foot room for everybody, including the passengers in the middle.

Shifting engine weight to the rear also makes for smoother, easier compact car handling and gives glued-to-the-road traction on ice, mud or snow.

120 Days Around the World on The Flying Hawk....

BY GUY H. WELLS, STATESBORO, GEORGIA

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is one of a series of accounts written by Guy Wells of Statesboro about the trip he and Mrs. Wells made around the world aboard the freighter "The Flying Hawk." They left the U. S. on February 26, 1959 and returned July 7, 1959.

In the Pacific... Dear Leode! Earlier I sent you an account of our trip and included a biography of several of the passengers. I promised to send the others later. Here they are as they gave them to me.

Mrs. Helen Mason of Boston, Mass., world traveler, psychiatrist.

Then she gave her Philosophy: "I would like to be a could be. If I could not be an Ace. For a could be is a Maybe. With a chance of reaching port. But I'd rather be a has been. Than a might have been. For a might have been has never been."

Then she gave her favorite quotation: "Humility, that low sweet root from which all heavenly virtues shoot."

This lady is well read and has traveled almost everywhere and knows, or thinks she knows something of everything and does, but Pope says "a little learning is a dangerous thing."

Mrs. Jane Welch of Washington, D. C. refused to give any data. I have learned her husband is a government lawyer, whose duty it is to find fault or flaws with any government contract. He seemed not to have read the contract his wife had with the brandtens for the trip around the world. She found fault with the trip almost daily with Secretary Dulles until he died. She buys all colors of clothes at the various ports and wears them daily. She never comes to religious services on Sundays.

Mr. Joseph Maier I have referred to as the most accommodating, kind man I have ever met. He is a favorite on the ship. I think, with most everyone. He is a second generation German, born in New York, at

Mr. M. N. Meeks surprised by his family on his 82nd birthday Sunday

By MRS. JOHN W. ROBERTSON

The children and grandchildren of M. N. Meeks met at his home Sunday and surprised him with a birthday dinner in observance of his 82nd birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Meeks and M. C. Meeks, Jr. of Register, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Meeks, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meeks and children, William, Jenny and Patty, all of Statesboro, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Meeks and sons, Herman and Waldo, of Marlow, Mr. and Mrs. Shelley May of North Augusta, S. C., and Mrs. Clyde Hendrix and children, Linda, Tommy and Jerry, of Port of Miami, Mr. and Mrs. James Meeks and daughter, Miss Odene, of Swainsboro, Miss Addie Meeks and Fred Meeks of Brooklet.

The Rev. W. E. Chapple, pastor of the Brooklet-New-Hope-Nevis Church, began a series of services at the New Hope Church Monday night.

Incidentally she is a perfectionist and married to an imperfectionist. There is never a dull moment for us.

We have had several other short distance passengers, Mrs. Woolley whom I have previously written about has had three different cabin mates. Miss Margaret, painting, reading, piano and organ, bird study and flower culture, and interested in politics. She was responsible for Carrollton becoming a bird Sanctuary.

Her husband, J. Howard Tumlin, was born in Tallapoosa, Georgia, attended Emory University, but graduated from Asbury College and LaSalle University. He has been a successful automobile dealer for over thirty-eight years, now retired.

He lists his hobbies as traveling, baseball, deep sea fishing, loving humor, card games, loafing, and loving his wife most of the time.

For his pet peeves he lists: traffic jams, big crowds, land people and braggarts. Some of the readers may not remember too well my wife, Ouida Brannen. She writes she was born in Bulloch County. I guess, in the country as she does not say in what town.

Education: Statesboro High, Shorter College and Brenau College. She spent several years teaching music in Wadley, Mett, Statesboro and Eastman. After living in Eastman twenty-five years she returned to Statesboro where she married me. I married her, but gives the date November 26, 1955. I have had to get two or three copies of our marriage licenses to get sure we can convince any one that Ouida P. Wells, Ouida Brannen Wells, and Mrs. Guy H. Wells are one and the same person. Fortunately, no one on the trip has questioned this yet. The passport lists the three names.

Her hobbies are: organ, piano, fishing, dogwood trees, and living in the mountains.

HOW MUCH IS YOUR TV SET WORTH?

It would take a lot of money to make most folks forego the entertainment they get from their TV sets. But how about when your TV picture tube goes dead? How much will it be worth then?

If your only interest is getting back a picture without regard for the quality of that picture, you can save money by buying a cut-rate, old-brand picture tube. But nationwide tests show that the average brightness of cut-rate tubes is so low, you might set your TV reception back as much as five years.

If you want up-to-date performance—pictures that are brighter than when your set was new—we recommend a Silver Screen 85 picture tube. Picture tubes used in today's TV sets are much brighter than they were five years ago. And seven out of ten leading TV manufacturers use Silver Screen 85 picture tubes in their new TV sets.

We install SILVER SCREEN 85 picture tubes

Professor Teams Spread Our Fame

Georgia Teachers College basketball teams have certainly spread the fame of the college beyond the state of Georgia.

Examination of all-time athletic records recently disclosed the fact that GTC basketball teams have played four years colleges and universities from 19 states and Canada.

GTC owns win over teams from North Carolina, Arkansas, Indiana, Missouri, South Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, Mississippi, Canada, Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Iowa, and Wisconsin.

Malard left off at the bat last year following a 200 sophomore season, but his defensive play at the hot corner caused Coach Clements to label him "the best defensive third baseman in the 11 years I've coached here."

Fall practice will last two weeks. Coach Clements says "We won't do much hitting, but will concentrate on the fundamentals that we always miss out on in the spring because of the wet weather."

A prediction? Coach Clements says, "We potentially could have the best team we've ever had. We have more letterman and more outstanding freshmen than in a long time. We'll play a schedule of about 30 games against the toughest opponents available."

Others are J. E. Rowe, Fitzgerald and Brewster Parker, basketball guard; Ronnie Parker, Smith high of Atlanta, basketball; Bill Griffin, baseball shortstop from Richmond Academy in Augusta; Tommy Howland, baseball catcher from Richmond Academy; and Curtis Chambers, baseball catcher from Louisville, Kentucky.

According to W. H. Gurley, agronomist, Agricultural Extension Service, 125 fertilizer recommendations on corn are 500 pounds of 4-12-12 and side dressing of 60-80 pounds of equal 16-8-8.

By RALPH TURNER

The Midget Varsity Football team traveled over to Vidalia last Saturday night, September 26, and came home victorious. The Statesboro team defeated Vidalia 12 to 0.

Both touchdowns were scored early in the game.

Defense was the bright spot for the Statesboro team as they held a strong Vidalia passing attack scoreless. A hard charging line led by Wayne Jackson, John Hart, and Richard Medina.

The Vidalia quarterback, James W. Gunter, was intercepted by Wayne Howard, the quarterback, made sure of the extra point after the second touchdown.
