

'Eagles' Chosen As New Nickname For Georgia Southern College Athletic Teams

"The Eagles. The Georgia Southern Eagles. Not bad. Think I'll grow to like it." This seems to be the typical remark heard around campus recently as news of the new nickname for athletic teams spread around.

A small percentage of students have expressed their willingness to retain the old nickname—"Professors"—but the committee felt that with the recent changing of the school name from Georgia Teachers College to Georgia Southern College, the natural tie-in between Teachers and Professors was now lost.

Suggested by Ralph Swords, sophomore business major from Augusta, the nickname was adopted by a special committee last week from among 104 entries from students and faculty. Swords will receive $10 for his winning entry.

Mattie Lively

P.T.A. hears

"Mental and Physical Health Services in our School and Community" was the subject of a panel discussion at the Mattie Lively P.T.A. meeting on Tuesday night, January 12.

Dr. Charles T. Brown, medical director of the Health District 7, was the panel moderator. Other panelists were Mrs. Thea Aaron, public health nurse supervisor; Miss Leona Newton, instructional supervisor for Bulloch County Schools; and Dr. Kathryn Lovett, local psychiatrist.

Mrs. Harold Samp, chairman of the Mattie Lively P.T.A. Committee, introduced the panel. The panel members answered specific questions presented by the program committee, informing the audience on what it actually being done to solve Bulloch County's health problems.

The inspiration was given by speech by Mrs. George Byrd and Mrs. Bill Offitt. They presented some "Thoughts for the New Year" and gave readings of the 24th Psalm and "A Prayer" by St. Francis of Assisi. Participants were: Cindy Robbins, Wanda Watson, Janet Rose Scarborough, Sue Caason, Vick Page, Fred Page, Shuford Wall, Hugh Rockett, Alan Minkovitz and Jimmy Carter.

After a brief business meeting, conducted by President Francis Trappell, fifth grade mothers were hostesses for the social hour.

Mrs. Laura Margaret Godbee's sixth grade won the attendance prize with Miss Aline Smith's first grade in second place.

GSC Homecoming begins Friday; First Federal Eagles play Tampa Saturday night

Georgia Southern College will begin observing its annual Homecoming weekend Friday, January 29, and will continue until midnight Saturday night.

The Art Club's 14th annual Beauty Revue will begin the festivities at 8 p.m. Friday night. Gabriel McNaughton of Guyton, president of the club, states that the theme of the Beauty Revue this year will be "Around the Clock."

Eighteen girls representing various clubs and organizations at GSC will compete for the title, "Miss GSC of 1960." Sibbie Hogan of Augusta, last year's winner, will crown the new queen.

Saturday's agenda will get under way at 10 a.m. when the alumni will begin registering at the Frank I. Williams Student Center. Registration will be handled by Eta Rho Epsilon, the official student organization on campus.

Florets and bands will parade through downtown Statesboro beginning at 2 p.m. Saturday. Cups and prizes will go to the three best floats in the competition. Parade marshal is Dr. Burton Bight, associate professor of biology.

The alumni board of directors will meet at the Williams Center at 4 p.m. for its annual business meeting.

The annual Alumni dinner will be held at the Williams Center at 5:30 p.m. and will be followed by the general alumni meeting. President of the GSC Alumni Association is Mr. Don Coleman, principal of the Sallie Zetterower School in Statesboro.

The climax of the homecoming weekend is the basketball game on Saturday night at 8 p.m., in the W. S. Hamner Building, between the Georgia Southern Eagles and the University of Tampa. GSC narrowly defeated Tampa, 77 to 75 last week in Tampa, and the return match promises to be a great game. Last year an overflow crowd saw GSC win its homecoming game from Jacksonville University.

Announcement is made this week that the Camellia Show, sponsored by the Civic Garden Club of Statesboro, will be held on Friday, February 26, at the Recreation Center from 3 to 9 o'clock p.m.

Mrs. Percy Bland, chairman of the show, states that camellias have not been so plentiful as they were last year because of the freezing weather. "We hope that this year's date will be just right," Mrs. Bland said. "The buds which are on the bushes now will not be hurt by this cold weather and will be ready to open in all their glory by February 26," she added.

The Civic Garden Club has been sponsoring the Camellia Show since 1950. This year's show theme is suggested by The American Camellia Society and will be "Among Earth's Treasures."

SALLIE ZETTEROWER

The Sallie Zetterower P.T.A. will meet Tuesday evening, February 2, at 7:30 o'clock. The program will be on the evaluation of practices regarding family living.

The bills would raise other county commissioner's pay by $300 per year and makes adjustments in employee's salaries in general.

Effective date of the changes would be January 1, 1961.

According to a news story datelined Atlanta in Wednesday's Savannah Morning News, Francis Allen and Wiley Fordham of Bulloch County introduced local legislation Tuesday which would take Bulloch County's sheriff and ordinary off the fee system.

The legislators said the bill called for salaries of $9,000 for the sheriff and $6,500 for the ordinary. They estimated that both officials would get a slight reduction in pay.

The Bulloch solons also will introduce bills to provide straight $6,500 salaries for the clerk of Superior Court and chairman of the county commission. The clerk would receive

Grand Jury approves plan to equalize county tax structure

GSA recommends new P.O. building

Congressman Prince H. Preston announced today that the General Services Administration has recommended construction of a new $761,000 federal building for Statesboro, Georgia. The building would house the post office and the facilities for the departments of Agriculture, Health, Education, and Welfare and the Selective Service system. The recommendation was made to the committees on public works of the Senate and House of Representatives, for their consideration.

If approved by these congressional committees, GSA would proceed with the acquisition of a site and preparation of plans for the proposed building as soon as funds are available.

The new building will contain about 28,000 square feet of gross floor area. Mr. Preston said the structure will replace the inadequate existing building erected in 1919.

The project contemplates the disposal of the existing building upon completion of the proposed new structure. Mr. Preston has worked closely with local and GSA officials in preliminary projection toward the building.

Senator Dick Russell's office in a telephone conversation with the editor of the Herald Wednesday afternoon said that Senator Russell had been advised also by the General Services Administration of its recommendation. He stated that he is all for the federal building here.

BPW names Mrs. Nelle B. Godbee as 'Woman of Achievement for Year'

Mrs. Nelle B. Godbee was honored recently when she was selected by the Statesboro Business and Professional Women's Club at its January meeting, as "The Woman of Achievement for the Year." She is a teacher in the Martin Luther King Elementary School in Statesboro, and a member of the Alpha Delta Kappa Chapter which is an International Teachers' Sorority, secretary of American Association of University Women, a member of the First Methodist church choir, as well as being secretary of the Statesboro Music Club.

Aside from her professional activities, she has contributed her energies in promoting peace and harmony in her community. When Mrs. Godbee came back five years ago to her native town to live, she joined the Statesboro BPW Club, and at once began to work for its objectives. She is now corresponding secretary of the Statesboro BPW Club, and has written the words and music to the Business and Professional Women's Club song which was adopted at the state convention as an official song of the Federation.

For recreation Mrs. Godbee enjoys working in ceramics, and in the summer of 1958 she attended classes in this subject at the John Herron Art School in Indianapolis. This hobby has brought pleasure to many people as she shares with others the results of her skill.

Last summer a seven-week trip to Europe brought Mrs. Godbee back, eager for the opportunities of service awaiting her. On this trip she visited thirteen countries of Europe, including such cities as London, Paris, Rome, Madrid, and Brussels where she viewed some of the greatest art galleries and cathedrals of the world. She also visited the countryside of Warwick the Lake District and Stratford-upon-Avon. This trip deepened her appreciation of those arts in which she has always shown a vital interest.

Mrs. Godbee is capable, forward-looking, and enthusiastic and richly deserves the honor which the Business and Professional Women's Club has bestowed on her.

Open House at Girl Scout Home on January 31

The Statesboro Junior Woman's Club will hold "open house" Sunday afternoon, January 31 from 3 to 5 o'clock at the new Girl Scout Home at the Recreation Center.

The new Scout House is sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club.

The public is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

COMMITTEE REPORT ON TAX EQUALIZATION PROPOSAL

At the January 1959 term of the Bulloch County Superior Court, the Grand Jury made the following recommendations:

"Acknowledging the charge of Judge Renfro, we recommended that he, in cooperation with County Commissioner Edgar Wynne, Tax Commissioner Winfield Lee and County School Superintendent H. P. Womack, appoint a committee of at least twelve or more representing a cross section of the county, to study and formulate a plan to submit to a Grand Jury for the complete equalization of the tax structure of the county."

Men from each district in

The 20 solons went on record as "solely declaring our- selves unalterably opposed to token integration, or any other form of integration anywhere at any time in the public schools of Georgia."

"We further stoutly believe that a massive fight must be made to resist the efforts of those who would degrade the health, welfare and morals of Georgia children by seeking to mix races in public schools," the lawmakers declared.

The document said that the press and "others" would publicly demand that "the handful of agitators, who are plaintiffs in the Atlanta school case, dis- miss their suit and live in peace and harmony." It stated that this approach would be far better than "the fallacious insis- tence that all other citizens of Georgia knuckle under to the efforts of those of the Atlanta metropolitan area who would break down Georgia traditions."

The statement further declares that Georgians can find ways of continuing education of their children "within the framework of our constitution."

It's getting later than you think

It's getting later than you think. The time is upon us to ask ourselves the question, "Do we believe the schools in Bulloch County will be closed?"

Are you worried about that question?

You tell yourself, "Sure, I'm worried, but there isn't much I can do."

Most thoughtful Bulloch Countians, as well as most thoughtful Georgians, wish that the issue were not before us at all, or that it might be postponed into the future.

But the issue is moving closer and closer to us and it will have to be met.

Legislation is being considered in the Georgia Legislature that would allow voters to decide whether the state's constitutional ban against integrated schools should be repealed.

A measure would implement a pupil placement plan offered by the Atlanta School Board.

Other bills would repeal existing segregation laws.

Twenty legislators from the First Congressional District, led by Bulloch County's Representative Francis Allen, have signed a petition urging resistance to efforts to bring about token integration in Georgia. The petition is signed by Mr. Allen and Representative Wiley Fordham.

They've done it again!

Members of the Statesboro High School speech department went to Athens last Saturday and took first place in the state one-act play. Presenting a cutting from "The Mad Woman of Chailot" by Jean Giraudoux, these young actors and actresses were declared to be the best in Georgia.

It was just one year ago on January 24, 1959, that they did the same thing with a play called "Soldado."

We commend these young people and their director, Mrs. Bernard Morris, for their accomplishment and for bringing fame to Statesboro High School and the community of which it is a part.

For safety's sake

It's always a good idea to be weather-wise which will go a long way toward keeping us free from traffic mishaps. But all traffic accidents can't be blamed on the weather, because some might have once occurred in ideal weather when the visibility is 100 per cent.

Welcome GSC alumni

It's Homecoming at Georgia Southern College.

Loyal alumni will begin gathering at the college tomorrow and will find a full weekend planned for them.

Tomorrow night there is the annual Beauty Revue, when Miss Sibbie Hogan of Augusta, "Miss GSC of 1959," will crown 1960's Miss GSC.

Saturday afternoon will feature the alumni parade through downtown Statesboro, and Saturday evening Alumni will gather at the Frank I. Williams Center for their annual dinner.

Then the climax—the GSC Eagles will play the University of Tampa in the W. S. Hamner Building, beginning at 8 p.m.

It's a big weekend for the college and the citizens of the community of which it is a part happily join in the celebration.

Welcome GSC Alumni!

Don't Be Afraid of a Little Shadow

This Week's Meditation

Lawrence E. Houston, Jr.

"We can all try to relax," she advised. Her name was Dr. Frances Hicks, professor of psychology, Georgia State College of Women, at Milledgeville.

As a member of a panel on Mental Health during the In-Service Training Program for Bulloch County teachers last Saturday, she was emphasizing what individuals could do to prevent mental illness. Her suggestions sounded almost like "home remedies" such as the taking of "tepid baths." It seems this is one of the first treatments given to patients in the State Mental Hospital.

IN THIS SAME connection, one of our local physicians prescribed plenty of bed rest for persons with colds and virus infections during these days of the flu epidemic.

But, we don't want to stay in bed these days. We want a pill or a shot (puncture in the days of yore) to tide us over until our physical resistance is restored. Such an attitude is indicative that we have forgotten a time-honored adage—"An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." This is the medical profession and the proponents of mental health are trying to recover.

The church has its word, also. So often, religion has been viewed as an ambulance, parked at the foot of a cliff, to pick the broken pieces of wayward humanity. Of course, the church is a refuge for those who have been beaten down by life's ill.

We commend these young people and their director, Mrs. Bernard Morris, for their accomplishment and for bringing fame to Statesboro High School and the community of which it is a part.

IT WAS a long way back to our boyhood days. But as we stood before that blazing wood fire in the fireplace in the shop of Hood and Smith Trim Shop on East Main Street, watching Berth Smith put a cover on a piece of furniture, we found ourselves remembering the days in our home on South College Street. The touching of a match to a ragged end of a fat "lighter" splinter and easing it under the little tepee of the "lighter" splinters under three or four big oak logs there in the fireplace. And in a matter of minutes there was a bright flame licking up against the oak logs and then it was not long before the logs began to glow as the fat "lighter" splinters were burning in them. Then in a half hour or so the oak logs were burning gently with a lovely flame.

Oh, it was wonderful in retrospect. We stood there on foot with the other lifted at right angles, almost in the fire, our hands clasped behind us and our backsides feeling the warmth of the flames. Then we remembered our boyhood attitude toward the fire. It was a fish. That's what it was. A fish. We were burning it. We were burning it. We were burning it.

FOR WHAT? It's worth to fishermen—Florida fishermen report the successful use of orange peel as bait to catch fish. That's what it was. A fish. We were burning it. We were burning it. We were burning it.

WE CLIPPED the following from Frank Rossiter's column, "Beat" in the Savannah Morning News.

"When the name Capt. Harry Grimshaw Moore appeared on the list of officers last week, transferring him to the joint chiefs of staff it recalled memories of the fine gentleman for whom the officer was named. The late Harry Grimshaw was a former Savannah alderman on a top official of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad before he retired. At one time Mr. Grimshaw was superintendent of the Savannah and Statesboro Railway (the old S & S) Company. Capt. Moore was a member of the 1924 graduating class at Statesboro High School. Three graduates in that class were named for Harry Grimshaw.

We checked our 1923 edition of the "Criterion" and found that there were three Harrys in that class. They are Harry (we know him as "Pinkie") Moore, Harry Miller and Harry Smith. We know Harry Miller's middle name is Grimshaw and we know that Harry Smith's middle name is Grimshaw. We've lost track of Harry Miller who used to live back of us when we were kids. But

DR. CLAUDE PURCELL, writing the January issue of the Georgia Education Journal, stated: "Despite problems that loom, 1960 brings bright promise in education."

In this statement made to the teachers of the state one can find a refreshing approach to the problems which face us and is in stark contrast to the voice of the doom seekers who have somehow edged themselves into the education.

As we come face to face with the crisis in education which is now upon us, we would do well to evaluate the ultimate costs which we will have to bear whichever course is chosen in the days ahead. Some have made the bold statement that words will never solve the problem and of course, this is a very real truth. Words must be used however to construct a philosophy of education which can be accepted with honor by all of us who love and believe in the principles of public education. To be able to hold on to public schools at any cost may not necessarily mean that we will be able to keep for ourselves true education. Through forced changes in attendance laws we may find ourselves holding on to an idea which no longer is practical or effective.

IN MY HEART it is my belief that the present system of education in Georgia is the most effective way to educate our children. To change that system in accordance to the dictates of a super police state is impractical, unworkable, and unacceptable. The people of Georgia have a very real responsibility to educate all of the children of our state. At the same time we have a very real responsibility to uphold what we believe is the proper interpretation of the laws of the land. Not only is it our responsibility to resist those forced changes in our society which can lead to the death of our system of government but to fail to do so is nothing short of a betrayal of our principles.

Studies can be made. Laws can be adopted. All of these will, in the end, be to no avail. As men who believe in the principle of states rights, we must be able to stand up for our own liberties and if the consequence shall be the destruction of the land we love.

One fact is certain, there is no room in this course of action for those who do not believe with deep conviction that this cause is an honest one. Those with selfish motives do not stain the badge of education which we wear. Those who love our native land.

There are other cities using it but we enjoyed the traffic rule in Louisville, Kentucky, which stops all traffic for people to cross the street. They can walk catwalked straight across or however they please. But they must wait for the traffic light to turn green. They are not stopped by pedestrians. Those turning left have the same advantage. A good place for such a traffic rule would be at the light in town.

Another eye opener was the way our youngest takes the modern ways of life. She was born in the modern times, I know. Those of us who were born a

Primitive Baptist Youth Fellowship to be hosts to Association PBYF

By MRS. JOHN A. ROBERTSON

The members of the Brooklet Primitive Baptist Youth Fellowship will be hosts to the hosts of the Primitive Baptist Youth Fellowship organizations of the churches in the Bethel Lower Canoechee and Upper Canoechee Association Saturday night and Sunday, January 30 and 31, at which time they will hold a Youth Rally.

Approximately 200 young people and counselors of the various churches in these associations will arrive Saturday afternoon. Registration will begin at 3:30 in the church. Guests who live too far to return home for the night will be overnight guests.

Supper will be served in the Elementary school lunch room at 6:00 o'clock. Immediately following supper, the guests will enjoy a social entertainment in the lunch room. Several gifts will be given by the local PBYF, followed by community singing and floor exercises.

Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock, the following program will be given in the church: Bible School, 10:15-10:45. Song service by entire group. Scripture reading and prayer, Larry Rogers. Greetings, Jimmie Lee McCormick, president of the Brooklet PBYF. Welcome song, Brooklet PBYF. Short Programs by members of the PBYF's from Lanes Church, Jessup Church and Faith Church of Savannah. Offering, business meeting, announcements, song and benediction. At the close of the meeting a "basket dinner" will be served.

Weekend guests the 16th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Prosser were Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Waters, Miss Bonnie Waters, Jack and Mrs. O. B. Bacon and Miss Beverly Bacon of Pembroke.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Upchurch of York, S.C., and Mrs. M. O. Prosser were Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Waters, Miss Bonnie Waters, Jack and Mrs. O. B. Bacon and Miss Beverly Bacon of Pembroke.

Funeral services were held at the Pembroke Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. Tom Watson, pastor of Robert McIntire Methodist Church in Savannah. Burial was in the Northside Cemetery, Pembroke.

Thermometer hits 15 degrees as winter hits Stilson community hard

By MRS. W. H. MORRIS

We have really been having winter weather, here for the past week, the temperature has been as low as 15 degrees or maybe even lower than that. I think some one said that it wouldn't get below 12 degrees and I wouldn't say that it didn't get below 1 (for one) stayed as low as the fire as I could. It kinda makes you feel sorry for folks having to move into houses that are not too good, and we still have folks living in houses that are not sealed on the inside, or that the ceilings are about nine or ten feet high. (Now, this kind of a dilly to heat.) With a fire place you burn one side and freeze the other.

You see some women and datter of Garretts City spent last Saturday with Mrs. Mamie Morrison and family. They also visited other relatives during the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Terrell Jr. of Savannah, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Terrell Sr., last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Padgett of Savannah spent the weekend at their country home here. They also had several guests on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gene Morris of Eldora spent last week with his parents here.

Miss Lillian Morris is on the sick list this week with influenza. We hope she will soon be feeling fine.

Mrs. Fannie E. Cribbs is spending several days in Savannah visiting her son, Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Cribbs and other relatives this week.

happy and well adjusted even if they don't own an automobile. Maybe it's best we think of all the possibilities before we take this birth control business too seriously.

M. A. James Sr. and Mrs. Lillie Knight of Savannah visited here, and Mrs. L. L. Morris last Sunday at Hubert.

Mrs. E. A. Pate Sr. of Mobile, Alabama, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jewell Hays, and little after the automobiles began appearing over America and have watched the airplane develop, have seen the radio develop from the ear-phone gadgets to the modern-day audio instrument, have seen the television develop from the mid-set screen device to the modern electronic miracle, we only can understand the awe & experience over the modern wonders, the timidity and the fearfulness I feel at operating an automatically controlled elevator. Not the young of today. They know nothing else. They feel secure and at home with such machinery. It is very comforting to have one so confident around.

THE MOST beautiful sight of the whole trip was, of course, you guessed it, the Statesboro City Limits sign and later our home.

Property Auction

Starting promptly at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, March 9, 1960, rain or shine, several choice parcels of real estate will be offered at auction, the same being part of the A. U. Mincey Subdivision situated just South of the Statesboro city limits and fronting on U.S. Highway 301, across from the Skate-R-Bowl. The auction will be held on the property.

"Choice" is used legitimately to describe this offering for it is the "closest-in" available business frontage (920 feet in all) on the highway, both to the city and the college, and in character and location is splendidly suitable for a variety of commercial enterprises.

In addition, there are a number of large residential lots (one is more than an acre in area) and a 5-room and bath dwelling in charming surroundings.

Truly an outstanding opportunity that should not be missed. For detailed information write, call or see

BOGEN-LEGETTE MARRIAGE

Mrs. Helen Johnson Legett and Rowe D. Bogen exchanged marriage vows Saturday afternoon, December 18, 1959, at four o'clock in the First Methodist Church in Madison, Florida, with the Rev. Paul Touchton officiating.

Altar vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums white lighted candles and palms and magnolia foliage formed the setting for the ceremony.

The bride chose for her wedding a modish pink brocade suit fashioned with fitted jacket. Her pink feather hat had a matching veil and accessories were black. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Mrs. Bogen was graduated from Georgia State College for Women and is an outstanding annual event of the beauty world. During this week, beauticians reemphasize their year round program of public service within their communities, in addition to professional beauty care.

Volunteers from local beauty salons donate their time and talents to give personalized professional beauty care to patients and residents confined to various hospitals and institutions. This care has brought patients good cheer, has benefited effects on their morale and has been lauded or its therapeutic value and its encouragement at hospitals throughout the nation.

Serving on the National Beauty Salon Week committee in Statesboro are: Mrs. Christine Altman as Essay Contest Chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bryan and Mrs. E. C. Watkins of Brooklet were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Ramsey last week.

National Beauty Week is set for February 7-13

A big celebration for National Beauty Salon Week which will be observed February 7-13 is being planned in Statesboro according to an announcement made today by Mrs. Mildred Simmons, president of the Unit No. 30. Directing the activities for the celebration will be Mrs. Sallie Clarke, local chairman of the event.

This will be the 10th anniversary of National Beauty Salon Week and is an outstanding annual event of the beauty world. During this week, beauticians reemphasize their year round program of public service within their communities, in addition to professional beauty care.

Volunteers from local beauty salons donate their time and talents to give personalized professional beauty care to patients and residents confined to various hospitals and institutions. TOWN AND COUNTRY GARDEN CLUB MEETS

On Wednesday afternoon, January 20, the Town and Country Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. Grady Spence with Mrs. Dan Lingo as co-hostess.

Mrs. Lingo, president, opened the meeting and Mrs. Grady Spence gave an inspiring devotional. The club members discussed as a most worthy project the planting of shrubbery in the hedges and the Bethel cemeteries, both located in their community. Mrs. Lingo was selected to go forward with the project.

The study for the afternoon was Oriental arrangements. Several of the ladies brought lovely arrangements which were discussed.

Mrs. H. A. Nessmith of Savannah was present for this meeting and since she had recently completed a study course in Oriental arrangements, she gave many tips on that type of arrangement, which was both helpful and interesting.

Delicious sandwiches, nuts, minis, and coffee were served. Those present were Mrs. R. L. Lanier, secretary; Mrs. Edwin Banks, treasurer; Mrs. Toni Atkins, Mrs. Dan Lingo, Mrs. Grady Spence, Mrs. Sam Brannen, Mrs. Homer Cason, Mrs. Paul Nessmith, Mrs. Chae Smith, Mrs. William Smith Jr., Mrs. J. L. Holloway and a visitor, Mrs. H. A. Smith.

EXCELSIOR COUPLE OBSERVE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Temples celebrated their Fifteenth Wedding Anniversary Sunday afternoon, January 17, at the home in the Excelsior Community, Candler County.

Mrs. Temples was before her marriage Miss Minnie Deloch. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Temples were their daughter, Miss Mary Temples, Mrs. Avis T. Welch and their sons, George Temples and John Wycifl Temples.

Mrs. Frank McElvay and Mrs. George Temples Jr. greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line.

The Temples home was beautifully decorated with yellow chrysanthemums, gladioli, lighted candles and greenery. The dining table, lace-covered, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake beautifully embellished with golden bells and white flowers encircled by a satin and net ruffe. A double arrangement of mums, gladioli, and lighted tapers formed a background for the anniversary cake.

Mrs. Gertrude T. Calhoun and Mrs. Jeanette Brinson mingled with the guests and directed them to the register and gift room, where many lovely presents were displayed.

Serving party plates with cake and ice cream and coffee were Brenda and Judy Calhoun and Vivian and Peggy Temples.

One hundred fifty guests guests called to congratulate the highly esteemed couple.

BETA SIGMA PHI CHAPTERS IN JOINT MEETING

The Alpha Omega and Xi Sigma Chapters of Beta Sigma Phi met Monday night at the home of Mrs. Velma Rose, president of the Xi Sigma sorority.

African violets were used in the living room and yellow gladioli decorated the dining room.

Each chapter separated for the business session.

The Xi Sigma Chapter voted to have a covered dish supper for their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Polly Rushing.

The chapter considered ways and means in their project, as sponsors of a Girl Scout troop.

The Alpha Omega Chapter, Mrs. Sam Huan, president, heard plans for the State Convention which will be held at Jekyll Island, May 7 and 8.

Plans for the spring rush were completed. The sorority adopted as their project, the children's ward at the Bulloch County Hospital. Their plans include new decorative themes and furnishings that would add cheer and delight to the little patients. This project has been approved by Henry McCormack and Miss June Hargrove of the Bulloch County Hospital.

Plans were made for a Valentine Party honoring their Valentine, Mrs. Helen Brunson. A bake sale will be held soon, the proceeds of which will go to the children's ward at the Hospital.

The girls were served peach tarts and coffee.

Mrs. Virginia Toole gave the joint program which was a quiz on the manual of Beta Sigma Phi.

Xi Sigma members present were Mrs. Velma Rose, Mrs. Bonnie Herring, Mrs. Edna Sikes, Mrs. Virginia Toole, Mrs. Reba Barnes, Mrs. Polly Rushing and Mrs. Jean Farr.

Alpha Omega Chapter members attending were Mrs. Sam Huan, Miss Leona Newton, Mrs. Helen Durdan, Mrs. Teresa Brannen, Mrs. Mary Bray, Mrs. Barbara Atkins, Mrs. Mary Jane Powell, Mrs. Pat Thompson, Mrs. Lucille Aldred, Mrs. Lorraine Thornton and Mrs. Mamie Lou Bondurant, sponsor.

STITCH AND CHATTER CLUB

Mrs. Charles E. Hollar was hostess Tuesday afternoon, January 19, to the Stitch and Chatter Sewing Club at her home on Donaldson Street.

Arrangements of camellias were used in the living room. The hostess served a dessert course.

Those present were Mrs. Miles C. Wood, Mrs. M. C. Copeland, Mrs. Tom Martin, Mrs. John Strickland, Mrs. Harry Brunson, Mrs. Joe Cannon, Mrs. Jones Lane, Mrs. A. S. Baldwin and Mrs. Hunter Robertson.

When purchasing clothing or household gadgets, a mistake in buying judgment means that you have obtained less value than was possible. Only your money is involved.

When securing medicines and health-aids, a buying error can cause damage to your health. Common sense dictates that the safe place to obtain any medicine or health-aid is from a pharmacist. We are pleased to consider your welfare more important than greater profits.

DALE JENSEN, BAND DIRECTOR, SPEAKS TO STATESBORO MUSIC CLUB

The January meeting of the Statesboro Music Club was held Tuesday evening, January 19, at the home of Mrs. John L. Jacon, with Mrs. Herbert Kingery, Zack Smith and Mrs. George Bean as co-hostesses.

Dale Jensen, director of the Statesboro Blue Devils Band, which includes students from the high school and both elementary schools, was the speaker.

Mr. Jensen used as his topic "Marches." Proceeding from the primitive instruments of antiquity, the march came into being and down centuries other instruments were added cluminateing in the multi-instrument organ of brass, reed and percussion.

Mr. Jensen stated that marches were composed originally to accompany military bodies of men. Later the march was used in descriptive music. Presently the march is adapted to parades, pageants and circuses.

John Phisous, known as the "March King," is largely responsible for the development of the present day band with in-struments of reed, brass and wood. Marches Sousa composed are played by countries in all parts of the world.

Two other outstanding march composers were Carl King who wrote Barnum and Bailey Circus Marches and John Philip Sousa, famous for his sliding trombone sounds.

Other types of marches discussed by Mr. Jensen were wedding marches, funeral marches, coronation marches and last but not least the high school and college speculators that add so much to our football games.

He illustrated his marches by recordings and other recordings were played while the guests were served refreshments.

There were twenty-five members present.

STATSBORO CLUB WOMEN HONOR GUESTS AT VIADALIA WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. E. L. Barnes, president of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. L. M. Durdan, First District Director and Mrs. Alfred Dorman, Trustee of Tallahassee School, were honor guests at the January Meeting of the Viadalia Woman's Club on Wednesday, January 20.

Mrs. Harry Conner, formerly of Viadalia, accompanied them. They were luncheon guests of Mr. O. S. Gross.

The club meeting met in the afternoon. Mrs. E. L. Barnes, guest speaker, followed the recording of the Georgia Federation Looks Ahead. Mrs. Dorman brought news from Tallahassee School and Mrs. Durdan reminded them that the first district meeting will be held in Savannah March 22.

Following the program our club women were honored at a tea. Mrs. R. E. Ledford presided at the tea service. The full day concluded with a dinner party in their honor at the country club.

MRS. TOMMY POWELL HOSTESS AT HER BRIDGE CLUB

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Tommy Powell entertained the young matrons bridge club at her home on Donaldson Street.

A dried arrangement was used in decorations.

The girls were served fruit-cake with whipped cream, roasted pecans and coffee. Later Coke and pop corn were served.

Mr. Jimmy Morris won gloves for high. Summer earrings for cut prize went to Mrs. M. C. Wood, Mrs. M. C. Copeland, Mrs. Tom Martin, Mrs. John Strickland, Mrs. Harry Brunson, Mrs. Joe Cannon, Mrs. Jones Lane, Mrs. A. S. Baldwin and Mrs. Hunter Robertson.

Famous all-girl basketball team to play Brooklet Rec Club Feb. 3

It will be a new experience for the members of the Brooklet Recreation Club basketball team on Wednesday night, February 3, when they play the Arkansas Travelers basketball team in Southeast Bulloch's new gymnasium at 8 p.m.

For you see, the Arkansas Travelers basketball team will play all-girl outfits. Featured is All-

Members of the Brooklet Recreation Club team allow as how they don't intend to give any favors.

This all-girl team is rated as the No. 1 women's basketball team in the world today. One sports writer wrote, "These girls parlayed amazing court finesse, entertainment and beauty to the acclaim of thousands of basketball fans everywhere they appeared." It is said to be the nation's most watchable basketball outfit. Hazel Walker puts on a free-throw exhibition during half-time. The girls use trick shots from a mass of baffling pass patterns to produce a fine brand of basketball.

The game is sponsored by the Brooklet Kiwanis Club and the proceeds will go to the promotion of the Brooklet recreation program.

East Georgia veterinarians to meet here

The East Georgia Veterinary Medical Association will hold its Winter Meeting at the Forest Heights Country Club, Statesboro on Sunday, February 7 with dinner at 1 p.m. The annual business meeting and election of officers will follow.

The program will feature Dr. Charles B. Plumber, Extension Veterinarian, Florida Experiment Station of Gainesville, Florida, whose lecture will be on "Herd Bull Efficiency Evaluation."

Following the lecture, the meeting will adjourn to the Parker's Stockyard for a demonstration of the technique for making this evaluation.

Miss Doris Oglesby, housing equipment specialist, Agricultural Extension Service, advises against ironing towels. This flattens the loops and decreases the towel's absorbency.

Rockwell increases annual dividend rate; report sales up

PITTSBURGH, Pa.—Rockwell Manufacturing Company directors meeting here today increased the annual cash dividend rate from $1.50 to $1.60. Willard F. Rockwell Jr., president, also reported that sales and earnings for 1959 set an all time record.

The first quarterly dividend of 40 cents is payable March 10, 1960 to stockholders of record February 19.

Mr. Rockwell announced that 1959 sales were $122,700,000 and net earnings $9,720,000, equal to $2.81 per share, new records for the company.

Sales for 1959 were up 15 per cent from the $107,055,000 in 1958 and earnings increased 31 per cent from 1958's $7,417,000 equal to $2.14 per share.

Rockwell is a diversified company manufacturing meters, valves and other control devices and industrial power tools.

Explaining the dividend increase, Mr. Rockwell said: "Our outlook for 1960 seems excellent, we could have our best year to date with sales 10 per cent higher than 1959."

"We are optimistic," Mr. Rockwell explained, "particularly because most of our products industries are predicting 'boom' business. In addition, our emphasis on research is now beginning to pay off."

The new annual cash dividend rate is 13 cents over 1958. The rate was $1.47 from 1956 to 1959.

During the past 21 years, Rockwell has paid 83 consecutive quarterly cash dividends. The cash dividends, during this time, have never been reduced and they have been periodically supplemented by stock dividends.

HIGHLIGHTS

Sales: (1958) $107,055,000, (1959) $122,700,000. Earnings: (1958) $7,417,000, (1959) $9,720,000. Earnings per share: (1958) $2.14, (1959) $2.81. Number of shares outstanding: (1958) 2,458,507, (1959) 3,458,507.

Southeast Bulloch High Jackets just keep rolling right along with 22 wins in 22 starts

Some people in North Georgia probably never heard of Southeast Bulloch High School. Some basketball people in South Georgia undoubtedly wish they never had.

For Southeast Bulloch, which came into being in 1955 with the consolidation of Brooklet, Nevis and Stillson, has been to court 22 times this season—returned victorious 22 times.

The Yellow Jackets of Coach George Roebuck, a Canton native who finished his playing days under Ernie J. B. Seacore at Georgia Southern College in 1952, unquestionably are one of Georgia's most lethal hardwood aggregations, regardless of class.

The Region 2-B Jackets who ironically have never attaining a spot in the state meet at Macon, posted an 18-0 won-loss record last season and have won the Statesboro Jaycees pre-Christmas tournament in three of the last four years. This season they knocked off Swainsboro, Port and Appling County, by Baxley to annex the crown.

Richmond Academy, one of the many Class AAA teams to feel the Jackets' sting, trimmed Southeast Bulloch in last year's finals but fell to the Roebuck's raiders in the finals each of the two previous seasons.

Roebuck and his unbeaten Jackets, who now have a new gym a mile and a half out of Brooklet and not too far from Statesboro, labored under the handicap of having to travel a mile or two to the old Brooklet gym for practice and games in other seasons.

"We are fortunate to have a fine bunch of seniors who have played together for me for three seasons," says Roebuck. "We're in a basket ball hotbed here and got knocked out of a chance to go to the state by Bradwell Institute last year. We surely like to make it this year." (Stillson won state crowns in 1942 and 1952, and Nevis and Brooklet had top teams in state meets).

"We have a tough row to hoe this week," continues Roebuck.

Center Carl Bragg, a 62 senior who plans to go to Georgia Tech on his own, and forward Jimmy Rushing, 6-0 senior, have been averaging about 15 and 14 points a game.

Guard Billy Clifton, 5-11 senior, is the Jackets' playmaker and leading scorer, averaging 16 points an outing. Donald Fordham, 6-0 senior, averages eight. Wayman Shuman, 6-0 junior, is called by Roebuck "one of the finest defensive players I ever had the privilege of coaching." He's a good shot, too, and best of all, will be back next year.

Forwards Jerry Lanier and Buddy Anderson, guards Jimmy Williams and Carroll Ray Schuman and Center Calvin Schuman are the second-line troops for the high-flying Bullocks.

"These boys of mine won 15 of 20 games as 16 teamers three years ago, and they play well together."

Wm. James elementary school destroyed completely by fire

The Williams James Negro Elementary School was completely destroyed by fire Thursday morning, January 28.

The fire was reported at 7:30 Thursday morning and Fire Chief "Red" Gay stated that four rooms were completely aflame when the fire department arrived at the building on Cotton Avenue.

The Williams James School was an old brick veneer building of nine rooms and an auditorium. It was formerly the Williams James High School before the erection of the new school building in the north-west section of Statesboro.

The origin of the fire has not been determined. The fire Thursday was the first fire in a school building in Statesboro in over fifty years.

The fire was reported at 7:30 Thursday morning and Fire Chief "Red" Gay stated that four rooms were completely aflame when the fire department arrived at the building on Cotton Avenue.

Firemen kept the flame under control but the building was a total loss. Firemen played a stream of water on the vocational building near by and saved it from catching fire. It was not damaged.

The Williams James School was an old brick veneer building of nine rooms and an auditorium. It was formerly the Williams James High School before the erection of the new school building in the north-west section of Statesboro.

The origin of the fire has not been determined. The fire Thursday was the first fire in a school building in Statesboro in over fifty years.
