Statesboro Wins First Place And $1,000 Cash Prize In Georgia Power Company's Champ Home Town Contest

Rites Are Held For Howell Cone

Funeral rites for Howell Cone, collector of customs in Savannah for many years, were conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning with Rev. Leroy G. Cleverdon, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Savannah, in charge.

Mr. Cone, 72 years old, lived in Statesboro until he was appointed collector of customs in Savannah in 1933 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

He attended Bulloch county schools, and in 1900, received his bachelor's degree at Mercer, and graduated from the University of Georgia law school in 1901. While at the University he roomed with Senator Walter George.

Immediately upon graduation from law school, he began the practice of law in Statesboro. He served as solicitor of the City Court from 1902 to 1906, and served as state senator in 1921-22 and 1927-28. He represented Bulloch County in the lower house in 1929 and 1930, and served as chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Bulloch. At one time he was president of the Chamber of Commerce here.

He was identified with the college here, having served as a trustee for many years before the college became Georgia Teachers College.

He married Miss Kate Parker, sister of the late Congressman Homer C. Parker.

Xmas Seal Sale Begins in Bulloch

The 46th Annual Christmas Seal Sale begins in Georgia and the entire United States this week to raise funds for the continuation of the long fight against the disease, tuberculosis.

Bulloch County citizens will receive letters containing Christmas Seals this week, according to Mrs. Janie W. Etheridge of the Bulloch County Tuberculosis Committee. The 1952 Seal, one of the prettiest ever, depicts a single candle burning in an old-fashioned candlestick holder. Also prominent in the design is a large red cross, the symbol of the international fight against tuberculosis.

Mrs. Etheridge urged everyone to buy Christmas Seals generously this year and to be sure to use them on Christmas letters, packages, cards, and gifts.

Baseball Meeting Is Tuesday Night

Announcement is made this week that H. S. Holcomb of Statesboro, representative of the Standard Oil Company, and Alfred Dorman will fly to Phoenix City, Arizona, to attend a meeting of the National Association baseball meeting.

There will be a special meeting of baseball fans at the court house on Tuesday night at 7:30 to make plans for the 1953 season. They will discuss plans for sending two representatives to Phoenix City in December. Ladies are invited.

If you want baseball, come to this meeting! The officials of the Pilots say.

Blue Devils Play On GMC Team

Three former members of the Statesboro High School Blue Devil football team are now playing football at Georgia Military School at Milledgeville.

Mr. and Mrs. "Si" Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Waters, and Cadet Willis O. Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis O. Waters, played backfield positions on this year's GMC football squad.

Cadet Moses J. Bowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bowen, played defensive guard on the GMC squad.

Statesboro Concert Ass'n Books Four Attractions

The Statesboro Community Concert Association announces, after a very successful sell-out campaign the week of Nov. 3rd, the following concert attractions for the week of Nov. 24-25, 1952.

Next Monday evening, Nov. 24, Dorothy Warenskjold, brilliant young soprano, concert, radio, and television, will open a series at 8:15 p. m. in the college auditorium. Wednesday evening, January 21, the Houston Symphony Orchestra, featuring the world famous pianist, will appear in the college auditorium.

On Tuesday, November 24, 1952, all the concerts will be held in the college auditorium.

St. George Episcopal Church

Services at 8:00 p. m. on Monday evenings in the audio visual room of the Georgia Teachers College Library.

'Massacre On Ogeechee' Is Presented By Lab 7th

Seventh grade core students at Laboratory High School went on an educational warpath last Friday morning when they presented an assembly program which culminated a unit of work on American Indian life.

Before a backdrop hung with their own drawings, illustrating Indian life, these 32 youngsters danced, sang and whooped (real Indian fashion) through a short play, "Massacre On Ogeechee," written by Edna Sheppard and other seventh graders.

A play of pioneer days in Georgia, the little drama incorporated all the activities in which the class have participated in their class where Miss Marjorie Crouch, seventh grade core teacher at Laboratory High School, supervised the development of the play.

Mr. and Mrs. "Si" Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loy Waters, and Cadet Willis O. Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis O. Waters, played backfield positions on this year's GMC football squad.

Cadet Moses J. Bowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bowen, played defensive guard on the GMC squad.

Statesboro has been named first prize winner in the 3,000 to 20,000 population group in the 1952 Champion Home Town Contest, it was announced today by Charles A. Collier, vice president of the Georgia Power Company. This victory carries with it a cash award of $1,000 and a bronze plaque. These awards will be made at a dinner to be held in Statesboro early in 1953.

The highest temperature for the same period in 1951 was 81 degrees on Tuesday, November 13. The low was on Friday, November 8, at 31 degrees. The rainfall for the same period in 1951 was 0.30 inches.

Stores To Close For Thanksgiving

Josh Lanier, chairman of the Merchants' Association of Statesboro and Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that Thanksgiving will be observed here on Thursday, November 27, and that the stores and businesses of the city will close that day.

He also announced that the stores would be open on Wednesday afternoon, November 26. From Thanksgiving through December 31, the stores will suspend their hours of operation on Thursday, November 27, and Friday, November 28, and 29.

For Christmas the stores will be open two days, Friday, December 26, and Saturday, December 27, and 28.

Reunion Is Nov. 30 Brannen Family

Members of the Brannen family will hold their annual reunion at Bethlehem Church, west of Statesboro on Sunday, November 30, with dinner to be served at the church at 12:30. A business session will be held at 1:45 p. m.

John Edge, son of Mrs. Maude Edge, will be the principal speaker at the reunion.

All members of the family and their friends are invited to attend.

Rat Review At T. C. Friday Night

A review of freshmen musical talent will be presented on Friday night, November 21, at 8:15 in the Georgia Teachers College auditorium.

"Rat Review" is being sponsored by Nu Sigma, musical fraternity at the college. There will be an admission of 25 cents.

A musical scholarship will be awarded to the winner in this class—instrument, vocal, and piano. An added attraction will include door prizes to be given away at intermission.

"Rat Review" is given to encourage and present freshmen talent along musical lines.

The group presented several songs and dances, including "Mosses," "Grinding Corn," "Sunrise Dance," and "Peacemaker." Highlighting the musical part of the program was the children's arrangement of "Indian Love Call" with Margaret Manes and Berta Mae Gissel as soloists.

Jeannette Wilson, Harold McNeil, Lila Jane Joiner, Jacquelyn Waters, and others were featured.

Jaycees Will Honor National President

The Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce will be host to their national president and the members of their state executive committee here Saturday and Sunday, November 22 and 23.

Joe Neville, president of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, and Charles M. Robbins Jr., president of the Georgia Jaycees, announced this week that Horace E. (Huck) Anderson of Williamsburg, Virginia, president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be the special guest of the local club on Saturday, November 22, at a luncheon meeting at 1 o'clock at the Forest Heights Country Club.

Mr. Neville and Mr. Robbins announced that more than 15 members of the organization from all sections of Georgia will be present to honor their national president. Bob Lingo of Greenville, S. C., president of the South Carolina Jaycees, will be present.

The state executive committee will meet in Statesboro on Saturday, November 22, and remain here for Mr. Henderson's address Sunday.

Mr. Henderson organized and has been the first president of the Williamsburg Jaycee organization in 1947. That year his chapter won the award as the outstanding new Jaycee chapter in the nation. He is 34 years old. He is the owner of the Horace E. Anderson Agency, a firm operating in the field of real estate, insurance, and banking. He is now a captain in the U. S. Army and participated in the D-Day landings in Normandy and was with the First American Airborne Army entering Berlin.

Blue Devils Lose To Commercial

By BOBBY DONALDSON
An underdog Statesboro team held highly favored Commercial High to an 18 to 7 victory last Friday night on the Devils field here.

It was the first victory of the season for the Devils. They defeated Statesboro in Savannah last year.

The first half was uneventful except for a 55 yard touchdown run by Everett Todd of Commercial. He took the ball on a reverse and sprinted down the sideline for a score.

In the third period Commercial marched to a score in twelve plays after the kickoff. Statesboro fumbled a punt and Commercial recovered on the Devils 33. Hyland Owens scooped around end to the 14. Earl Golbee went to the four, and Todd passed to Golbee for the touchdown. The extra point attempt was no good.

Statesboro received the kickoff and Sidney Dodd returned to the 35. James Cassidy ripped his way to the Commercial 38. On the next play, Freddie Barber hit the left side, broke into the secondary and bumbled over three Commercial tacklers for the tally. Jerry Fletcher passed to Barber for the extra point.

Billy Gray took the kickoff on the Commercial 2 and returned it to his own 26. Todd smashed to the Statesboro 34 and then passed to Owens on the Devils 14. Owens went around end to the four and Todd drive over tackle for the touchdown. Final score—Commercial 18, Statesboro 7.

Statesboro will meet Metter, Friday night (November 21) in Metter. This game will be the final one of the season for the two arch rivals.

Adlai Stevenson Regrets That He's Unable To Visit In Bulloch County

General is at the National Golf course in Augusta, and the two vice presidential candidates are at Jacksonville and Sea Island. I do not have a chance of note, but do have a place on the Ogeechee River, noted for its turkey, fish and deer. Will be happy to have you spend a week there as my guest. We will feed you some of the famous Georgia barbecue.

One Democrat to another, ALFRED DORMAN, Chairman of the Bulloch County Stevenson-Sparkman Club.

Advised stood by. Friday afternoon of last week, "Bull" got a letter written on the official letterhead of the Governor of the state of Illinois.

It read:
Dear Mr. Dorman,
I am most grateful to you for your very thoughtful telegram inviting me to visit you on the Ogeechee River. I am sure you will please me more, but I made some plans several weeks ago to visit old friends in Arizona and am on my way on a four day "vacation."

It was good for you to think of me and I want you to know how much I appreciate your help and support during the campaign.

With every good wish I am, ADLAI E. STEVENSON, Governor.

A 'Well Done' To You, Blue Devils

A 'WELL DONE' TO YOU, BLUE DEVILS. THIS WAS written before the Statesboro High School Blue Devils played their game with Commercial High of Savannah on Friday night of last week.

The results of that game would not have changed the things we are about to say about the members of the Blue Devil football team.

There are those who scream that the Blue Devils are a bunch of dopes.

These are the ones who blow their tops at each game and belittle the team and its members.

These are the ones who know all the plays and know just what should be done under any and all circumstances.

These are the ones who can tell Coach Hall and Don Coleman and John Godbee all the errors in coaching they have made.

These are the post game experts.

Put them in the field of play in a Blue Devil uniform and they'd tremble in indecision, they'd quake in fear of a hard tackle, they'd fumble with butter fingers, they'd foul up the works to a fare-well.

We do not have to make excuses for the Blue Devils.

Coach Hall and his assistants, Don

Coleman and John Godbee, and members of the Statesboro High School student body do not have to make excuses for their team.

We'll concede that you look at the records, the Blue Devils have had only a fair season.

But there's more to it than the record. There's youth growing into manhood. There's the game to be played.

There teamwork, with each player learning to depend upon each other player.

There's school spirit.

And so to the Blue Devils of 1952 we say—

Don't listen to the screwballs who blow their top.

Listen to the citizens of Statesboro who know you to be part of the future of this community and know that you have played the game at your very best, who saw you take it on the chin with courage and spirit.

These are in the great majority.

They wish you well and say "well done boys!"

We Shall Have Music

DURING the 1952-53 concert season, music lovers of this section will enjoy four of the finest attractions a community can secure.

Because of the high interest of the citizens of Statesboro, and Bulloch county, and our neighbors in Metter and Claxton, more than 500 members joined the Statesboro Community Concert Association.

Because of this enthusiastic support of the program four top-flight concerts have been booked. These are the Houston Symphony Orchestra made up of 90 pieces, under the direction of Efrim Kurtis, an eminent conductor; The Revelers, an outstanding group of singers who, since 1916, have been bringing joy to lovers of songs; Dorothy Wareskjold, beautiful young soprano with successful appearances with the San Francisco Opera, in television on the Ford Festival Firestone Hour, NBC Opera programs, in the Railroad Radio Hour, as well as scores of other appearances; and Jean Casadesus, 24-year-old pianist, of the famous Casadesus family, who is, this year, soloist with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

We commend the officers, directors, and program committee upon the wonderful success of their determination to give this community the very best to be had in music.

It means much to this community.

It's part of what makes it a desirable place in which to live and rear a family.

It's a wonderful thing.

It's a wonderful thing.

It's a wonderful thing.

dent of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, whose home is in Williamsburg, Virginia, will be the special guest of the Statesboro Jaycees at a luncheon at the Country Club.

Meeting with Mr. Anderson will be members of the executive committee of the Georgia Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Charles Robbins Jr., of Statesboro, is state president of this young man's business organization. Don McDougald of Statesboro is state secretary.

Welcome to Statesboro and Bulloch County Mr. Anderson—that's a good Bulloch County name—you'll find yourself right to home here.

And to Charlie Robbins' executive committee we add, "You'll find a welcome here too."

We Mourn His Passing

HOWELL CONE was buried in Fellowship Cemetery last Saturday morning.

For nearly twenty years he lived in Savannah where he served as Collector of Customs there, but he still called Bulloch County his home.

He was born at Ivanhoe and lived here until he was appointed Collector of Customs in 1933 by President Roosevelt.

While living in Bulloch county he served as solicitor of the City Court from 1902 to 1926, and served as state senator in 1921-22 and again in 1927-28. Then in 1929 and 1930 he served in the Georgia House of Representatives.

For years he was identified with the Georgia Teachers College, both as a trustee and legal advisor.

Though making his home in Savannah, Howell Cone kept a large place in his heart for Bulloch County, Statesboro, and the friends he made here.

He was buried in the county and in the community he loved.

We in Statesboro and Bulloch mourn his passing.

Thanks For Kind Words

WE WANT to say "Thanks" to the Pittmans for the all-out approval of the two Bulloch County newspapers, The Bulloch Times and the Bulloch Herald.

And their statement, "The World's Best County Editors," can only indicate that they are talking about Mr. D. B. Turner and us, for the statement was made following several references to the contents of the two Bulloch county papers.

It's warming to our heart to learn that people do think well of our newspapers here.

So it's "Thanks" to the Pittmans, for those kind words.

Like To See Others Work

WORKING PEOPLE like to watch other people work.

A WATCHPOST OF FREEDOM

Editor's Uneasy Chair

ROTARIANS who have charge of the weekly programs at their meetings don't let grass grow under their feet.

At least Charles Olliff didn't. A couple of weeks ago he was the Rotarians inducted Charles Robbins Jr. into the club as a new member.

Now Charles is state president of the Georgia Junior Chamber of Commerce. Recently he and Mrs. Robbins ("Pat") were guests of the Columbus Jaycees at a big party they gave for their "Miss America," Neva Jane Langley.

The Jaycees had sponsored Miss Langley for "Miss Georgia" and they then sent her on up to Atlantic City where she was declared to be the most beautiful, most talented, most, most, of all the beautiful and talented girls in America and the title of "Miss America" was conferred upon her.

Back in Georgia, the Columbus Jaycees thought it would be good idea to have a party for "Miss America." They did.

And so it was only natural that Charles Robbins, state president, should be invited to meet her.

That gave Charles Olliff an idea. His program, date was coming up and he didn't have a program. The day Charles was introduced into the Rotary Club the two

Charles sat next to each other—that was the mistake the other Jaycees president made. When Olliff asked Robbins to make a talk to the other Rotarians the next Monday, what was there New Rotarians Charles could say. It was set up.

So it was that the Rotary Club heard about "Miss America." Charles (Robbins) told how beautiful, how charming, how gracious, how lovely Miss Langley is.

But he made it perfectly clear that Mrs. Robbins ("Pat") was right there all the time.

Charles is making the Jaycees a good state president.

HIS EDITORIAL—F. H. Shearman, editor and publisher of the Springfield Herald, is displaying the right spirit. On page two of his November 7 issue of his paper he writes:

OUR EDITORIAL

Thus far we have taken no stand on the presidential election but are now, quite convinced that we should all support Eisenhower.

Thus far we have taken no stand on the presidential election but are now, quite convinced that we should all support Eisenhower.

And so it was only natural that Charles Robbins, state president, should be invited to meet her.

That gave Charles Olliff an idea. His program, date was coming up and he didn't have a program. The day Charles was introduced into the Rotary Club the two

Charles sat next to each other—that was the mistake the other Jaycees president made. When Olliff asked Robbins to make a talk to the other Rotarians the next Monday, what was there New Rotarians Charles could say. It was set up.

So it was that the Rotary Club heard about "Miss America." Charles (Robbins) told how beautiful, how charming, how gracious, how lovely Miss Langley is.

But he made it perfectly clear that Mrs. Robbins ("Pat") was right there all the time.

Charles is making the Jaycees a good state president.

Democrats to go to the polls without wearing their mink coats, and Republicans did not find in necessary to bundle up in their Eisenhower jackets. The sun was hot enough in Dahlgren even to warm the cold heart of a Republican.

Teachers To Take

Week-Ends Off

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

Turning through a teacher's professional magazine, we found our attention caught by an article urging teachers to get away from the week-ends of the school term when possible to do so. The piece explained the necessity for as well as the good in such outing.

Reading this article I was reminded of an old friend Mr. Walter McDougald, who used to insist on "Miss Isobel" getting away for a short while when their house was full of little boys.

Both of these ideas were fresh in mind when two teacher friends asked us to go down to Tallahassee, Florida, to visit our old friend and neighbor, Miss Malvina Tursell. It is possible that a family must have felt there was a need to get us off too, for they seemed willing enough to do without our presence and services.

So with practically no planning, we set sail on a Friday afternoon. Sitting alone in the back seat, except for a chair and some clothes and hats, we began to visualize the much needed vacation. "What a lot of joy," thought we, "to see Malvina and then sit back and take life easy."

To make it more real, we allowed our mind to take us through the anticipated delights in great detail. "After the evening meal, we'll all help with the dishes, and then we'll get in our chairs and relax. We'll retire early and sleep late two mornings—Saturday and Sunday. There'll be no hurry. No. No hurry! There'll be no clock watching, no alarm clock—no, and no meetings. For two days we'll just sit and relax. Yes, the dream was sweet.

We arrived in good time and received a royal welcome, a welcome backed up with a delicious meal. "Ah," came the thought again, "a week-end of perfect relaxation."

We were rudely awakened by our good friend's plans for us. These plans read like the detailed schedule of one of Queen Elizabeth's progresses.

So it was that the week-end was spent in following our indefatigable hostess's plans. We met friends who called before the dishes were washed; we saw the Laboratory School of the school of Education of Florida State University, we witnessed the Homecoming parade of the Negro Students of the Negro college in Tallahassee and heard their good band play; we saw Statesboro's own Joe Ben Cassidy in the game between Mississippi Southern and Florida State University; we attended the presentation of the Gymkana, an annual event sponsored by Physical Education majors and children who have been coached by these majors in tumbling and other stunts, an excellent and thrilling performance.

Having warmed up with the aforementioned activities, we spread our wings, so to speak. We rode down to the Gulf of Mexico; we saw the Wildlife and Fish Reservation, where we went on a field trip to get into a lighthouse, but were frightened by a vicious "Beware of Dogs" sign.

We sandwiched in trips to the dime store for presents to bring back to the family (and laughed heartily over Miss Tursell's account of the prayer of her neighbor's son whose father was away: "Oh Lord," he said, "bring Daddy and the presents home safely.")

With all this going on, we ate regularly and well. But we never relaxed in our chairs. Coming home, we all admitted that the week-end had been most relaxing. It was fun to be rushing to different things. The time had refreshed us all and we looked forward to home, even to Monday morning. Yes, we all agreed, a week-end away does things for you.

ALL'S FAIR

Thanksgiving holidays are approaching. Put that turkey in a pan. For boys and girls will be coming home for a long week-end. A few weeks after and Christmas will be here. With its centuries old message of peace and good cheer. Would that our boys on snow-battle fronts enduring tragic plights. Could be here for Christmas with its gaiety and bright lights. Our hearts would be filled with gratitude and the air would be filled with songs. As we meet in God's House for worship, packed with joyous throngs. That's what we wish for America. "Our Country 'Tis of Thee." That the "Stars and Stripes" still wave over the Land of the Free.

OUR CONGRATULATIONS go to the Committee on Membership Drive for the Statesboro Community Center Series. We are assured of wonderful performances by the Nation's greatest artists. ONCE MORE the annual Freshmen Talent Show is being sponsored by the Mu Sigma Fraternity at Teachers College. The Talent Show is scheduled for Friday evening, November 21, at 8:15, at the College auditorium. Three scholarships will be awarded to the winners in piano, voice and instrumental music. These tip-top entertainers at the college are very popular with the town people.

KAY, LOUISE of Dublin, formerly of Statesboro, was the guest of Jane Beaver during the week end. Kay was recently selected "Miss Laureate County" in a beauty and personality contest.

GENIAL BOB THOMPSON who has practically beaten his path from Radio Station WWSN to radio Station WHRT in Griffin doesn't know how in the world Jane heard about his serious lapse of memory recently. The Thompson's wedding anniversary was on a November Friday. Early in the week Bob remarked to Helen that he just had to go to Griffin Friday. Helen kept silent about their anniversary, for she figured if he had to go and she reminded him of the anniversary, he might put off important business. When his grip was packed, she placed a package on top of everything with the reminder not to open until Friday. When he opened it, he discovered a gift and anniversary greetings. What made the matter worse was the fact that he had constantly ribbed Helen for her forgetfulness at the same time, shall we say, boasted a bit about his own talent for remembering. Of course, he got on the phone and put on a spell, and we imagine her anniversary gift might have put former presents in the shade. We think the call letters of Bob's Griffin station are clever. W. R. H. T. could be Wray, Robert, Helen and Todd, or the call letter, W. followed by Bob's initials Robert H. Thompson. Nifty, we say.

DR. TOM AND ELSIE ALEXANDER'S new home on Vista Circle is competing with the pines when it comes to height.

THE RAIFORD LANIERS are building on Donohoe street. Near them Joannette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Everett Sr., are building a home on E. Jones.

WE WELCOME to Statesboro a new couple, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Field and their small daughter, Debbie, of Thomastown. They occupy an upstairs apartment with Mr. Honer Simmons Sr. Mr. Field is a salesman for the Sunny Land Packing Company of Thomastown.

CPL. CECIL CANUETTE JR., is probably on his way home from Trieste, Italy, where he has spent 34 months. His mother wanted her son home before undergoing an emergency operation at the Bulloch County Hospital.

MR. AND MRS. R. P. STEPHENS have received a cablegram from their son, Cpl. Stephens, stating that he had arrived safely in England.

MRS. LEROY SHEALEY was a bridesmaid at the wedding of her cousin, Miss Mary Bennett, Sunday afternoon and in addition to the merriment she wore, there were neat white bandages on two fingers of her hand. While the bride was entertaining at a buffet supper honoring her cousin at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Shealy in Savannah, she tripped and fell cutting two fingers on her hand. She spent an hour and a half of party time in the hospital having her fingers stitched and bandaged.

MRS. FRED SHEAROUSE, of Savannah, on visit to Mrs. Harry Smith had a wonderful time going from luncheons to parties during her visit here while Fred was down in Puerto Rico on business for the Lumber Company. Hunting mahogany etc. Sounds thrilling. It seemed like old times to see Libba go whirling from one party to another. Entertaining for her were Marian Johnson, Lucille Smith, Louise Simmons, Mary Akins and Libba's sister, Mrs. Georgia Brett.

As ever,

W. J. IN—PROSSER

Mrs. George C. Hagin of Statesboro announces the engagement of her daughter, Margaret Coene, to Harry Prosser, son of Mr. and Miss Blaise J. Prosser of Statesboro. The wedding will take place in the New Hope Methodist Church at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of December 20.

Miss Hagin is a graduate of Stateboro High School and is now a senior at Georgia Tech College.

Mr. Prosser attended Brooklet High School. He has recently been discharged from the Army after two years' service and is now engaged in farming.

JONES—HUNNICUTT

Sunday afternoon, November 9, at 4:30 o'clock, Miss Polly Jones, daughter of Mrs. Pauline Jones, became the bride of Paul Hunnicutt of Statesboro. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. Holloman in the Millen Baptist Church.

The church was effectively decorated with a basket of huge white chrysanthemums and button mums, flanked by white burning tapers of branched candelabra.

The bride wore a navy suit with matching accessories and a white purple throat orchid. She was given in marriage by her brother, Robert T. Jones Jr., of Warner Robbins, and her only attendant was Mrs. Robert T. Jones.

Charles Mallard of Statesboro was best man. The usher-groomsmen were Bill Daniel, Welborn Jones, J. A. Blanton, and Darrell Hunnicutt.

NO OBLIGATION TO BUY—Our new Alprodo Erec-Tower shows you how fine television can be in your home. Our portable tower makes a demonstration easy—fast—no climbing on your roof or defacing your lawn and flower beds. Let us prove that you, too, can enjoy television. Many who previously believed the location of their home was unsuited for reception are amazed to learn that a properly located antenna solves their problems.

AS A SERVICE TO OUR CUSTOMERS, we have added to our equipment an "ALPRODO PORTABLE EREC-TOWER," mounted on a small trailer. With it we can drive to your home and within minutes erect a TV tower and antenna beside your home (not on the roof). We can locate it on the EXACT SPOT, and raise it to the EXACT HEIGHT (which is determined by a "signal strength meter," which records microvolt readings). In this way we can prove to you in a very short time how fine television can be right in your own home.

BRIDGE CLUB AT FOREST HEIGHT COUNTRY CLUB

Mrs. Thomas Little, Mrs. J. B. Seacore, and Mrs. J. I. Clements were joint hostesses Saturday morning at a bridge party at the Country Club.

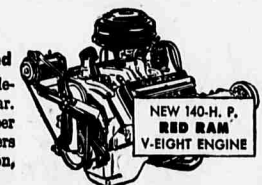

A Thanksgiving theme was used in the decorations and table appointments. A horn of plenty with colored fruits was used on the mantel. The tables were marked with hand made autumn leaves. Lemon cheese cake, nuts, and coffee were served.

For high score, Mrs. Sidney Lanier received a topaz pin. Second high, a box of home made candles.

Ogeechee, Warnock, Sinkhole To Name 1953 Officers At December Meetings

The Farm Bureau chapters at Ogeechee, Warnock and Sinkhole will all name their 1953 officers at the December meetings, according to plans made at regular meetings last week.

C. W. Zetterow, president at Ogeechee, named J. R. Kelly, J. A. Hart, and Edgar Miller to a nominating committee and asked that this committee make a report at the annual Christmas party held December by the Farm Bureau and Home Demonstration club of that community.

J. N. Akins, president at Warnock, named Arthur Brannen, B. Deal, and Barney Rushing to a nominating committee and asked that it make a report at their annual Christmas party. The Sinkhole group always elect with floor nominations. Mr. Zetterow asked the Ogeechee nominating committee to also make serving assignments for next year.

Mr. Kelly asked the group to make a special appeal to the state and national Farm Bureau to provide more funds for the purpose of telling the farmers' side of the story of living. Mr. Kelly pointed out that the general public thinks farmers are getting rich these days when as a matter of fact they are losing money every year and have been for the past four years. The cost of production is going up all the time due to the increased cost of transportation, processing and retailing, while the prices farmers are receiving are going down. The farmer is caught in the middle of a squeeze and yet he is still being given credit for the high cost of living, Mr. Kelly stated.

A building committee composed of W. E. Webb and Grady Lee was named by Mr. Akins at Warnock and asked to make or get window repaired in the building. The Warnock group also voted to meet November 19th to clean the building.

Joe C. Hodges and J. I. Wynn were asked to arrange the program for December, with the request that it be a musical program. Mr. Akins asked the group not to forget that the bloodmobile would be back in Statesboro on December 4 and for those that did

Two Bulloch Girls Honored At T. C.

Miss Ann Nevils of Register is one of 11 students named to represent the college in the 1953 publication "Who's Who Among Seniors in American Universities and Colleges," and Miss Fayrene Sturges of Statesboro has been elected secretary of the Freshman Class at Georgia Teachers College. Both are graduates of Statesboro High School.

Selection to "Who's Who" is based on scholarship, leadership, and the promise of usefulness to society.

Miss Nevils, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nevil of Register, is majoring in home economics. She holds the presidency of the state Home Economics Club, is president of the college Future Teachers Association, and is a cheerleader, Recreation Association and second-place winner in the May Court last year. She has been a Class officer and a member of her dormitory house council.

Miss Sturges is the daughter of Mrs. Nina D. Sturges of 13 Inman Street, Statesboro.

Now—the car of the year —the deal of the year!

And we're ready to back up that headline with appetizing facts and generous figures. For example, "the car of the year" is more than a glib phrase, it's a title that Mercury has earned by doing—by making news.

Mercury is the one car in its class that came up with something really new for 1952—styling so new it left other cars far behind. And, if that weren't enough, Mercury (with optional overdrive) again proved that pound for pound it could beat all comers for economy in the Mobilgas Economy Run.

But, we know, you're equally interested in "how much" for your present car. We can give you some idea if you just pick up the phone and call us. But we can do even better if you give us a chance to appraise it firsthand—so we can allow for extras and care you've given it.

So drop around. Our deals are now the best of the year. That means top in town.

Standard equipment, accessories, and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice. White side-wall tires and full-disc hubcaps at extra cost.

Nancy Hill, Jimmy Hagan, Wendell Hendrix, Carl Edwards, Raymond Shaw, Edna Sheppard and John Clinton Waters had main speaking parts in the original play, but each of the 32 children helped plan and present the program and appeared in some phase of it.

These children explored thoroughly Indian life and lore—a search which enabled them to present to their audience numerous examples of sign language, a pantomime of an Indian translation of the "Twenty-Third Psalm" with John Blount, seventh grade student teacher as narrator, and choral rendering of an Indian song. The children had a big hand in planning the unit, one principal aim of which was to have them understand the relationship of American Indians to the colonies of England, France and Spain.

We Give Thanks
BY VIRGINIA RUSSELL

Thanksgiving is here again. Naturally we turn our thoughts to the long list of items for which we should be thankful. We have in times gone by, patted ourselves on the back and said that we were grateful the whole year through. Somehow, this year we feel that perhaps we didn't know really how grateful we should be.

This year we have underscored such items as, running water, heat, and the like. They were always on our list but we simply didn't know how thankful we were.

The ability to appreciate some of these items has come through different experiences. The matter of heat came along with that first cold spell in October. (A part for the furnace had been ordered way back when the days were very hot.) The only method of heating during that time was a wood fire in the living room. While such a fire creates a marvelous atmosphere, it doesn't heat the place where a woman has to perform her duties for keeping a family going—neither does it warm bath rooms. So we began to understand how the English people have been feeling during these years of austerity. We were amazed that we could so soon forget our "rainings"—how our childhood family all warmed ourselves in the front of us around an open fire and how we children all ran upstairs to sleep in what we called the North Pole.

In fact, we shivered and shivered around here considerably until a neighbor noticed how dirty the children were getting and she saved the skin by giving us a bath was possible. So this year we know especially how to be grateful for heat in all the house. But every time we turn on the water faucet these days we say a little prayer of thankfulness. We so long ago, that there has been no such thing as a cold water bath as we know plumbers are harder to get than doctors so the whistling continued. We decided we couldn't stand it any longer so we put a clothes hanger under the ball that floats in the water closet. It stopped the noise. This arrangement continued for days until one night a visitor, (a college professor, mind you) ("fixed" the trouble. We asked him how he did it and he said that he had bent something called a "fish" (which) lasted while until the whistling started again. The professor who is a permanent fixture in our house (an English professor, mind you) said if friend professor could fix it, so could he. So he bent some more and bent the water meter on the floor. The water ran in the light fixtures down stairs and burned out. To hear the "Man in our life" pleading with the plumber to come made us know his "proposal" to us twenty-one years ago was very wise.

Nevertheless, we are extra thankful this year for things we are so prone to take for granted.

Negro C. of C. To Get Charter Dec. 3
Following months of intensive planning, approximately 50 Negro business and civic men, comprised of men from every voting precinct of Bulloch County, met with the Executive Secretary Robert R. Reed of the Georgia Negro Chamber of Commerce at the Gross Motel and made application for a charter for a Negro Chamber of Commerce unit here at Statesboro.

The unit will be called the Bulloch County Negro Chamber of Commerce. Officers elected for the first year are: President, Willie Wiley; Vice President, H. K. Gross; Secretary, R. Campbell; Treasurer, Garfield Hall.

The charter for this group and individual certificates will be presented in a public meeting place on Wednesday night, December 3, at which time special invitations will be tendered to Statesboro's city officials to attend. This group of men is desirous of helping Negroes of Bulloch County at large, get in position to take part in building a bigger and better Bulloch County in the moral, spiritual, educational and civic aspects of life.

RECREATION CENTER TO BE CLOSED THANKSGIVING
The Recreation Center will be closed all day Thanksgiving. Thanksgiving but big plans are in the making for the weekend. Friday morning there will be a basketball tournament open to all ages with two basketball games being played at 4 p. m.

Episcopalians To Break Ground For New Church
Ground-breaking services for the erection of the new Episcopal Church will be held at the church property corner of Lee Street and Highway 80 on Sunday afternoon, November 30 at 3 p. m.

Representatives from all churches in Statesboro, city officials and the college have been invited. Episcopalians, Sylvanwood, and Savannah, also expected to attend. The Reverend James C. Caley, non-resident pastor of the Statesboro Church, will be in charge and will be assisted by the Reverend T. Bland Tucker, Rector of Christ Church, Savannah. The public is cordially invited to this ceremony.

Housing Authority To Open Bids On 88 Units December 18
Announcement was made this week by Glenn Jennings, chairman of the Housing Authority of the City of Statesboro, 2 p. m. December 18, has been set as deadline when the Authority will accept bids for furnishing all labor, materials, equipment, and services, required to construct the two low rent housing projects for Statesboro.

According to Mr. Jennings one project is for 20 buildings containing 56 units to be constructed for Negroes. This project will be located on Johnson Street beginning at Johnson Lane near Butler Street and extending about 700 feet to property owned by Vanies Slaten. It is 224 feet deep. The area will cover 6.2 acres.

The other project will be for 11 buildings containing 32 units for white citizens. This project is on U. S. 80 and Woodrow Avenue and includes 4.6 acres near the East Side Community Center.

Each project will include a maintenance and community building, landscaping, site improvements, and utilities.

The Housing Authority is made up of Glenn Jennings, chairman, A. M. Franks, S. D. Groover, O. C. Banks, and J. T. Morris.

EUREKA METHODIST CHURCH TO PUT NEW ROOF ON CHURCH: ASK AID
The membership of the Eureka Methodist Church plan to put a new roof on their church. A meeting of the Board of Stewards, and the Finance Committee will be held at the church Wednesday, December 3, at 1:00 o'clock, to discuss the work. There will also be a church yard and cemetery cleaning that day.

Plans call for the roof to be put on during December. The members of the board say: "If you wish to help the church with this project you may mail your contribution to Thomas Newsome, RFD 2, Statesboro. And remember—you can deduct this contribution from your income tax."

Bowen, Parker In Mayor Race; Foy, McDougald, Anderson For Council
At the qualifying deadline, midnight last Thursday, W. A. (Bill) Bowen and F. C. Parker Jr., were the only two candidates for the office of Mayor of the City of Statesboro.

Mayor J. Gilbert City did not offer for re-election, having issued a statement on November 6, that his personal business requires all his time.

Mr. Bowen, serving as Mayor Pro Tem, qualified early this month. Mr. Parker qualified shortly before the deadline November 20. Mr. Parker's term on the city council expires this year and he had previously qualified to succeed himself. He withdrew his candidacy for the council post and qualified as a candidate for mayor.

Mr. Foy, and Horace McDougald, are candidates for the city council. Mr. Foy had previously qualified to succeed himself as a member of the council.

An amendment to the charter of Statesboro, which was passed in the Georgia Legislature makes it mandatory that the mayor must name his opponent against whom he wishes to run.

Before that Amendment in the Charter of Statesboro was passed, the candidates receiving the greatest number of votes were named to fill the places to become vacant.

Rites Held For Mrs. Mace Waters
Mrs. J. Mace Waters, 72, died Friday afternoon at Bulloch County Hospital after a long illness. She was a member of the Clito Baptist Church.

Survivors are her husband, J. Mace Waters, Statesboro; two daughters, Mrs. M. M. Sasse, Statesboro, Mrs. C. H. Floyd, Savannah, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 3:30 p. m., Saturday at the chapel of Barnes Funeral Home by Elder V. F. Agan. Burial was in East Side Cemetery.

Other guests included Mayor J. Gilbert City, Allen R. Lanier, incoming chairman of the Bulloch County Board of Commissioners, James Hayes, manager of the Senior Chamber of Commerce Leode, Coleman of the Bulloch Herald, and Kermit R. Carr, cashier of the Sea Island bank.

Joe Neville, president of the local club, presided and Congressman Preston was presented by State Jaycee President Charles Robbins.

Preston talked to the Jaycees on what we may expect in the coming four years with new faces in Washington. He explained that we will have a very capable leader, though inexperienced in politics, who will not be bound to any party. Preston pointed out that Eisenhower will be independent, though how far he can go without a break with Republican leaders he did not know.

The Congressman said that he could see a conflict between the philosophy of Taft and Eisenhower, and he could see clashes on the economic front, on the proposition of maintaining lending agencies and possibly other banks.

If these clashes come, according to Preston, the new President will be at odds with Congress and fall through. Sunday, November 30, Christmas holidays will begin on December 19 and extend through Sunday, December 28. There will be no New Year's holiday.

J. C. Adams,
