CHILEAN NITRATE OF SODA
You'll know the DIFFERENCE in NATURAL CHILEAN NITRATE when you see the DIFFERENCE in results!
One difference between Natural Chilean Nitrate and other nitrogen fertilizers is quality — natural quality. It is the world's only natural source of nitrate nitrogen.
The nitrogen content of Chilean Nitrate is 100% nitrate nitrogen — 100% fast-acting — 100% dependable. No antidote is necessary. Chilean Nitrate is non-acid forming. Rich in sodium and minor elements. Chilean Nitrate is rich in beneficial sodium that makes a stronger, deeper root system — improves crop health, vigor and nutritive value. It also contains small quantities of essential minor elements.
Noted for all-round efficiency. Quick-acting 100% nitrate nitrogen makes rapid, sturdy growth. Its 26% sodium content acts like potash, necessary and helps to increase the supply of available phosphate in the soil.
Chilean Nitrate's free flowing pellets guarantee rapid, accurate distribution under all conditions. No special precautions needed.
Helps maintain productivity of your land. When used consistently — in a sound farming program, Chilean Nitrate builds up fertility, increases efficiency.
Year after year, Natural Chilean Nitrate increases yield — improves quality — defends against disease — fortifies against insect injury — counteracts soil acidity. The Chilean Nitrate for solid satisfaction!

Salute TO GEORGIA COUNTIES
Clay County
Indian Battleground
FOUNDED 1864
COUNTY SEAT, FORT GAINE

Clay County in southwestern Georgia was founded to surround the Chattahoochee River outpost of Fort Gaines, which dates from 1816 during the Indian Wars. In the early days cotton plantations bolstered river traffic. Today peanuts and cotton are leading products with more of the county moving toward cattle raising and planted pastures. Principal industries are peanut shelling, cotton gins, fertilizer mixing, a game bird farm, nursery for ornamental plants, and sawmills.

In this and other Georgia counties, the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly to maintain wholesome conditions where beer and ale are sold. Close attention is given areas near camps of the Armed Forces, and both military officials and Georgia law enforcement officers have commended the Foundation's self-regulation program. Retailer educational meetings offer sound suggestions for continued operation in the community's interest.

BC March Of Dimes Reaches $1,902.30
E. L. (Luke) Anderson Jr., chairman of the January March of Dimes drive to raise funds for the Bulloch County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, announced this week that the county contributed $1,902.30 during the fund campaign.

Mr. Anderson stated that he believes that this is the largest amount that this county has ever contributed, and expressed his deep appreciation for "the wonderful way every one cooperated in the drive—especially am I thankful to the teachers and the students in the Bulloch County schools, both white and Negro," he said.

He also expressed his appreciation for the contributions received through the cooperation of Hal Macon of the Statesboro Theatre, and the State Chamber of Commerce. He stated that the patrons of the Georgia contributed $195, the State, $49.40, and the Drive-In, $99.25.

He added that the funds raised here will be devoted evenly between the county chapter and the National Foundation. This means that when a child or adult is stricken with polio in this county, financial aid will be available immediately if the patient's family needs assistance.

STATESBORO, GEORGIA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1953

MISS BETTY JEAN BEASLEY, president of the Bulloch County 4-H Club, shown here receiving the state championship award for the work she did in the 4-H Club boys and girls did in 1952 in the farm and home electric contest from J. W. Fanning, extension economist. Horace McDougall, president of the Statesboro Rotary club, looks on with approval. The award was presented to Miss Beasley at the annual Farmers' Day program of the Rotary club on Monday, February 9.

Mr. Fanning was the speaker for the annual event and presented the award to Miss Beasley as a part of his speech. Bulloch county had 89 enrolled in the 4-H Club farm and home electric contest in 1952 and carried on wiring and lighting demonstrations in all the 11 organized clubs in the county. Mrs. Myrtle Edfield, home economist for the county, assisted in the contest. Printing will be done by the Georgia State Chamber of Commerce members through arrangement with industrial chairman Lane. This is one of numerous services provided by the Georgia Chamber with cooperation with communities throughout the state in their industrial development activities.

THE BULLC HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLC H COUNTY

NUMBER 14

C. of C. To Publish Industrial Data On Bulloch County

President Loy A. Waters of the Statesboro and Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce announced this week that arrangements have been completed with Mills B. Lane, Jr., chairman of the Georgia State Chamber of Commerce Industrial Development Division, for publication of a new Industrial Survey of this community.

This survey will become the "textbook" for dealing with industrial prospects, according to James E. Hays, manager of the local Chamber. It will also be of "invaluable service" to local investors and others who desire current information about the economic facts-of-life in Bulloch County.

The local Chamber of Commerce has practically completed months of research required in compiling data from many sources, affording the information in brief but informative language, and finally preparing finished copy for publication. Printing will be done by the Georgia State Chamber of Commerce members through arrangement with industrial chairman Lane. This is one of numerous services provided by the Georgia Chamber with cooperation with communities throughout the state in their industrial development activities.

B. FINALS AT METTER
6 p. m.—Collins vs. Soperton. 7:15—Brooklet vs. Hinsville. 8:30—Mt. Vernon vs. Statesboro. 9:45—Glenville vs. Reidsville.

C. FINALS AT STATESBORO
6 p. m.—Alamo vs. Sardis. 7:15—Stillson vs. Nevils. 8:30—Porton vs. Springfield. 9:45—Pembroke vs. Kibbee.

Methodists Make Special Appeal Here On March 1
Methodists here are getting ready to join their 300,000 fellow Methodists all over Georgia in responding to a combined appeal for nine special causes Sunday, March 1. The plan is being overlooked to see that every Methodist knows the "what" and the "why" of the appeal.

Upon completion, this Industrial Survey will be supplied to Chamber of Commerce and municipal officials, banks, railroads, utilities, and to all agencies concerned with soliciting new or expanded industry for this area. Copies may be obtained from the local Chamber or from the State Chamber offices.

Scout Leaders Take Training
Mrs. Jack Weisheit, Mrs. George Bryson, Mrs. Bartow Lamb and Mrs. Virgil Donaldson were among those attending the Girl Scout training session in Savannah recently.

The course was sponsored by the Savannah Girl Scout Headquarters and was under the direction of Miss Oletha Schrott, member of the National Girl Scout Staff. The members of the Statesboro Troop are leaders in the Statesboro Recreation Department sponsored by the Girl Scout program.

MEETING OF PARENTS AND TEACHERS AT SHS TUESDAY
There will be a meeting of the Parents and Teachers at the Statesboro High School auditorium on Tuesday night of next week at 8 o'clock. Fathers of children in the school are urged to attend.

Jane Beaver And Jere Fletcher Top Who's Who
According to the February 16 issue of the Statesboro Hi-Owl, student newspaper of the Statesboro High School, Miss Jane Beaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S.H.S., and Jere Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fletcher, have been named "Who's Who" for the highest honor in the school by special ballot in the Who's Who election and the candidates had to be elected by the upper third of the senior class.

Miss Beaver was also named "Most Popular Girl," "Most Athletic Girl," and "Most Friendly Girl." Mr. Fletcher was also named "Most Popular Boy," "Most Athletic Boy," and "Most Friendly Boy."

Others in the annual "Who's Who" election are: Billy Joe Deal, best dancer; boy; Shirley Purser, best dancer; girl; Edwin Bragg, best dancer; girl; Harville Hendrix, most likely to succeed; girl; Harville Hendrix, most dependable; John Lightfoot, and Jimmy Blanton, most talented; Sybil Griner, most school spirit; Edwin Bragg, most carefree; Joe Johnston, best looking boy; and June Carr, prettiest girl.

Pictures of these "superlatives" will appear in the 1953 "Criteria," high school yearbook, published by the senior class.

First District Girls 'C' Basketball Tourney Finals At SHS Tonight

The finals of the First District Class "C" girls basketball tournament will be played in the Statesboro High gym tonight with the Stillson girls playing the Nevils girls at 7:15 o'clock. Porton will play Springfield at 8:30. Alamo will play Sardis in the first game set to begin at 6 p. m. and Kibbee will play at 9:45.

Class "B" finals will be played at Metter tonight with the Brooklet girls meeting the Hinsville team at 7:15. The Statesboro girls will meet Mount Vernon at 8:30. Collins will play Soperton at 6 p. m., and Glenville will meet Reidsville at 9:45.

In the first rounds of Class "C," Area II, tournament held in Glenville on Monday night, Nevils defeated Darian, 51 to 34. In the Area I tournament in Rincon, Stillson, last year's champs, defeated Guyton 41 to 9. Porton defeated Sardis 50 to 28 in Area III at Swainsboro. Register drew a bye in Glenville.

In the second round of Class "C," on Tuesday in Glenville, Register lost a hard one to Kibbee 35 to 28. Nevils lost to Pembroke 24 to 41, and Stillson defeated Springfield 50 to 44.

In the first rounds of Class "B," Statesboro defeated Sylvania 47 to 36 on Monday night, and then lost to Brooklet Tuesday night, in the second round, by the score of 42 to 41. Both games were in Rincon.

B. FINALS AT METTER
6 p. m.—Collins vs. Soperton. 7:15—Brooklet vs. Hinsville. 8:30—Mt. Vernon vs. Statesboro. 9:45—Glenville vs. Reidsville.

To Clear Up A Misunderstanding

IT SEEMED plain enough to us when we wrote it.

It seemed plain enough to the members of the Steering Committee of the Statesboro and Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce when it was discussed at their regular meeting on Tuesday, January 20.

Yet, we have been told by members of the Steering Committee that there are some who don't quite understand it.

Here is the paragraph which we wrote:

"It is recalled that the merchants of Statesboro, on May 26, 1952, had petitioned the City Council to increase their business license 100 percent for four years, 1953-1956. The funds from the increase were to be used by the (Bulloch County) Development Corporation to erect a building for prospective industrial use. The merchants were to receive participating common stock in the Corporation for the amount of the addition to their business license."

It was reported to us last Friday that some of the merchants of Statesboro had gotten the idea that part of the funds to have been raised by the increase in the business license were to have been used in paying the salary of the secretary-manager.

This is a complete misunderstanding. Let's go back to Monday, May 26, 1952. More than 100 businessmen and merchants met in the courthouse to petition the mayor and city council to increase their business license by 100 percent for the years, 1953, 1954, 1955, and 1956.

Following brief statements by the then mayor, J. Gilbert Cone, and Jim Hays, secretary-manager of the Statesboro and Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce, the business license holders of the city voted to double their licenses for four years.

The increase in the business license

Up Goes Our Hat

OH IT WAS PRETTY

And all those in it were pretty as pictures.

And it seems to us such a shame that out of the thirty pretty girls selected by the student body of Statesboro High School it was deemed necessary to select the "prettiest one," and the "second prettiest one," and then ten other prettiest ones.

The occasion was the Beauty Revue held at the high school auditorium last week to select the girls whose pictures will appear on the beauty pages of the 1953 Criterion, school yearbook.

June Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit R. Carr, was chosen by three judges from Metter, to be "the prettiest" of the 30. Mary Henderson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Zach Henderson, was selected as the "runner-up."

The other ten are Sybil Griner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Griner; Mary Jon Johnston, daughter of Mrs. Grady K. Johnston and the late Mr. Johnston; Florence Gross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gross; Carolyn Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Blackburn; Jane Richardson, daughter of Mrs. Frank Richardson and the late Mr. Richardson; Doris Rucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Rucker; Margaret Ann Dekle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Inman Dekle; Lynn Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Smith; Donna DeLoach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carolyn DeLoach; and Audrey Faye Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Webb.

We throw up high our hat for the winners.

And we throw it up high for all those who were in the Revue—for had the Revue been held today and the judges been from Sylvania there might have been twelve other winners.

It's Pleading To Know

THINGS CLOSE TO US we take for granted. But when we see it elsewhere it pleases us and makes a good impression.

And when it is pointed out to us that we excel in things we are sometimes surprised—and pleasantly so.

This week we have reason to be both pleased and surprised, but more pleased than surprised.

Mr. Milton H. Trippie of the Georgia was to have been used to purchase stock in the Bulloch County Development Corporation which was being organized at the time of the meeting.

It was definitely stated at that meeting that the purpose of the Bulloch County Development Corporation was to promote Statesboro and Bulloch County and induce industry to select Statesboro as a site for new plants.

It was definitely explained that beginning with January 1, 1953, the increase in the license fees would be turned over to the Bulloch County Development Corporation, which in turn was to issue, participating shares of common stock at the par value of $10 per share for the amount that the business licenses were to have been increased.

It was anticipated that the new corporation was to borrow approximately $75,000 with which to erect a building 100 feet by 200 feet on property at the airport to be deeded to the corporation by the city and county. The $75,000 loan was to have been paid from the money secured by the 100 percent increase in the license fees over the four-year period.

Mr. Cone stated at that meeting that even of the industry with which the Chamber of Commerce was then negotiating should fail to come to Statesboro, "with the Bulloch County Development Corporation formed and funds in hand, we will be in the position to talk with other companies who have already shown an interest in Statesboro."

Never at any time was there mention of, nor at any time was there any intention of using funds from these business licenses which were to have been increased being used to pay salaries of any kind to any one.

We sincerely hope this clears up whatever misunderstanding may have come about our story last week.

Department of Public Health was in Statesboro recently and conducted the first food handler's school to be held in this section.

27 eating establishments, including the cafes, restaurants, the hospital, and school lunchrooms, sent representatives to the meetings. 117 people, including waiters, waitresses, cooks, owners, and operators, attended.

Dr. W. D. Lundquist, Commissioner of Health of the Bulloch County Health Department, praised highly the complete cooperation the food handlers in this community gave the meetings.

Now comes the surprising and pleasing part. There are few communities in the United States, and only one or two in Georgia in which the eating places are as clean and as well kept as those in this community.

This on the word of those who worked with the health department in conducting the school.

According to Mr. Trippie, with very few minor corrections Statesboro can attain the 90 percent grade rating with the United States Department of Public Health.

That's a high compliment to those who own and operate the eating places in this community.

That's an attractive incentive for tourists to make their way to Statesboro and Bulloch County in time for dinner or supper or in time to spend the night and have breakfast before leaving.

It's pleasant and satisfying to the citizens of our community who eat out occasionally to know this.

And we commend those who "dish it out" for "dishing it out" fresh, clean, and attractive, in fresh, clean, and attractive places.

Cultural Experience

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, February 22 will mark a high in the cultural experience of the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch County.

That afternoon at four o'clock Efram Kurtz, musical director and conductor of the Houston Symphony Orchestra, will present that famous orchestra in a concert at the Teachers College.

We congratulate the Community Concert Association upon bringing this outstanding symphony orchestra to Statesboro.

Editor's Uneasy Chair

Lent began yesterday, Wednesday, February 18—"Ash Wednesday."

"What is Lent?" we asked Father John Garry, pastor of St. Matthews Church, one day last week when he came to visit us.

We looked it up in the dictionary and found only "The spring period of fasting in preparation for Easter, in the Western church, a penitential period extending from Ash Wednesday to Easter."

But we wanted to know more than just that. And we wondered if Father Garry would give us more. He did.

Here is his interpretation of "LENT."

"Lent's too tough! Why go around with a long face for forty days. Lent takes the fun out of life. It's the time from the Dark Ages." Does Lent make sense or not? Let's see.

Christ fasted for forty days and nights in the desert. He began His public life. He preached by example as well as by word: "Unless you do penance, you shall all likewise perish."

Jesus spent these forty days near the Jordan at the foot of Mt. Quarantana in Palestine. The sides of that mountain are rock-marked with crude caves where early Christians came to live and to follow literally the example of the Master's forty day fast.

Until the nineteenth century the people took just one meal a day for the forty day period before Easter—and that meal was at sundown. Theatres and law-courts were closed for the Lenten season; and wars were suspended for these forty days. That was the universal custom in the Middle Ages—the ages of faith. Christians gave all their time and attention to the welfare of their immortal souls.

"I do not do the good that I wish, but the evil that I do not wish, that I perform." Rom. 7, 19. St. Paul tells us of the continual, violent struggle within him. He was a man of the flesh and the things of the flesh; but his body pulled him down to the things of earth—down to evil. We're all like St. Paul. That same battle is going on within us. Each one of us is a Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. Our souls strain towards God; but our bodies cling to the earth. We are partly heavenly and partly earthly, part angel and part animal. Let's admit that much and go from there. Will the Dr. Jekyll of Mr. Hyde in us gain the upper hand, take over? St. Paul goes on to say: "The inclination of the flesh is death, but the inclination of the spirit, life and peace..." and they who are carnal cannot please God.

What is the secret of getting mastery over the rebellious flesh? Will power. We are not at liberty to shrug our shoulders with "I can't." We'd better, or else we're

The Rambling Pittmans

EDITOR'S NOTE — Last week we left Dr. Pittman hurrying off by Jeep to visit a three-teacher school known as "Viego General." Here he is on his way in his Jeep.

I was informed that it would require ONLY forty minutes to go and forty minutes to return. Six miles in forty minutes by motor car! That seemed REDICULOUS to me but after making the trip, I was surprised that it did not require a FULL DAY! There was NO road, only a trail for barefoot men, for mountain ponies, and for oxen and a two wheeled cart.

No one must ever, hereafter, in my presence, speak with ANY disrespect about a "Jeep." In its ability to take punishment, wade water, slog through mud, to jump from stone to stone, crawl up and down banks, and climb mountains—it can be RIVALED ONLY by a mountain goat. When I got to "the city" I was more worn out and more hungry than I have EVER been after a day of "blood, sweat, and tears" in my "Rebellion Park."

Visiting rural schools in Costa Rica makes playing "hide and seek" with Communies on "old baldy" in Korea look like a picnic. Well, the afternoon of yesterday and the forenoon of today have been filled with "addresses" by the "DISTINGUISHED" visitors, by greetings from others, by letters and telegrams from others of NOTE including President Ulaie, by welcomes, expressions of appreciation, etc.

One thing in this mornings program made a deep impression upon me. The School Board members were seated in a "block" at the meeting. The roll was called. When each man arose to answer to his name, he responded in true Latin American style with a sentence or a phrase. The most common of which were: "A sus ordenes" which means "at your orders" or "Para servir a usted" which means "for serving you."

No meeting in Costa Rica is a REAL SUCCESS unless it does not close the night session with a DANCE and the main session with a BANQUET.

At the banquet today I sat between two interesting men. At my left was Mr. Thomas J. Browers who is the American, from California, who is in charge of the highway program on this south-going end. At my right was Senor Antonio P. Bredy who is the most interesting personality I have met in Costa Rica. He is an Arab from the country of Lebanon. He is a graduate of that very interesting and wonderful American college at Beirut. He came to Costa Rica on a mission twenty years ago and has become a citizen. He is a dry goods merchant and somebody in this area. Handsome, intelligent, humorous, gracious, world minded, et cetera ad infinitum.

Interesting as are these "somebodies," this Pan-American highway, this new school, and all that, to me the most interesting feature of this visit is that I am once two small round goards with handles. They have shot in them which rattle when shaken. They are called "Maracas"

The dances used last night were five, named as follows: "Tamborito"—the little drum; "Zapateado"—the shoe tap; "Capri"—the coffee plantation; "Guaria Morado"—the purple orchid; "Punta Guacacateco"—the Guacacateco—a folk dance developed and very popular in Guacacateco province. When I get back school and teach YOU how to do it as SO MUCH PER!

S.H.S. Band Gives Listeners A Wonderful Thrill

BY VIRGINIA RUSSELL

If you were at the Statesboro High School auditorium Sunday afternoon to hear the Statesboro High School Band give its Winter Concert, won't you agree that each concert gets better?

Perhaps we've said it before but we feel it's worth saying again. There is a wonderful thrill to those of us who have attended each of these concerts for several years. The thrill goes far beyond the music experience.

There is a real joy in observing a large group of boys and girls over a period of years. The evolution of these boys and girls into the poised young men and young women continues to be amazing.

The way these young people together is another thing of wonder. Any mother of several children knows how hard it is to keep harmony among brothers and sisters of different ages. That harmony with band music. But in the band there are the same problems with the different age groups. Yet, our band leader is able to produce harmony in the relationships with one another and harmony in music, as well.

For one who knows so little about music, we still appreciate the improvement that we see and hear now over the very first concerts the older members have naturally matured.

One of the finest things about the band is its unselfishness. The concerts are always free. The parades in town before football games require a great deal of energy but the boys and girls are always happy to do their part. The band certainly adds greatly to the football games. Surely players are helped by feeling the support of the band. The music even helps the spectators to support their team. In return for this unselfishness, is the satisfaction of knowing that many individuals in town are glad to see the band, not only with their attendance to concerts and other public appearances but they also support the band with their dollars. Without them the costly instruments (that practically no families could afford) could not be had.

At the listening to this group of young people play their musical instruments Sunday afternoon, we thought how much we all need to use the lesson that lies in the success of these young folk's band. No player was striving to stand out or be a hero. Each one was working to blend his talent in with everyone else's talent. In thinking about it, we feel certain harmony at home, in our state and nation, and in our world is possible if we could only copy our band members.

To each one of you, we all throw a bouquet of appreciation for your grand work. Band members and Band Master!

more on the GREAT FRONTIER—civilization is pushing its way over the mountains and into the remotest valleys.

This is Saturday and "la gente"—the people—have come to town. The only motor vehicles that are here are those brought in from down San Jose way. The "People" who are here walked—most of them barefoot, road a mountain pony, or came with a two wheeled cart—"Correta" pulled by two oxen. They come to sell and to buy. They brought what they have to sell in bags on those ponies, in those carts or they drove it on foot—a cow or a hog. There is a small monument in the town square (a thing found in every town) to the heroes who gave their lives on March 12, 1948 in the Revolution.

The church is on the east side of the square, according to custom. The ponies are "hitched" to the "hitching posts," the people are like ants hurrying on their business, the "feel of the frontier" is in the air, a GREAT TOMORROW is on its way inspite of poverty and hardship.

Yes, hope springs eternal in the human breast as man's greatest gift from his creator. —FRONTIERSMAN PITTMAN.

ALPHA OMEGA CHAPTER MET AT FRIENDLY RESTAURANT

The Alpha Omega Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held its regular meeting last week at the Friendly Restaurant with Jessie Anderson and Peggy Williams as co-hostesses. A lovely arrangement of Chinese Sacred Illies was used in the private dining room.

A feature of the program was a talk by Velma Rose who used as her topic "Life is an Art." The members were very appreciative of Velma's interesting contribution to the meeting.

Members present were Carolyn Brown, Laura Margaret Godbee, Margaret Hays, Nona Hodges, Shirley McCullough, Cherry Cobb, Beverly Neville, Betty Neal, Pat Robbins, Jean Rushing, Helen Thompson, Margaret Wynn, Margaret Williams and Evelyn Hayes.

AS YOU LIKE IT BRIDGE CLUB Mrs. Arnold Rose was hostess Friday afternoon to the As You Like It Bridge Club at her home on Tillman Street. Camellias were used in the living room and dining room. Individual chess pieces topped with whipped cream were served with nuts and coffee. Valentine hearts with ruffled edges marked the tables.

Shirley Tillman won an azalea plant for high score. Mrs. F. C. Parker Jr. received an African violet for low. Mrs. J. W. Cane won a dish garden for cut. A small china holding pink rose buds was won by Mrs. Cohen Anderson for visitor's high.

Other players were Mrs. Lawrence Mallard, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. Chalmers Franklin, Mrs. Grady Bland, Mrs. Jim Hays, Mrs. Joe Hines, and Mrs. Charlie Robbins Jr.

ROSE SHOW SCHEDULED FOR MAY The Statesboro Garden Club met Tuesday afternoon, February 10, at the home of Mrs. C. B. Altman with Mrs. Bill Alderman Jr. as co-hostesses. There were 17 members present.

The home was beautifully decorated with camellias, red buds and narcissi. Delicious chiffon pie was topped with whipped cream and a cherry. The club voted to have a Rose Show early in May. Entries of spring flowers would be judged as arrangements.

On the program was Mr. Mullis from the Ogeechee Soil Conservation unit. Mr. Mullis discussed horticulture as related to soil. Each member brought soil from her garden which Mr. Mullis tested for acidity.

Camellias were brought for competitive judging and the winners were: Mrs. James Bland, blue ribbon; Mrs. Lawrence Mallard, red ribbon; Mrs. Claude Howard, white ribbon.

SMITH-HAGAN REHEARSAL PARTY On Saturday evening, Feb. 7, the Norris Hotel was the scene of the Smith-Hagan rehearsal party with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith as host at a turkey dinner.

The banquet table was decorated with lovely arrangements of white gladioli, white carnations, white narcissi, placed at intervals the length of the table with English ivy trailing between. White candles in low holders added charm to the candle light dinner party. There were 30 guests present.

At the party, the bride presented her matron of honor rhinestone ear rings. The groom gave his attendants cuff links.

MRS. TESSIE RIGGS is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Oliff and husband in Tampa, Fla. for an extended visit.

MR. AND MRS. EDGAR HAGAN returned Sunday from their honeymoon trip to Daytona, Silver Springs and other points of interest in Florida.

SHIRLEY TILLMAN

MISS SHIRLEY TILLMAN ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. E. Grant Tillman of Statesboro, Georgia, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Shirley Tillman, to Vaughn Dyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn G. Dyer of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Miss Tillman received her BFA degree in Speech from Wesleyan Conservatory where she served as Social Chairman and was elected Miss Senior Class. She is now employed at Radio Station WWSN in Statesboro.

Recreation Roundup At City Community Center

ALL STAR GAMES ARE ALL THRILLERS

The All Star Games in all three boys' leagues were played in the College Gym on Monday night of this week by invitation of Coach J. B. Seacore of the Teachers College. All those who missed these games missed some of the best of the year. In the Midget League the All Stars conquered the Indians in a 33 to 29 thriller that found all 10 all stars participating in the game to bring about the defeat of the favored quintet. Barry and Street led the scoring for the All Stars by 11 points each while the scoring for the Indians was evenly divided.

In the Junior League the Cards defeated the favored all stars 45 to 42 in a game in which the Cards trailed all the way to the final period. Even after Capt. Gordon Franklin and forward Ednefeld fouled out, the hard working Cards held on to their 2 point lead in the final minutes for the upset win. Franklin was high scorer for the All Stars with 22 points, while Max Roberts equaled his achievement with an equal 22 points. Roberts was Capt. of the All Star Team.

In the Senior League where the All Stars were picked as the under dogs in pre-game sentiment upset the league leading Dynamites 45 to 41 in a game in which they led all the way. Paul Waters led the Dynamites with 12 points as Billy Jo Deal took top scoring honors for the All Stars with 18 points. In the Junior Girls' League the all star game was played at the Recreation Center and favored all stars came through as expected with 38 to 15 shellacking of the Bobbie Sox. Edna Mae Denmark, Capt. of the Bobbie Sox led her team in scoring with 10 points, while Amelia Brown took honors for the All Stars with 27 points.

COASTAL BERMUDA

Coastal Bermuda is unexcelled for summer grazing, according to agronomist of the University of Georgia Agricultural Extension Service. It is unexcelled because it grows late in the fall, makes more growth, is an excellent hay plant, and is more disease and cold resistant.

The Sinkhole group elected to fight rats on a community basis, with everyone present asking for help in killing the rats while they are now in buildings on the farm. John M. Strickland pointed out that before long it would warm weather and the rats would take to the fields where they would be hard to kill with anything. Motion pictures on farm safety and corn production were a part of the Sinkhole program.

Mr. Hodges stated that when the local coverage designed is finally approved, actual work can begin on the project. Mr. Hodges stated that some short cuts might have been taken and the project started earlier but that the directors felt it was wise to play it safe.

J. A. Hart, chairman of the fertilizer buying committee for the chapter, reported that several companies had agreed to let the group have fertilizer at dealer prices, which would save some $400 per ton for those that did not hold a dealer's contract. Those wanting to group their order for fertilizer for this year were asked to give it to Mr. Hart as chairman of the committee.

Frank Proctor, vice president, presided over the Ogeechee meeting since the president, Roy Kelly was in the hospital.

A motion picture on tractor safety was a part of the Ogeechee program.

WARNOCK

Through the cooperation of the local health department a rat control program has been started in the Warnock school building, where the Warnock Farm Bureau holds its meetings.

Mrs. L. F. Martin had charge of the Warnock program Wednesday night and led the song service. Frank Rushing and Jesse N. Akina gave piano solos. Heyward Sherward Boyd put on a black-face skit. Carol Groover gave a reading, and E. T. Mullis, county conservationist, outlined the work of the Soil Conservation Service, pointing out the types of soil found in the county and the recommended crops for such soils as well as conservation practices best for holding the soil.

SINKHOLE

The Sinkhole group elected to fight rats on a community basis, with everyone present asking for help in killing the rats while they are now in buildings on the farm. John M. Strickland pointed out that before long it would warm weather and the rats would take to the fields where they would be hard to kill with anything. Motion pictures on farm safety and corn production were a part of the Sinkhole program.

Mr. Hodges stated that when the local coverage designed is finally approved, actual work can begin on the project. Mr. Hodges stated that some short cuts might have been taken and the project started earlier but that the directors felt it was wise to play it safe.

J. A. Hart, chairman of the fertilizer buying committee for the chapter, reported that several companies had agreed to let the group have fertilizer at dealer prices, which would save some $400 per ton for those that did not hold a dealer's contract. Those wanting to group their order for fertilizer for this year were asked to give it to Mr. Hart as chairman of the committee.

Frank Proctor, vice president, presided over the Ogeechee meeting since the president, Roy Kelly was in the hospital.

A motion picture on tractor safety was a part of the Ogeechee program.

WARNOCK

Through the cooperation of the local health department a rat control program has been started in the Warnock school building, where the Warnock Farm Bureau holds its meetings.

ALL'S FAIR

By JANE

"RECONSTRUCTION"—The amount of destruction and devastation wrought in this little land during the last two and one-half years is impossible to estimate, and just as immeasurable as the amount and quality of the faith and courage to build again and look to a brighter future that is found here today. In June 1950 when the Red invasion of south Korea began, there was not a Methodist Church in the Pusan area. (Methodism had concentrated in other areas). Today there are 12 Methodist churches in Pusan—refugees from central and north Korea have formed the nucleus and the number of new Christians is amazing. Last Sunday I attended morning worship in the new Pong Su Dong Church, the pride of Methodism in this city. A lovely new white stucco building, an orderly service, a well trained choir singing some lovely numbers, an impressive order of worship followed and a splendid message given. People sat together on the floor when more people kept coming they crowded closer and closer. These people are reconstructing their church life in a beautiful little church. Now, go with me to the little church where I worshiped this morning. This church group is mostly refugees from Wonsan, the city in north Korea where I lived and worked from 1924 until 1940. A delegation of these friends visited me and invited me to worship with them this Sunday. They said they had only a little frame building with not much to make it look like a church, but they are having such good times there under the leadership of one of the Wonsan District pastors. That same afternoon we heard that fire had partly destroyed their little church and that this was the second time they had great fire losses. But don't think fire interfered with their program, the very next afternoon a Bible Study group met in the patched up church. This morning I saw that the cardboard boxes in which relief goods had come were being put to good use in church architecture—it didn't make any difference that some of the labels on the boxes read, "Coca-Cola," "Blue Ribbon Beer," "Cool Cigarettes," etc! These boxes kept out most of the snow that fell last night and kept the breezes from cooling us off too much during the service. In such a situation, I dare say, many of us would have said, "No church for me today"—but not so with that group. When we arrived Sunday School was in session, some 85 girls and boys singing lustily and we were told that they had planned a campaign to save their pennies to buy a church bell for the new church they hope to build. The day of the fire one little lad whose home was destroyed hurried over to see about the church and seeing it still standing, exclaimed, "My house is gone, but how happy I am that we still have a place for our Sunday School!" After the SS group went out, the church was put in order for the adult worship service. I was touched and rejoiced in the fellowship of the service. Some 75 or 80 women sang with feeling, "Simply Trusting Every Day" and "Jesus is all the World to Me," and the message based on the experience of Paul and Silas singing in the jail at Philippi was a challenge to meet the difficult experiences of this day with singing faith. The whole experience was a moving one, and then when they announced that the service would be concluded with a "Welcome" for me, it seemed just too much. In spite of wear in spite of refugee conditions and a recent devastating fire these dear Korean friends just MUST be their gracious selves, and can be sure the sweet little service with appropriate songs, talks and gift (a Korean Bible) was appreciated very deeply. These friends are going ahead to reconstruct and enlarge their place of worship—surely there just must be a brighter tomorrow for people who sing through their difficulties, and make such ventures of faith."

Brood cows should be selected on the basis of milk produced, considering ample size and capacity to utilize large quantities of roughage, and they should be regular breeders, according to livestock specialists for the Agricultural Extension Service, University of Georgia.

JOHNSTON-PYOR NUPITALS IN SWAINSBORO SATURDAY
A wedding of unusual interest to friends and relatives in Statesboro was that of Miss Rita Booth Johnston, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson Johnston, of Swainsboro, who became the bride of Lieut. Gen. Wilcox Pryor of Fitzgerald and Camp Rucker, Alabama, son of J. J. Pryor and the late Mrs. Pryor.

The marriage took place Saturday afternoon, February 14, at the Swainsboro Methodist church, with the Rev. Vernon Robertson, pastor of the church, performing the impressive double-ring ceremony before an assemblage of guests.

The church decorations presented a scene of classic beauty in unusual artistic design. The choir, who sang with stately palms centered with a large arrangement of magnolia leaves tinted a delicate pink.

embossed three-tiered Valentine cake.
Miss Betty Pryor, sister of the groom, kept the bride's book. Those from Statesboro who assisted in entertaining were Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Mrs. E. C. Oliver, Mrs. Clyde Mitchell, Mrs. George Johnston, and Mrs. Greene Johnston of Tallahassee. Among those serving was Miss Charlotte Blitch of Statesboro.

During the afternoon Lieut. Pryor and his bride left for a brief wedding trip to Florida before he reports to Fort Knox, Ky. The bride traveled in a shoulder blue suit with blonde and tan straw hat. Her bag and shoes were of alligator. She wore the orchid from her bouquet.

ATTEND FUNERAL IN CLAXTON
Relatives from Statesboro who attended the funeral of Mr. Neil Thagard of Greenboro, N. C. who died of a heart attack and was brought to his former home for burial, were: Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Felton Neville, and son, Bobby Neville; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Neville, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neville, and Mr. and Mrs. Lovett Monnet, of Sylvania.

The deceased is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eula Neville Thagard, and a son, Neil Jr., and daughters, Betty and Jane.

REHEARSAL-PYOR WEDDING
Following the rehearsal of the Johnston-Pyor wedding at five o'clock Friday afternoon in Swainsboro, the bride party and out-of-town guests came to Statesboro Friday evening where they were entertained with a buffet supper at the Country Club. Hosts of the party were Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Mrs. E. C. Oliver, Mrs. Clyde Mitchell, Mrs. J. O. Johnston, Mrs. George Johnston, Mrs. Sammie Johnston, and Mrs. M. W. M. Brown of Brunswick.

The table carried out the bride's motif of pink in the use of pink satin and lace cover. The center was an elaborate affair with three shades of pink carnations. The lace cover was draped at each corner held by clusters of pink carnations. The individual tables were centered with carnations. The bride chose for the rehearsal party a dusty pink nylon net dress.

Miss Cater Snow, of Macon, was maid of honor. Mrs. H. H. Cobb, of Athens, served as matron of honor. The bridesmaids included Mrs. J. Lane Johnston of Statesboro and Athens; Miss Emily Chandler of Milledgeville; and Sue Davis of Atlanta and Athens; Miss Sue Simmons of Statesboro, C. C. and Miss Gay Davis.

Serving as junior bridesmaids were Misses Cynthia and Mary Emmine Johnston of Statesboro, Misses Claire Planders and Susan Darling of Swainsboro. Serving as flower girls were little Marian Pate Brown of Brunswick, and Emmine Johnston, of Huntington, West Virginia.

All of the attendants wore dresses fashioned alike, designed from pink nylon net with off-shoulder necklines, marked by bertha's trimmed with matching lace. The very full skirts and panels of pleated net worn over tulle. Their bouquets were horse-shoes fashioned from shaded pink carnations with tiny pink roses. The junior bridesmaids carried pink tapers with nosegays of pink carnations. The flower girls carried a dainty basket with handles covered with little nosegays of small pink perfects.

The bride, radiantly beautiful, in her wedding gown of Chantilly lace over bluish pink satin, escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. The fitted bodice had a v-neckline and fastened down the back with tiny white satin buttons. The fitted sleeves tapered over the hands. The bouffant skirt extended to form a chapel train. Her short veil of illusion veil from a matching lace cap.

RECENT BRIDE HONOREE AT BRIDGE LUNCHEON
Mrs. J. E. Parrish entertained Saturday with a bridge luncheon in honor of her daughter, Valera, to Norman E. DeLoach of Statesboro. The guests included Mrs. J. D. Clark and Mrs. Floyd Holm Sr., Miss Jane Sultive and Miss Alan Bond of Savannah; Mrs. T. L. Moore of Register; Mrs. Wendell Burke and Mrs. Raymond Sumner of Statesboro.

Mrs. Parrish's gift to the honoree was a plate in her breakfast set. For high score at bridge, Mrs. T. L. Moore received a china bird, an appropriate piece for flower arrangements.

BOATWRIGHT—DELOACH
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boatwright of Claxton announce the engagement of their daughter, Valera, to Norman E. DeLoach of Statesboro. Mr. DeLoach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell DeLoach.

The wedding date will be announced later.

ELKS AIDMORE AUXILIARY ORGANIZED IN STATESBORO
Beginning with an organization meeting in January, at which time Mrs. Mary Jane Dotson, of Savannah, met with a small group of women and a nominating committee was named, and the Elks Aidmore Auxiliary was well on its way to take its place with other worthwhile clubs in town.

Last Friday, Feb. 13, Mrs. Dotson returned to Statesboro to assist in the installation of officers. Mrs. Lawson Mitchell is the president; secretary, Mrs. K. D. Thomas; and treasurer, Mrs. K. D. Thomas.

The new club plans to meet once a month on the second Tuesday at the Elks Club in a dinner meeting.

The main purpose of the Auxiliary is to seek ways that they can help the needy and crippled children.

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

more engine power more staying power more braking power more economy

Advanced Loadmaster engine—standard on 5000, 6000 Series and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks. Heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and stamina of 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

Trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty have "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Unit-Action" in rear.

New stamina plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile.
