There's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

This is beauty with a bonus... for Chevrolet styling is designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

Truly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see what we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-Sight windshield... a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillights—they add to the impressive length of line... but they are up where they can be seen for safety's sake.

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration... they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body—its lowness, the dipped belt line—is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

HELEN PARRISH, popular radio star of WAGA says, "Every woman knows light Karo is best for cooking... and on the table."

dark Karo for me, the best-tasting eating syrup of 'em all'

Yes, indeed... biscuits go like hot cakes with you pour on plenty of delicious dark Karo. There's nothing like it for good eating. Satisfying flavor. So rich it stands right up on top of biscuits (keeps 'em light and fluffy). Keeps Karo on your table morning, noon and night... it tops anything!

Ask your grocer for DARK Karo, in pint and quart bottles.

Harry Says:

DON'T BE CONFUSED like this poor fellow. He's heard about this kind and that kind of new "MIRACLE DRY CLEANING SYSTEM" that promises to perform wonders and make a new suit out of his old 1929 job, until he is about to FLIP HIS LID. That is he was about to flip his lid until he discovered that we have just what he had been looking for—JUST DARN GOOD DRY CLEANING with courteous, speedy service. ## Bulloch County Farm Bureau

The Ogeechee Farm Bureau held its meeting Tuesday night with a shad supper, the only one so far this season. Generally in February and March there are no shad suppers served at these meetings.

Mrs. George H. Miller and Mrs. I. V. Simmons were asked by President H. L. Quattlebaum to arrange a queen and queen program for April.

The group planned some improvements on the meeting facilities and found that the present wiring was not adequate. Mr. Quattlebaum asked Mr. Hart and I. V. Simmons to check the wiring and make the necessary changes for the expected improvements. Mr. Quattlebaum also asked Mr. Simmons to check the wiring and make the necessary changes for the expected improvements.

Thru the F's of Virginia Russell

With the first breath of spring bringing us such an array of beauty, Statesboro was slightly prepared for the loveliness of Youth that poured into town last weekend. These boys and girls of the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y from miles around made us all sit up and take notice.

Here was Youth at its best. Yes, we've thought about young folks a lot lately because there has been so much talk about juvenile delinquency. We were feeling a tinge of remorse that we, too, had talked about the delinquents and had said very little about the boys and girls who are doing a good job of growing up.

We had two of them in our home. Many of the people had heard only good reports from all.

We observed over forty college students and young men and women in our back yard. They were good boys and girls. Someone ought to tell them that we appreciate them.

Then we ran across a Scouting magazine that carried an article "They Are NON-Delinquents," by Martha M. Elliot, Chief of U. S. Children's Bureau.

She began her article: "Last year some eighteen million boys and girls between the ages of ten and seventeen were NOT picked up by the police for any crime whatsoever, a vital statistic that somehow escapes attention in our eagerness to solve the problems of our juvenile delinquency. In this group—95% of our juvenile population—are the young-sters who are living and growing and steadily progressing in families that understand their dual need for security and affection within their homes, and for freedom, to explore life with their peers outside."

"Sure, it's a problem. It's one of the biggest problems facing America today." She was speaking of the delinquents. She goes on to say:

"But sometimes I wish someone would think of the 95 percent of us who aren't delinquents. Because we are here too. And we're the ones who are the scientists and the editors and the clergymen and the statesmen and the twenty-ones who are pushing most of the nation's baby carriages and growing its food and selling its shoes and making its automobiles. We're the ones who'll be electing its leaders and filling its churches and, if necessary, fighting its wars."

This young lady writes on in this vein. She asks "what's the answer?" and she discusses the theories that are being worked on to determine the kind of men and women our teen-agers will be, listing these theories as she goes along.

But listen to the ending of her article:

"Well, I haven't taken any

"We need someone to believe in us."

After that last sentence we resolved to tell these young folks that we DO BELIEVE in them. Let us all join together and have a "We Appreciate and Love You Week" for these young citizens.

GEORGIA CELEBRATES GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY OF 4-H

This is National 4-H Club Week. Georgia members are taking a great interest in its observance this year, because it is the 50th anniversary of 4-H in the state. Two State 4-H Council officers—Clarice Sparks of Banks County and Joe Harrison of DeKalb County—called on Gov. Marvin Griffin, watched him sign a proclamation calling attention to the occasion, then presented the chief executive with the official Club Week poster. Four-H grew out of the Newton County club started in 1905 by G. C. Adams, County School Commissioner. The state's present 4-H enrollment of 135,337 is the highest on record.

Your Family and God... Rev. Cliff Davis

TIME OUT—FOR GOD
What is time? Why, everyone knows that. Most of us common folk would probably point to the clock and say, "Time is what happens when the hands go around." But if you've gone and gotten yourself one of these fancy "eggshakers," then you will probably turn to a friend named Webster and say with him, "Time is the period during which an action continues." And if you have really gone off the deep end and have become "a lover of wisdom," then you will no doubt shrug your shoulders and admit that in the end neither you nor anyone else really knows what time is.

But whatever time is, we all know that it is that of which we have more, want more, and waste more than anything else. The Bible doesn't say so, but surely part of the curse must have been: "And there shall be only twenty-four hours in each day." Indeed, strange is the creature who does not daily bow down and worship at the altar of King Clock in the Temple of Time, and then at the moving of his hands hasten forth to do his bidding.

Precious Commodity — this thing called Time. And not only is it precious to man, but also to God. So much so that He gives it a prominent place in His Word. Two of the truly great words of the Bible are time words—Eternity and Now. The very core of the Bible is the message that: Where we spend ETERNITY, depends upon our decision regarding Jesus Christ NOW. Yes, God is vitally concerned with time. Not His time, but your time. Not what it is, but how it is used.

These are indeed busy days. We are born in a hurry. We live in a hurry. We die in a hurry. And while we live, we are all trying to crowd two or three lives into one. On every hand there is someone or something making demands on our time. And above every other clang and clatter of our noisy life there ever rises the relentless ticking of the clock.

Oh friends, amid this mad rush, how desperately we need to stop and—take time for God! Make time for God! Spend time with God!

Parents, how much time do you and your family spend with God? If you were to sit down and go over your family schedule, would it reveal that God has been crowded out of your life? Your family has gotten so busy that it has no time for God!

Dad, how does your daily schedule run? Up early and off to work in field or office. Hurry home, change and eat. Then to the club, or evening at the Browns. Hours later you climb into bed, tired at the close of another day. Such a busy day—no time for God!

Mother, what about yours? You too arise early and get out and the kids off to work and school. Then the day really begins. Dishes, housecleaning, washing. Mrs. Brown, from down the street drops in for a chat. In the afternoon there is the Ladies Aid. The kids get

Time to eat, time to sleep. And at the end of each day you find that you've had—no time for God. Then let's say it—seriously, tenderly—but let's say it. You are too busy. If you're too busy to have a family altar, then you are too busy. If your schedule is too full for family Bible reading, then your schedule is too full. If your plans do not leave room for

'Profs' Cage Record Number 30 for Year

The Georgia Teachers College Professors set 30 new records on the hardwood during the 1954-55 basketball season. In all probability, this is the most records set by a GTC team in the history of the college.

One record which is practically unheard of (except at GTC) is in the double-figure scoring of the starting five. Chester Webb, Doug Curry, Don Wallen, "Bo" Warren, and Garland Campbell.

Records broken in the regular department numbered five; shooting, six; individual career, four; season records, eight; and one game records, seven.

These records along with some others are listed below. Those statistics were compiled by Joe Axelson, sports columnist for the Georgia-Ann, and publicity director for the athletic department.

INDIVIDUAL
Rebounds—One game, Chester Webb, 32, against the University of Tampa, 1955; season, Chester Webb, 388, 1955; best average, Chester Webb, 13.9, 1955; most assists in one game, Don Wallen, 14, against Mercer, 1955; most assists in one season, Don Wallen, 223, 1955.

Shooting—Best field goal percentage for one season, Jim Duncan, 49.0, in 1952 (191 of 415); best free throw percentage, Jim Duncan, 88.0, in 1952 (180 of 205); rebounds for one season, 1427, 1955.

"Willie Wirehead" Says
NO MORE EXPORTS
Until a few years ago - farming in Georgia was a back-breaking job for man, wife and child. The smartest and finest of our rural youth knew this. They looked elsewhere for opportunity.

We are EXPORTING our brains and talent!
Today - all this is changed, 9 out of 10 Georgia farms enjoy the benefits of low-cost, non-profit electricity, brought to them by 41 locally-owned and managed PRIVATE utilities - the Rural Electric Cooperatives.

Young Georgians are now staying close to the land that gave them birth. They enjoy all the comforts and tools taken for granted by their city neighbors.

They have "Willie Wirehead" to serve as their hired-hand!

That's the greatest change wrought by Rural Electrification. That's another reason why we continue to say...

What's Happened to the Passengers?
Obviously they are not riding the Central of Georgia passenger trains Nos. 1 and 2 between Savannah and Macon. As a result, these trains are being operated at a dead loss to the Central—losses which amounted to $44,756.43 out-of-pocket during 1954.

This railroad should not be required to continue losing money at an increasing rate when the wasted funds are so urgently needed—for the maintenance of services that are used, and for further industrial development of our great Southeast.

Consequently, we have petitioned the Georgia Public Service Commission to discontinue operation of trains Nos. 1 and 2. Discontinuance of these trains would in no way affect the other services offered by Central. Remaining passenger trains would provide ample service between these points both day and night, as the following schedules indicate:

The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

Drought in Bulloch keeping farm Operators from beginning Crops
The extended drought in Bulloch county is keeping the farmers from starting off the year with the normal spirit they usually show when pitching the new crop.

Farmers always start off the new crop in good spirits and expect to make a bumper crop. They are the most optimistic group around in the spring. Not so this year. It's still too dry to get stands.

About three weeks ago saw most farmers in Bulloch county getting all worked up over the warm weather and planting a lot of corn, some cotton, and some soybeans. This has all stopped now. The ground is too dry to plant. Small tractors can't pull the planting equipment through the dry soil. The crops planted are coming up in a very poor stand. A lot of tobacco plants are ready and some are being set, but they are not living well enough to continue transplanting.

Some wells are drying up. However, every farmer that can, and does not have one, is drilling a deep well. There are 820 to 830 farm ponds in the county for irrigation purposes, but about 85 per cent of these are either dry or have too little water in them for use.

The three rains this year helped a lot. Land generally broke about the best it has in several years. Things are looking up. The 24 inches of rain in January as against a normal of only 3.01 inches. Then came February with only 1.65 inches of rain against a normal of 3.91 for that month. Now March is nearly gone without any rain at all against a normal of 3.80 inches.

Some discussion is going on about grouping with nearby counties and trying for a "rain-maker." C. J. DiSanto, Water Resources Development Corporation, Denver, Colorado, indicated he would meet with a group in Claxton Wednesday, March 30, at 10 a. m. and again in a mass meeting that afternoon at 2 p. m.

The rain fall here in 1954 totaled 26.74 inches. The drought broke about the best it has in several years. Things are looking up. The 24 inches of rain in January as against a normal of only 3.01 inches. Then came February with only 1.65 inches of rain against a normal of 3.91 for that month. Now March is nearly gone without any rain at all against a normal of 3.80 inches.
