

North Georgia Is Victim Twice To GTC Profs

By LARRY HYDE

The Georgia Teachers College baseball team took two giant strides toward the Georgia Intercollegiate Conference title last weekend with 22 to 1 and 8 to 1 wins over North Georgia College.

Jack Maxwell and Ace Little both picked up their fourth straight pitching wins of the season as they held North Georgia to a total of 11 hits in the two game series.

Jack Maxwell scattered six hits in the game Friday.

GTC's leading hitter, Kelly Powell, had three hits and four runs batted in, to lead the two-hit attack.

Preston Sizemore hit a grand slam home to highlight the fifth inning in which GTC scored.

Ace Little, with excellent support from his teammates, gave up five hits, struck out six, and walked three to give his fourth win without a defeat on Saturday.

GTC had five double plays and played heads up ball all through the contest.

Rightfielder Dave Esmore had a single and a triple and three runs batted in to rank as the game's hitting star.

Warren added two singles and a RBI-ty to the GTC attack. It was the 18th straight game in which Warren has hit safely.

Both shortstop Don Wallen and second baseman Skettler Griffin handled ten chances in the field without an error.

These two wins left GTC at the top of the Georgia Intercollegiate Conference standings with a record of eight wins and no losses.

Hard Hitting Revealed In Professor's Statistics

Two wins over North Georgia College last weekend raised the season record of the GTC baseball professors to 12 and two with the last nine wins coming in succession.

Bo Warren, sophomore centerfielder from Ludovician, has two streaks going that are already new school records. Warren has hit safely in his last 17 games, including the last three games in 1954. Since coming to GTC, he has played 32 consecutive games without an error, another record.

Jack Maxwell and Clyde Little lead the hurlers with four wins apiece, and Maxwell's near perfect 0.31 earned run average sets the pace in pitching effectiveness.

Catcher Jimmy Ford leads with 14 stolen bases and also in doubles with nine.

Third baseman Kelly Powell leads in three departments. He is the team's leading hitter with a .431 average, 32 RBIs, and five homers. Powell is also tied with "Bo" Warren with triples at 3.

Both shortstop Don Wallen and second baseman Skettler Griffin handled ten chances in the field without an error.

Hi-Owl sends 25 to GSPA meeting

Statesboro High School will on May 13 be represented at the 25th annual convention of the Georgia Scholastic Press Association, University of Georgia, by 25 delegates.

The Statesboro Hi-Owl, school newspaper, has been entered in the annual contest.

Robert Adams will represent the staff at the round tables, and Mrs. D. L. Lanier will participate in a special round table for faculty advisors.

Problems of high school journalism and their solutions will be the major theme of this year's conference, along with "Career Opportunities in Journalism."

Trophies and certificates will be presented to winning newspapers and individuals. The arrangement program is being arranged by Dean John E. Dreyer of the Grady School and officers of the GSPA. Outstanding journalists and educators will be invited. Last year approximately 100 high school journalists and their faculty advisors attended the convention.

Delegates who plan to attend the meeting are: Robert Adams, Peggy Allen, Robert Adams, Anne Akins, Jean Banks, Patricia Brannen, Charlotte Campbell, James Cassidy, Dennis DeLoach, Sidney Dodd, Mary Walden, Hendrix, Judy Johnson, Laura Lanier, Chris Lanier, Al McDougald, Lynn Murphy, Mildred Miller, Cherry Newton, Bill Nesmith, Jim Parks, Julie Simmons and Norma Jean Shuman.

Hi-Owl will be represented by 25 delegates.

Explorers hear Eugene Jones

An Explorer Scout leadership course was held here last night at the Statesboro Methodist Church with Ed Tully, executive scout director, in charge.

Eugene Jones, special deputy on the regional staff, was the course leader. Scoutmasters, adult leaders, district committee men, senior and junior crew leaders of Explorer Posts attended the meeting.

Mr. Jones, an Eagle Scout, a former scoutmaster, a former commissioner and a Sea Scout skipper, is a graduate of the University of Georgia. He is active in church and civic activities. He has served as a field executive in Waycross, as a scout executive at Tallahassee, Fla., as an assistant executive at Winston-Salem, N. C. He became special deputy on the regional staff in January, 1953.

The leadership course last night was devoted to program planning, advancement, social service, outdoor and scouting exploration. Explorer Scout new recognition awards were presented to those in attendance.

MORNING AND
AFTERNOON PARTIES
HIGHLIGHT SOCIETY
Mrs. Jake Smith was hostess
last week to her Afternoon
Bridge Club in the morning.
(This happens often—that an afternoon club is scheduled in the morning) and in the afternoon,
she was hostess at a bridge
party with other friends from other clubs present.

The Blue Ray chapter of the Order of Eastern Star entertained with a miscellaneous
show for Miss Thelma Fordham Friday evening, April 29,
at the Masonic Hall. The hall was beautifully decorated with mixed spring flowers.

The receiving line was composed of Mrs. R. P. Mikel, the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Wiley
Fordham and her daughter,
Miss Thelma Fordham, Miss Pat
Horton of Atlanta, Mrs. Roy Powell, Miss Lila Canette, and
the retiring Matron of the OES,
Mrs. L. A. Brannen.

Guests were met at the door
by Mrs. Fleming Pruitt, Grand Ruth of the grand chapter of Georgia, Mrs. R. S. Bondurant, introduced them to the line.
Mrs. Stohard Deal kept the bride's book. Mrs. Logan Hagan
and Mrs. Willie Bosley presided at the beautiful table
where cake and ice cream
floated in ginger ale were served. The table decorations were trailing ivy interspersed
with bouquets of sweetheart
roses and lustrous white satin
bows.

The gifts were presented to the honoree by Joe Brannen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brannen, and Sally Smith. They were dressed like a bride and groom
and marched in to wedding
music played by Mrs. Harry Clark at the piano.

Mrs. Clark was accompanied by Mrs. Carl Anderson as she sang "I Love You Truly."
Several interesting games
were played, among them were
"scrambled words," consisting
of the qualities that a fascinating woman should possess. The winner was Mrs. Roy Powell.
Pinning the arrow in the right place on a heart was won by Miss Thelma Fordham, bride-elect.

The officers of the Blue Ray chapter marched in line and
each stopped to give advice and
a gift to the lovely honoree.
There were approximately fifty members of Eastern Star
present, bringing lovely and useful gifts.
