What Georgia newspapers are saying about the late Dave Turner

came innumerable anecdotes of the past that made the years gone by come alive once again for his readers and listeners. And most of these stories were spiced with his apt philosophy that was both pertinent and interesting.

UNCLE DAVE' LEAVES A LEGEND

The death of D. B. "Uncle Dave" Turner, 83, for more than half a century editor and publisher of the Bulloch Times, closes the career of the legendary figure in Georgia journalism.

He was recognized as a dean of the Georgia newspapermen. Beloved by his contemporaries throughout the state, he was a man of integrity, depth and character and incisive wit—a

TAX BOOKS OPEN FOR SALE

THE TAX COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE OCTOBER 3

John P. Lee, tax commissioner of Bulloch county, announced today that the tax books for the payment of state and county taxes will be opened Monday, October 3, and will remain open through December 20. He urges all to pay the taxes early.

With one week remaining before the final deadline for late registration, total enrollment at Georgia Tech has reached 740, a 27 per cent increase over last year's attendance.

The increase has flooded dormitory and classroom facilities, and the school is carrying out necessary changes in curriculum schedules and has been forced to turn away students.
