A Verse For This Week

Chance and change are busy ever;
Man decays, and ages move;
But His merry warden never;
God is wisdom, God is love. —Browning.

The Dream Can Come True

It's a big, drafty building. It's on a back street. It's hard to heat in the winter, and hard to keep cool in the summer. But it could be made into an ideal home for the veterans who make up the membership of the Dexter Allen Post of the American Legion.

The "Old Army" as it is known to the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county is being sought by the Legionnaires of Bulloch county. To be made into a permanent meeting center.

For years the veterans have been dreaming of a home, with that vision before them they have raised approximately $12,000. That money was contributed by combat veterans while they were still in combat zones, by the people of Bulloch county, mothers and fathers, wives and sisters of veterans of both wars.

Now more than 400 veterans are members of the local post. They want and need and deserve a place to meet—a place to call their own.

And now comes an opportunity to realize their dream.

At a meeting of the Post last Thursday night a resolution was presented and adopted, requesting that the Military Association of Bulloch county "convey, by deed of gift, the Statesboro Army building subject to any indebtedness against it which is understood to be in the approximate sum of $5,000.00, and that if said request is granted the officers of the Post or custodian of the building fund, be authorized to retire the indebtedness against the Army and use all or any part of the remaining of said building fund or any other fund on hand to remodel and equip said building to the end that it will be most desirable as a permanent home."

The "Old Army" is owned by the members of the old National Guard unit who called themselves the "Bulloch Military Association of Bulloch County."

And now comes the American Legion with a proposal that if accepted will bring about the realization of a dream of many years.

We can think of no more fitting and worthwhile use for the "Old Army." It could become a living memorial, commemorating the valor of the veterans of Statesboro and Bulloch County.

On one side, the dream of the Legionnaires in Bulloch county comes true.

If We Should Build A Memorial

If We Should Build A Memorial

If the Veterans of World War II have the right to express their love as about World War I memorials there'll be no pretentious, cold, useless shafts, columns, statues, centering parks, courthouse squares and public property.

Veteran opinion indicate memorials following ultimate plan. Memorials with definite usefulness.

The trend away from "stone age" memorials is evident in projects covering such a wide range as playgrounds, libraries, swimming pools. Annistating pools. Building a modest bandshell commemorating its veterans. Winoski, Vt., built a swimming pool which was conceived when a soldier died home $5 to begin the memorial.

Community buildings are becoming popular as living memorials in small cities. One community has completed plans and specifications for a memorial recreation building which will contain rooms for club meetings and a central section for indoor sports with a seating capacity of 1,500. Boys' and girls' clubs, a banquet room, bowling alleys, and a swimming pool are included.

Municipal auditoriums are planned for war memorials in dozens of cities.

We, and this "we" is not just the editorial "we"—but the veterans want living memorials—hospitals, playgrounds, recreation centers, and projects designed to enrich community living.

There's been no move in Statesboro for a memorial—maybe the time is not just right—but when the move is made, let's make sure it is one of usefulness.

Statesboro needs all of the ideas suggested here—let's make the Veterans of World War II of Bulloch county one that will live and live and live.

ing their brides to Statesboro to make their life here. Some come here and soon express the feeling that Statesboro is "cool." Others come here and find Statesboro "warm and friendly."

Look around you in your neighborhood and if there is a new couple go "calling" on them. Maybe you've already been—go again. You see someone up town you don't know. Find out who he or she is and go "calling."

And don't neglect the "old friends, tried and true."

And don't make the mistake of making your "call" too long, for a welcome worn out is no welcome at all.

So go "calling." It's good for you and the community.

The Almanac Says the Weather This Week On . . .

TODAY, May 23, will be foggy. Fishing will be good at 7 a. m. and 7 p. m.

FRIDAY, May 24, will be rainy. Fishing will be good at 8 a. m. and fair at 7 p. m.

SATURDAY, May 25, will be stormy. Fishing will be good at 8:45 a. m. and fair at 7 p. m.

SUNDAY, May 26, will be clearing. Fishing will be good at 9:30 a. m. and just fair at 7 p. m.

MONDAY, May 27, will be fair. Fishing will be very good at 10:15 a. m. and poor all afternoon.

TUESDAY, May 28, will be stormy again. Fishing will be excellent at 11:45.

WEDNESDAY, May 29, will be windy. Fishing will be poor all evening but will be excellent at midnight. Poor all afternoon.

But Don't Blame Us If the Almanac Is Wrong!

IF THERE IS A BLAME IN Georgia more anti-Talmadge than "Tater" Tucker, then that man is still to be found. And "Tater" makes no bones about his feelings for Mr. Talmadge, nor is he timid in expressing his dislike for the "Gallus-Snapper."

"Tater" wants to know one thing. What Mr. Talmadge going to do when the Day of Judgment comes and we all stand before the Maker. He says, "You reckon when Talmadge sees some negroes over 'ere you nigger—shine mah shoes . . . go git you missy and sees shee darn mah wife's stockings!"

That's the way "Tater" talks.

Tater says he has worked with negroes all his life and "I've never had trouble with them. They deserve justice—they eat, sleep, pray, and have the same feelings that we do."

Many years ago "Tater" worked in Columbia, South America. He poured concrete in one of the biggest dams in that country. There were 22 men on the job. He made the cash with which he made his start in Bulloch county.

Good Books Are True Friends

In the best books great men talk to us, give us their most precious thoughts, and pour their souls into ours—Channing.

A book that everybody is talking about is THE SNAKE PIT by Mary Jane Ward (Random). The book of the month club chose it as a co-selection for April. The Readers Digest condensed the book in their May issue and Anatole Litvak has purchased it for the movies. It is the story of a girl who lost her mind and found it. Virginia Cunningham had moved with her husband from the security of a midwestern town to New City. She had worked and played too hard and worried too much. One day she simply blacked out and for months afterwards was only at intervals conscious of who and where she was. The entire story takes place in a hospital and there is no plot as the book consists almost entirely of Virginia's reaction to the sanitarium and its patients. The Snake Pit might have been a horror story but it is told with warmth and sympathy and the reader rejoices when Virginia proves and despairs when she relapses.

A new Elizabeth Seifert novel on medicine is OLD DOC (Dodd, Mead). After forty years of practicing Old Doc had had enough. So, on his 65th birthday he retired. Surgeon of the big city hospital was his lanky, competent assistant, Dr. McNair. What he did not realize until after his family descended on him at his home that he might have to return to the hospital for peace.

You remember Bing Crosby as Father O'Malley in Going My Way and possibly you have seen The Ball of St. Mary's in which picture he is charged with the impossible assignment of saving St. Mary's from bankruptcy.

A book of non-fiction along the same line is DOCTORS OF THE MIND by Marie Ray (Little, Brown). Today the physicians of sick minds often have been a horror story but it is told with warmth and sympathy and the reader rejoices when Virginia proves and despairs when she relapses.

CULPEPPER—FUGLUM

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jackson Culpepper, of Cordele, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gladys, to Charles Fuglum, Jr., of Abbeville, the marriage to take place June 6, at the First Baptist Church in Cordele.

Miss Culpepper graduated from Teachers college in the class of 1943 and endeared herself to a vast number of friends during her four years as a student. Mrs. Bob Davis by whom was her suite mate will be an attendant in the wedding.

A delightful informal event of Saturday morning of last week was the Coca-Cola Party at Col. Wade C. Hodges, a compliment to Mrs. Bud Gates, of Jeffersonville, who was visiting her mother, Mrs. Sidney Lanier.

Mrs. Gates who is a very attractive and popular brunette was cool and crisp as a breeze wearing a dress of white background slashes with clusters of red strawberries and green foliage.

Enjoying the party were the honorees, Mrs. Gates, Mesdames of her club on other brunettes were Mrs. Gibson Johnston in Swainsboro.

The ladies of the Primitive Baptist circle met at the home of Mrs. G. C. Coleman, Sr., on North College St., Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Joe Trappnell, Miss Hilda Marsh, Dan Shuman, Meda Shuman and Mrs. Shuman.

TO THE PEOPLE OF STATESBORO AND BULLOCH COUNTY:

On or about Monday June 3rd, I will begin operating a Bus Service for Statesboro.

I feel that there is a definite need for such a service. The City of Statesboro has granted me a franchise to operate a bus service and I shall do all within my power to give you the very best service possible.

Below I am publishing the route the Bus will serve to begin with. I have given this route much study, but it is subject to change, depending on the maximum service to be rendered to the citizens of Statesboro.

My first bus will be a 2 ton Dodge, 1946 model, all steel body, with a seating capacity of 28. If needed, at a later date, my franchise allows me to put on additional buses.

The schedule will begin at 6:30 a. m. and will operate continuous trips until 9:30 p. m., for all days except Sunday.

I will have full liability and property damage insurance. I will appreciate your patronage and all suggestions you may make to improve the service to you.

Sincerely,
RAYFORD L. LANIER

TO THE VOTERS OF BULLOCH COUNTY:

Having an ambition to be of service to the people of the county and feeling that I am qualified to fill the position, I hereby announce for one of the places in the General Assembly of Georgia, subject to the rules and regulations of the Democratic Primary.

My candidacy is to fill the place recently made vacant by the Hon. Hoke S. Brunson.

I deeply appreciate the confidence you have shown in me as a representative of the people in the past and my candidacy now stands on my record of service as the representative of the people of Bulloch County and as Senator, representing the people of the 49th Senatorial district.

At the present time there are problems of grave importance before the General Assembly of Georgia, and the experience of service there is of inestimable value in the fight to retain the rights of the people.

It requires years to learn the political "lay of the land" and a thorough acquaintance with the attitudes and intentions of the powerful interests that are ever present.

Through my period of service I have fought steadfastly to keep the rights—even the small rights—of the people within their own hands.

People will do well to retain their rights. The water dog attitude within our law making bodies is frightful necessary at this time. Too many of our rights have already gone the way of bureau cracy and more will go unless you send men to represent you that can and will fight for you.

When the roar of the guns of Verdun rumbled over the dugout where I tended the wounded and dying American boys who fought through that seething hell, I prayed to God that I might be spared to come back home and help and help to see something done to show those boys that America was grateful. That hope for a thankful attitude of my country was not realized in the way that I had hoped, and I saw with sorrow in my heart that a next war was coming.

Respectfully,
J. HUDSON METTIS.

TO THE VOTERS OF BULLOCH COUNTY:

I hereby announce my candidacy for Representative of Bulloch County, Place held by L. M. Mallard. I will thank you for your votes.

Respectfully,

TO THE VOTERS OF BULLOCH COUNTY:

At the request of many of my friends I hereby announce my candidacy to succeed Mr. Hoke S. Brunson, as a member of the General Assembly of Georgia from Bulloch County, subject to the rules and regulations of the Democratic party of Georgia. I will appreciate your vote and any interest that you might take in seeing to it that I am nominated as one of the representatives from Bulloch county.

J. BRANTLEY JOHNSON JR.

TO THE VOTERS OF BULLOCH COUNTY:

I hereby announce my candidacy for Representative in the coming primary, to succeed myself, after having served one term, and experience gained, I feel as though I am better qualified to represent the County than before.

If elected, I promise to do my best for my County and State. Will appreciate your support.

Respectfully,

DR. DEAL ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY

At the urgent and continued request of many of Bulloch County's citizens I again offer myself as a candidate for the office of representative of Bulloch County in the General Assembly of Georgia subject to the rules and regulations of the Democratic Primary.

My candidacy is to fill the place recently made vacant by the Hon. Hoke S. Brunson.

DR. LYON ADDRESSES SWAINSBORO KIWANIS

"Indications of Draft Rejections for Civic and Educational Guidance" was the subject discussed by Dr. Ralph M. Lyon, Teachers College director of research, at a meeting of the Swainsboro Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening of last week.

Based upon statistics compiled from induction examinations of the first 100,000 men, Dr. Lyon said most rejections were made for figures that were highly correctible. Figures for the entire United States were studied with special emphasis on those of Georgia inductions and rejections. In view of past experiences Dr. Lyon discussed the role of the civic and educational agencies in the correction of these defects.

It has come and gone, and with it thousands more of our fine young men of America. I have never relinquished for one instance the fight for self-respecting rights for our young veterans, who went to battle fronts in foreign fields to defend the "American Way of Life."

I have "gone to bat" for them in all the legislation passed in the Georgia General Assembly in the past four years and the people know that considerable has been passed for them. (I shall outline it later) and it is my intention to fight for them whenever and wherever their welfare is at stake so long as I live and where I can pull for them.

I stood directly for the legislation that secured for Bulloch county 28,000.00 more funds for the county's financial program than it has ever had before. I have fought steadfastly for the schools of the state, for I believe that on through the education of our youth can Georgia become truly great. I believe that the schools of the state should be the centers of community life and that the voice of the people should be the controlling voice in school affairs.

For every problem confronted in the General Assembly, I have acted truly as your representative, not as in individual.

I feel that I can serve you to your advantage and to your satisfaction.

Respectfully,
D. L. DEAL, M.D.

TAKE THE FIRST letter from Marine, Army and Navy. Put them together and you've got MAN. That's what the girls at Georgia Teachers College did this week in selecting their male pin-ups.

SPONSORED by women students in Lewis Hall, campus dormitory, a campus-wide contest was conducted to select the most handsome male among the photos entered. First place went to a Marine entered by Peggy Clark, Richmond Hill, with a West Point cadet entered by Agnes Jordan, Wrens, in second place and a sailor entered by Donnie Jo Reagan, Millen, capturing third place.

HONORING the student teachers at the Teachers College Laboratory Elementary School, Miss Bertha Freeman, Miss Marie Wood Beth King Duncan and Mrs. O. H. Joiner were hostesses at a buffet supper Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joiner.

Mrs. Robert Fred Durby, Mrs. Jessie N. McMillan and Misses Juanita Wyatt, Thelma Warren, Helen Withrow, Carolyn Ellington, Mary Frances Phillips, Genevieve Conner, Jimmie Gillis and the hostesses.

DR. MARVIN S. PITTMAN, president of Georgia Teachers College today issued an urgent appeal to all persons in Statesboro who will have housing facilities available this summer to contact his office as soon as possible. Any person who will have rooms, apartments or houses are requested to call Miss Mac Michael, college secretary, to give information concerning housing arrangements and to state preference of occupants.

BECAUSE of the heavy schedule of instructional swimming for students, the Teachers College pool will not be open to the public until after the opening of the summer quarter. R. T. DeWitt, director of physical education announced this week.

MR. E. G. MORGADO, romance language instructor at Teachers College, addressed members of the Sylvania Methodist Church, Sunday morning on church relations between Cuba and the United States. A native Cuban, Mr. Morgado is a licensed member of the Cuban Methodist Church.

"THE ENCHANTED ISLE," an operetta based on Chopin's visit to the Isle of Majorca, will be presented in the College Auditorium Wednesday evening May 29 at 8 o'clock by students of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades in the Teachers College Laboratory School.

MEETING CONTINUES AT LANCES PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Elder A. R. Crumpton, pastor of the Lances Primitive Baptist Church, announced today that the meeting which began at the church Tuesday evening will continue through Sunday noon, May 27-28. Morning services are at 11 o'clock. A dinner will be served on the ground at noon Sunday. The

TC News

Students have designed and constructed all sets for the program as well as designing original choreography Miss Earluith Epling, accompanist, announced today. Haywood Boyd will portray Chopin and Genevieve Guardia and Jack Newsome will enact Monsieur and Madame Gomez, the innkeepers.

Former GTS now married and studying at Georgia Teachers College will soon be living in reconstructed barracks of three-room units.

Fifty housing units have been signed over to the college by the Federal Public Housing Authority. Dr. Pittman announced today. These units which are to be reconditioned formerly housed army personnel at the local Army Air Base.

Plans are now underway to organize the housing project as a student community center with complete recreational and community facilities under the guidance of a faculty sponsor.

Dr. Pittman further stated, "Every effort is being made to ready some units for use during part of the summer season and all units will be ready for occupancy with the opening of the fall quarter in September."

STEP SINGING

Students at Georgia Teachers College this year will revive the step singing contest tomorrow (Thursday) when all student groups will present their musical programs in competition for the Booth-Pittman prizes. Groups will gather on the steps of East Hall and sing in competition prior to the Senior Lantern Walk.

Begin in 1938 the contest was postponed during the war. Dr. Ron aid J. Neill, TC music professor, will direct the contest. Each student club or organization is encouraged to present a program of folk, popular or college songs. Two cash prizes will be awarded by Hinton Booth, Statesboro attorney, and Dr. Marvin S. Pittman, college president.

The public is invited to attend the song fest which will begin at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening, May 24.

MRS. REMER Y. LANE HONORED

The flower garden joining the home of Mrs. W. L. Hall and her daughter, Mrs. W. E. McDougal was the setting for a gala family picnic Sunday afternoon honoring Mrs. Remer Y. Lane, of Conway, N. C., aunt of Mrs. Hall.

Tables were arranged in shady nooks and adorned by baskets of vari-colored garden flowers. The beautiful picnic menu consisted of fried chicken, tempting salads, fancy sandwiches, iced tomatoes, stuffed eggs, rolls, iced tea and cakes.

Those enjoying the occasion were Mrs. Lane the honor guest, Miss Leona Newton, of Millen, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McDougal and children Anne and Al. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Moore, Dr. Ed Moore, Mrs. Maud Benson, Mrs. B. B. Sorrier, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beaver and children Jane and John, Mrs. D. C. McDougal, Mike McDougal, Mrs. W. E. McDougal and Mrs. Hall. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Brannen called.

BOWDOWN-AKINS

Characterized by dignity and Miss Gladys Irene Bowdown, daughter of James A. Bowdown and the late Mrs. Florence A. Bowdown, was solemnized in the Primitive Baptist church in Columbus, Saturday afternoon.

Rev. P. O. Revels, pastor of the church officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Lamar Akins, of Barnesville, served his brother as best man.

Miss Agnes Bowdown attended her sister as maid-of-honor. She wore a becoming spring model of gown in feather weight wool.

The bride was lovely in a suit of bride's blue summer wool, the blouse was of white chiffon and was accentuated by a lace jabot. Her accessories were of white and a corsage of purple throated orchids completed her ensemble.

Mr. Akins and his bride left immediately after the ceremony on a trip to Daytona Beach after which they will make their home in Barnesville where he is connected with the Akins Feed and Seed Company.

LT. (JG) FRED SMITH

LT. (JG) Fred Smith, who has served with the Navy for three years, arrived on the U. S. S. Cladwell, in San Diego, California, Friday 17, and joined his wife at Richmond, Va., who had already made plane reservations to fly own to Savannah where they will be met by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, Sr.

LT. Smith received his discharge and he and Mrs. Smith will visit his parents for several days.

FOR MISS BRANNEN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zetterow are hosts at a delightful supper Thursday night at their beautiful country home, complimentary to Miss Dorothy Jane Brannen, whose engagement to John N. Shearouse of Brooklyn and Statesboro was announced last week.

An abundance of garden flowers decorated the home throughout. In the dining room the table was centered with an arrangement of roses and larkspur.

Covers were placed for: Miss Dorothy Jane Brannen, John N. Shearouse, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Zetterow.

SUE'S KINDERGARTEN

Sue's Kindergarten class will hold their graduating exercises in the Grammar School auditorium, Wednesday evening, May 29 at eight o'clock.

The public is invited.

YOUNG GULLEGGE RELEASED FROM NAVY

Radioman 3-c Richard Gullerge, the son of Lt. Commander Albert Gullerge and Mrs. Gullerge, returned Sunday from San Francisco after serving with the Navy almost three years. He graduated from the Statesboro High School in the class of 1944. Immediately after graduation he entered the service. He with his mother and sister, Miss Shirley Gullerge, made their home while Lt. Commander Gullerge was in service overseas.

Commander Gullerge is now stationed at Camp Lejeune, N. C. where Mrs. Gullerge and Shirley have joined him in making their home.

Richard is visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Waters and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker for a few days.

LT. JULIE JOHNSTON

FOOD NOTE

A quarterly meeting of the Georgia Nutrition Council is scheduled for Athens, June 18 to 20, according to an announcement this week by Miss Larline Collier, chairman of the committee and State home demonstration agent. Assisting in the emergency food program, the nutrition committee is urging all State homemakers to save what an dolls, use non-critical alternate foods, produce all food possible and obey food wisely.

GARDEN VALUES

Nutritionists agree that the average American family should eat more vegetables. It has been proved by numerous studies that people who raise their own almost always eat more vegetables than people who don't, according to agricultural leaders. People who raise gardens say they eat more vegetables than they did before they had a garden. A child who does not like vegetables will probably eat those he helped to raise.

There is no question that gardens tend to improve eating habits by increasing consumption of vegetables.

It was announced here this week that J. Pat Kelly has been appointed Director of the United States Employment Service for Georgia, and a veteran of World War I. He had been active in veterans affairs for more than 25 years. He has been with the Employment Service since 1933. He is a past commander of the Department of Georgia, American Legion, past commander of the Valdosta post of the American Legion, past National Executive Committee member, a member of the Child Welfare and National Safety Committees, is now a member of the Legion's National Employment Committee, and was connected with the group of Legionnaires who drafted Public Law 346, commonly known as the "GI Bill of Rights."

SCHEDULE REVEALED FOR COUNTY FOUR-H CLUB SUMMER CAMPS

County 4-H club groups representing 52 counties will hold their summer encampment at the three 4-H club camps operated by the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service, W. A. Sutton, State 4-H club leader for the Extension Service, revealed this week. Three other county 4-H club groups will hold their encampment at the 4-H camp at Cherry Lake, Fla., which is operated by the Florida Extension Service.

Twenty-three county 4-H groups will hold summer camps at Camp Wahsega, the State 4-H club camp near Dahlonega, Mr. Sutton announced. Four-H groups representing 20 counties will hold summer encampments at Camp Fulton, Atlanta. Nine county groups have scheduled 4-H camps at Indian Springs, near Jackson, and three county 4-H groups will hold summer encampments at Cherry Lake near Madison, Fla.

4-H TALENT SHOW WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Winners in the first annual 4-H Talent Show, which was held on the campus of Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College, Tifton, were announced this week by W. A. Sutton leader for the Agricultural Extension Service.

The 4-H Talent Tournament was arranged by the college 4-H club at Abraham Baldwin College and was directed by Dean G. P. Donaldson, executive dean at ABAC.

An Early County 4-H club girl, Carol Beckman, was selected as first place winner and has been awarded a $25 Victory Bond. Carol, an accordionist, competed with 4-H club members and groups from 10 Georgia communities representing six counties.

Second prize winner in the tournament was a comic dance team representing Tift County 4-H clubs. This act was directed by Miss Edna Bishop, Tift county home demonstration agent.

Entertainment features in the tournament were entered from Tift, Thomas, Bulloch, Early, Telfair, Dougherty counties.

Bulloch County's birth rate for every thousand persons was 22.1 in 1940, its death rate only 7.5. In 1941 its state income tax payments per capita—a good index of luxury buying power—were 42 cents, ranking it 85th among Georgia's 150 counties. Its popular vote cast per unit vote in the gubernatorial primaries of 1942 and 1940 were 707 and 744, as compared with the state averages of 739 and 866. In the same elections the winning candidate's percentages of its vote were 63 and 52, as compared with the state averages of 58 and 52 per cent.

These are but a few of the thousands of facts about Georgia contained in a big, 178-page source book called "Georgia Facts in Figures," which has just been published by the University of Georgia Press.

Prepared by the Citizens' Fact-Finding Movement under the sponsorship of 17 state-wide civic organizations, this book is the result of the most exhaustive study of the state ever made. In 226 tables, charts, and maps, it compressed all the basic facts about Georgia—facts that heretofore, if available at all, were scattered chaotically through census reports, state documents, and other official records.

Because it makes available so much detailed information between the covers of one book, Governor Ellis Arnall has called it "a splendid panorama of our state as it exists today" and a "prime requisite for any program for the development of Georgia."

"Georgia Facts in Figures" was produced as a non-profit project by the Fact-Finding Movement.

A. A. U. W. BANQUET

A beautiful social event of last week taking place Tuesday evening at the Sewell House was the A. A. U. W. banquet.

Easter lilies amid blue bear-spur were used in artistic arrangements to decorate the social room, while Patricia Spode china further carried out the blue and white color motif.

The banquet table was graced by three low arrangements of Easter lilies and blue bear-spur at intervals and interspersed by blue candles in crystal holders. The table cards were blue folders, hand-decorated in dainty hand designs in novelty fashion, by Miss Earhart Epling. Inside the folders were the printed menu and program.

The menu was served in four courses, fruit cocktail preceded the main course of broiled chicken stuffed potatoes in baked jackets, French style beans, hot rolls and apple short cake, nuts and coffee.

Miss Bertha Freeman is president of the organization and was mistress of ceremonies.

Mrs. Julian Quattlebaum, of Savannah gave an interesting talk and Miss Patty Banks gave a reading.

Other guests present were: Mrs. M. S. Pittman, Mrs. Frank Parker, of Millen, Miss Ruth Bolton, Miss Edith Gull, Dr. Elizabeth Fletcher, Mrs. Buford Knight, Miss Sara Esther Jones, Mrs. P. O. Olliff, Sr., Mrs. Henry McCormick, Mrs. Ralph M. Lyon, Miss Hester Newton, Miss Viola Perry, Mrs. Fielding Russell, Mrs. E. G. Magardo, Miss Boss King, Duncan Miss Ethel Swanson, Mrs. La Flee Collins, Mrs. Jack Brobeck and Miss Marie Wood.

Saturday Mr. W. C. Hodges, Jr., Robert and Julian Hodges entertained the men attendants of the Hodges-Fittin wedding party with a luncheon at the Jaekel Hotel.

A lattice intervened with ivy and lavender butterfly blossoms forming a background for Lambuth Key's orchestra who furnished a program of dance music.

Hostess for the dance were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hines, Mr. and Mrs. Lehman Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Riggs, Dr. and Mrs. Bird Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. Chas Olliff, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Leodel Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Amason and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Minkovitz.

At intermission cola-cola, fancy sandwiches and cookies were served to the fifty couples who enjoyed the occasion.

ONLY BY HIGHWAY

... You Meet the Real America

There's just one way to know and enjoy the magnificent country in which you live. That's to see it close-up, with a hand-clasp of its friendly, interesting people. And that way is the Highway. Which is by way of saying "by Greyhound"—for Greyhound serves nearly all the famous highways and highroads of this amazing America.

Along the highways—by Greyhound—you'll see the colorful and cordial side of America... the uplands and lowlands, the massive mountain ranges and sparkling shore lines. And you'll meet the kindly, individualistic folks from every section of our nation. And to Greyhound invites you to meet the real America, where it lives and works and plays... along the Highway.

HODGES-FITTON REHEARSAL PARTY

The Sewell House was the setting for a beautiful social event Friday evening when Mrs. Julian Hodges and Mrs. Eugene Brogdon entertained the Hodges-Fittin bridal party and the out-of-town guests, following the wedding rehearsal at the Methodist church.

A color scheme of pink and white was effectively used in the house decorations and the menu. Easter lilies and Queen Anne's lace arranged in tall vases were used while gardenias in low bowls were placed on cocktail-tables.

The table was covered with an exquisite hand-made cut work cloth, and had as the central decoration a mound of Easter lilies and gardenias. At each end of the table twin crystal candelabra held pink candles.

The supper which was served buffet style was attractively arranged on crystal supper trays. The menu consisted of pink apple cocktail, baked apples colored pink and stuffed with cream, cheese were placed in lettuce nests; ribbon sandwiches; moulded ring of tomato aspic garnished with stuffed eggs; creamed chicken in timbales; stuffed celery, lane cake, nuts and tea.

The spacious lawn surrounding the house was illuminated by flood lights and was decorated with Easter lilies on tables from which delicious frosted fruit punch was served. Here the guests were informally entertained.

LUNCHEON SATURDAY

Saturday Mr. W. C. Hodges, Jr., Robert and Julian Hodges entertained the men attendants of the Hodges-Fittin wedding party with a luncheon at the Jaekel Hotel.

All's Fair

"Escape of the Etchings," is the title of an article on page 46 in the Saturday Evening Post, issue of May 18th, written by Rebecca Franklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Franklin.

The story tells how Mr. Scharf, an Atlanta Insurance Salesman, smuggled fifty etchings and lithographs by Manet, Renoir, Picasso and other great artists out of Nazi Germany by representing them as "degenerate Jewish Art." After two years in Austria, Hitler took over that land, too, and before Mr. Scharf could escape, he was discovered. How he succeeded in leaving Naziland a second time is told in this story.

Rebecca has been journal staff writer for several years and with Mr. Scharf make their national monogram in this issue of the Saturday Evening Post.

Several music lovers are making plans to go to Savannah Thursday evening, June 6, to hear the all-star orchestra and chorus of the Hours of Charm, under the direction of Phil Sitalmy, in the municipal auditorium. "Evelyn and her magic violin" as well as Jeanne the coloratura soprano will be featured.

(Mrs. Albert) who is a new addition to the young married set, was seen at a birthday party wearing a sports model, button-down front aqua linen and a hat of feather weight straw with a grosgrain band.

(Mrs. G. C.) a distinguished brunette, at a party wearing a dress of Kelly green. Her monogram embroidered in white on the left shoulder. Her perky hat was a sassy sailor of white straw.

Anne Remington wearing a sport off-white shantung dress with plaits in the skirt. Her hat was of Panama and had a brown grosgrain band.

Anne Waters, wearing a Dutch hat of starched lace. Her dress was gleaming white, full skirt and fitted bodice with short puffed sleeves.

Lynn Forbes, doll-like in her long dress of pink pressed flower petals, a soft, scattering flower petals from a daisy basket, at the Hodges-Fittin wedding.

Her dark curls framing her lovely face.

Little Frederick Brogdon, the ring bearer, was dressed in white and carried the ring on a satin pillow, man-like grew tired on down as the ring was received, fluffed the pillow and nonchalantly sat upon it.

As ever,
JANE.

MISS HADGES HONORED

Another lovely compliment to Miss Martha Evelyn Hodges was when Miss Helen Rowe and Miss Mary Groover entertained the lady attendants of the Hodges-Fittin bridal party with a luncheon Saturday at the Norris Hotel.

Tall vases of Easter lilies were used in the decorations while the prettily appointed table was graced by an arrangement of red radiances roses as the centerpiece.

The luncheon was served in three courses of which tomato cocktail preceded the main course of Southern style fried chicken, rice and giblet gravy, Parker house rolls, French style beans, sliced tomatoes, potato salad in lettuce cups, cake, ice cream and iced tea.
