DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLOCH COUNTY

Statesboro, Georgia, Thursday, September 11, 1947

Official Organ for Bulloch County

Number 43

F. N. Grimes Dies Monday

Frank N. Grimes, 71, prominent Statesboro citizen for many years, died at his residence early Monday morning, following an illness of several weeks.

Mr. Grimes, a native of Bulloch County, was a large planter and widely known and beloved throughout his section of the state, where he had a large family connection. Despite his age, Mr. Grimes was very active until a short time ago and served as chairman of the Bulloch County Debt Board from its organization until its office was closed here in the spring.

Mr. Grimes is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Leola Coleman and Mrs. Virginia Grimes Evans, both of Statesboro; one granddaughter, Miss Anne Evans, of Statesboro; one sister, Mrs. M. Y. Allen, of Mount Airy, N. C.

Funeral services were held at the residence on Savannah Avenue Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Earl Serson in charge of the services. Burial was in East Side cemetery. Active pallbearers were selected from the board of deacons of the First Baptist Church, of which Mr. Grimes was a member and an active deacon. They included: J. L. Mathews, W. G. Cobb, Glenn Jennings and S. D. Grover. Smith-Tillman Mortuary was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Vets Office Is Assured

Veterans in Bulloch and surrounding counties will not be left without a local veterans office when the Veterans Administration office here closes this month. J. Brantley Johnson, representative to the State Legislature, announced this week that he had been assured by the State Department of Veterans Service that a Veterans Service Office will be established here by the state.

In a letter to the State Veterans Service Department officials Mr. Johnson pointed out the great need for a veterans office in this locality. He cited the work done by the Veterans Administration office which has been operated by the Federal government for some time since the end of the war.

In replying to Mr. Johnson's letter, C. Arthur Cheatham, director of the Dept. of Veterans Service for the state, authorized the legislator to begin organization of a Veterans Affairs Committee. This committee will be composed of some 25 leading citizens and will advise and cooperate with the local office and with the state department.

No definite date or location has been established for opening the new office here.

S. H. S. and T. C. Get Link Flying Trainers

Statesboro High School and Teachers College are two institutions in the state which have applied to the State Department of Education for use of a Link flying trainer during the coming school year.

Some 20 schools in the state have applied for the trainers, which will be used to teach elementary aviation and be used in demonstrating problems in physics, geometry, and other courses of study.

The trainers will be moved to the schools from naval bases throughout the state, where they were used to train pilots. The trainers have all the elements usually included in the cockpit of a plane and by moving the body of the trainer actual flying conditions are simulated.

When a member receives a hog from Scars-Roebuck one of the pigs from the first brood is given to another FFA member and in this "chain" fashion the plan will eventually place quite a large number of purebred hogs through the state. Members of the Stillson group have entered their hogs in shows in Stillson and Savannah. In Savannah recently their hogs won four out of five possible top honors. They have brought home awards to their FFA chapter through the showing of these purebreds. (Cut Courtesy Georgia Farm Bureau News).

Highway Associations To Merge For Promotion Of U.S. Highway 301

Some forty officials of the Burton's Ferry Highway Association met in Statesboro Friday and mapped plans for combining their organization with the "Tobacco Trail Association," an organization promoting U. S. Highway 301 which was recently extended to pass through Statesboro.

At the same time the group received an invitation extended in behalf of the citizens of Statesboro by Alfred Dorman, president of the Burton's Ferry Association, to attend a barbecue and celebration being planned for late October to signify the completion and opening of the Burton's Ferry.

The association, composed of representatives from cities lying along the Burton's Ferry route, went on record as approving a plan to merge their group with the "Tobacco Trail Association," which has headquarters in Wilkes, N. C., and which has for its purpose the promotion of tourist traffic along U. S. 301. Spokesmen for both groups pointed out that through a combination of forces a much more effective campaign could be carried out in promoting tourist traffic.

Officers of the Burton's Ferry Association were authorized to make plans for the merger and

AAA OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED ON SATURDAYS

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH TO NATIONAL ANGUS ASSN.

Lamar Jones, of the "Bullock Farms," Route 1, Statesboro, has been elected to membership in the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders Association at Chicago, announces Secretary Frank Richards.

The "Bullock Farms" are one of the two purebred Aberdeen-Angus breeding establishments from Georgia, elected during the past month to membership in the national beef cattle breeder's organization.

A Verse For This Week

"The day of life spent in honest and benevolent labor comes in hope to an evening calm and lovely; and though the sun declines, the shadow that he leaves behind are only to curtain the spirit unto rest."
—Henry Giles.

School Days

School opened Monday. And, with the opening of school, hundreds of youngsters in Statesboro and Bulloch county will be walking, riding bicycles, and driving automobiles, and walking to school. Many of these youngsters will be going to school for the first time. We can choose no more fitting time than school opening to point out to parents and school children alike the necessity of safety precautions. Last year 3,150 school children were killed and 130,000 were injured. With your help this year we can lower that figure. Being safe is not hard. It does not require unusual intelligence. It only requires common sense and being careful. There are eight rules for safe use of the streets. If these are impressed upon a child's memory as he begins school life they will become of such a secondary nature that he will automatically do the right and safe thing throughout life. 1. CROSS STREETS ONLY AT CORNERS. Reason: The motorist does not expect pedestrians to cross in mid-block and often cannot see them as they start across the street. 2. LOOK! BE SURE THE WAY IS CLEAR BEFORE YOU CROSS. Reason: Even at intersections the motorist doesn't expect a pedestrian to dart out suddenly from the curb. If there is a signal, the driver expects you, too, to obey it. Also, the driver has many things to watch at intersections. 3. WALK - DON'T RUN - STRAIGHT ACROSS THE STREET. Reason: If you walk you are not apt to stumble. Any approaching driver can judge better what he should do. He doesn't expect bring to light certain facts regarding these concerns. Like any other business concern, a carnival is operated for profit. Most legitimate business concerns, however, do not include gaming and gambling devices in their search for profits. An examination of one carnival early this week revealed the following: A twenty-cent "admission fee" was required to enter the carnival grounds. This paid for the "privilege" of purchasing favorite time of year for these tickets at twenty-cent per "city-by-night" concerns which son for a ride on a flimsy "merry-go-round" or "ferries-wheel." It move on, the community no better for their having been here. For a good many years early September has brought one, two, and sometimes three of these so-called "amusement centers" to Bulloch county and the environs of Statesboro. The Herald understands another "carnival" is scheduled to area. Actually, this admission fee is for nothing. One might just as well feel it our duty as a well have donated twenty cents to the carnival "pot."

"Not Here, Mister!"

This is the season for carnivals. Not the "carnival" we think of when we vision "Mardi Gras" or a big city-wide festival, but the "carnival" of "peep-shows" and gaming tables, which usually shows on the edge of town for a few days and then, pockets heavy with money, moves on to a new location and a new group of "suckers." This season, when money from cotton, corn and tobacco jingles heavily in the pockets of our farmers and merchants, is the favorite time of year for these tickets at twenty-cent per "city-by-night" concerns which son for a ride on a flimsy "merry-go-round" or "ferries-wheel." ### The Almanac Says the Weather This Week On...

TODAY, THURSDAY, September 11, will be cloudy with thunder showers.
FRIDAY, September 12, will be clearing and warmer.

SUNDAY, September 14, will be rainy, but cooler.
MONDAY, September 15, will be fair.
TUESDAY, September 16, will be pleasant.

... But Don't Blame Us If the Almanac Is Wrong!

EVERY WEEK we have more news and features on hand than we can print. Some weeks we are forced to run news held over from the week before in order that we may adequately present our subscribers. An outsider would be amazed at the amount of copy which must be thrown into the wastebasket. Very often persons mail us news and features or bring them by our office with the request that they be published. By careful selection we print those things we feel will be of most interest to our readers. Recently, several items have come to our desk with the request that they be published. This week we present some of them here:

YOUR FAMILY DOCTOR

I am the man who signed your Birth Certificate, and the man who will sign your Death Certificate. I stand by you in your hour of Greatest Happiness and in your hour of Greatest Sorrow. I listen to your confessions not breathed to another soul, and keeping them inviolate. My Life Work is Consecrated to serving and administering to your physical wants. Night or day, rain or shine, I am at your beck and call. I sacrifice my pleasure, my strength to comfort you. As I went past the Year Stones of Life towards the Eternal Sun-

The twelve gambling devices varied in their methods of taking money from those gullible enough to believe they had a chance to win. One device, upon the payment of fifteen cents, enabled a player to scoop a wooden "fish" from a trough of moving water. Each "fish" was numbered and a "prize" was given corresponding to the number on the fish. Visible prizes at this booth were lucrative enough. There were radios and clocks, and a myriad assortment of others, including hundreds of "valuable" prizes, such as plastic thimbles, brass rings, buttons, and other such objects. Peculiarly enough however, No one was ever seen to win one of the larger prizes. In fact some of them were dust-covered and corroded, giving evidence of their having been used as "drawing cards" for many months. Other booths were similar. One just outright rolled dice with "house" taking by far the majority of the wins. Carnivals—as such—have no place in Statesboro or Bulloch county.

According to the annual report of the Bulloch-Bryan Regional Library more people are reading to believe they had a chance to win. While the Bulloch County Library and regional library are looking forward to continued growth and while rural library service is spreading, we still find 661,716 or 21 per cent of the people of Georgia without library service. Did you know all this?

ELABORATE CEREMONY MARKS FOY-SANDERS WEDDING SATURDAY

Wearing a regal gown of pale pink duchess satin, Miss Betty Foy, daughter of Mrs. J. P. Foy and the late Mr. Foy, became the bride of Carl Edward Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sanders, of Augusta. The ceremony was brilliantly solemnized Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church, with Rev. Earl Kay Minkovitz, flower girl, carrying rose petals in a pink satin-covered basket and a train of pink net ruffles with a band of pink sweetheart roses in her hair. The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, W. L. Brannen, of Metter, presented a picture of rare loveliness as she entered the church in her wedding gown of pale pink satin, fitted bodice and very full skirt extending in a long, graceful train. Her fingertip veil of pink silk illusion fell from a crown of lace. As ornaments she wore an heirloom diamond bracelet, loaned for the occasion by her cousin, Mrs. Ada Foy Dorsey, and a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink briarcliff roses.

Mrs. Foy, the bride's mother, was crowned in ashes-of-roses and lace, featuring soft Harem drapes. Her corsage was of orchids. Mrs. Sanders, mother of the groom, wore blue crepe with an orchid corsage. Mrs. J. E. Donehoo, grandmother of the bride, wore blue lace, and Mrs. Bird, her maternal grandmother, wore black.

BRILLIANT RECEPTION AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Foy entertained with a reception at the Woman's Club. Soft music was furnished by Mrs. E. L. Barnes, Mrs. Waldo Floyd, Mrs. Roger Holland, Jack Averitt, Mr. C. B. Matthews, Mrs. George Bean, Mrs. Jake Smith, and Mrs. Sanders.

During the evening, Mr. Sanders and his bride left on a short wedding trip, the bride traveling in a hunter's green wool gabardine suit worn with black, off-the-face hat with feather trim, black accessories, and a corsage of orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Sanders will be in Statesboro until the fall season begins at the University of Georgia. After his graduation in December they will make their home in Augusta.
