City-County Now Have Health Commissioner

The Bulloch County and City Board of Health has announced the appointment of Dr. Wilbur D. Lundquist to the position of Commissioner of Health of the local Health Department.

Dr. Lundquist, who has acted in this same capacity with the Burke-Jenkins-Screven Health District for the last eight years, will also be the Director of the health departments of Bryan, Evans and Effingham counties. He will spend three days a week in Bulloch and one day a week in each of the other counties.

It is anticipated that a sanitarian will be added to the staff of the local health department as soon as one can be trained at the public health sanitarians' school in Columbus, Ga., which is operated by the State Health Department. After this man has been appointed to the Bulloch county department, Mr. Jack Weichel, our Public Health Engineer who has been with us for nearly two years, will also divide his time with the above-mentioned three counties, just as the Health Commissioner is doing at present.

The State Health Department is also in search of a man who will be trained for the position of Sanitarian for Bryan, Evans and Effingham counties. The additional sanitation personnel for the four counties will materially aid Mr. Weichel to increase the sanitary engineering phase of the general health program.

It is a recognized fact by public health authorities that the minimum requirements of any community, particularly rural, are one health officer for every 50,000 to 60,000 people, one sanitarian for every 20,000, and one nurse for every 5,000 population. With this personnel available for service to the people, we feel that our citizens can have the best protection from contagious diseases, good maternal and infant health clinics, venereal disease protection, tuberculosis prevention, crippled children services, public health education, school health programs, and all phases of sanitation, including food, water, milk, and sewage disposal. There are many other activities or services rendered by the Health Department, services to which everyone is entitled. Get acquainted with your health department and find out what it can do for you. Our aim is to prevent illness and death. Bulloch county will be a healthier place in which to live.

‘Nancy Hanks’ Is Fairy Coach to Youthful Group

It was a great trip. To and from Atlanta, the twelve “young’uns” experienced thrills which are theirs for life. “Atlanta was so dark with people,” is the way George Williams described the thousands of people he saw on the streets of Georgia's capital.

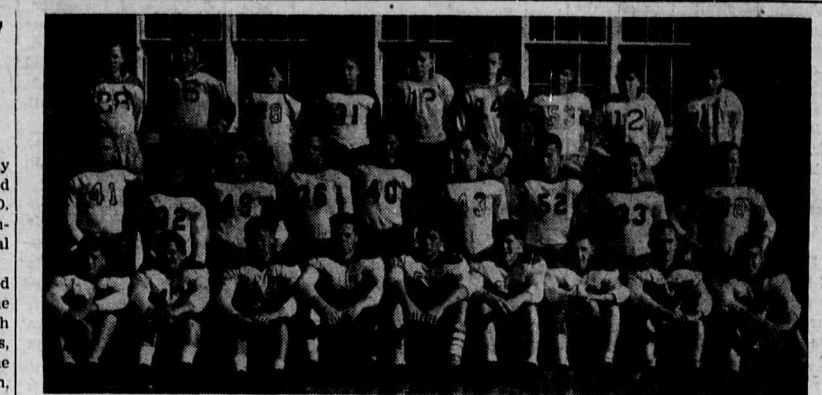

The escalators in a department store fascinated them. To Prince Gould it was not an escalator at all, but an “elevator.” “Golly, look at all the railroad tracks!” exclaimed LeVaughn Woods as the Nancy Hanks pulled into Macon among the myriad of train rails in the station yard.

And the express elevators gave Jack Anderson a moment of concern for the ladies as “some woman grabbed her hat every time we started down.”

The window display, “Cinderella,” at Rich's and the “Twins at the Night Before Christmas” at Davison's proved to be the highlights of the trip.

Blue Devils-Sylvania Tie; 6-6; Are Co-champions

The Statesboro High School Blue Devils are co-champions of the First District. They share the championship with the Sylvania High School.

The Statesboro High School Blue Devils are co-champions of the First District. They share the championship with the Sylvania High School. In the post-season playoff in Swainsboro last Friday night the Blue Devils ended their 1947 season in a 6 to 6 tie.

The Blue Devils scored when they took Sylvania's punt on the 30-yard line and drove to the 2-yard line, where Red Parrish pushed it over the goal line. The Boys in Blue made three other long drives, but fumbles and non-clicking passing failed to rack up a score. They doubled the boys from Sylvania in first downs.

Coach Ernest Teel states that the team will be minus nine of the 1947 Blue Devils when the whistle blows on the 1948 edition of the Boys in Blue. The boys who will finish are Jerry Howard, Louis Simmons, Brannen Purser, end; Bucky Atkins, Sidney Peskins, tackle; Earl Alderman, guard; Fuller Hunnicutt, Red Parrish and Ben Robert Nesmith, backs.

The Blue Devils went through the season with eight wins and one defeat. They lost to Dublin, which is out of the First District. They defeated Sylvania, the co-champions, in the regular scheduled game played here.

The couple visited every section of the county and stopped for many individual farm inspections.

And Miss Wood convinced her charges of her knowledge of arithmetic. Ethel Jenkins expressed it in telling the group: “Miss Wood surely does know how to count to thirteen! She's done it enough today.”

But Harley Stringer was not so sure of Miss Wood's sense of direction. “Miss Wood, are you sure you know how to get back to the terminal? We surely have made a heap of curves.”

But to them all, pre-Christmas time in Atlanta is something out of the fairy book, with Miss Wood wielding the magic wand and the Nancy Hanks their magic steed.

Those making the trip were: Jack Anderson, Harold Campbell, Prince Gould, Mary Henderson, Ethel Jenkins, Jean Joiner, Willie Albert Key, Billy Mikell, Harley Stringer, George Williams, LeVaughn Woods and Franklin Woods.

And Miss Marie Wood!

Warnock Sisters Honored Tuesday

A Bulloch county farm woman who has completely rebuilt her kitchen during the past year was honored guest at a luncheon here Tuesday and received an electric washing machine as a prize for her fine work.

She is Miss Warnock, a home demonstration club member, who lives in the Register community. Last year Miss Warnock was one of 800 farm women to enter a state-wide Kitchen Improvement Contest sponsored by the Georgia Agricultural Extension Service and the Georgia Power Company. Her kitchen improvement work won for her the southeast Georgia championship in the contest.

In commenting on the work done in her kitchen, Miss Warnock said, “The floor before we remodeled had been used for over a half century. We had only one small, dark kitchen cupboard, two small windows and our wood stove was in bad condition.

“We refloored the kitchen, covered it with light, linoleum, covered the walls with sheet rock and tileboard and celled overhead with cello-tex. Triple windows were added and around these we built base and top cabinets in a U shape. Water was piped in and a deep double sink, electric stove, electric dishwasher and washing machine added. Our electric refrigerator was moved in from the dining room.

“Since we did most of the work ourselves, our electrical appliances, our electrical wiring, our plumbing, were the only expenses. The color scheme is white, yellow and red. Building material cost $264.”

Those attending the luncheon honoring Miss Warnock at the Norris Hotel were:

T. A. Gibson, Vice-President and division manager, Georgia Power Co.; Henry Setze, Division Sales Supervisor, Georgia Power Co.; Miss Evelyn Hagler, Division Home Service Supervisor; Miss Charlotte Ketchum, Statesboro District Home Economist, Miss Elizabeth Parker, Home Service Director, Georgia Power Co., Atlanta; S. S. Strauss, Statesboro District Manager, Georgia Power Co., Statesboro; Warren Bateman, Editor of “Round the Home,” Georgia Power Co.; Miss Irma Spears, County Home Demonstration Agent; Miss Jessie Mize, Special Agent, Extension Service; Mrs. Ann Smith, Associate Professor of Food and Nutrition, G. S. C. W., Milledgeville, Ga.; R. H. Driftmeyer, head of Agricultural Engineering Department, University of Georgia; Miss Willie-Ble Dowdy, Extension Home Economist in Home Improvements; Miss Matilda Calloway, Associate Professor of General Home Economics, University of Georgia; Miss Janie Warnock, winner of district contest; Miss Esther Warnock, sister of winner; Mr. Dave Turner, Leodel Coleman, Mr. James Floyd Coleman and Mr. Paul Sauve.

Christmas Hits City Streets As Numerous Colored Lights Go On

The streets of Statesboro took on that look of showing the good old Christmas spirit last night when the colored lights were turned on for the holiday season. More than 2,000 red, yellow, blue, orange and green bulbs are strung over the downtown business section of the city this year.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER

On Sunday, November 30, Lem Zetterower was unexpectedly made conscious of the fact that another birthday had rolled around, and he took a little longer to realize that it was his 67th birthday. Decorations and all the fuss that goes with a party percolate into the masculine mind a little more slowly than into the minds of women. First, Lem saw that an especially pretty hand-made lace cover was on the table and there were chrysanthemums and fruits arranged with a little more than the usual care. Only until the guests had started arriving and he had caught a glimpse of the birthday cake did he realize "what was cooking."

From Dublin came Dr. and Mrs. Frank Zetterower, and Dr. Tom Zetterower. Then came Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Deal, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Martin, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Zetterower, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Zetterower, Miss Sally Zetterower and Joe Zetterower, his brothers and sisters. His daughter, Miss Myrtis Zetterower, of Jacksonville, was present for the occasion.

The lovely dinner was served buffet style under the supervision of the hostess, Mrs. Lem Zetterower.

Later, in the beautiful candle-lit dining room, cake and punch were served.

The guests then boarded the hay-filled trailer for back to town, declaring "the most fun ever."

Those present were Charlotte Blitch, Lynn Smith, Lavinia Bryant, Jane Morris, Teresa Foy, Etta Ann Atkins, Carmen Roach, June Carr, Emma Louise Rushing, Patricia Lanier, Mary Jo Hodges, Shirley Atkins, Billy Bland, Steve Sewell, Oliver Gerold, Dicky Dickerson, Gene Newton, Charlie Joe Hollingsworth, Cliff Cannon, Guy Freeman, Jappy Atkins and Robert Waters.

Mrs. Homer Simmons Jr. and children, Julie and Homer Jr. spent the Thanksgiving holidays at Bartow with her mother, Mrs. George Whigham.

A Verse For This Week

Power will intoxicate the best hearts, as wine, the strongest heads. No man is wise enough, not good enough to be trusted with unlimited power.—Colton.

Vote!

Bulloch County is to have another election on December 19th.

It is an important election! Bulloch countians will go to the polls to decide whether or not whiskey will continue to be sold legally in the county.

The Bulloch Herald has taken no stand editorially on the wet or dry issue in the county, and this record kept unbroken.

does not intend to do so. But we do urge every eligible voter to vote in this election and vote their convictions. We urge both sides in this battle to keep it "clean."

Bulloch County has an excellent reputation for holding fair and clean elections and we want to keep it that way.

Who's The Champ?

It doesn't add up. The Statesboro High School Blue Devil football team goes through the season undefeated in the First District and, according to our way of thinking, should have been crowned champions.

But they were not... The executive committee of the first district ruled that the Blue Devils play Sylvania High School, a team already defeated by them, for the championship.

And what happened? They tied Sylvania 6-6! Now we have co-champions in the first district—Sylvania and Statesboro.

It looks a little silly to us to have playoffs in the district, unless two teams have won and lost the same number of games in the district, playing the same opponents.

We believe the high officials in the First District could make better plans in the future for deciding the football championship in the district.

Make Our Town Attractive

A neat, attractive town... million out-of-state automobiles will enter Georgia during the winter. That's about 11,762 cars a day. These travelers will spend scenic or historic sites that are easily accessible. These are a few simple requirements that will make any town attractive to tourists.

The "Yankees" have found Route 301, which passes through Statesboro, and they are using it going to Florida this winter. There's big, quick money in the tourist trade—make no mistake about it! Recent estimates show that more than four and a quar-

50,000,000 Old Dresses!

Right now, in every woman's closet, there are dresses and coats she will never wear again. Dresses outmoded by the new fashions... suits and coats she thinks she may have lengthened—won't.

Europe needs these clothes desperately NOW! Facing a shivering winter, the men, women and children overseas need every piece of apparel we can spare.

Open your closet and open your heart. Get out those short dresses and suits; that coat that's just gathering dust. And while you're about it, bundle up the men's and children's things your family no longer needs...

Let's give thanks this Christmas by giving. Let's string a line of our will be a godsend clothes line to Europe.

DECENT AND CLEAN

Since Edwin T. Methvin's exposure, in his Eastman Times-Journal, of the flagrant vote-buying in the Dodge County primary, we have awaited with interest the reaction of the grand jury to his charges and revelations of corruption in their midst. We find in the lengthy presentation which were returned to the Superior Court on Nov. 25 only one allusion to the orgy of bribery, as follows:

"We recommend that parties in charge of holding elections do everything in their power to correct the unlawful voting that is going on in the county and that all law-enforcement officers prosecute any person who is apprehended violating said laws."

That is a pious recommendation, though one must admit it suggests a shortage of zeal on the part of a body which is sovereign in its authority to investigate crime within its precincts.

But, as offset to the appearance of timidity in passing the buck, to "parties holding elections" and "all law-enforcement officers," it should be chronicled that the grand jury is emphatic in recommending that the county jail be equipped with an additional commode, its windows repaired, a water heater installed and the mattresses recovered.

So, it may be, great preparations are in the making for reforming Dodge's election customs. Coincidentally, the Bulloch Herald of Statesboro proudly declares in its leading editorial, "Bulloch is not for sale." Editor Coleman's previously expressed fears that in the primary of Nov. 19 there might be a situation paralleled with that in Dodge were answered by what he calls "the cleanest and one of the most orderly elections ever held in the county."

Rather triumphantly Editor Coleman writes: "Other counties in Georgia would do well to follow the lead taken by Bulloch. Elections can be made clean and decent."

Surely they can, when the decent citizenry of every county is given the leadership of a courageous and honest person. The decent people of every community outnumber the crooked politicians and the stupid, shameless Jeeter Lesters who are purchasable. The trouble is, the decent people do not know what is going on, or feel helpless for lack of a militant spokesman, or stand in fear of reprisal if they should make bold to express themselves.

Young editors like Methvin and Coleman—veterans of the war—are providing the leadership rural Georgia needs.

Books

By Mrs. F. F. Baker

GIVE A BOOK FOR CHRISTMAS

The Bulloch County Regional Library has on display the following beautiful children's books which they suggest as Christmas gifts for the young child:

Linette books (75) which are difficult to tear. Titles included are: The Tale of Peter Rabbit, Little Black Sambo, Night Before Christmas, Baby's ABC, The Three Bears; The Three Little Kittens, The Three Little Pigs.

MOTHER GOOSE, in three editions. The quantity of pictures in these will keep the small child enthralled for hours.

The Caldecott prize winners for the best pictures of the year are always good gifts. THE ROOSTER CROWS, by Maud and Misha Petersham, (McMillan, 1945, $2.00), is a book of American rhymes and jingles, with illustrations for each. The 1947 winner, THE LITTLE ISLAND, by Golden McDonald and Leonard Weisgard (Doubleday, $2.50), has the kind of pictures you would like to frame and the story read over and over. Little Black Sambo has always been a favorite with children, so a welcome gift would be THE JUMBO SAMBO (Lippincott, $2.50), which contains six stories about Sambo and his friends.

Attractive are the books published by the Children's Press which can be bought in either a 25c or 50c edition. The titles are: FARMER COLLINS, by Jullily Kohler; CAPTAIN JOE, by Margaret Friskier; PETER RABBIT, by Phoebe Erickson; FOOTBALL TREES, by Jullily Kohler; and BLACK MOUSIE, by Martha Dudley.

UNCLE REMUS STORIES by Walt Disney (Simon, $1.50), presents 23 stories which can be read and understood by children, yet the rich dialect and unflinching wisdom of Old Uncle Remus is still there.

Each child should have his Bible Story book and the GOLDEN BIBLE (Simon, $2.50), is one which the child will love. The stories were selected from the King James version and made unforgetably vivid by the illustrations of Feodor Rojankovsky.

It Costs Too Much ! Here's What That $62,000 Tax Savings Really Costs The Tax Payer

ITEM OF COST	EXPLANATION	AMOUNT OF COST
THE LIQUOR ITSELF	The tax is 10% of the wholesale cost; so the cost is $620,000. The mark up for profit makes it cost the consumer $860,000. That's almost a million dollars. Thus, to produce $1 in liquor tax money, we have to spend $15 on liquor today. This near-million dollars is kept out of the savings banks, grocery stores, dry goods stores, etc. You can't buy shoes and booze with the same dollar bill.	$ 930,000
LAW ENFORCEMENT	Salaries of city and county police, and sheriff; board of prisoners and operation of jail and prison; administration of the courts, (does not count State police), etc, for Bulloch County in 1946 was $258,316. For how much of this is liquor-responsible? Various authorities say liquor is responsible for from 67% to 76% of all arrests, prosecutions, and cost of law enforcement. A Statesboro official says 90%. The best authority, Yale University School on Alcohol Studies, says that the proportionate cost is 70%. In other words, it costs three times as much for enforcement as is derived from liquor taxes.	$ 179,421
LOSS OF WAGES	Wage earnings lost by excessive drinkers while in jail, in prison, and in hospitals because of accidents, illnesses, and for sobering up; and Monday morning absenteeism because of hang-overs. Does not include unemployment because of loss of job. This estimate is based on studies by insurance companies, National Safety Council, etc, and codified and published by Yale University School on Alcohol Studies. This figure is Bulloch's proportionate part of the national bill.	$ 92,426
MEDICAL AND HOSPITAL CARE	Cost of treatment because of accident and drunkenness in local, state, and national hospitals and mental institutions. Does not include lost wages. This figure is arrived at by figuring the difference between the annual medical cost of average person and cost of alcoholics, and then figuring Bulloch's proportion. The authority is Yale University's studies.	$ 4,930
ACCIDENTS	Amounts for injury, property damage, etc. Does not include medical and hospital care nor wage losses. National Safety Council estimates that one accident on the highway out of every 4 has drinking involved. In 4 cities, (Evanston, Uniontown, Cleveland and NYC) tests showed that from 38 to 56% of all accidents had a drinking person involved.	$ 4,554
SUPPORT OF DEPENDENT PERSONS	Support by private persons, not the government. Bulloch's proportion of the national cost, estimated by Yale.	$ 1,138
OTHER CRIMES—Various	The Federal Bureau of Investigation says that the national crime bill is 15 billion dollars. This is $107 per person in the U. S. This is the economic cost of general crime, theft, arson, increased insurance costs, maintenance of law enforcement agencies, upkeep of prisons, personal and property losses; tribute paid to organized racketeers; commercialized fraud, extortion, using the mails to defraud, etc. How much of this is due to liquor? Dr. Banay, of New York University, studied the inmates of Sing Sing penitentiary, and says 28% of all crime has alcohol as a causative factor. Dr. Schmidt, of San Quentin prison, says it is 40%. Yale uses the figure of 22%, and so do we. For Bulloch County that would be $732,874, a total cost of liquor-induced crime. To avoid duplication, we subtract the other items already listed (Law Enforcement, Loss of Wages, Etc.)	$ 450,405
TOTAL COST OF LIQUOR IN BULLOCH COUNTY (Over a million and a half down the rat hole to provide the taxpayer with a saving of $62,000) We have to throw away over $25 in order to save $1 in taxes IT'S FOOLISH.		$1,662,874

All's Fair

ON SATURDAY EVENING a party practically moved in on Marian Johnston out Savannah Avenue way. But, to hear Marian tell it, everything went off beautifully, and a good time was had by all. The secret of the party's success, we believe, lay in the fact that it was engineered by a group of young football players—The North Main Football Squad. ELABORATE RECEPTION MARKS 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF PROMINENT COUPLE

An elaborate reception held on Tuesday evening, December 2, at their beautiful home near Statesboro marked the golden anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brannen.

This fiftieth anniversary is probably unique in that Mr. Brannen's father and mother, the late Mr. and Mrs. Jim Alex Brannen, Sr., lived to celebrate their golden wedding and the celebration Tuesday evening was the fifth in the Brannen family. The others who have previously held similar celebrations were the late Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Brannen, the late Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Allen, the late Mollie Denmark and Mrs. Denmark, who survives him, Mrs. Denmark, now of Savannah, and a brother, Pleasant Brannen, were present.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Arnold Anderson and were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. E. L. Akins. Receiving with the bride and groom of fifty years were their children, Robert Brannen, of Statesboro; Alex Brannen, of Austin, Texas (twins); Mrs. Luke Hendrix, of Peralta, and Mrs. Howard DeLoach, of Pembroke, Mrs. Brannen and her daughters were black crepe with corsages of talisman roses. Miss Penny Allen directed guests to the register which was kept by Miss Jessie Wynn, of Peralta, Mrs. Sally Pearl Thompson conducted them to the dining room. Hostesses were Mrs. Jesse Akins and Mrs. Charlie Nesmith.

Those serving were Misses Betty Brannen, Barbara Allen, Betty Jean Hart and Lucile Purser. The napkins, monogrammed in gold, were given out by Julia Ann Akins. The guests were served dainty sandwiches, ritz crackers, nuts, minis and coffee. Miss Edna Akins gave piano selections throughout the evening. Mrs. Lennie Banks and Mrs. Lavon Brannen, of Metter, presided in the gift room. Others assisting were Mrs. R. M. Lanier, Mrs. J. C. Aldred and Mrs. Janie Anderson.

The dining table was overlaid with a lovely maderia lace cover and was centered with the tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom. Five pronged silver candelabra holding gold candles were used at four corners of the table while the remaining corners were graced with giant yellow chrysanthemums tied with cascading yellow satin ribbons. Yellow chrysanthemums were also used on the buffet.

Two hundred and fifty friends called between six and eight o'clock.

ONE-ACT PLAYS DELIGHT AUDIENCE

Mrs. Bernard Morris presented her speech pupils in two one-act plays and several entertaining musical readings and skits on Tuesday evening of last week at the High School auditorium.

The cast for "Georgie Porgie" was Billy Rushing, Sara Neville, Virginia Lee Floyd, Sue Kennedy, Mike McDougald, Jimmie Johnson, Nancy Attaway and Melba Prosser. "Sugar an' Spice" was presented by Don Johnson, Myra Joe Zetterover, Jackie Zetterover, Hugh Darley and Genevieve Guardia. A musical reading "Sun-bonnet Sally and Overall Jim" met with much applause. Appearing in it were Glenda Banks, Laurel Lanier, Barbara Anderson, Amelia Brown, Fay Brannen, Butch Colley, Skip Aldred, Nicky E. Brown, Jimmie Franklin and J. E. Foy.

BUD LAZAR OBSERVES FIFTH BIRTHDAY

Bud Lazar, son of Mrs. Fay Lazar, celebrated his fifth birthday at Miss Mattie's Play House on Tuesday afternoon, December 2, from 3 to 5.

The delicious refreshments consisted of ice cream, cake and candy. Miss Lively and Mrs. Lazar's mother, Mrs. Martin, assisted Mrs. Lazar in entertaining and serving. Indoor games were played. Children of the kindergarten were the invited guests.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Neville had as their guests during Thanksgiving holidays, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Neville and little sons, Joe, Jr. and Richard, of Mercer University; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McMillan and little daughters, Marguerite and Elizabeth, of Green Cove Springs, Fla., and Lieutenant Mrs. Gesmon Neville, Jr., of Norfolk, Va. Mrs. Gesmon Neville, Jr., spent the holidays with her parents, Judge and Mrs. T. L. Bowden, and attended the family reunion of the birthday of Judge Bowden.

Friends of Lt. Gesmon Neville, Jr., will be interested to know that he has been assigned to the "Coral Sea," one of the newest and largest aircraft carriers, and that he will go overseas at an early date.

W. G. Neville made a short business trip to Washington, D. C., last week and visited his daughter, Mrs. James W. Miller, and Mr. Miller in Alexandria, Va.

The Real Question In Next Week's Election

What are we really deciding at the polls next week? Surely all fair-minded people will agree that liquor will be sold in Bulloch County regardless, and therefore that the real question next week is: WHO IS GOING TO DO THE SELLING?

Will there be legally licensed, controlled and inspected liquor stores like we have now—stores that have to be careful when and to whom they sell, have to close at night and on Sundays and election days—stores that are pledged to the principles of true temperance and true moderation?

Or will we have the bootlegger and the rum-runner, investing their profits in other illegal and often immoral enterprises which endanger our children's health and future, encouraging defiance of all law and all decency?

Which will it be? The answer is up to you when you mark your ballot next week.

Our recent county election was notable for its orderliness. What would it have been with bootleggers down this alley and behind that stump, selling at all hours to all comers?

In next week's election YOU will help decide whether to finance crime or your government. The votes will determine whether the sale of liquor will benefit gangsters and the underworld, or whether the same money will be used instead for constructive purposes by your local governments.

Some people misuse liquor, but some also misuse the automobile. Is that any reason for closing up the car dealers and the gas stations? The sensible thing to do is to go to the polls and vote to require that those who want liquor, and are going to have it anyhow, shall buy it in your own licensed stores, subject to your constant inspection, regulated as to when and to whom they may sell. Vote to require liquor buyers to pay city, county, state and federal taxes on it instead of lining the bootlegger's pockets.

And speaking of taxes, have you or has anybody figured out how the liquor tax income is going to be replaced? Remember that during its 1947 fiscal year the City of Statesboro got nearly $25,000 revenue from the sale of alcoholic beverages. This is equal to nearly a third of total city property taxes.

What will the loss of this revenue do to Statesboro? Will it mean reduced services or higher property taxes, or both?

In addition, Bulloch County took in nearly $37,000 from this same source in this same period. What will the loss of this revenue do to our county, especially when it will be faced with the extra expense of setting up a force of county police to try to stem the tide of illegal liquor?

What will so-called prohibition cost YOU?

We believe that next week, on Friday, December 19, the fair-minded people of Bulloch County will take a stand on the side of law and order . . . and vote FOR the legal control of the sale of alcoholic beverages.

Happy Holiday all Year Round

CHRISTMAS comes but once a year? Don't you believe it!

Not when you can travel in style that's bright and gay as a holiday wrapping—and just as sure to bring a sparkle to the eye.

Not when you've a big Fireball straight-eight with which to explore those pleasant little roads that are as full of happy surprises as a Christmas morning.

Not when you've a car like this, that can be snug and cozy as a seat by the fire when the weather's bad—yet wide open to the sun, the sky, the stars and the moon when the season's right.

Not when every mile you travel is cradled on four soft coil springs that give your car a gait as smooth and flowing as its long and tapering lines.

Not, in short, when you've a Buick Convertible, with push-button top, self-adjusting front seats, and electro-hydraulic door window lifts that are more fun to operate than a new toy train.

With this one, the holiday spirit lasts all year. With this one, that happy, contented, at-peace-with-the-world feeling knows no season.

It's too late, of course, to put one in your driveway for this Christmas morning. But why not see your Buick dealer, and fix things up for a future time?

Just the news that you've got an order in for a sparkling new Buick Convertible will be enough to give your household its merriest Christmas ever.
