A HOLE IN THE GROUND

We're Waiting For The Answers

THE WOMEN OF GEORGIA may put their heads together over a bridge table and go "buzz, buzz, buzz" about their friends, and it's all part of the game, with all understanding the rules.

The women of Georgia may spend a lot of time gadding about on the streets of home towns, but there's shopping to be done and visits made to those ill, and calls to be made.

The women of Georgia may spend a lot of time in beauty shops and at cosmetic counters, but there's husband or boyfriend to consider.

And candidates for office, state and local, may court their votes and influence by organizing them and putting them on local campaign committees—and that's good, but the women ask questions.

And the women take their constitution-given right to promote good government and are now banding together under the League of Women Voters.

They want no part as candidates themselves—if a member becomes a candidate for any office she must resign from the organization—but they are interested in the issues as they come up which affect the community in which they live and rear their families.

And now members of the Georgia League of Women Voters are asking the candidates for governor and lieutenant governor six questions. The questions cover four issues about which the League has concerned itself for many years, and two issues which have achieved the limelight in the 1948 campaign, which the League itself has taken no stand.

Here are the four state issues on which they are asking questions:

1. Do you consider the State can meet its expanding needs with its present revenue. If not, what do you advocate?

2. Will you endeavor to get home rule in cities and counties of Georgia by: (a) working for an adequate law for county home rule?; (b) working for any amendments necessary to effectuate the country, that the motor had been burned out, and that the car, generally, was in a "bad way."

The truth is that the car was driven carefully to neighboring cities, where tickets were offered for sale. The motor was in good condition—for a used car dealer purchased the car from the negro soon after he won it, and paid a price which excludes the possibility of the motor being "burned out."

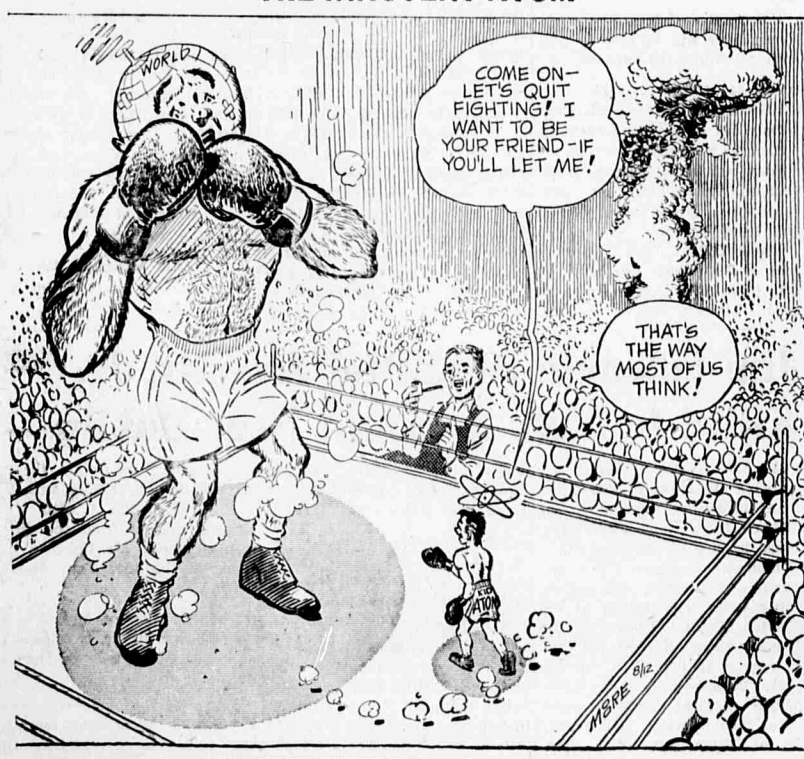

Another tale, which was circulated before the date on which the car was to be given away, was that the promotion was "fixed," that it had been agreed upon as to who would win the car. The fact that O. C. Minney, a negro, won the car proves the lie that this one was.

All these tales were spread by rumor, were told and retold by "innocent" believing them to be true. They did much damage to the cause for which the Jaycees are working. They are trying every known means of promotion in order that funds might be raised to finish the swimming pool. They deserve better than to be harassed by unfounded gossip.

They have not given up. . . . They will have something new—of that we are sure.

The Jaycees respect ladies. But Dame Rumor is no lady!

If you Bulloch Herald should come to you one week with its advertising on the front page, the print so small it would require a reading glass to read; with headlines set in small type, you would think the editor, and his help, had tossed in the sponge and said, "To heck with it!"

But to newspaper readers in Scotland and England, and Ireland, it is the usual newspaper makeup.

Mr. Sutherland, born in Scotland, now manager of the Statesboro Herald, receives a paper from Kirkcaldy, Scotland, "The Free Press," an eight-page paper, packed tight with news, advertising, and announcements.

The front page of the Free Press carries a full column of church notices, three full columns of public notices, including one reminiscent of our own rationing days.

Another one which, for reader interest, hits a high point:

KEENI — PREEKI
The English 'tak aw' oor beer, oor tatties an' oor booze.

An' in return they send us up the latest London news. They pay as little as they can for a' the stuff they've ta'en.

An' then they send the tax-man up an' tak it back agin.

No JOCK will tak' your sugar, but will gie' ye sweets back—Bilings, Toffees, Tablets—the best that he can mak'.

An editorial on page four would win the approval of citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county. Entitled "A Pleasant Surprise," it commends the Kirkcaldy Town Council for reducing the tax rate to the 1946-1947 level. It concludes with: "The cut may not amount to very much, but even taking the average saving for a tenant, at least it is a step in the right direction . . . a reduction in the cost of living."

Under the local news column there is an item which will be of interest to the friends of Mr. Sutherland here. It is an account of his father's visit to Kirkcaldy. Headed "VISITOR FROM U.S.A.," it reads:

"Yesterday we had a visit from Mr. W. B. Sutherland, formerly well known in Kirkcaldy musical circles, and now resident in Brockton, Massachusetts, U. S. A. . . . Mr. Sutherland, who is in his eightieth year, is a brother of ex-Councillor Frank Y. Sutherland, Kirkcaldy, with whom he is staying during his visit to Kirkcaldy. He is a very sprightly and alert in spite of his years, and despite the fact that he has been a resident in America for over thirty years, he still retains his Scots accent, betrayed only occasionally by the use of an Americanism. . . . In America he was for 25 years organist of the First United Presbyterian Church

IT DIDN'T HAPPEN HERE!

Editor's Note: This column is designed to create dissatisfaction with the present status of Statesboro. It will consist of stories of what other communities like ours are doing, with the hope that Statesboro might realize we must be continually alert to maintain the classification of "A Progressive City."

Dark woodwork that is to be painted white or light color should receive a coat of stain sealer before the white coats are applied. This prevents dark stain or color from "bleeding through."

Mealtime Magic

HOLLANDAISE SAUCE
Always looking for a way to dress up ordinary vegetables and over-rich? Then try your vegetables with a sauce that's tops in taste. It's fine for eggs and fish, too.

Hollandaise Sauce
3 egg yolks
2 tablespoons boiling water
2 tablespoons lemon juice, gently warmed
1/2 cup fortified margarine, melted
dash cayenne
salt to taste

Place small bowl over, not into, a pan of gently boiling water. Drop the egg yolks in bowl and beat with rotary beater until they begin to thicken. Continue to add the boiling water, a tablespoon at a time, until well beaten in. Beat in the warm lemon juice. Remove bowl from over the boiling water; continue to beat and gradually add the melted margarine. Add cayenne and salt to taste. Keep in warm, hot place until ready to serve. Makes a cup of sauce.

For other taste-tempting recipes take today for your free copy of the two-color, 32-page recipe booklet, "Mealtime Magic," to National Cotton Council, Box 18, Memphis 1, Tenn.

It's good to read a newspaper from another part of the world, just as it's good to talk to people from other sections of the globe.

CURCULIO CONTROL
If an excess of lead arsenate has not been used in the peach orchard during the season, an application of dust containing 10 percent arsenate of lead and 90 percent hydrated lime will greatly decrease the curculio.

Effective Peach Spray
An application of 50 percent chlordane at the rate of two lbs. of the wettable powder per 100 gallons of water makes an effective post-harvest spray for curculio-infested Elberta peaches.

COMMUNITY PLAY NIGHT A SUCCESS; WATERMELON CUTTING IS PLANNED

If you are one of the unlucky ones who haven't joined the crowd that enjoys community playnight each Wednesday, you had better get in the groove. It is held, behind the Methodist Church, even when bad weather last week, more than 30 people enjoyed the badminton, dogball, miniature golf and volleyball, and the various assortments of games which are invariably played whenever a group of people get together.

This past Wednesday we decided to have an old fashioned watermelon cutting during our party.

Sylvania High School and is the son of Mr. Robert Bennett. His mother was, before her marriage, Miss Leona Crews, daughter of David L. Crews and Cynthia Bragg Crews.

His paternal grandparents are R. H. Bennett and Mary Cantelone Bennett. He has one sister and four brothers.

Mr. Bennett holds a position with the Alfred Dorman Warehouse in Sylvania.

The bride and groom are living in Sylvania with their parents.

Sandwiches and cookies were served with an ice course.

WEST SIDERS ORGANIZE OWN TEEN-AGE CLUB

The East Side teen agers have organized their own teen-age club and are looking forward to having their building moved into the community. They are making plans to do their share of work and decorating. As yet the teen-agers have not named their club and names will be submitted at the next meeting.

The junior boys and girls have organized their club and are now planning projects for recreation and for helping with the community projects. Dickie Marsh was elected Colonel, Colen Baron as Major, Dorothy Ray as Captain, Bobby Steptoe as Lieutenant, and Billy Steptoe and James McElveen as Sergeants. This club has more than thirty members and they had a good time last Patsy Odum, president, invites all teen-agers who are interested in joining the club to meet with them tomorrow night for an evening of fun. Dues are only 25 cents a month, and several new members join at each meeting. The club now has well over fifty members.

BURCH GRIFFIN sang at a wedding in Brunswick where I was matron of honor last Saturday. (Grace didn't get to go because their little girl was awfully sick with tonsillitis.) Burch can sing wedding songs that put you out of this world—makes you wish he had sung at your wedding!

ONE OF THE USHERS at the wedding is to get married in two weeks and told me he had a lot of friends here in Statesboro. It seems he was a Sigma Chi at Georgia—names Winebert Flexer.

WHEN CAROL JEAN CARTER, of Miami, visited Patty Banks a couple of weeks ago, the girls and their dates went horseback riding. They sighted what they thought was a melon patch and went over to investigate but, on closer inspection, Patty informed them that they were looking at a citron.

Carol Jean said, "Hey, Banks, I didn't know they grew citrus fruits in Georgia and I certainly never saw one growing on the ground!"

A PROMINENT BRUNETTE doesn't believe in giving low score prizes. She claims that every time she gets low, it is in the weekly headlines, and the few times she does win high, it never gets in the paper. It does seem that one who almost gets high should have some compensation.

THOSE TWO LITTLE RED-HEADS who have had the run of Zetterower for the past week are Rufus Cone and his visitor, Becky Bacon, of Mississippi. They were inseparable during her visit and now the whole street is missing them.

HAVE YOU SEEN Doc and Mrs. Paul Franklin riding 'round in that cute jeep? It's a picture.

WHEN THE LIONS CLUB needed a piano player here a while back, they called on Jaycee Horace McDougald to come over and tickle the ivories, and Horace went. That act is symbolic of the cooperation between our civic clubs that enables them to get so much good work done.

MARY AKINS never tires of showing off her lovely home. Just this week, some tobacco people stopped and asked if they could take a look—they have been wanting to see it ever since it started going up.

FOR JUDGE SUPERIOR COURT

To the Voters of Bulloch County: I wish to state that I am a candidate to succeed myself as judge of the superior courts of the Ogeechee Judicial Circuit, subject to the rules of the State Democratic primary recently announced to be held on September 8, 1948.

As you know, I am filling out the unexpired term of Judge T. J. Evans, deceased.

You never know what sort of a judge a man will make until you see him in action. For nearly three years you have had an opportunity to judge and appraise my service as a judge. I have tried to be considerate, fair and impartial in all matters that have come into my courts, and have also undertaken to conduct the courts as economically as possible.

Your vote and support will be appreciated.

Sincerely,
J. L. RENFROE.

FOR SOLICITOR GENERAL

I hereby announce my candidacy for the Office of Solicitor General of the Ogeechee Judicial Circuit of Georgia, comprising the counties of Effingham, Screven, Bulloch, and Jenkins.

I made the race for this office in 1940 and carried two of the four counties in the Circuit and made a good showing in the other two counties.

Effingham County has not had either a Judge or a Solicitor of the Superior Court since the creation of the Ogeechee Circuit. For this reason, I feel that my candidacy should be given consideration.

Through my years of experience as a practicing attorney, I feel I am qualified and capable of attending to the duties of this office, and I earnestly solicit your vote and will appreciate your support.

Sincerely,
J. L. RENFROE.

Hot? I Don't Care!

We bought cheesecake Saturday to keep mosquitoes away from Beth's bed and are wondering now if there is anything we can afford to buy that will keep heat from breaking out on her precious body—yes, and keep heat from bearing down and beating in and fairly melting all three of us. It comes in waves that engulf this apartment; it rises from concrete like a wrestler and all but throws and pins pedestrians; it pursues our jeep and gets ahead of it and is waiting to close in on us whenever we stop.

And Statesboro isn't the only place where thermometers have gone wild. An editorial in the Atlanta Journal said: "A minute ago on the walk these days would be burned to a crisp." And Enda Cain Daniels remarked in a recent column that walking in Savannah in Quidnam made him think of Mark Twain's spider which ran across a hot shovel. Scorching days, said Enda, turn one's thoughts to cooler climates.

And she is right.

I'm thinking now of ponds in Alaska, frozen to silver slabs and swept clean by brooms, so skaters could skim and dip and even pair off and waltz to music somebody made with a mouth organ. I think of snowy hills I've seen where my parents used to go bob-sledding—four passengers and one who sat in the front and steered. They say half the fun was in trudging up the incline laughing and joking, then standing about in heavy groups, waiting for another thrilling swoosh down a long hill and part way up a short one.

I try to imagine sleighing parties I've heard described: staid teams of horses pulling gay and sonorous groups of young folks in a wagon-bed mounted on steel runners. I can almost hear the old songs they sang as sleigh bells jingled and landscapes went by.

I earnestly ask your support and influence in my behalf and pledge to you my best efforts and service in return.

Sincerely,
A. S. DODD.

1948 Cotton Loan Program Set Up

Details of the Commodity Credit Corporation's loan program covering upland cotton produced in 1948 were released this week by Doris R. Cason, administrative officer of the Bulloch County Agricultural Conservation Association.

Under provisions of the program, the average loan rate for seven-eighths-inch middling cotton, gross weight, will be 28.75 cents per pound in Bulloch county, Mr. Cason said. This average loan rate is based on 92 1/2 percent of parity on August 1.

The average loan rate for fifteen - sixteenth-inch middling cotton will be 1.95 cents per pound higher, the administrative officer said. The average rate for Bulloch county will be 31.27 cents per pound.

Mr. Cason pointed out that the rate varies slightly in different areas of Georgia due to differences in freight rates to various mill areas.

Premiums and discounts for grade and staple in the 1948 loan program will be calculated in relation to the loan rate on fifteen - sixteenth-inch middling cotton, the administrative officer said.

Producers eligible to participate in the program, according to Mr. Mason, are those producing cotton in 1948 as a landowner, landlord, tenant and sharecropper. If the eligible cotton produced on a farm has been divided among the producers entitled to share in the cotton, each landlord, tenant and sharecropper may obtain a loan on his share. If the cotton has not been divided the landlord and one or more of the share tenants or sharecroppers may obtain a joint loan.

Loans will be made on cotton receipts issued by warehouses approved by the Commodity Credit Corporation. Cotton producers' notes will bear interest at the rate of three percent per annum and will mature July 31, 1949, but will be callable on demand. Loans will be available until May 1, 1949.

Loans will be made direct by the Commodity Credit Corporation or through lending agencies approved by the corporation. Mr. Cason said. A special form of loan agreement will be available to cotton cooperative marketing associations whereby the association may obtain a loan on cotton on which such associations have made loans to their producers.

The county agricultural conservation association committee will designate persons as clerks to assist producers in preparing and executing loan papers. Mr. Cason pointed out that the production credit associations chartered by the Farm Credit Administration, of banks and other agencies approved by the CCC as lending agencies, of warehouses approved for storage of loan cotton and county agricultural conservation association employees will be designated as clerks.

SMITH-TILLMAN MORTUARY INSTALLS OXYGEN OUTFIT IN NEW AMBULANCE
Jake Smith, of the Smith-Tillman Mortuary, announced this week that a complete oxygen outfit has been installed in their new ambulance to take care of emergencies while transporting people involved in accidents or in need of special treatment.

He stated that in ten years the nation would be needing 1,000,000 new teachers—that's "that's 100,000 a year." He then revealed that 3,000 teachers who taught last year in Georgia will not teach this year.

He quoted figures showing a great increase in the birth rate in the nation—from 2,000,000 new babies annually during the 1930s to 1940. "Then in 1940 the birth rate began climbing until last year 3,910,000 new babies were born."

He pointed out that it is obvious that our present buildings for education would not be adequate. He stated that the buildings are not now adequate. "Buildings in Statesboro and Bulloch county are in bad condition," he said.

Schools' Future Looks Very Dark

Zach Henderson, president of Georgia Teachers College, painted a dark picture for the future of education in Bulloch county, Statesboro, and Georgia in a talk to Statesboro Rotarians at their meeting on Monday of last week.

He told of the great difference in what schools now offer and what they offered ten and twenty years ago, stating that it is this indifference that is accounting for the greater cost in education today. "Today schools offer industrial arts—we have to have power tools; they offer home economics—we have to have stoves and refrigerators; they offer commercial courses—we have to have typewriters," he explained. "Four subjects were all that we were offered years ago, and we had to take them."

He stated that in ten years the nation would be needing 1,000,000 new teachers—that's "that's 100,000 a year." He then revealed that 3,000 teachers who taught last year in Georgia will not teach this year.

School days are just around the corner and summer is just about over. The two top teams, the Cardinals and the Bull Dogs, are playing this week to see who is going to hold the championship.

Warning Is Issued on Polio by Health Dept.
It is thought that the increase in polio in northern South Carolina and Georgia is due, in part, to spread from the highly epidemic areas of North Carolina. The Georgia State Department of Public Health has formulated the following policy:

1. All local health departments are advised to impose a "voluntary" quarantine as follows: (a) Citizens are discouraged from traveling in to North Carolina or northern South Carolina, or any area where people from these areas are likely to be; (b) all persons should submit to a voluntary two week's quarantine on their return from epidemic areas. (All North Carolina should be considered an epidemic area); (c) entrance to this area of visitors from polio areas, unless their business is essential, should be prohibited.

Rites Held For Jim Coleman Monday

The funeral of James F. (Jim) Coleman, 37-year-old advertising director of The Bulloch Herald and director of public relations for Acting Governor Thompson's campaign, was held Monday, August 16, at 1:30 p. m. at the First Baptist Church, Statesboro.

Mr. Coleman died Saturday night in a Dublin hospital as the result of injuries received Tuesday night, August 10, in an automobile accident near that city. The accident also claimed the life of H. W. Averitt Jr., of Millen, and resulted in serious injuries to Mr. Averitt's bride of two months, and to his father.

Following the funeral services at Statesboro, the body of Mr. Coleman was moved to Fayetteville, where burial was held at 8:30 Monday afternoon in the Fayetteville cemetery.

Mr. Coleman is survived by his wife, the former Miss Mary Dan Ingram, of Fayetteville; two daughters, Linda, 4 1/2 years old, and Mary Ellen, 7 months; his mother, Mrs. G. C. Coleman Sr.; and two brothers, Leode Coleman and G. C. Coleman Jr., both of Statesboro.

Dr. C. M. Colson, of Jacksonville, Fla., and Elder R. H. Kennedy, of Reidsville, conducted the service. Pallbearers were R. J. Kennedy, Bealy Smith (of Atlanta), the Minkovitz, Nath Holliman, Sam Strauss, and W. A. Bowen. Smith-Tillman Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Coleman was a veteran of World War II, serving as public relations officer for the Army Air Force. He was discharged with the rank of lieutenant colonel. He and his brothers closed The Bulloch Herald for the duration of the war and reopened it in 1946 after being discharged from the service.

In Atlanta, Acting Governor Thompson issued the following statement: "I am profoundly grieved by the death of my friend, Jim Coleman."

"The tragedy near Dublin last Tuesday night had already claimed the life of another of my friends, Mr. H. W. Averitt Jr., and I am doubly shocked that the injuries from that accident have proven fatal to Mr. Coleman."

"Mr. Coleman was an outstanding young Georgian, a brilliant editor and distinguished citizen. The field of journalism and the entire State as well has suffered a great loss which I feel deeply—officially and personally."

Governor Thompson, together with Mr. "Tiny" Groves, his aide, attended the funeral services here.

An incomplete list of out-of-town people who attended the funeral of James F. Coleman here Monday afternoon includes: Governor M. E. Thompson, "Tiny" Groves, Elliot Hagan and George Goodwin, of Atlanta; Miss Alma Gladwin, McIntyre; Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Fordham, Metter; Dekle Goff, Savannah; Ed Kennedy, Rockingham, N. C.; Bealy Smith, Atlanta; Edwin Beasley, Charleston, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Powell, of Silver Springs, Md.; Mrs. Cleon
