THE BULLOCH HERALD

DEDICATED TO THE PROGRESS OF STATESBORO AND BULLOCH COUNTY

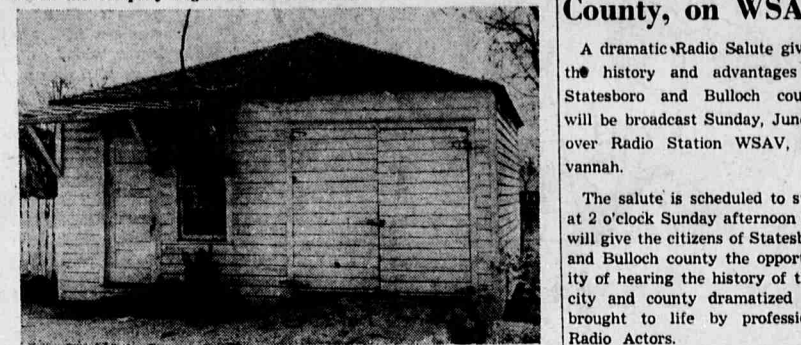

Statesboro, Georgia, Thursday, June 2, 1949

VOLUME IX

NUMBER 28

PROGRESS—Above is shown the structure which houses the Denmark Candy Company today. Below appears the small building in which the company began business in 1939.

Salute to City, County, on WSAV

A dramatic Radio Salute giving the history and advantages of Statesboro and Bulloch county will be broadcast Sunday, June 5, over Radio Station WSAV, Savannah.

The salute is scheduled to start at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon and will give the citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county the opportunity of hearing the history of their city and county dramatized and brought to life by professional Radio Actors.

The program is the result of many weeks of research carried on by Carson Demmond, public service director of WSAV, in cooperation with some of the leading citizens of Statesboro and Bulloch county, and will dramatize the history of this section from the founding of Bulloch county through the present.

Several prominent local citizens will be heard on the broadcast, including Mr. Walter Aldred, president of the Chamber of Commerce; Mr. Buford Knight, president of the Jaycees, and Mayor J. Gilbert Cone.

Mr. Byron Dyer, chairman of the Statesboro and Bulloch County Salute Committee, stated that he hoped all citizens who could would listen to this dramatic Salute to their County and City to be broadcast Sunday, June 5, from 2 to 2:30, over WSAV, Savannah, 630 on the radio dial.

The Statesboro Lions Club recently initiated Albert Green, Dr. E. B. Stubbs, and Percy Hutto into their organization.

At the meeting, Mrs. Dottie Hargrove, chairman of the Bulloch Herald, announced the club with the idea of a "Come Wag-on Service," operated in Waycross. Hargrove pointed out the advantages of such a service for newcomers to Statesboro. She had previously written in her column in the Herald of the service.

Howard Christian, M. E. Alderman, and Sidney Lanier were appointed to study the possibilities of the 1949 horse show.

Captain Frank Williams for the fine job the patrol did in promoting safety in the school.

Another traffic check made on the streets of Statesboro on Tuesday afternoon of this week, between 4:15 and 5:15 p.m., reveals that pedestrians and auto drivers have not improved their attitude toward traffic safety since a similar check was made here on May 3.

A college professor violated a traffic light and crossed the main street at Minkovitz department store against a green light, while two college students had a friendly chat in the middle of the street.

A local police officer crossed the main street against the traffic light in the middle of the block for a friendly chat with a friend on the other side.

These were two of the 416 traffic violations that occurred in the hour check at the traffic light is observed from H. Minkovitz Department Store.

Jim Jones Is First In New Swimming Pool

Jim Jones led the parade! There followed him in fast succession more than 175 kids, who, some of whom had been standing by for more than 10 years waiting for this day.

For it was yesterday afternoon that the new swimming pool in Memorial Park was opened.

Before Jimmy Jones hit the water, Mayor J. Gilbert Cone, in a brief dedication, reviewed the long history of the swimming pool, beginning with the day the Dorman pool on Hill street was filled up until the final touch was put on the new pool.

Following his dedication he presented Allen Lanier, chairman of the city recreation board, with the keys to the new pool.

Mr. Lanier accepted the keys and wished for every kid in the county "happy swimming." He read the rules of the pool and asked the cooperation of the young people in keeping the pool as beautiful as it now is.

Before the ceremonies, a diving and swimming exhibition was presented by Sue Hagins, Jack Upchurch, Hazel Nevils, Jo Ellis, Guyton, and Nancy Mercer of Canulla.

Buford Knight, president of the Statesboro Junior Chamber of Commerce, was master of ceremonies, and presented Mayor Cone to the crowd.

We sat next to Mamie at a party and enjoyed the most obvious pleasure she derived from fancy sandwiches, never refusing a second or third helping. Her delight in food was evident. We remembered the letter that described the ecstasy of a Christmas Day feast of canned pork sausage, buckwheat pancake mix, and syrup that Liz Smith had sent her from her dwelling on the coast shortly during the bitterest winter the tight little Isles had endured and we understood why she said, "No one will hear me complain of heat, no matter how high the thermometer soars." She had been cold too long.

Saturday evening at Bessie Tift College, Forsyth, which last week celebrated its Centennial, Mrs. Porritt faced a packed auditorium and held students and alumni spellbound as she spoke on the Bobby Newton pitched a no-hit game for the Gold Bricks Senior Baseball League's opener here, and defeated the Dynamites 6 to 2.

With tight support in the infield young Newton sparked the fast Gold Bricks to their first victory. He walked three men.

Frank Williams was the man with the "big stick" for the Gold Bricks, with an average of .666.

The Dynamites snapped back on Thursday of last week to hand the Cobras a 5 to 3 whipping. Swickard hurled the Dynamites to their win. Bobby Stubbs handled the mound for the Cobras.

JUNIOR LEAGUE BOYS WHIP METTER
In a merry-go-round game last Saturday in Metter the Statesboro All Stars defeated Metter 20 to 6. Metter tried pitcher after pitcher to stem the heavy swinging of the Statesboro All Stars.

BULLDOGS STILL IN FIRST
The Bulldogs racked up another win as Bill Fountain turned in a shut-out game against the Red Caps giving up only one hit to Al DeLoach.

MRS.

'Hole in the Ground' Is Full Now

SPLASH!

Last one in is a rotten egg.

Splash!

Let's play 'gator'!

Hey Butch, watch this!

Splash!

And so Memorial Park Swimming Pool is opened.

And Statesboro now takes her place among the communities of the state which are doing great good for their youth.

The completion and opening of the swimming pool marks the end of an era for many in Statesboro—city clubs, individuals, successive city administrations.

The completion and opening of the swimming pool marks the end of an era for many in Statesboro—city clubs, individuals, successive city administrations.

For more than ten years we have carried a editorial page which we designated as "The Hole in the Ground." We vowed that it should stay there until the pool should be completed—a constant reminder of the need of a pool for the young people of this community.

This week the space is filled.

The swimming pool is completed and open.

We are happy over it.

We know others who are happy.

There's the people, who, all during the war years, solicited and collected funds which were put away, awaiting the time when work should begin.

There are the members of civic clubs who have been hearing "swimming pool" for many years.

There are the members of the Junior Chamber.

And SO you have your swimming pool.

Now stop and think.

With your acceptance of the swimming pool from the people of your community you must admit a new responsibility.

The pool is yours.

You're for pleasure and health.

You must use it with discretion.

You will turn out, in scores, these hot summer days and nights. There will, at times, be more than 200 in the pool at one time.

The city recreation department is providing you with experienced and trained life guards who will be constantly on the lookout for your safety. But it's going to be hard for just two people to keep an eye on all of you.

And therein lies your responsibility.

Observe all the safety precautions recommended by the recreation director.

Observe the ordinary rules of courtesy while in and around the pool.

There will always be someone smaller than you around, in the water, on the diving boards, on the edge of the pool, on the terrace, in the dressing rooms—look out for them. Help them. For, after all, the pool belongs just as much to them as to you.

Don't stay in the water too long. If you should go home all "red-eyed" and "blue" from staying in the pool too long you jeopardize your chances of being allowed to go as often as you wish.

The hours of the pool are fixed. Observe these hours. Do not expect to be allowed to go in of Commerce who staged "P" day last year when a large sum of money was raised in a one-day effort.

There are the parents who have been listening to their children ask for years, "When are they going to build the swimming pool?"

There are the successive city councils which have felt the pressure exerted by the mere knowledge that the youth of our community did not have a swimming pool.

There is the city engineer, James Bland, who, as much as anybody, has felt the constant pressure of getting the pool finished on a minimum of funds.

There are the hundreds of kids, who, for all these years, have felt the lack of a safe place to go swimming... a safe place to play "gator"... a "swimming hole" where parents could know their youngsters would be carefully watched by life guards... a place where mother could know her child's health was being protected by modern filtering systems...

All these now are now happy.

For the swimming pool is now open.

Statesboro now has one of the best pools in the state. Persistence, determination, careful planning, careful spending, cooperation has given us a pool for approximately $35,000, which, under any circumstance, would have cost as much as $60,000.

Our youth can be proud of it.

With its completion and opening, the city's recreation, under the direction of Max Lockwood, is becoming more and more rounded out.

The Herald commends the community—every person who played a part in the completion of our swimming pool.

Our youth can be proud of it.

Our youth will be better citizens because of it.

A New Responsibility

AND SO you have your swimming pool.

Now stop and think.

With your acceptance of the swimming pool from the people of your community you must admit a new responsibility.

The pool is yours.

You're for pleasure and health.

You must use it with discretion.

You will turn out, in scores, these hot summer days and nights. There will, at times, be more than 200 in the pool at one time.

The city recreation department is providing you with experienced and trained life guards who will be constantly on the lookout for your safety. But it's going to be hard for just two people to keep an eye on all of you.

And therein lies your responsibility.

Observe all the safety precautions recommended by the recreation director.

Observe the ordinary rules of courtesy while in and around the pool.

There will always be someone smaller than you around, in the water, on the diving boards, on the edge of the pool, on the terrace, in the dressing rooms—look out for them. Help them. For, after all, the pool belongs just as much to them as to you.

Don't stay in the water too long. If you should go home all "red-eyed" and "blue" from staying in the pool too long you jeopardize your chances of being allowed to go as often as you wish.

The hours of the pool are fixed. Observe these hours. Do not expect to be allowed to go in the pool before it opens, or after it is closed. It's dangerous to do so.

The new swimming pool is one of the best in the state.

W. D. Lundquist, County Commissioner of Health, assures the parents of this community that the pool is "safe" for the health of the community's children who use it.

He says, "Water can be dangerous in that many varieties of disease germs can thrive in it, especially human disease bacteria. Any public swimming pool, or contaminated stream or river will have such germs unless precautions are taken to rid the water of these dangerous bacteria."

"Precautions have been taken for this pool with the use of a filtering system. Powerful pumps force the water through a series of three huge filters. These filters not only remove visible dirt from the water, but also the invisible or microscopic particles. The filters are capable of removing 98 to 99 per cent of all germs which might cause disease. In addition to these precautions, chlorine will be injected into the water in the correct proportions to provide complete disinfection action against bacteria."

The Statesboro pool is actually second to none in Georgia, or the U. S., insofar as health protection is concerned. There are very few such engineered pools in Georgia."

And there you are.

With the filters, combined with the chlorination of the water, your swimming pool is clean and healthy.

Keep it clean, and safe.

Good Swimming.

Congratulations to You, Paul

THIS WEEK we toss our hats high over the accomplishment of young Paul Womack, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Womack.

Congratulations, Paul.

We congratulated you last week when you were declared winner of the First District Teen-age "Roadie" in Swainsboro and were acclaimed one of the best teen-age drivers in this section. You then went on to Atlanta where, last Saturday, you stacked your driving up against the driving of a group of other district winners... and you won.

You performed difficult feats in the operation of an automobile. You proved yourself an able and skilled automobile driver.

You proved that you can handle a high powered vehicle with ease and understanding.

You demonstrated that you are a good driver.

And now you must understand that you have become a sort of example for the young people in this community, as well as in Georgia.

You are a marked young man.

You will be watched.

Your elders will point you out as you drive along the streets of your home town and the highways of your home county.

Your teen-age friends will admire you as you drive your new Ford.

What you do will be done by your friends.

For you are not one of the best young drivers in the state?

You'll not be able to drive your car with the casual abandon characteristic of many youths.

You will be expected to observe all the rules and regulations which you observed in your "Roadie."

You will be expected to be just as careful every day you drive as you were in winning your "Roadie."

You have been handed a torch.

You are now a symbol.

Do not treat it lightly.

You can exert a tremendous influence on the youthful drivers of our community. Use that influence with understanding and intelligence.

And always remember—you are a good driver.

For did you you not win the new Ford you now drive to prove it?

The reputation of a man is like his shadow—gigantic when it precedes him, and pygmy in its proportions when it follows.—Talleyrand.

The individual and the race are always moving, and as we drift into new latitudes new lights open in the heaven more immediately over us.—Chapin.

The pride of the heart is the attribute of honest men; pride of manners is that of fools; the pride of birth and rank is often the pride of dupes.—Duclos.

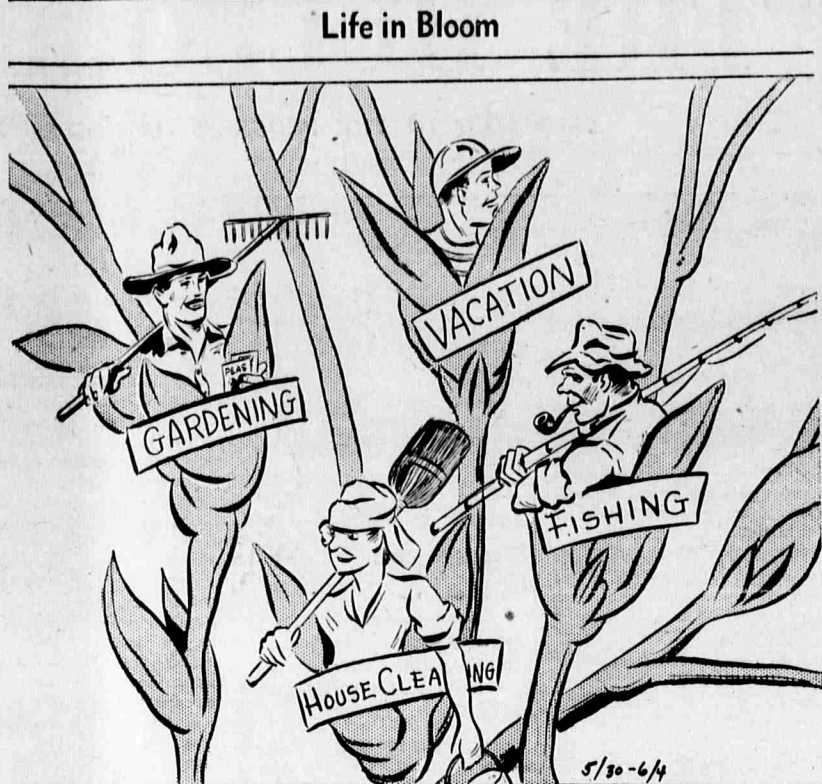

The three states of the caterpillar, larva, and butterfly, have, since the time of the Greek poets, been applied to typify the human being—its terrestrial form, apparent death, and ultimate celestial destination.—Sir H. Davy.

If there were no falsehood in the world, there would be no doubt; if there were no doubt, there would be no inquiry; if no inquiry, no wisdom, no knowledge, no genius.—Lander.

A Verse for This Week

THY beauty, O my Father! All is Thine;
But there is beauty in Thyself, from whence
The beauty Thou hast made doth ever flow
In streams of never-failing affluence.

Thou art the Temple! And though I am lame—
Lame from my birth, and shall be 'till I die—
I enter through the Gate called Beautiful,
And am alone with Thee, O Thou Most High.
—J. W. Chadwick.

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

Bulloch county has a strong attraction for its own.

Every once in a while one of its native sons, who has gone out into the world to make his mark, feels that attraction and make his way "back home."

Recently Henry E. Clifton, of RFD 2, returned to his home and is going into business for himself.

Back in 1935 he went off to the University of Georgia at Athens. He graduated in 1939 and feeling the wanderlust that hits all young people he drifted into the East.

While at the University he bought a $150 "Brownie" box camera and found himself bitten by the camera bug. He turned his "disease" into a profitable business.

He wound up in Boston in 1939 where he went into the photographer business seriously. He was there until 1943. From there he moved into Williamsport, Pa., he ever took was one of Johnny where he set up shop under the name of "Clifton Studio" and did every sort of photography there is... weddings, animals, news, sports, portraits. He won prizes for news photos... he shot pictures that were given nation-wide distribution. He says the best shot Groth, baseball player for the Detroit Tigers. At that time Groth was playing with the Williamsport Tigers. The photo was of the famous rookie sliding into third base. "It had everything," he said. "There was the ball on the player, there was the baseman, the umpire, the runner... all."

And now with 10 years experience he answers the call of Bulloch county and is now about to open a photo finishing shop and portrait studio on East Main street.

Already, his pictures are in the daily papers. Some of his pictures of the Tomato Festival were in the papers last week.

This week's The George-Anne, college publication, had a full page of action pictures he made during May Day festivities at the college.

Statesboro is 'always glad to have its young people return... it makes for a better community."

This Is Your County

This is another in the series of articles written on facts compiled in an industrial survey of Bulloch county made last year by the Georgia Power Company. In our May 9 issue we discussed several suggestions of enterprises that could be successful here, including a pre-packaging and branding plant. This week we add "gift packaging."

Close akin to grocery store packaging, gift packaging leads to profitable merchandising.

The industrial engineer who analyzed the survey of our county writes, "I never pass through Harlem, Georgia, without picking up some of the very attractive boxes of whole pecan meats that are put there and in Montezuma. The McKenzie Farm Specialties, Inc., has an attractive plant from which there emit all sorts of gift boxes wherein, in Spanish Moss, one may find packed such delicacies as peach preserves, sweet pickles, watermelon rind pickle, strawberry preserves, vegetable relish, artichoke relish or pickles, whole pecan meats, etc. You could readily add honey to such a list.

"For the future, if pre-packaging or gift packaging is instituted, the production of suitable containers may be justified, and a new manufacture arises.

"Still further, in connection with a Farmers Market, there might be provided versatile facilities for dehydration of all sorts of food or feed stuffs, even such a dairy product as a pecan-potato product might facilitate profitable marketing.

"A creamery too, might function as an adjunct, if dairy farming is stepped up.

"In lieu of a creamery a dairy products manufacturing plant could be organized.

"Such a plant, however, requires cheaply produced milk, and milk can be produced at low cost only boxes wherein, in Spanish Moss, one may find packed such delicacies as peach preserves, sweet pickles, watermelon rind pickle, strawberry preserves, vegetable relish, artichoke relish or pickles, whole pecan meats, etc. You could readily add honey to such a list.

"Such a plant, however, requires cheaply produced milk, and milk can be produced at low cost only boxes wherein, in Spanish Moss, one may find packed such delicacies as peach preserves, sweet pickles, watermelon rind pickle, strawberry preserves, vegetable relish, artichoke relish or pickles, whole pecan meats, etc. You could readily add honey to such a list.

"For the future, if pre-packaging or gift packaging is instituted, the production of suitable containers may be justified, and a new manufacture arises.

"Still further, in connection with a Farmers Market, there might be provided versatile facilities for dehydration of all sorts of food or feed stuffs, even such a dairy product as a pecan-potato product might facilitate profitable marketing.

"A creamery too, might function as an adjunct, if dairy farming is stepped up.

"In lieu of a creamery a dairy products manufacturing plant could be organized.

Then there's been the Veterans' Wives Club, the Association of University Women, the Junior Women's Club. And there's been the wonderful opportunity of writing weekly columns for The Bulloch Herald. Nobody knows what an inspiration it is for a G.I. student's wife to be in connection with a newspaper. The glory of knowing that you have an outlet for your ideas—bright and otherwise—and the satisfaction of going down to the newspaper office and picking up a nice little monthly check—oh, it's been lovely!

Maybe you don't know it, but some small-town weeklies won't pay a dime for any material except Society News and Personals. So my hat has long been off to Leodel Coleman, who never has assumed that a gracious word of appreciation could compensate a woman for pages of column material. Leodel has paid me for my work, and the money, which I religiously saved is now going into equipment that will help to establish us in the home we intend to furnish at Waycross.

A hundred good faces come to mind when I stop to think of the individuals who went out of their way to be nice to us. It is folly to start naming names, but fools do rush in where angels fear to tread, and I'm tempted to start rattling off the list of Good Samaritans who gave us more than even breaks. But I'm resisting the temptation. You know who you are, and I know that you know, so we'll let it go at that.

Statesboro and Collegeboro will always have a snug, warm place in our hearts. Thanks for everything!

Mail Schedule Is Improved From Savannah Here

Arthur Turner, postmaster of the Statesboro post office, this week announces a change in the mail schedule of the Highway Post Office from Savannah to Statesboro.

According to Mr. Turner the revised schedule provides for the mail bus to leave Savannah at 3:15 instead of 6 p.m., and will reach Statesboro at 5:15 instead of 8 p.m.

This change permits mail received at the Savannah post office by mid-afternoon to reach Statesboro for box delivery the same business day. It also provides for improved connections through Macon for mail going to South Georgia and Florida points.

Post office authorities believe that this change in schedule will operate to the benefit of the mailing public of the Statesboro post office.

Swimming Lessons Are Offered at Pool

Max Lockwood, director of recreation of the city department of recreation, puts it this way, "If you are over eight and under 80 and are interested in learning to swim, now is your chance."

That is his way of announcing that the department of recreation now is teaching swimming.

All adults who are interested may join a swimming class by reporting to the swimming pool on Mondays, Wednesdays, or Fridays, from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Only beginning swimmers will be taken in the adult class. All youth will be given swimming instruction from 10 to 11 a.m., along with the intermediates. Advanced swimmers will be given instruction from 11 to 12 noon each day, Monday through Friday. All students will report to class dressed for swimming. Be on time.

All members of the advanced class will be given an opportunity to earn a Red Cross Saving certificate.

This instruction is a part of the recreation program and is given at no cost to the individual.

Judge Renfro Attends Reunion of '00 Class

By JANE

Judge J. L. Renfro left Statesboro last Friday for Atlanta and Emory University.

It was the first time that he had attended a class reunion since he graduated from Emory (at Oxford) in 1900. In his class of 47, there were 17 present. They came from Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Tampa, and places throughout Georgia. There were lawyers, business men, government workers, and some who had retired, representing the class of 1900. On Saturday Alben Barkley, vice-president of the United States, reached Atlanta by plane and met with the group to Oxford where they were greeted by approximately 500 people. The Judge said politicians would have estimated the crowd at about 2,500. Alben Barkley gave a brief address at Oxford and was the speaker at commencement exercises at Emory University at which time a L.L.D. degree was conferred upon him.

VBS To Graduate 168 At Baptist Church

Rev. George Lovell, pastor of the church, acting as principal for the school, states that enrollment is numbered 168.

An exhibit of notebooks and handicrafts will be displayed and friends and parents of the children are invited to attend.
