"BLUE BABY"

a good farmer. So he pushes ahead. His wife works hard— from early morning until late at night.

Along comes Barbara June. But Barbara June isn't normal. She is now almost three years old, yet she only weighs 22 pounds. Her heart was formed so that enough oxygen from the air can't get into her blood stream through her lungs. The Smiths were told that there were only two doctors in the world who might help her—and they are both in Baltimore. That's a long way. But Josh Smith Jr. and his wife took Barbara June to Baltimore when she was a year old. The doctors said, "Yes, she is a 'blue baby'." But for check-ups at least three additional weeks. Her mother will stay with her. Josh has to patch his crop. There will be travel expenses and medicine and clothes. A thousand things you and I don't know about.

In view of all this the Herald is establishing a "Barbara June Fund." Two outstanding men of this city have volunteered to take charge of handling the contributions. They are W. G. Cobb of the Bullock County Bank and Kermit Carr of the Sea Island. You know them both.

Checks should be made payable to "The Barbara June Fund" and delivered to either of the above men. Your contribution, whether it be large or small, is urgently needed. This is not something that can be put off.

We believe a goal of $1,500 is what should be set. We feel that this amount will be sufficient. We are counting on the people of Bullock County. We are counting on you. Barbara June is counting on you.

Don't let her down. Take, send, or mail your contribution, in cash or by check, to either bank. The success of this important campaign depends on you. Don't put it off.

In her statement she said: "To all Red Cross workers—Let's get behind the movement. We have done it before, we can do it again. With only one day's work we have signed up 96 donors. The drive can be completely successful by pulling together. Let's give a part of our blood that others might live."

The new director of the Statesboro high school band attended Georgia Teachers, Mercer University, and did special work at Auburn and at the University, serving as faculty member at summer music camps at Auburn and the University of Georgia.

Mr. McLendon says: "Although the accomplishments of the Waycross band are in some respects outstanding, I see no reason why we can't do even more here. Statesboro is widely known as a town which appreciates and supports its band."

Superintendent Sherman in announcing Mr. McLendon's appointment, said: "We are fortunate in securing Mr. McLendon and we are confident that our instrumental program will go forward under his direction. We seek the cooperation and support of all those interested in the program and the success of the Statesboro High School Band."

Mr. and Mrs. McLendon and children, Guy, Felicia, and Roger, have moved here and expect to move into their new home which they are building on Donaldson street at Mill street.

Bloodmobile To Be Here To Collect For Blood Bank
When the Red Cross Bloodmobile pays its first visit to Statesboro and Bullock county next month, the volunteer services of women throughout the county will be indispensable as blood donors arrive at the Statesboro Recreation Center to fulfill pledges.

All kinds of help will be needed—women willing to drive donors to and from the blood center; ladies to greet the donors with a smile; typists and clerical workers to help with the record cards; registered nurses and Red Cross nurses' aides to assist the doctor and his staff; and hostesses to serve the donor a nourishing drink.

Edwin Banks Hurt In Tractor [Mishap]
Edwin Banks, of RFD 4, Statesboro, is in the Bulloch County Hospital with serious injuries resulting from an accident involving a small "crawler-type" tractor.

Sunday of last week Mr. Banks was showing a friend, Miles Frank Deal, a small new "crawler-type" tractor, which was in reverse gear at the time he pushed the starter button. The tractor began moving backward. He jumped upon the tractor to stop it and became over-balanced and fell in the tracks of the tractor which pulled him under the fender. The force of the pull tore his right leg severely.

He was rushed immediately to the Bulloch County Hospital, where he was given four blood transfusions and additional blood plasma.

He suffered intensely Tuesday night. Wednesday morning he was resting "fairly well."

The accident happened at the home of Mr. David C. Banks.

Doctors to Operate On Barbara June Sept. 7

"Of all the sights which can soften and humanize the heart of men, there is none that ought so surely to reach it as that of innocent children, enjoying the happiness which is their proper and natural portion"—SOUTHEY.

The hearts of the people of Statesboro, Bulloch county, and southeast Georgia turned to little three-year-old "Blue Baby" Barbara June, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josh Smith Jr.

Following the story of Barbara June in last week's Herald people of this section, on Wednesday afternoon, had contributed $863 to the "Barbara June Fund."

And Wednesday morning of this week Mr. Smith told the editor of the Herald that Barbara June's doctor notified him that the doctors at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore will operate on Barbara June on Thursday, September 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Barbara June will leave Statesboro Monday morning, September 5, and will drive to Baltimore.

An unknown contributor wrote: "I say a prayer each night that God will let the goal be reached and the child be made well."

When told of the generosity of the people of this community, young John Smith and his wife, Barbara June's father and mother, fought through tears and trembling lips to say, "Thank everybody for us."

Mr. W. G. Cobb, at the Bullock County Bank, and Mrs. Kermit R. Carr, at the Sea Island Bank, will continue accepting contributions through Saturday at this week. Anyone wishing to make a contribution afterwards, however, may send or give them to Mr. Cobb or Mr. Carr.

WEDNESDAY NOON, County Policemen Edgar Hart and Mose Sowell were still looking for Ed Cannon, Negro, who escaped Monday from the bridge crew, which was working on Kennedy bridge on the edge of the Bulloch-Candler county line. Conner had served four years at the county work camp on a 40-year sentence for armed robbery.

THE REGULAR MEETING of the WMU of the Union Baptist Church in the Sinkhole District held its regular monthly meeting at the church on August 24. Twelve were present. Mrs. Onell Rushing and Mrs. Miles Moody served refreshments. The WMU regular meetings are held on Wednesday afternoon after each third Sunday. New members are welcomed.

At the last meeting of the board of recreation Mrs. W. A. Bowen was named secretary of the board to succeed Mrs. William Kish. Mrs. Kish served as secretary of the board for the first year, term expiring the first of June.

Do It NOW!

"I'M GOING TO GIVE something to help Barbara June," you say to yourself. And you go on about your housework . . . or you go about your business at your store or shop or office—and it slips your mind. And you think about it again at the dinner table when something is said about "Wonder how the Barbara June Fund is coming along?" It's so easy to let such things slip one's mind. The pressure of daily routines just does not let you get around to doing something you really want to do.

Here is an opportunity to do something for a suffering human being . . . it's not remote like your Red Cross contribution . . . It's right here in your own community. It's people you know and see. The suffering is before you. And the need is urgent.

Do it now.

Send your check to: A. J. Cobb at the Bulloch County Bank or to Kenneth R. Carr at the Sea Island Bank. Make it payable to the "BARBARA JUNE FUND."

You know and we know that a glow of personal satisfaction will follow—the feeling that you have done a little bit of real good for which you must know there will be some reward.

New Status for Jay-Walkers

A RULING handed down by Traffic Judge Luke Arnold, of Atlanta, last week says that pedestrians crossing streets at any place other than officially designated crosswalks assume liability for accidents.

The judge dismissed charges of reckless driving and accident and leaving the scene of an accident against J. M. Turner, 24-year-old sailor of Atlanta.

He imposed fines of $12 each, suspended against Miss Barbara West and Angel Chauhan, both of Atlanta, on charges of jay-walking accident.

Testimony indicated that Miss West and Miss Chauhan were crossing Peachtree street about 100 feet from the intersection of Fifth street. An automobile traveling on Peachtree struck both, inflicting injuries.

In his ruling Arnold said that both Miss West and Chauhan were cross the street illegally when struck.

We do not know what the attitude of our own mayor and judges are regarding such an accident.

But Section 74 (c) of the City Traffic Code says, "Every pedestrian crossing a roadway at any point other than within a marked crosswalk at an intersection, shall yield the right-of-way to all vehicles upon the street."

Section 74 (c) says, "Between adjacent intersections at which traffic control signals are in operation, pedestrians shall not cross at any place except in a marked crosswalk."

Section 76 sets the maximum fine at $200 or confinement on the streets of Statesboro for not more than 90 days or both in the discretion of the Mayor.

In a traffic check here on May 3 of this year, observers recorded 465 pedestrians violating the city traffic code during a two-hour period when they "jay-walked between the post office and the traffic light."

Judge Arnold's ruling should put all pedestrians, not only in Atlanta but in Statesboro as well, on notice.

Sooner or later it can happen to you and you will find yourself an injured party charged with violating the law—"jay-walking."

Stock-Taking Time

BY ORDER of Superior Court Judge J. L. Renfro, the "Green Frog" is now closed.

We commend the Judge's action.

His closing order should put on notice such other places that may be causing neighbors and citizens to talk thus giving them "bad reputations."

Gathering places on edge of town, at crossroads, and community centers, can easily become places where "disturbances are created" necessitating the calling of the "law."

It is only by constant vigilance of the operators of such places that they may continue their business with a "good reputation."

A place attracts only the type of customers it wishes.

If a drunken, boisterous, rip-roaring type of trade is allowed the business quickly falls to just that level.

But if a place wishes to earn and keep the good will of the neighbors and citizens in the community then the operators must make it understood that drunkards, rioters, and rip-roarers are not wanted, and will not be tolerated.

With Judge Renfro's closing order fresh in mind, it's a good time for such other places to begin taking "stock."

To Keep the Pot Boiling

IF YOU are a veteran of World War II and at any time held a National Service Life Insurance contract for a period of ninety days or more, you are now entitled to a share of the multi-billion dollar insurance dividend to be distributed by the Veterans Administration.

It makes no difference whether your contract has lapsed or is still in effect, just at one time it was effective for at least ninety days. The refund will be paid on all kind of National Life Insurance contracts, on terms or converted insurance.

"Applications for Special Dividend" forms are now available and may be obtained from Veterans Administration offices, post offices, and veterans service organizations.

But don't become impatient about your dividend. Do not write your Congressman to try to hurry your check.

Do not write the Washington Central office or any Veterans Administration office for these forms or for information about your expected check.

You just secure a dividend form, fill it out, place a one-cent stamp on it, and drop it in any mail box or post office. It's already addressed for you.

Then come January 1, 1950, you may begin to expect your check. However, it will be at least June 30, 1950, before all the checks will be released.

If you are a beneficiary of a deceased veteran who held a NSLI contract you will receive your dividend without making an application. This dividend is payable only to those veterans who had service on or after October 8, 1940, and who kept his contract in force for at least three months.

And for the benefit of the taxpayer—this is not a part of your tax money. This is just a refund of the surplus dividends paid by the veterans who held this so-called "GI Insurance."

Meeting the Future

MORE AND more Bulloch counties are turning to pure bred livestock.

Last week twenty-five of our farm owners purchased 31 purebred Spotted China hogs to add to their herds. This brings the number of purebred hogs purchased by Bulloch county farmers to 105 during August.

This means that in a few years the county will be producing the best hogs in its history. Progressive farmers are realizing that "row crops" are becoming more and more controlled by allotments and that to maintain a steady income they must include livestock in their farm program.

And one way to meet the future is to work in the present with the best you can get.

It's A Healthy Arrangement

STATESBORO BUSINESSMEN are recognizing that the progress of their city depends on the progress of their country neighbors.

They also realize that the future of our country is in the hands of its farm youth.

With this in mind and with a sincere desire to promote goodwill between city and country, members of the Chamber of Commerce are acting as "Buddy Advisors" to members of the 4-H Club.

With the cooperation of the Statesboro Production Credit Association, thirty 4-H Club boys have purchased purebred pigs.

Each of thirty members of the Chamber of Commerce has selected one of these 4-H Club boys to be his "Buddy-Advisor."

During the year the businessman and the 4-H Club boy will get together as many times as they can. The businessman will visit the boy to see how he and his pig are getting along. He will, if he can, help the boy in matters pertaining to business.

We think it an excellent idea.

And we believe that the businessman is going to get more out of the association than the other way 'round.

It's a healthy arrangement—for the county and for the city.

The heart that is soonest awake to the flower is always the first to be touched by the thorns.

Feelings come and go like light troops following the victory of the present but principles, like troops of the line, are undisturbed and stand fast.

Some people carry their hearts in their heads; very many carry their heads in their hearts. The difficulty is to keep them apart, and yet both actively working together.

If the best man's faults were written on his forehead, he would draw his hat over his eyes.

The happy never say, and never hear said, farewell.

Live for something! Do good and leave behind you a monument of virtue that the storm of time can never destroy.

Write your name in kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of the thousands you come in contact with, year by year and you will never be forgotten. Your name, your deeds, will be as legible on the hearts you leave behind, as the stars on the brow of evening. Good deeds will shine as the stars of heaven—Chalmers.

A Verse for This Week

ON THY compassion I repose
In weakness and distress;
I will not ask for greater ease,
Lest I should lose Thee less;
Oh, Thine a blessed thing for me
To needy Thy tenderness.

The Doubtful Traveler

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

WELL BET his face is red. Tucked away in an inside page of Friday morning's Morning News is the following story:

BARTOW, Fla., Aug. 25—When the man asked to see Mr. Evans about getting a job as school principal, employees of the Polk county school board office today looked blank.

There is no Mr. Evans in the county school office, and no principalship open in this section of the state.

But the man insisted that Mr. Evans had talked to him on the phone last night and told him to come to Bartow for an interview.

"Where did you come from?" he was asked by Mrs. R. L. Hughes Jr., a member of the county staff.

"Could it possibly be," she inquired, "that Mr. Evans is in Bartow, Ga., which is about 60 miles from Statesboro?"

The visitor nearly collapsed. A phone call to a local resident who is familiar with that section of Georgia, confirmed that Bartow, Ga., is in a neighboring county to Statesboro, and that there is a prominent family there by the name of Evans.

The visitor drooped in every muscle, walked out of the school board office, presumably to start the 400-mile drive back to the other Bartow.

Mrs. Hughes declined to give his name to reporters.

Say "powdered eggs" to a veteran of World War II and he'll start tearing his hair.

He Wants More Patience

(Frank Miller in The Pembroke Journal).

During the past week we received a letter from our Congressman, Prince Preston, who added a postscript which read as follows: "You have had enough accidents, I want you to be seen in the company of your pastor more often in the future."

Shortly after receiving this letter, our pastor, Rev. John R. Joyner, called to thank us for the article last week in which we urged all church members and the public in general to turn out for the services at the Baptist Church Sunday, as he had returned from his vacation and he urged the members to get back in the habit of going to Sunday School and church. But, he said that he noticed that Ye Editor was absent. That he himself had not done the very thing that he had urged others to do.

Then our good friend, Bruce Wilson, pastor of the Methodist Church, came by and sorter "raked us over the coals" for not having been around to his church for one of his sermons.

All of which leads us to say that our Congressman is right—

Say "powdered eggs" to some Congressmen and they'll start tearing their hair.

And the time may come when you say "powdered egg" to just plain John Q. Public and he'll start tearing his hair too.

According to figures published in the August 22 issue of the Congressional Record you are part owner, through the Commodity Credit Association, in 16,000,000 pounds of dried whole eggs carried over from 1948, plus 49,000,000 pounds purchased by the Commodity Credit Association as of August 1, and by January 1, 1950, you will be part owner of 10,000,000 more pounds, you, as a taxpayer, will have an interest in, to the tune of $100,000,000.

And that, my friend, is a lot of "powdered egg."

It began in 1946 when the Department of Agriculture was required to carry out substantial egg-support operations. This means that the government must remove enough eggs from the domestic market to maintain prices at the mandatory 90 per cent of parity.

Before the war you were eating an average of about 298 eggs a year. Since the war you have been scrambling and frying about 380 eggs a year.

With all these eggs staring us in the face, a Congressman asks, "Will not the consumer and taxpayer act to end supports unless the programs are administered for the benefit of all the people?"

That, Mr. Congress, is a good question.

WORK! WORK! WORK!

Monday will be Labor Day, and I'm reminded of days in past years when my brother and I were decked out in Sunday clothes and hustled to Alcorn to help "Four Corners (Main and Exchange)" to watch one of that city's big annual parades.

John and I always thought we heard band music before we got there, and we suffered audibly from disturbed and desperate visions of reaching that teeming intersection and finding the hands and marchers gone. "Oh, we're missing the parade!" we'd wail. "The parade's over right now!"

But we seemed to be the only parading members of our party, and nobody appeared to be putting on extra steam, or stepping hard on the gas, to land us within watching distance of the corner before the excitement died down.

And it always turned out that we were on hand too soon. We would wait and wait, and John would prick up his ears and declare he heard horns blowing and I'd immediately convince myself that I heard them, too—or horse's hoofs on an echoing pavement—or the measured tread of marching feet.

Usually, at the same precise instant, we both put up a plea for ice cream. If no ice cream was provided, we yelled for cracker-jack. If no crackerjack, we got really ambitious and shouted that we were starving and needed hamburgers or hot-dogs. Then, after getting nothing but admonitions to hush, we'd back-track a little and offer to settle for ice cream.

But parents had the queer notion that we should be glad we'd found a vantage point from which to view the parade, and should be willing to wait for refreshments until the thing was over.

So we waited.

And we waited.

We said we didn't want to wait any longer, and were promptly reminded that we'd been the ones who couldn't get there soon enough, and who'd kept yapping about hearing horns blow and horses canter and heavy shoes hit the pavement?

If a balloon man came through the crowd, our folks let each of us select one. This kept us occupied for at least a few minutes, and sometimes one or the other of us managed to keep a balloon in one piece and still have it, days afterward, to pay with and to hang like an opaque soap-bubble, against the ceiling while we slept.

"Ba-room! Ba-room! Boom! Boom!" The big bass drum, and then the brasses! Those shining and intricate horns that gave life and melody to the thrilling thump of drums!

And the marchers . . . proud and smiling, with pointed ribbons stretched across their bosoms, and pride in every line of their bodies. "Here come the Iron Molders! Watch for Harry," some woman would blurt, and folks would turn and stare at her, but she'd do it, care. She was proud because her son, or perhaps her husband, or nephew, or uncle was part of that stirring spectacle. "Hey! There's the tire-builders! There's Eugene!"

"Oh, Grandma, watch now for Everett and Timmy! They'll be in the next bunch!"

"There's Ernest!" . . . "There is Pete!"

—O—

My own father never paraded. (continued on page seven.)

Bethany Home Aids the Needy; In Operation Over 26 Years

By ALVIN L. McLENDON JR.

More than 26 years ago the institution of charity near Vidalia, known as Bethany Home, was first opened. It opened with seven old ladies at the very beginning.

It is significant that at this point in its history that there have been just a few more than 700 persons who have been or who are now being cared for in this home for the aged. These seven hundred have come from all over Georgia. Bulloch county has had its share.

There now are two from Bulloch county living at Bethany Home.

The present population at the home is 86 elderly ladies. These come from 52 different Georgia counties and two are from out of the state. Roughly, the guests of the home now are divided into church denominations as follows: All half are Missionary Baptists, one fourth are Methodists, and the remaining fourth is divided into seven groups, namely: Primitive Baptists, Christian, Church of God, Church of Christ, Presbyterian, Episcopal, and those belonging to no church.

The Bethany Home holds its doors open to all needy cases, regardless of church beliefs and geographic location, though it is owned and operated by the Primitive Baptists.

The people of Bulloch county have always supported this Christian cause of charity with their money. When our solicitor, Mrs. Yelma Cowart, of Statesboro, makes her annual solicitations in this community in the next few weeks, will you do your best you can for this institution? All contributions will receive recognition for the full amount they contribute directly from the Bethany Home office—and remember, all contributions to this home are exempt from taxation on your income tax returns.

It costs a little more than $45 every day of the year to keep up the service being rendered at Bethany Home. This means $45 in charity money (above all other sources of income). The primary function of the home is to render charitable service, however some cases are cared for where the family or relatives pay the cost of board at the home.

Can you pay one or more days' cost? If not, how much of a day can you assume? Every dollar you can give is needed. Many gifts, both large and small, are needed for the on-going of this as you have been prospered to earn unto yourself and store up of this world's goods.

Remember, that a gift of pity (charity or love) unto the poor is a loan unto the Lord; and that the Lord will repay His debts in full measure and running over.

"Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me." (Matthew 25:40). Not only will the Lord repay you many fold, but you will find spiritual blessings in giving; Bethany Home will be blessed to carry on in a finer and bigger way the work that needs so much to be expanded.

To have a standing invitation to visit this home at any time you are in its vicinity. Look for our buildings to the left of U. S. 280 going east from Vidalia.

Many parties have preceded the opening of Mrs. W. L. Jones' kindergarten—better known as Sue's Kindergarten.

Applications For GI Insurance Were Available Monday

Monday, August 29, is the first day Applications for GI Insurance Dividends will be available to World War II veterans. The announcement was made this week by Vaux Owen, Manager of the Georgia Regional office for the Veterans Administration.

Veterans may obtain forms from VA offices, post offices and Veterans service organizations. Veterans are urged not to write the Washington Central Office of any VA office for these forms. Mr. Owen said, or even for information about the NSLI dividend checks. In fact, it isn't necessary to write the VA at all. Just pick up your dividend form on or after August 29, fill it out, place a one cent stamp on it, and drop it in any mail box or post office. It's already properly addressed.

It is anticipated that no check will be received before January 1, 1950 and that it will be at least June 30, 1950 before all the checks will be released. Mr. Owen pointed out that since it will take several months to process the applications, unnecessary inquiries or correspondence on the subject would accomplish nothing and it would tend to slow down the operation.

If the veteran is deceased, no application is necessary. Beneficiaries currently receiving insurance payments or who have been paid completely, will receive dividends without applications. Veterans who had no service after October 7, 1940 should not apply. This dividend is payable only to a veteran who had service on or after October 8, 1940, and who kept his National Service Life Insurance in force for at least three months.

Bulloch County Farmers Buy 31 Purebred Hogs

Thirty-one of the 46 purebred Spotted Poland China hogs sold here on Wednesday of last week were kept in Bulloch County.

This sale of blooded hogs topped the total placed with hog farmers during August to 105. If good blood helps to improve the kind of hogs grown here, Bulloch County is on its way toward having the best hogs it has ever grown.

Most farmers feel that, with allotments of various row-crops here or on its way, they must make plans to include livestock in their farming program for a larger part of their income. One way of making livestock pay off is to grow the best. Our farmers seem to be headed that way.

Purchasing purebreds at Wednesday's sale were Alfred Dorman, Misses Catherine and Rachel Meldrum, J. H. Woodward, Cecil Womack, T. L. Newsome, W. R. Newsome, D. A. Edenfield, Jack Brannon, J. A. Hart, W. L. Call, Dean Nichols, J. W. Morton, W. W. Whaley, John H. Brannen, W. I. Tidwell, H. H. Godbee, Jim H. Strickland, Arthur Sparks, James O. Anderson, George Strickland, W. C. Ashley Boyd has a new five-gaited show horse, "The Colonel's Champ." Ashley won't ride. He says he's ready, but Mamma's not. Jo Johnston, St. Waters, and Eddie Hodges are some of the younger riders who are entering the five-gaited class.

And other thoroughbreds that will add beauty and glamour to the evening will be the ribbon girls. On Thursday evening Misses Jan Gay of Register, Joan Denmark, Brooklet; Jacky Zetterower, Ogeechee, and the local "Miss Statesboro," Sara Betty Jones, will carry the ribbons.

Misses Ann Waters, Ann Evans, Ann Remington and Ginny Lee Floyd will be the ribbon girls Friday night. All trophy donors have selected little girls to bestow trophies to the winners.

In addition to witnessing a show packed with winners, you, too, have a chance to go home with prizes. Gate prizes are on display at the Men & Boys Store in Statesboro — and hold your breath for the grand prize, a double sink and cabinet, for that dream kitchen. Hope to see you both nights. Let's make it a date!
