

Midgets Whip Savannah 33-12; Waynesboro 12-8

The Midget Varsity football team won its second game in its first season when it defeated a heavy Savannah Midget team here last night 33 to 12.

On Thursday night of last week the Midgets defeated the Bethesda Midgets of Savannah 33 to 12.

In the game with Bethesda, Max Roberts took the opening kickoff and ran 80 yards for the first touchdown.

Every player on the team was outstanding. The teamwork of the group was the feature of the game.

A large crowd of fans was high in praise of the sportsmanship of the two teams.

Max Lockwood, Harold Hagins, and Emory Nesmith work with the Midgets as coaches and advisors.

Optometrists Go To Macon Meeting

Dr. Roger Holland Jr. and Dr. Ed H. Smart Jr., both of Statesboro, attended the meeting of the Georgia Optometric Association in Macon on November 5.

The meeting featured a campaign to prevent visual defects, especially in young children. The group is initiating a public education program centered around a series of advertising messages to be presented as a public service.

In cooperation with the statewide safety campaign, some of the advertising messages will stress the urgency of doing everything possible to reduce the toll of deaths and injuries on the highways of Georgia.

AAUW to Meet Friday, Nov. 10

The local branch of the American Association of University Women will meet Friday, November 10, to hear Father Smith of St. Matthews Church talk on "My Pilgrimage to Rome." He will include events and personalities of his visit to Europe last year.

The date for this meeting was changed to allow Father Smith to speak to the club. The meeting will be held in the Community Center building in Memorial Park, and the public is invited to attend. Dr. Georgia Watson is president of the local AAUW.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Mrs. T. A. Maxwell, state president of the Woman's Club, will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Statesboro Woman's Club next Thursday, November 16.

The meeting will be held at the Forest Heights Country Club at 1:00 o'clock. Luncheon plates will be $1.00.

The theme of Mrs. Maxwell's speech will be "Preserving Our American Heritage."

All members of the local club, Junior Woman's Club, the East Side Club, and all clubs in the district are invited to attend the session. Reservations must be made by Monday, November 13, with Mrs. Charles E. Cone, local president.

Built for tough service — all ways! CHEVROLET TRUCKS with Chevrolet's Hypoid Rear Axle

Chevrolet trucks are engineered to "take it" in every way. Chevrolet's heavy-duty hypoid rear axles offer maximum strength . . . with single-unit housings formed into tubular steel beams, and spined axle-to-hub connections that deliver power more evenly. Gears last longer, too . . . pinion gear is ball-bearing supported at each end, with adjustable thrust pad to prevent distortion on extra heavy pulls. Add these advantages to powerful Valve-in-Head engines, Synchro-Mesh transmissions, and channel-type frames. Then you'll know why Chevrolet is the most popular truck in America. Come see these great Chevrolet trucks today!

Getting Tough! Oh Yeah?

"WE WOULD like now to report that our License Examiners have tightened down and more than 20 percent of beginner applicants are being rejected because they have either made no effort to learn the rules of the road, or because of their inability to drive safely."

These are the words of Jerome A. Conner, executive secretary of the State of Georgia Safety Council, following a year during which there was criticism in the law method of dispensing drivers licenses.

"And for years we have been critical of the blindness of law enforcement officers to the younger than sixteen years boys and girls of Statesboro who drive their own or their family's car."

We have been critical of parents who ignore the law and allow their boy or girl, not yet legally eligible to be drivers, to become a part of breaking down our traffic laws.

And so it is that we approve of this business of getting tough with traffic offenders.

We want to see this policy move into Statesboro. This policy hit Lithonia in

DeKalb county—read what the Lithonia newspaper said about it:

"LITHONIA POLICE DISTURBED: YOUNG DRIVERS ON THE LOOSE . . .

"LITHONIA—There's going to be some red faces around this section of DeKalb county if parents continue to permit Junior to use the family car without license. That's what the Chief said, Mom! Honest."

"Police officers Monday stopped an auto being driven in the downtown business section and upon inquiry found the driver to be 'ten years old.' Now, Mom, you can't even vote in Georgia at that age!"

"To be certain they were correct on the latest laws and regulations, the department sent a representative to Atlanta to check up. His opinion, returned following a lengthy study:

"Georgia LAW REQUIRES one to possess a license to operate a vehicle.

"Chief Marvin Rose cautioned parents 'not to permit youngsters to drive.' According to the chief, four arrests of below age drivers were made here last week."

cate pattern and network of surveys from which maps are made, and the destruction of one entails additional laborious effort to replace.

If you see one, remember that they are for a definite purpose, good only to the map makers. There is nothing hidden under the brass disk. You gain nothing by pulling one up or beating upon it to try to remove it.

To bother them means trouble and loss to a branch of our government upon which we must depend for a special type of service.

Signs Don't Mean a Thing

STATESBORO auto owners don't believe in signs; they are color blind, and none carry watches.

A tour of the side streets of the business section of Statesboro reveals cars parked beside signs reading "No Parking at Any Time"; cars parked along curbs painted a bright yellow; and cars standing for hours under signs reading "Ten Minutes Parking Only."

For Mr. Moye

THIS WEEK we toss up our hat for William Burton Moye. You know him simply as "Mr. Moye." You see him tending his garden or on his way to and from college.

He is associated professor of math at our college.

And it is to him that the 1951 edition of the Reflector, college year book, is dedicated.

Thirteen years he has been teaching at our college and for that time has been a respected citizen of this community.

He is a man the boys and girls at TC can tie to.

And so our hat is off and up for the friend of our youth, "Mr. Moye."

If you have not been to the Presbyterian Church to hear Rev. Charles Shafe preach, do so before the revival comes to an end Sunday.

Watch It!

WATCH IT! Remember our editorial about the abscissed livers?

Remember our writing about the veterinary inspector who threw out meat which he found to be from diseased cattle and hogs slaughtered at a local packing house?

Officials of the Bulloch County Health Department recently reported finding a person peddling freshly slaughtered meat to housewives at their front and back doors.

It was determined that the man selling the meat was not familiar with the city ordinance which prevents sale of meat which has not been inspected.

The health department officials warn housewives to buy their meat from approved meat handlers.

Watch it! And be sure of the meat you buy for your family to eat.

They Hide Nothing

MANY OF YOU have at some time seen them.

Small brass disks set in concrete, at intersections of highways, or on top of a rail in front of a railroad station, or in the walls of substantial buildings, in outcroppings of rock, etc.

If you were interested you asked someone what they were and learned that they are "bench marks," placed by the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey.

These bench marks were put down in this section in 1918 and 1935.

Information comes from Captain Charles M. Thomas, of the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey, Atlanta, that many of these bench marks have been, and are being, mutilated, covered or torn up.

Captain Thomas urges citizens of this section to refrain from this practice. These bench marks are part of an intri-

Our Candidate For All-American

Editor's Uneasy Chair

THIS WEEK we are giving our Uneasy Chair to Ward Moorehouse, famous drama critic who writes for the New York World-Telegram and Sun. You may not know him by that name but you do know him as the husband of our Ruth Rebecca Franklin Moorehouse. Recently they made a flying visit to Bulloch county, and here is Mr. Moorehouse's report of the trip.

Ward and Ruth Rebecca drove 1800 miles to spend one day and two nights with her mother, Mrs. H. V. Franklin. Ruth Rebecca put it simply: "We like Register."

REPORT ON THINGS DOWN DIXIE WAY REGISTER, Ga., Nov. 4.—The store lights flicker wanly in this unincorporated village of Bulloch county, a place of two churches, a dozen stores, 280 people and some 870 miles from Broadway. No street lamps here, and on Saturday nights, when the townfolk are out on the loose, they wander about in ghostly half-light. They're not particularly bothered by the fact that their little Main Street presents the effect of a wartime dimout.

The tiny movie house, the Register Theater, built of cement blocks, and in revolt against the darkness, bravely achieves something of a coronation with its orange-red lights, and smearing the rim of its narrow plot, across the street from the post office and the City Pharmacy (H. H. Olliff, Jr., prop.), it brings a touch of gaiety to the hamlet's principal thoroughfare.

The Register Theater, let me tell you features "Westerns" over the week ends, and such a policy is indicative of a trend in Dixieland. On Mondays and Tuesday Bill Sutton, owner and operator, is likely to give his patrons Betty Hutton. He might try "Two Flags West," with Joseph Cotten and Linda Darnell, on Wednesday and Thursday, but when he gets to selecting his bill for Friday and Saturday, what does he do? He goes in for such attraction as "El Dorado," starring Charles Starrett and Smiley Burnette.

"I'm Staying," Says Bill. "Yeah," said Bill, as he stroled with me over to the shop of Thomas Lee Moore, automobile mechanic, "on these week ends my customers seem to like pictures with a lot of riding and a bit of action, so we just give it to them. . . . We get 35 cents for adults and let kids in for 9 cents. I've had the house for four years now—built it myself—and I guess I'm doing all right. No gold mine, but I'm stayin'! Nice place, Don't you?"

And then Thomas Lee Moore spoke up: "All we need in Register is a movie industry; we'd then go to town. . . . The second World War did things to this area. More people migrated back and forth; more people bought farms. . . . I guess old man Register started this place about 55 years ago. My father was a wheelwright and he began by building buggies. Good ones, they tell me."

Circus and Drives—Since coming southward across the Rappahannock and along 301 into the Carolinas and across the muddy and sullen Savannah River into the state of the Palmettos and Georgians, I've found—

"That the motor court mania is on the increase, with some of the country's fanciest now flourishing this side of the Virginia line; that drive-in theatres are numerous, many trailer camps are in operation, and that the Ringling Brothers—Barnum & Bailey circus has been making a spectacular tour of the southeastern countryside.

Seems that cotton is still un-picked in many fields down this way; that television is now being offered by some of the more stylish motor courts; that grills are served gratis in some restaurants, and a familiar sight in a hotel coffee shop is that of a weary male motorist straining his eyes over a road map. Just as inevitable as the automobile is the camera. A New York picture of a stenographer on her drug store stool, having a cigarette with the coffee and milk, and smearing the rim of the cup with lipstick.

At the youthful appearance of Mrs. Billy Sunday, 82, who addressed the huge crowd with marvelous delivery—and looking not a day over thirty. Leaving the tabernacle, the Rushings saw Macie Brown, who exclaimed, "I just knew I would see someone from Statesboro to-day."

WHEN Mrs. Hinton Booth's friend, Mrs. W. A. Byers, comes down from Atlanta she immediately becomes the center of a social whirl. Mrs. Byers is charming and has made a host of friends in Statesboro who look forward to her visits. To illustrate what we mean about a social whirl, we offer some of the things Alma Booth and her guest did in a few days. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Booth, Mrs. Byers, Miss Mae Michael, and Lottie Blitch went to Savannah and dined at Williams Place on the Tybee road where you enjoy a marvelous seafood dinner. . . . Monday Mrs. Booth entertained her guest with a turkey luncheon at the Jaekel Hotel. Covers were laid for twenty. Following lunch, sixteen of the guests moved on to the Booth home and played bridge. Winning prizes at this party were Mrs. Byers, Myrtice Preston, Jane Cone, and Elsie Morris. Tuesday morning, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Byers ran up to Swainsboro to have lunch with Almarita Johnston, who made quite a party of it by having others meet her guests. All afternoon—well practically—they played canasta. That same evening, Dr. Roger Holland took the ladies out to dinner at the Country Club. Lulu Grimes was their hostess for luncheon Wednesday, and in the afternoon, Cora Williams had them out for bridge at her lovely suburban home.

SPRING IN THE papers that Bill and Bea Dot Peck will be in Atlanta to attend and the wedding of one of Bill's twin sisters, Claudette Peck, whose marriage to David Fender of Valdosta will be solemnized November 21. Bill and Bea Dot are among the hosts who will

Born Tired And Ain't Got Rested

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

THE SYMPTOMS were plain enough. It was stupidity or perhaps a little bit of laziness in diagnosing the fever at once. We live so fast that even the cold weather failed to give us the clue. Until we realized what was happening we both suffered from shock.

The nine-year-old here was, as the old saying goes, "born tired and ain't got rested," so you can well imagine our alarm when we returned home from a trip to the store to discover him in the kitchen with an apron on. The table was neatly set and he was stirring a pot of grits. I looked at the boy's father and he looked at me. We both felt his forehead at the same time. The Daddy felt his pulse and I had him stick out his tongue. The pulse was all right and the tongue looked like tongues always look.

Supper was finished with a heavy heart and my uneasiness increased with the hour. After the bath was bathed and put to bed I returned to the kitchen to wash the dishes. Amazingly enough, the kitchen was neat as a pin. Without being told at least fifteen times, the little "Broomie" had gone to bed. A wave of fear then really struck me. "Do children get smart and kind right before departing for another world?" The expression on my face must have betrayed my thoughts, for the Daddy gave me a pat and said, "Honey, he's all right. Look at the calendar." Of course, how could it have slipped up on me? Christmas is a little over a month away.

The rest of the evening we spent in wondering remembrance of my home, Christmas was the one glorious, exciting time of the year and I had a feeling that the five children in my family changed rapidly from young helms to sprouting-wings angels. The back porch was run over with stove wood, where before my mother could hardly get the wood box filled. The kindling was stacked full and not only all the coal scuttles were filled but all the unused and discarded buckets were filled with wood. From run over with stove wood was served with coffee. Later Coca-Cola and these crackers were served. Assorted pastel guest towels were awarded to high scorers at each table. These were won by Mrs. Billy Tillman, Mr. Harold Powell, and Mrs. Inez Foy Jr. Cut prize, a bottle of perfume, went to Mrs. Bud Tillman.

NEW CIVIC GARDEN CLUB

The New Civic Garden Club met Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. Percy Bland, with Mrs. Jim Brannan and Mrs. F. I. Williams as co-hostesses. After the guests were served assorted sandwiches, cookies, and tea, Mrs. Alfred Dorman, president of the club presided at the business meeting. Mrs. McKinley Newton presented minutes. The club members discussed the various danger hazards in Statesboro, and after listing them, it was decided to turn them over to the city officials.

It was announced that Mrs. Biddle, national author and authority on flower arrangements, would lecture in Statesboro December 1, at the Statesboro Woman's Club room. Mrs. Biddle will teach a course in flower arrangement as a part of the program. The public is cordially invited. A fee of $1.00 will be charged to meet expenses of the club.

Mrs. J. O. Johnston, program chairman, led a discussion on the following subjects: focus, rhythm, accent, repetition, unity, and color.

ESTEEMED COUPLE OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday, November 12, W. J. Rackley, prominent merchant and leader in civic affairs for many years was honored by his family on his seventy-ninth birthday. On Monday, Mrs. and Mrs. Rackley were married 55 years. The sons and daughters and their families arrived Saturday and spent Sunday at the lovely suburban home of their parents.

The observance of these important occasions was very quiet, due to the long illness of Mrs. Rackley.
Mr. Rackley was born in Sardis, Burke county, November 12, 1871, and married Miss Sulee Strange of Effingham county November 13, 1895. He moved to Statesboro in 1905 and for two years was in the grocery business. For 21 years he owned and operated the Bulloch Drug Company. Since that time he has operated the Rackley Feed and Seed Company for 22 years. Mr. Rackley is still active, alert, and interested in current affairs. He stated that he built a home just beyond the city limits so that his wife might have room to indulge in her hobby of growing flowers and shrubbery.

After a wonderful family dinner, the grandchildren and great-grandchildren enjoyed the lovely lawn, and pictures were made. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Dudley McLean and children, Dudley Jr., Louise and Miriam; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Averitt, Mrs. Harold Averitt Jr. of Milton, Miss Gloria Averitt and Mr. and Mrs. Julian (Geraldine) Hinesley and sons, Howard and Hal, of Warrenton, Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Rackley, Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rackley and daughter, Miss Frances Rackley; Mrs. Fred Hland and son, William.

Time to buy trucks on something besides hearsay!

You can't afford to buy trucks by guess-work today. What you carry—how far and fast you carry it—under what road and traffic conditions—all must be considered in specifying the right truck for you in times like these.

That's our specialty as a GMC truck dealer—we are first and foremost transportation engineers. Our one aim is to recommend the exact combination of engine, frame, axles, transmission, cab and optional equipment that is best suited for your year-round hauling requirements.

Come in and see us—whether you want a 1/2-ton pickup or a giant Diesel 90,000 lb. GCW six-wheeler. We can give you exactly the right truck—designed for longer mileage with less maintenance expense—and it will be a real truck, engineered for your type of work.

That's why GMC sales are greater today than ever before. Truckers find they are best in the long haul. Let us show you why.

Brantley County Means Business

EVERY Georgia sportsman owes a vote of thanks to a Judge in Brantley County. Three men from Thompson, Georgia, were brought before this Judge for seining (I have their names) and entered a guilty plea. The Judge fined each man $250 or 6 months in jail.

It is evident this Judge is a sports man who joins many thousands of others in a sincere desire to rid this state of fish thieves. Down in Baxley another seiner from Lyons, Georgia, was fined $250 or 1 year in jail. That's hitting the game and fish violators hard and where it hurts the most. Every man who has ever wet a hook is grateful for this court protection.

But that is the brighter side. In Waycross, two natives were brought in for fishing without a license. The cases were dismissed. In Cuthbert a "fire hunter" from Arlington, was charged with hunting deer at night with the use of lights. This is one of the most contemptible violations on the books.

The result—No bill. A man and his wife were charged with fishing without a license and their case was dismissed at Coolidge. In the city of Autryville, two local citizens were charged with hunting at night with lights, without licenses and with unplugged guns. The case against both men was dismissed. Wildlife Ranger W. B. Cunningham did his job. He spent many hours, lost a great deal of sleep to catch these violators. He was a confused and bewildered man when his cases brought no results.

In Barwick, Georgia, Ranger Cunningham brought in two citizens of Parthenon, Michigan, for fishing without a license. Result—no prosse. Naturally, Cunningham is downhearted.

Burden Placed on Courts

This Ranger says, "I'll just keep right on making cases against the violators. The burden is on the courts." Can you imagine what would happen to a Georgia citizen for fishing without a license in Michigan? Just last month a man from Jacksonville was "no billed" at Eastman for fishing Georgia waters without a license. Next time somebody asks you what's wrong with the Game & Fish Commission? you might point out some of these cases.

Ranger Cunningham brought in a Favo citizen for hunting out of season without a license. This case brought a $5 fine. There isn't a hunter in the state who wouldn't gladly pay $5 for a shot at a deer or a wild turkey.

There is a new Sportsman's Club organized at Nashville, that is getting off on the right foot. Ranger E. D. Mathis caught a Valdosta man shooting fish. He paid $25.

Ranger Sam Gore took in a Bremen man for fishing without a license. It cost him $25 in Buchanan. They mean business in Buchanan. Congratulations! Cleve Harper, one of our Rangers, pulled in an Atlanta man and one from Austell for fishing in the Management Area on closed streams. Each man paid $25 at Blue Ridge. Thank Heavens our Management Area remains a stronghold. Two seiners paid $15 each in Decatur.

An outstanding job was done by Judge Scarlett in Federal court at Brunswick. He fined a Tifton man $25 for shooting marsh hens with unplugged gun but—he also tagged on 2 years probation. That two years will hold down any future impulse. Ranger Cunningham didn't have all bad luck. He saw a Moultrie citizen and a man from Norman Park fined $25 each for dove shooting. In Federal court at Moultrie. The very existence of our game and fish is in the hands of our courts. More and more sportsmen are watching the results.

About all the user's flashlight shows, is how far he has outdistanced you. . . . Ad in Racine, Wisconsin Bulletin—"Like new, 16-gauge shotgun. Also wedding dress with veil."

DISEASE AND PESTS

Wherever the rat goes, disease goes. And many of his own diseases can be transmitted to human and domestic animals. One of the most dreaded of all rat diseases spread by fleas to humans is typhus fever. Since 1945, according to latest U. S. Vital Statistics records, hundreds of Americans have fallen victims to the epidemic type of typhus fever.

Rat-bite fever is transmitted directly. Every week, in every major U. S. city, there is probably at least one case of rat bite. And unfortunately, children are a rat's easiest prey. Besides typhus, diseases spread by rats include epizootical jaundice, food poisoning, relapsing fever, tularemia, rabies and trichinosis. The Orkin Exterminating Co. recognizes the danger of diseases spread by rats and is prepared to cope with this deadly menace. So for your health and happiness it just makes good sense to eliminate and control all insects and pests in your home. This ounce of prevention is a step in the right direction to safeguard your family and property.

Don't live in fear and folly. Call Orkin Exterminating Co. for free inspection and effective pest control.

THE BAND STAND

By ANN EVANS

Saturday afternoon several members of our band went out to the college to practice some of the T. C. band. The music included both marches and concert numbers, which were conducted by Mr. McLendon and Mr. King. I think we all enjoyed it and would like to get together with the college band more often.

Mr. McLendon received the following letter following Danny Lingo's trip to Kansas City to play in the National P. P. A. band:

"To the Music Teachers of the Boys in the National FFA Band: 'By this time you have probably had a report on the work and the activities of the National FFA Band at Kansas City. If we may judge from the many favorable comments received at Kansas City and by mail since that time, the band was successful. My own judgement of the success or value of the project, however, would always depend largely upon the expressions and the reactions of the boys themselves, and they seemed quite happy about their accomplishments.'

"I am writing this note to thank you for your help in selecting and preparing the boys. Whether the preparation was specifically for the occasion or not, the credit for the fact that the boys came together and worked together satisfactorily belongs to you—their teachers in the 105 different schools that were represented. No one appreciates that fact better than I do, and on behalf of the national organization of Future Farmers of America, I thank you!

"Sincerely yours, 'HENRY S. BRUNNER, 'Director 'National FFA Band."

W.C.T.U. Entertains School Students; Youth Temperance Council Planned

By MRS. JOHN A. ROBERTSON

Last Wednesday night members of the local W. C. T. U. entertained the local high school students with a lovely banquet at the community house.

Mrs. John Belcher, president of the W. C. T. U., presided and gave words of welcome to the group.

She was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. C. Cromley, Mrs. J. W. Robertson Jr., Mrs. W. H. Upchurch.

Invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Shenton Mikell, the Rev. L. C. Wimberly, Mrs. F. W. Hughes, Mrs. Hamp Smith, Mrs. John A. Robertson, Mrs. W. D. Lee, and Miss Betty Upchurch.

The devotion was given by J. S. Mikell and the Rev. Wimberly made an address, using as his theme "When You Lengthen Your Ropes You Must Deepen Your Stakes." Mrs. W. D. Lee presented in musical selections Jo Ann Denmark, Ann Atkins, Betty Knight, Gloria McElveen, Ray Brinsdine, Ronald Denny, Billy Tyson, and Paul Brinsdine.

Mrs. Hamp Smith announced plans to organize a Y. T. C. and J. S. Mikell was selected as director.

The following nominating committee was appointed: Inez Fluke, chairman; Billy Tyson, Janice Miller, and Betty Snyder. These pupils will select officers and also members for the social and membership committees.

Mrs. Smith paid a fitting tribute to Mrs. W. C. Cromley for her untiring efforts in her work for the W. C. T. U.

The first meeting of the Youth Temperance Council will be held Wednesday night, December 13, in the community house.

The Rev. Carl Cassidy, of Marietta, has accepted the call to serve the Baptist churches at Brooklet and Leefield. He will preach at the Brooklet church each first and third Sunday, and at the Leefield church on the second and fourth Sundays. Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy will move here from Marietta in the near future and will occupy the parsonage.

Last Thursday night, Mrs. Felix Parrish entertained at her home with a delightful buffet supper in honor of her guest, Mrs. Nora Heydt, of Compton, Calif. She was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. D. Alderman, Mrs. H. G. Parrish, and Mrs. D. L. Alderman.

Other guests were Mrs. J. L. Weller, of Norfolk, Va.; Mrs. Fred Kennedy, Mrs. Pearl Davis, and Miss Hattie Powell, all of Statesboro; Mrs. John Proctor, Mrs. F. W. Hughes, Mrs. W. B. Parrish, Mrs. E. C. Watkins, Mrs. T. R.

Mr. Dan Goldsmith, 3024 Curran Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Coogit Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Goldsmith's statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy I need, my nerves are steady as night's rest. HADACOL is wonderful! I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL is So Different. Thousands are benefiting from HADACOL... why? Because it contains Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when iron is needed) and carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ—to every part of the body.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take—you get your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

BROWNIE DOINGS
This week the Brownies met at the Bulloch County Library for their bi-monthly meeting. The children's divisions in libraries are sponsoring it to arouse interest in books.

The theme of book week "Make Friends With Books." The schools and libraries everywhere are using attractive displays of new books, which include books for older children, like Chesty Oak by Kate Seredy and Black Stallion and Sitan by Walter Farley, and books for younger children, like Great Grandfather in the Honey Tree by Sam and Toa Swaine.

Mrs. J. W. Roberts, who has been a most faithful worker with the Brownies for two years and who worked tirelessly through the strenuous days of organization last year, is leaving the Brownies at Christmas when she takes over a full-time job with the Forestry Department. Mrs. Virginia Donaldson, Mrs. Daussey, and Mrs. Davis are working with the Brownies. Mrs. Donaldson has been selected by the sponsoring organization to fill the position of Troop Leader.

WHAT ARE YOU FIGHTING FOR
By EDITH CARPENTER
What are you fighting for? A home?
A life? A child? A man?
A chance to peacefully drift by and withhold your helping hand?
Or a quiet existence? Bread and butter?
Or even education?
Or maybe more purposes—
Support of law or nation?
Oh, why not fight for humbleness, And quiet, unyielding strength?
Or strive to see that right conquers.
Our nation's breadth and length? Oh, make your purpose worth the fight!
Not simply, vainly nice.
For, though your fight be bitter, 'tis not worth the sacrifice.

Blue Devils Defeat Lyons 34 to 4; Midgets Whip Lyons Midgets 18-0

Sparked by C. P. Claxton's two touchdowns, the Statesboro High School Blue Devils defeated Lyons 34 to 6 in Lyons last Friday night.

In addition to the two touchdowns made by Claxton, Jerry Marsh made one, Barwell one, and Bobby Stubbs one.

Claxton kicked four extra points after touchdown.

The Blue Devils will play their annual Turkey Day game this afternoon with E. C. I. Game time is 2:30.

The Midget Varsity football team won their third straight victory on Friday night of last week when they defeated the Lyons Midgets in Lyons by a score of 18 to 0.

The Midgets played their game before the Statesboro High School Blue Devils and the Lyons team met on the same field.

Every member of the Midget squad saw action in the game in which Lyons was held scoreless. Max Roberts scored two touchdowns, both on long runs. Newton scored the only other tally on a pass from Jimmy Jones.

In the Midget League at home the championship game will be played between the Indians and Rattlers. The trophy for the champions is given by the American Legion.

The Indians have won five, lost two, and tied two. The Rattlers have won five, lost two, and tied two.

Lehman Franklin and John Marshall are co-captains of the Rattlers and Vernon Street is captain of the Indians.

Baptists Vote 298 to 12 To Renovate Church

By a vote of 298 to 12, members of the First Baptist Church voted Sunday in a business session of the church, to remodel their present church building instead of building a new structure.

The decision follows weeks of careful study and inspection of the present building by engineers who found the foundations, walls, etc., were in building in excellent condition.

The board of deacons and the building committee recommended the renovation of the present building and their recommendation was accepted Sunday.

Rev. Lovell explained that the present auditorium would be enlarged to a seating capacity of about 700 or 750.

Arguments presented in favor of the action of the church were based upon the church's being able to proceed immediately with its building program.

"It also allays the fears of some that in the present war crisis, we would be unable to obtain structural steel and other materials necessary for a new building," explained Rev. Lovell in presenting the recommendations of the deacons and building committee.

Rev. Lovell explained that the building committee will now proceed with plans for the renovation and that bids will be accepted for the construction, and then the church will vote on accepting the plans and bids.

Blue Devil Band Wins First Prize

The Statesboro High School Blue Devil Band took top band honors in the annual Christmas parade in Savannah last Saturday sponsored by the Savannah Chamber of Commerce.

The Glynn Academy band, of Brunswick, won second place and the Darien High band won third in the band competition.

The Christmas parade is an annual promotion of the Merchant's Council of the Savannah Chamber of Commerce. The Statesboro band has been invited to participate in the parade for the past several years and has always attracted favorable attention.

More than 20 colorful floats were in the procession. Bands from 12 high schools, and college bands marched in the gala parade.

The judges who awarded the Statesboro first place in band competition were Arthur W. Harrington, Paul Rainey, and O. C. McClellan. The bands were judged on the basis of uniforms, showmanship, drum majors and majorettes, and presentation of music.

The parade started at 10 o'clock Saturday morning from Park Extension. It moved west on Gwinnett street to West Broad street, then north to Broughton street, and east on Broughton to East Broad.

N.G. Boys Need Chairs, Checkers

Members of Statesboro National Guard unit, now stationed at Camp Stewart, are furnishing their own recreation room in the camp area.

They need some furnishings, including chairs, bridge tables, lamps, checkers, chess, sets, playing cards, books, etc.

Anyone having any of these items that may be used in the unit's recreation room are asked to call Loy Waters at 193-M.

Mr. Waters has been made chairman of the group in charge of furnishing the room.

Bulloch FB To Send Delegation To FB Convention

Bulloch county will be well represented at the National Farm Bureau convention which will be held in Dallas from December 8 to 15, if present plans work out.

The National Farm Bureau convention will be held in Dallas from December 10 to 14. Some 30 persons from the Bulloch chapter of the Farm Bureau plan to be on hand for the meeting.

The local group will leave December 8. They will join other in Atlanta that afternoon. There will be a 13-hour break in the trip for a tour and visit in New Orleans on Saturday, December 9. The next four days will be spent in Dallas and Fort Worth. The group will return by way of Memphis.

Hotel rooms have been reserved for around 50 from the county. R. P. Mikell, county Farm Bureau president, is hoping all rooms will be filled. C. M. Cowart, county secretary, stated most of the time this fall has been spent renewing memberships and very little has been said concerning the state and national conventions. He reported that Bulloch county led at the state convention, and this year with 1,862 members, but said he expected this to reach 2,500 by November 25. However, memberships can be reported as late as November 29.

Some of those indicating a desire to attend the national convention in Dallas are Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Mikell, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wyatt, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Rushing, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Rushing, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Zettertower, Miss Anna Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Iverson Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mr. Mikell expects other reservations within the next few days.

2 "Keep Georgia Green" Signs Up

Two attractive signs to encourage the prevention of forest fires were erected in Bulloch county on November 15. John Spence, chairman of the Bulloch County "Keep Georgia Green" Committee, announced.

The signs were placed in Bulloch county by the Georgia Forestry Association in cooperation with the Georgia Forestry Commission, represented by J. W. Roberts, Bulloch county Forest Ranger, and the following civic clubs: Rotary Club, Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, Junior Chamber of Commerce, all of Statesboro; and the Kiwanis Club of Brooklet.

Members of the "Keep Georgia Green" committee from their respective clubs are: Jake Smith, Rotary Club; S. M. Wall, Lions Club; Byron G. Jones, Chamber of Commerce; Bill Peck, Jaycees; and H. Smith Sr. of Brooklet, Kiwanis.

A total of 319 metal signs are scheduled to dot the highways of Georgia. Two signs for each county, serving as a constant reminder to all Georgians and visitors that an organized effort is underway to prevent costly wood fire losses.

Hugh W. Dobbie, of Atlanta, a Georgia Power Company official and president of the Georgia Forestry Association, reports the sign project is being made possible through the cooperation of Governor Talmadge, R. H. White Jr., of Atlanta, and the Georgia Forestry Commission. He expressed thanks to all Georgians and visitors that the Bulloch county civic and business leaders for their cooperation.

Bloodmobile Gets 61 Pints of Blood

Bulloch county fell short 64 on its quota at the regular collection of blood here last Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. The Bloodmobile was here.

With a quota set up at 125, only 61 pints reported at the Community Center for the collection.

On Wednesday of last week, the Bloodmobile was scheduled to be in Metter for registration collection in Candler county. However, because of a wreck involving the Bloodmobile, the collection was postponed.

The wreck occurred six miles from Statesboro around 6:30 Wednesday morning of last week while the unit was being driven by Jack Davenport, blood custodian, who received two broken legs in the mishap.

Reports from the blood center in Savannah said the truck, valued at $3,000, struck a hole in the road and overturned twice, stranding equipment over the area.

One of the two Bloodmobiles used by the Atlanta Regional Blood Center was sent to Savannah and was used for the collection here next day.

ATTEND DEDICATION SERVICES AT METTER

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Brannen and Mrs. J. G. Watson attended the fiftieth anniversary of the First Baptist Church at Metter Sunday, November 19. Rev. Grover Taylor Sr. is pastor. Lunch was served in the afternoon. The fixtures were presented and the service was delivered by Rev. W. A. Anderson. The new furniture was a very appropriate way of celebrating the half-century of services in the church.

LOCAL BOYS JOIN U. S. COAST GUARD

Kenneth Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker, and Billy Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Taylor, were in Savannah Friday for tests for the Coast Guard service. They were accepted and are to report in Savannah on Monday.

W. H. Smith, Jr. and M. E. Ginn Work Out "Gizmo" to Shake Pecan Trees

It looks like a monster. It acts almost like a human. And it doesn't have a name. W. H. Smith Jr. and M. E. Ginn worked it out from a picture Mr. Smith saw in a farm magazine.

With we saw it we called it "man-lifter-in-pecan-tree-shaker-gizmo."

Mr. Smith has more than 500 pecan trees and he uses the conventional pecan tree shaker consisting of an eccentric drive on the front of his tractor.

He has been having a man climb the tree to tie the shaker cable to a limb, backing the tractor away to pull taught the cable, and then turning on the "shaker." When that limb is free of all its pecans the man climbs the tree to untie the shaker cable and attaches it to another limb and the operation is repeated.

Mr. Smith was getting impatient—it was taking too long and too much time was being lost between shakes.

So when he saw this "thing" pictured in a farm magazine, it looked like what he needed.

So he came to town and he and Mr. Ginn worked out the "gizmo" which now lifts a man to a maximum height of 27 feet in nothing flat.

The "gizmo" is a crane attached to Mr. Smith's tractor. At the end of the crane is a 55-gallon oil drum. The crane is raised and lowered by means of hydraulic cylinders with 20-inch shafts. A man gets into the oil drum "carrige" and Mr. Smith, at the controls of the crane, turns the "gizmo" on and the man "shoots" skyward, and before he realizes it he is up among the limbs of the pecan tree tying the shaker cable to a limb.

Mr. Smith backs the tractor off, pulling the cable tight, and turns on the "shaker." He then loosens the cable and the man at the end of the "gizmo" unties it. Mr. Smith then touches the lever and the "gizmo" moves the man in the oil drum to the next limb and the operation is repeated over and over.

It's a funny-looking contraption—but it works.

A Family Prayer

By ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON

This beloved author's unusual prayer sounds a warm Thanksgiving note:

"Lord, behold our family here assembled. We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell; for the love that unites us; for the peace accorded us this day; for the hope with which we expect the morrow; for the health, the work, the food, and the bright skies that make our lives delightful; for our friends in all parts of the earth, and our friendly helpers in this foreign isle . . .

"Give us grace and strength to forbear and to persevere . . . Give us courage and gaiety and the quiet mind. Spare to us our friends, soften us to our enemies. Bless us, if it may be, in all our innocent endeavours. If it may not, give us strength to encounter that which is to come, that we be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune, and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving to one another."

EDITOR'S NOTE: Following his South Sea wanderings, Robert Stevenson established his home on one of the Samoan Islands. Each Sunday evening it was his custom to gather the household together for prayers. This prayer was one of many written by Stevenson for these simple services. We reprint it from the November 19 issue of The Atlanta Journal-Constitution "This Week" magazine.

Thinking In Same Channel

Read our "Uneasy Chair." It was written on Saturday morning of last week.

On Monday at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club, S. H. Sherman, superintendent of Statesboro schools, reported that a committee which had been inspecting the school from Wednesday through Friday, had seen the same things we saw and about which we wrote in our "Uneasy Chair."

The report of the evaluation committee recommends the same action we suggested.

City Election Is Set December 1

Citizens of Statesboro will go to the polls on Friday, December 1, to elect a mayor and two city councilmen.

However, voters will find that the ballot will carry only the name of J. Gilbert Coe as candidate for mayor, unopposed; and the names of F. C. Parker Jr. and Inman Foy, both unopposed, as candidates to succeed themselves as members of the city council. The qualifying deadline was November 15.

The registration list shows 1,191 citizens registered. Their eligibility to vote in the city election will be checked against the county registration lists, for, according to law, a citizen is not eligible to vote in the city election unless he is also qualified to vote in the county election.

The city registration list for 1950 shows 12 short of the registration list for 1949. More citizens have moved away or died than new citizens have moved in and registered. "This loss in registration occurred despite the concerted efforts of organizations to promote registration," a city official commented.
