It Was Wonderful

IT WAS a grand show.

Oh, sure, we know it was not what you would see on Broadway in New York City. But we still think it wonderful.

For producing, staging, performing the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Mikado," is no job for a high school speech and music department, nor is it one you'd expect to be put on by a college group, nor a community music club.

But they did it here in Statesboro. The combined talents of the Statesboro Music Club, college students, and high school students, under the direction of Jack Broucek, came up with a finished performance of that rollicking musical by that famous team, Gilbert and Sullivan. Those who saw "The Mikado" last Friday evening at the college auditorium recognized it as fine entertainment and expressed their appreciation of the time and effort of the performers in no uncertain manner.

And so it is that we are proud of all who had a part in the production.

It was a fine demonstration of cooperative effort, talents, and community spirit.

Sign and Mail It Now!

HAVE YOU signed your pledge card to give a pint of your blood? If not, do so NOW.

There is a facsimile of this pledge card printed in The Herald this week. Cut it out, sign it, and mail to Mr. Ike Minkovitz, chairman of the Bulloch County Blood Bank Program.

Don't put it off. There's the scissors! Cut the pledge out before you read another paragraph, and get it in the mail. It's important.

And, besides, you can know what you have done may save the life of someone you love, or the life of one loved by someone else.

We Are Responsible

IN THEIR 1951 booklet of street and highway accident data, Travelers Insurance Companies record a total of 35,500 fatalities last year as compared with 31,800 in 1949.

This discouraging picture reverses a post-war trend during which, although the numbers of registered motor vehicles increased steadily, the number of persons killed annually increased.

In 1950, there were 3,700 more persons killed than in 1949 and there were 235,800 more persons injured last year than in 1949. Among that number of injured persons, no one knows how many more might have died were it not for expert medical attention given promptly. Nor does anyone know how many of those injured will spend the rest of their lives under physical handicaps which rival death itself as tragedies.

The Travelers report indicates that the 1950 toll of killed is the highest since 1941's all-time record of 40,000. It is not a proud record.

We who drive—and walk—along the nation's highways and streets are responsible for the record. We ARE the record. We must accept this responsibility by driving and walking carefully.

It's Been Rough On Them

THIS WEEK we commend our Bulloch County Forestry Unit.

Under J. W. Roberts the Bulloch County Unit has kept the county's fire losses this season to less than one-half of one per cent of the county's total forestland acreage.

We believe this to be a fine record. Watching over the 284,083 acres of the county's forestland is no little job. It requires eternal vigilance.

And this year has been rough on the men who are bent on keeping Georgia green. What with dry weather, high winds, and the carelessness and maliciousness of some of our people, it has tested the alertness of the forestry unit.

The record they have made is a tribute to thoroughness, the watchfulness, and work of Mr. Roberts and his group of forest rangers.

And we congratulate them.

A Fitting Celebration

IT WAS a fitting celebration.

More than 2,000 Bulloch county Negroes gathered at Willow Hill School Friday for their annual county-wide Community Day.

There was music, singing, folk dancing, speaking and athletic contests. But the highlight of the day to us was the presentation of a key to Eddie Wilson, outstanding Negro farmer, for producing 106 bushels of corn per acre.

The day began with a reading of scripture from the Bible by one of the county's leading Negro ministers, Rev. W. D. Kent.

It is remarkable that in Bulloch county our Negro citizens have a deep consciousness of community spirit, and a sincere community loyalty.

It is a contributing factor to our being recognized as Bulloch, the Banner County of Georgia.

Looking at County Schools

PORTAL SCHOOL

Eleven grades, 18 teachers, gym damaged, lunchroom and kitchen, eight classrooms, one vocational building, home economics, shop, cannery. About seven acres. New building under construction.

WARNOCK SCHOOL

Seven grades, four teachers, one frame building with auditorium, six or seven classrooms and lunchroom, and canning plant. Five acres land.

Playground eroded. Paved strip to front entrance. Office at entrance, three windows, telephone, heater. Bad steps to auditorium, but floor is flat and can be used for many purposes.

Boys' toilet end of corridor, wooden floor, two commodes, one urinal, one window. Storage room off stage to lunchroom. Narrow steps to lunchroom and kitchen. Back of auditorium—tables and benches—one exit. Use stage to get to lunchroom.

Classrooms have green chalkboard, patented desks, five windows on left, six feet from front of room. Needs repainting. One table and chair. Transoms boarded up—no cross ventilation. One exposed bulb. One blackboard used as bulletin board. Wash basin in each classroom. Soap dispenser, towels on shelf.

Library has three windows outdoors, two windows into auditorium, tables and chairs, attractive painting. Central heating unit. Small cannery, good frame construction. No fire protection. Poor exits from auditorium.

LEEFIELD SCHOOL

Seven grades, four teachers, two buildings brick veneer. Seven classrooms, auditorium. Seven acres. Separate frame building for lunchroom and kitchen.

Classrooms 20 by 24, big windows, patented desks on runners to get light, excessive blackboard, black dado, blue walls, curtain (get some light).

First grade room small, tables and chairs, good cross-ventilation, light cream walls.

Two drinking fountains, two lavatories in hall.

Stage of auditorium serves as corridor between sections. Improvised office partitioned off stage. Boys' toilet has two commodes, one urinal, wooden floor.

Lunchroom separate, bad entrance. Two classrooms. Building connected to kitchen and lunchroom. Storage under building hazardous.

NEVILLS SCHOOL

Eleven grades, 14 teachers (six high school), one building includes auditorium and gymnasium. Fourteen classrooms, separate lunchroom and kitchen, shop and cannery. Six acres.

Office on left, one filing cabinet. Recent leaks damage ceilings. No oil on floors. Two drinking fountains, three lips each. Library about 23 by 40, bookshelves, six windows, seven tables.

Water supply o.k. Boys' toilet has four commodes, one urinal, one lavatory, not screened for privacy.

Child Rearing Is Great Investment For Young Couple

BY VIRGINIA RUSSELL

WE PUT the two boys who are still at home on the bus and hurried out for the Mikado. They came by the station and to tell the bus driver to take care of them, but we also knew it would please the nine year old.

They were off to Tallahassee, Florida to visit our former neighbor and to take in the annual Florida State University circus. When I knew they were going I started planning a cleaning crusade. With all three of the boys out of the house, I could really sneak out a lot of junk, and I did. I started a little chick let, and I would be absolutely no work to do, and I would be myself with thinking about the orderliness that would soon exist.

We reached the house and, somehow, all the exuberance I had felt for cleaning vanished. There were the two greasy rings made by the popcorn popper, in the middle of the living room floor. The white woodwork bore signs of fingerprints that varied in height as well as color. (One can easily distinguish lawnmower grease from cowboy dirt from mud-pies. Everywhere there were signs, but the house was silent and those signs became sacred. I simply couldn't clean them up until the boys were back.

For four days time dragged. Even the youngest was changed—she no longer cared to eat, what with no cleaning, she seemed bored with the lifeless house. The father of these children and I couldn't think of anything to talk about, so accustomed were we to saying, "Sit up straight—why, when you're 40 your chin will touch your bay window at the rate you're going now," or "Cut that bite in four bites," or "How many times have I told you that if you'd gently push the food toward the center of the plate you wouldn't spill it in your hair?"—they are simply allergic to refinement. . . .

All of a sudden I was so happy anew that we had four children, and a little said that there weren't a couple of more. I started feeling deep sympathy for people who have only one or two children. All of a sudden, I knew how lonely a house can be when the young ones grow up. The years passed in reviews.

There have been some bad times (still are). I used to worry myself sick for fear the sheriff would come get the latest baby until the doctor was paid—now I know the doctor would have given us a bonus to keep any one of them. It's an endless task to pay the butcher, the baker, and the Georgia Power Company, let alone the dairy, the shoemaker, the tooth and pill doctors (shall I go on?), not to mention the college fees, but I am convinced that this child rearing business is the best paying investment any two young people can make. It leaves no time for neurotic fears or pampered men. (Who could be neurotic in a madhouse?).

Eventually the debts will be paid (I hope), and there'll be some nice young people who will feel a personal interest in that little old couple at 12 W. Kennedy. (And, I dare one to bring the grandchildren to be nursed without first consulting us).

Well, I was feeling just plain sentimental, and the bus bringing our charges home seemed so slow in arriving. Finally, it came and the same two boys returned—all full of pep and talk, and bright, and bad manners and loud voices.

We had supper and, because they were tired, I didn't ask for a dishwasher, but sent them straight to bed. The kitchen was in a bigger mess than it had been for several days but in time it was put in order and I went to the living room. The greasy spots from the popcorn popper were no longer visible—they were covered by two small traveling bags, and the rest of the floor was covered with a four day's supply of dirty clothes.

Well, I said "eventually," didn't I?

Editor's Uneasy Chair

IF YOU missed "The Mikado" last Friday night at the college you have only yourself to blame.

We would not have missed it for anything.

First off, the music written by Arthur Sullivan and the lyrics by W. S. Gilbert are some of the most delightful ever written.

And to see and hear your neighbors and friends singing and playing the parts of that colorful operetta is an evening long to be remembered.

Listening to and watching Al Sutherland singing the part of Ko-Ko, the Lord High Executioner of Titipu, with that big chop ax on his shoulders, and his struggles with Katisha (played by Mrs. Virgil Agan), and his final submission to her "fateful attractions," was sheer delight.

We chuckle now over the part of Poo-Bah, played by Bobby Humphrey. . . his bay window bouncing under his long silk robe and his handkerchief mousetraps drooping to his chest, as he went about filling his many official duties.

ALL'S FAIR . . . . . By Jane

Rusty, Charles and Jim were Texas bound; had their eyes wide open lookin' all around.

Pretty soon they saw a mountain and Charles yelled out loud, "Look! There's Roy Rogers ridin' straight through a cloud."

The boys are sure the Lone Ranger will put 'em on his saddle, And for Hopalong Cassidy they'll really skeedaddle.

In no time at all they'll be western cowboys.

Those sons of Gene L. and Margaret will make plenty of noise. They'll be two-gun fellers, saying, "Stick 'em up!"

And if we're ever out in Texas, bet your life we'll look 'em up. Now there's William and Dick Russell who visited Malvina Trussell.

She took them to a circus put on by the college. When they got home they were really full of knowledge.

Va. Jr. now has in her neck a crick — as she turned rapidly from Bill to Dick.

"Lawn-Mower Willie," left here with seven dollars. Brought his sister a dog that doesn't require collars.

It doesn't resemble a dog or even a cat, But Virginia loves it—and that's that.

WELL, before our head goes round in circles, we'll try to give our bit of news straight. As the first bit came at the top relates, Deborah was a very full pleated white skirt with a pink pull-over, embroidered in pink and blue. A blue ribbon was in her hair, white shoes and blue socks, and her pocketbook was white with flowers on it.

"THE MIKADO," presented last Friday evening at the T. C. auditorium is the talk of the town. The best entertainment ever presented in Statesboro. The performers were tops, the stage setting gorgeous, the costumes elaborate and colorful, the music out of this world. The audience was completely enthralled. Those participating were artists faculty and student body of Georgia Teachers College, combining talents with the Statesboro Music Club. We believe that a repeat performance would be a sell-out.

"WHAT do you hear from Sadie Maud Moore?" We asked Mrs. Hudson Wilson as we met her downtown. She informed us that Sadie Maud is in New York City and is assistant secretary of the Foreign Missionary Board. The ladies sold on his idea of planting dogwood not only on 301, but other places. Last week, Dogwood Joe was a special guest of the Adam Brinson Chapter of the D. A. R.'s at Graymont-Summit. "It is a little late to plant dogwood, according to Joe. But he planted ten trees on the grounds of the D. A. R. chapter house as a sort of experiment. Well, the season is so unusual this year, Joe could have unusual results in his venture."

NOW is the time, according to Max Lockwood, to get your season tickets for the swimming pool. They are on sale at the Recreation Center. And Max suggests: "They'll be wonderful birthday gifts."

The chorus, made up of members of the Statesboro Music Club and students of the college, was excellent.

And the orchestra, a composite of the college and high school bands, played the sprightly music of the Gilbert and Sullivan opera with abandon.

The costumes were beautiful and authentic. The stage designing was professional and colorful. Frieda Gernant and Roxie Renley, with the help of the college art class, and drawing and painting class, did an expert job.

The whole show was proof of it and is looking forward to another such production.

And for Jack Broucek we toss our hat high into the air. Jack did an excellent job in directing the show.

We're looking forward to the time when they all get together to do another one.

secretary had so many inquiries concerning Korea that the services of Sadie Maud were needed to answer these inquiries because of her firsthand knowledge of the Koreans. Sadie Maud spent last week end in Stockton, N. J., where she visited her niece, Mrs. William Moore, and her little grand-niece, Lynne. Mrs. Carroll Moore was a bit envious of Sadie Maud getting to see her little granddaughter. Dr. George Riley, who was, before her marriage, Miss Hazel Johnson, of Statesboro.

FLO PREETORIUS is in the midst of excitement in Washington, D. C. as she attended the D. A. R. Congress last week. The speakers at Constitution Hall were Gen. MacArthur, Joe Martin, and Attorney General McGrath. Flo comments: "Heretofore, the D. A. R.'s have always had the President of the U. S. deliver an address to the patriotic organization, but there was only a message from Harry Truman."

WELL, we'll wind up our message: Little drops of water, little grains of sand, lack a lot of being, any sort of promised land.

As ever,

Farm Bureau

Bulloch Farm Bureau Chapters Using Marketing Board to Good Advantage

A marketing board will be placed at Eska schoolhouse for listing things for sale or wanted. S. W. Starling Jr., vice president of the Eska Farm Bureau, stated at their meeting Tuesday night.

Mr. Starling pointed out that Nevils chapter was using such a board and it appeared it would serve a good purpose.

Following a general discussion of tobacco insects which are now giving Bay District farmers lots of trouble, those present thought they were getting the best control of the spring-tails, or flea-like insects, with one pound of arsenate of lead in 25 gallons of water.

They were generally using a poison bait of three-fourths pound of Paris green to 10 pounds of corn or cottonseed meal, using just enough water to make the mixture sticky. This bait was being dropped all about in the fields.

Miss Irma Spears, home demonstration agent, gave a "dick-all" paint demonstration for the ladies. Mr. Starling is chairman of the supper committee for May. Motion pictures dealing with methods of using machinery were a part of the program.

The group enjoyed a fish supper. NEVILLS CHAPTER HEARS TWO SPEAKERS AT MEETING

Bill Holloway, manager of the Statesboro Floral Shop, and Doris R. Cason, local PMA administrative officer, were speakers at the Nevils Farm Bureau meeting Wednesday night.

Mr. Holloway gave another of those "beautiful" lectures on flower arranging. After telling the group what should be done, Mr. Holloway demonstrated his story by making just such an arrangement with beautiful flowers. He urged that fancy containers not be used because they detract from the flowers. Cans were stuffed into the container making an excellent "frog" for holding the flowers up, he said. Heavy or large flowers should be placed near the bottom of the arrangement and the light ones on top. Mr. Holloway recommended. He stated that an odd number of flowers usually makes the best arrangement.

Mr. Cason stated that the person who would start about May 1, and that supervisors would not bring a chairman along this time. Peanut marketing cards are needed for disposing of cracked peanuts when having your own seed shelled. Soil building practices for 1950 under PMA are about the same as in 1949. Mr. Starling is chairman of the supper committee for May. Motion pictures dealing with methods of using machinery were a part of the program.

H. R. Christian urged the Register group to continue cooperation with the blood donation program and discussed the increased need for blood in the local hospital, as well as in Korea.

The Register group enjoyed a ham supper, their favorite.

NATIONAL H. D. WEEK

When Georgia farm women join with others throughout the nation in observance of National Home Demonstration Week, April 29-May 5, this will be the sixth year that such a special week has been observed, according to Miss Lurline Collier, state home demonstration agent. The theme for the week this year will be "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

Number of Farms

In County 160 Less Than 1945

The number of farms in Bulloch county last year was less than in 1945, according to information received here from Merrill C. Lofton, southeastern regional director of the U. S. Department of Commerce in Atlanta.

Releasing an analysis of the 1950 census of agriculture conducted by the Commerce Department's Bureau of the Census, Mr. Lofton said the number of farms in Bulloch county in 1950 was placed at 2,925 compared with 3,085 in 1945.

Last year, the Census Bureau in taking the census of agriculture, along with the census of population and housing, defined a farm as land of three or more acres on which agricultural products, exclusive of home garden, valued at $50 or more were produced, or land of less than three acres on which agricultural products, exclusive of home garden, valued at $250 or more were produced, with no reference to home gardening or products sold.

In the state as a whole, the Census Bureau also recorded a decline in the number of farms from 225,897 to 198,237. A total of 124 counties in the state recorded decreases in number of farms and 35 reflected an increase.

Other features of the 1950 census of agriculture will be available at Commerce Department field offices in the number of products sold, number of farm operators, facilities used, and information of that kind. The field offices at which such data will be available include those in Atlanta, Augusta, and Savannah.

REGISTER CHAPTER HOLDS ITS ANNUAL PIG SHOW

The Register Farm Bureau held its annual pig show at the Farm Bureau meeting Thursday night, with A. D. Clifton of Metter, John F. Spence of Brooklet, and A. D. Milford of Port, working as the judges. The hogs placed about in the county show held recently.

H. R. Christian urged the Register group to continue cooperation with the blood donation program and discussed the increased need for blood in the local hospital, as well as in Korea.

The Register group enjoyed a ham supper, their favorite.

$6,000,000 Worth of New Diesels and Freight Cars Ordered by the Central

Keeping step with the expansion of industry in this territory and the requirements of the Nation's defense, the Central orders the equipment to deliver the goods. Central of Georgia is performing a bigger job of vital transportation than ever before. And now on order—for delivery this year—are 525 new freight cars and 22 powerful diesel locomotives.

MORE POWER
The twenty-two new diesel locomotive units will be of 1500 and 1600 horsepower. Thirteen of them will be equipped for use in passenger service as well as freight. These speed giants will furnish added power to pull more freight or passenger trains faster and more efficiently.

GREATER CAPACITY
The new freight cars will include 300 fifty-ton, steel-sheathed box cars, 200 fifty-ton, all-steel gondolas, and 25 seventy-ton covered hopper cars. This means service... for if all these cars were coupled together, they would form a train nearly six miles long!

"Smart Buy's Roadmaster"

It started the day the 1951 ROADMASTER made its first appearance—and has been building up ever since.

Folks looked at the fresh new styling—the power—the features—the fabrics—the cloud-soft cushions—and the prices—and said, "Here's the smart buy in the fine-car field."

Why don't you come and see for yourself what a sensational buy this proud beauty really is?

It's a honey to handle—a joy to ride in—and just about the handsomest thing on wheels.

It has room, and poise, and a level-going gait that comes from coil springs front and rear.

There's a triumphant thrill in the willing obedience of its Fireball power and the luxurious ease of its Dynaflo Drive, which doesn't cost you a penny extra.

There's a sweeping view fore and aft through broad and uncluttered glass areas, and the new clarity of an instrument panel with high visibility at night.

Even the brakes are new, self-cooling, with a grip that takes hold like steel fingers in a velvet glove.

Here indeed is a car that is fine in bearing, in action, and in the precision of every structural part—a ROADMASTER custom built by Buick. When will you try one as our guest?

Equipments, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

SALE UNDER POWER

IN SECURITY DEED

GEORGIA, Bulloch County.

Under authority of the powers of sale and conveyance contained in that certain deed to secure debt, given by Charles Waters to First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Statesboro, dated September 17, 1946, and recorded in Book 166, pages 368-9, Bulloch County Records, there will be sold on the first Tuesday in May, 1951, within the legal hours of sale, before the courthouse door in Statesboro, Bulloch County, Georgia, at public outcry, to the highest bidder, for cash, the land described in said security deed, as follows:

All that certain tract or parcel of land, lying and being in the 1209th G.M. District of Bulloch County, Georgia, and in the City of Statesboro, and fronting West on Oak Street a distance of Sixty-one feet and eight inches and running back between parallel lines a distance of Seventy-four feet, and bounded north by lands of Albert Evans; east by lands of G. W. McConnell; south by lands of Arthur Howard; and west by said Oak Street, and being the same lands conveyed to the grantor by Arthur Howard by a warranty deed of even date herewith.

Said security deed now being in default as to principal and interest, and said sale will be made for the purpose of enforcing payment of the indebtedness secured by said security deed, the balance of which is $4922.90, including interest computed to the date of said sale; and the expense of this proceeding. A deed will be executed to the purchaser at said sale conveying title in fee simple as authorized in said security deed.

This 2nd day of April, 1951.
