Bulloch 4-Hers Plan Annual Camp

Bulloch county 4-H Club members will go to Camp Fulton for their annual encampment this year, Miss Beverly Brannen, county president, announces.

Miss Brannen stated that the week of July 2-7 had been assigned to Bulloch, Screven, Effingham, Wayne and Echols counties. The local clubbers have been going with clubsters from Screven and Effingham for a number of years.

With the camp holding some 225 clubsters, this means that Bulloch can send only about 40 boys and girls this year.

Miss Brannen stated that reservation for the camp would be made at the regular club meeting in May.

Let's Merge Our School System

"THE reviewing committee feels that no long-range program of education or building program can be intelligently planned before it is determined whether the Bulloch county school system and the Statesboro school system will merge or stay separate.

"It is the opinion of the reviewing committee that it will be advantageous to both the city and county to merge into one system."

Baker, Georgia State Department of Education; Dr. Mark Smith, Superintendent, Bibb County Schools; Mr. Knapp Boddiford, Superintendent, Screven County Schools; Mr. C. W. McGuffey, Georgia State Department of Education; and Dr. J. A. Williams, University of Georgia.

These educators made up the reviewing committee which examined and reviewed the Bulloch County School Survey made by a group of Bulloch county citizens. They made certain recommendations which, in their opinion, would improve the county and city schools.

The merging of the two school systems was their Number One recommendation.

Listen To Your Heart

LISTEN to your heart!

It tells you to go ahead and sign your pledge card to become a blood donor.

It tells you that there's some kid out yonder in Korea wounded and crying for some medic to please do something for him.

It tells you there's someone's mother out at Bulloch County Hospital, sinking fast—in desperate need of whole blood.

It tells you that everywhere in the nation and the world there are human beings, less fortunate than you and yours, with their lives depending upon just one pint of whole blood.

It tells you that you are hale and hearty and that it'll not hurt you to make this small sacrifice.

It tells you that your contribution is small compared to the great sacrifices being made by many that you might rise and shine with the morning sun and retire when the day is done, with the full assurance that your day will be filled with unrestrained activity.

It tells you to sign your donor's pledge today!

Oh, you don't have a card? Then visit the Bulloch County Blood Bank Program headquarters at the home of Mrs. J. D. Fletcher on North Main street and get a card. Or sign the facsimile printed in this week's Herald. It will serve just as well.

Listen to your heart!

Our Losses a Minimum

GOVERNOR HERMAN TALMADGE has proclaimed Saturday, May 5, as "Georgia Forestry Day."

Every day in the year, every year, should be Georgia Forestry Day.

Our forests are one of Georgia's most important natural resources, and conservation of them is of paramount importance to the welfare of the individual and the state.

Every citizen should make a studied effort to protect our forests from fire and waste and give earnest consideration to the replenishing of this renewable resource, to the end that the future benefits from this resource be greatly enhanced.

Bulloch county is one of the fortunate counties in the state. Our fire record has been excellent. Last year the county fire losses were less than one-half of one percent of the county's 284,083 acres of forestlands.

This record is due to the cooperation of landowners with the Bulloch County Forest Fire Protection unit and the vigilance of J. W. Roberts and his forest rangers.

Looking at County Schools

STILSON
Eleven grades, 13 teachers, three buildings, 11 classrooms. High school in one building except agriculture and home economics. Gymnasium, art classroom in vocational building. Home Ec and lunchroom in separate building. Seven acres in site. Bad entrance door.

Library with small tables. Bookshelves on two sides. Classrooms have blue-green walls, light ceiling, odd floors, five win-

All their other recommendations are based upon that one.

We believe that the time is now for carrying out this recommendation.

We believe that for the success of any long range program there must be one school system. And we believe that it also should be effected by July 1, 1951, when the Minimum Foundation Program for Education goes into effect.

The mechanics to merge the two systems is simple.

Twenty-five percent of the registered voters of the City of Statesboro must petition the mayor and city council to call a special election. Then a majority of those voting in the special election will decide the question.

Any citizen can start the petition.

There are approximately 1,200 registered voters in the city. 300 signatures on the petition would authorize the mayor and council to call the election, then a majority of those voting in the election would constitute authority to complete the merging of the two school systems.

We hope it is done.

We believe that the future of our children is tied up in this first step. If Bulloch County and Statesboro schools are to move forward it must be under one system.

dows in most, four right, one rear. Un-jacketed stove. Rooms poorly lighted, four exposed bulbs. Housekeeping is poor. Record poor.

Fourth grade—five windows left, patented desk, excessive blackboard, bad, dirty plastered walls, dark ceiling, un-jacketed heater.

Gym locked, poor housekeeping. Toilets and shower rooms in poor condition. Girls' toilet in better condition than boys'. Two commodore in filthy condition. Lunchroom—door open, flies...

(Editor's Note): This completes the series on the evaluating the school plants of Bulloch county. These reports were made by the evaluating committee of the Bulloch County Survey.

Right-of-Way Rules

VIOLATING the right-of-way ranks as one of the top violations in accidents. But many accidents could have been prevented if the driver who did have the right-of-way had not been so stubborn in keeping it.

Here are specific right-of-way rules every driver should know and heed:

1. When about to enter a through street, make a complete stop and proceed only when you can do so without interfering with the through traffic.

2. When you are driving on a through street, yield to a vehicle which has been waiting to cross your street and has already entered the intersection.

3. At an intersection without signs or signals, yield to vehicles already in the intersection. When you reach the intersection at the same time as another vehicle, let him go first if he is coming from your right.

4. Pedestrians crossing at an intersection (except against a red light) have the right-of-way, whether you are driving straight ahead or turning a corner.

5. Give right-of-way to a driver waiting in the intersection and signaling for a left turn.

6. Always remember: Be prepared to give up your own right-of-way to avoid a collision. It's never right to be involved in an accident.

No More Horse-Play

WE COMMEND the young men of the Sigma Chi fraternity at the University of Georgia.

They have abolished the usual horse-play associated with its initiation and have substituted aid to a needy Athens family.

Recently nine of the young men to be initiated into the fraternity packed baskets of food and other useful items and personally presented them to members of an Athens family in need.

Jimmy Blitch and Franklin Lee, both of Statesboro, are two of the nine to be initiated into the Sigma Chi fraternity under the enlightened "hazing" program.

Are We Making Good Use of Our Inheritance?

By VIRGINIA RUSSELL

THE MAN who prayed asked God, "Help us to do what is good of the past and relate it to the present and the future..." Then the speaker of the day pleaded for a return to the simplicity of the Christian faith. We were filled with mingled feelings as we sat in old Midway Church.

The building, itself, spoke quietly of peaceful simplicity. The quiet old pews with their small individual doors stirred our imagination of families, long before the Civil War, using them. (There was a sign of hope that the children behaved better than ours were behaving at the moment.)

The speaker reminded us of the lack of conveniences in those long, gone days. As he spoke, tremendous ways, buses, and cars sped by on a paved highway just outside the church. The trip we had made down in an hour and a half would have taken two days in those times when the wagon was king.

After the morning worship service the crowd retired to the yards under the great live oaks draped with moss, and began spreading the dinner. (In times gone by horses and wagons stood where the good motor cars were now parked.)

Between the bites of food that was delicious, varied, and plentiful, people raked up kinships and connections. The children were just as busy eating, and playing hard and cramping back in their heads, memories to be revived in years to come. (A mental note was made that ours were running true to form—eating as though they had not been fed in weeks.)

The DARS had charge of the afternoon program. There was the usual placing of the wreath on the Revolutionary hero's grave, after a speech and then the military salute. The men in uniform had the little children at first, but after they raised their guns and shot the awe turned to fright. However, they were returned to their original, lively spirit when being assured that the shooting was a part of the program.

The formal part of the program over, people were free to mill about the cemetery and hunt for the graves of their forebears. One group of small graves told the story of a family tragedy when several brothers and sisters died during a typhoid epidemic. The graves with their dates bore out the fact that women's life span was short in those days when so many died.

MARY AKINS and PENNY ALLEN have just returned from Washington, D. C., where they spent the most dramatic thrill-packed week in the history of the city.

so that we might have what we have—freedom in so many things. Freedom of speech and of worship, yes, but freedom of worry. Again we remembered what the speaker had said at Midway Church: It is not what a man has, it is what he does with what he has. We went to bed a little uncomfortable, with the thought: "Are we really worthy of having what we have, and are we making good use of our inheritance?"

ANOTHER Washington visitor during this Great Week was Flo Pretorius, in attendance at the Paris in spring! Ah! and a co-la-la! We got a whiff of it last week on a post card from that great city which inspires young men to toss their heads, click their heels together, roll their eyes, snap their fingers and go into an Adabel shuffle.

Ruth Rebecca Franklin Morehouse and her husband are visiting England and France and Ruth Rebecca found enough time off to tell us the chestnuts are in bloom and "Paris is very gay."

Becky writes that she likes London better than Paris—and we can just hear H. V. Jr. (her brother, president of Register Farm, Bureau) "Ah, shucks, she don't know what she's talking about!"

Their trip was marred by the death Monday of Ward's mother in Savannah.

JUST FOR THE RECORD—This week is "National Home Demonstration Week." The Bulloch county Home Demonstration Clubs are observing it with appropriate activities.

It is also "Rural Mail Box Improvement Week." Rural residents of Bulloch are asked to check their mail boxes for appearance, in addition to checking it for the day's mail. Be sure it is so your mail man will be happy to put your mail there. Make it easy for him.

And Saturday, May 5, is "Forestry Day" in Georgia. Mr. Roberts and his forest watchers in Bulloch county say that every day in the year is "Forestry Day" for them.

GIVE A MARINE A BB GUN
This story comes to us from a rugged U. S. Marine who is a communications chief with the First Marine Division. He got it from another Marine and sends it to us by letter.

The story is about O. U. Cowart, a Bulloch county Marine in Korea. We have been unable to determine who O. U. Cowart's parents are, but must take our correspondent's word for it. The story exactly as it was written by the First Marine Division Leatherneck:

"Our gruff old Top Kick with the home name of 'O. U. Cowart' would leave you think from what happened that he was trying to impress you that he wasn't the caliber that his name implies. But he was the one and only Leatherneck in Korea who was prepared to repulse the attacks of the world-wide known Chinese Communist forces with a .22 caliber pellet air rifle, better known to our younger generation as a BB gun.

"O. U. had sent an order blank for a BB gun to be mailed to the address given, so his son would get it for his birthday.

"Through an error in the shipping department the order was misinterpreted and the air rifle was shipped to this Marine in Korea, whose position was close up to the front lines.

"Although he always had a gay sense of humor, he was highly displeased with the whole thing, leaving the men in his unit, the pleasure of a good laugh over what had happened. This rough and rugged Marine became more and more aggravated as he gazed upon this BB gun.

"This concludes the story about Sergeant Cowart and his BB gun, of which he might read in his hometown newspaper due to his rotation to the United States. Sincerely yours,

The First Marine Sergeant asked us to withhold his signature. But we are keeping it. For we would not want O. U. Cowart to come in and give us the works with his BB gun, without proof of the story.

WEDDINGS are whipped up hurriedly, like frosting on cakes; The brides assemble trousseaus with less time than it takes To walk slowly up the aisle and make those solemn vows. Oh, yes—the groom still endows. All his earthly goods and heirbeird promises to obey; And we look on and hope that they'll continue as happy as May on the wedding day.

May he love and cherish her "until death do us part." And may the bride always be his eternal sweetheart.

DAR Congress as delegate from the Adam Brinson chapter. Traveling through the country with Mr. and Mrs. Varn of Savannah, she spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday visiting historic places in Virginia, including homes of four early presidents, Monticello, Mount Vernon, Ashlawn, and Montpelier.

They also visited Kenmore, the home of Lady Astor. At the DAR Congress Flo heard such speakers as Father Walsh of Georgetown University, Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia, U. S. Attorney General Howard McGrath and, as Flo puts it, "the fabulous MacArthur."

The Prince Prestons invited them to a tea held at the Congressional Club where Madam Bonnet, of the French Embassy, lectured on styles and colors.

Flo has the edge on some of us. She was in Washington when General Ike Eisenhower received a hero's welcome with a parade down the avenue. She was there on V-J Day. So the parades, pomp and splendor are not new to Flo.

WHILE WRITING this, a cousin of mine, Mrs. Hollis Sullivan (formerly Bernice Burke), now living in San Leandro, Calif., dropped by to see me. She and her husband are visiting her mother, Mrs. Sam Lee and Wendell and Edna Burke and the Sam Franklins.

HEY! Wait a minute. Just heard that Brownie—that is, Lt. W. P. Brown of Statesboro, stationed at Seward Air Field, near Nashville, was selected as one of the honor guard as General MacArthur visited Nashville enroute to Murfreesboro, Tenn, the home town of Jean MacArthur.

NOW I am running around in circles at 125 N. Main street, waiting for my son, my daughter-in-law and grandbaby. Yes, Corporal Ernest E. Brannen will arrive by plane (if hope) from Alexandria, La., and I'll be stay-at-home happy.

Recommendations Are Made for Negro Schools

REPORT NOTE: A survey has been completed on the Negro schools of Bulloch county. The results and findings of the committee are published in The Herald today. We now publish the recommendations made by the committee, based upon the findings made in the survey.

The careful study of the survey findings and observations of the various committees, the committee submits its recommendations.

The services of the Director of the Building Service of the State Department of Education should be secured to aid in planning for new construction and renovation and modernization of existing structures.

The plant, program, and personnel of each school center should be the requirements of the Georgia Accrediting Commission and the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges.

Plans should be drawn for building the recommended structures immediately and construction should be started as soon as possible.

The County and City systems should call for a bond issue for the maximum amount possible.

The bond funds should be used to help finance this construction.

Recommendations for Elementary Schools

1. Move toward the establishment of six elementary centers in the county. These centers should be located at New Sandridge, New Hope, Nevils, Statesboro, Brooklet, and Willow Hill.

New sites should be chosen for the plants (except the Statesboro center) for the present sites are unsatisfactory. Such sites should be chosen so that they conform to minimum desirable standards for a modern school.

The plot should be convex and slightly rolling, easily accessible, and located as close as possible to the school population as possible. Health and safety factors should also be considered in this selection. Minimum site size for an elementary school should be provided.

Willow Hill enrollment is estimated at approximately 650. To the Citizens of the Stilson School community:

You are hereby notified of, and invited to attend, a mass meeting to be held in the Stilson High School auditorium on Friday night, May 11, 1951, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

At this meeting there will be an experienced educator to speak on "The Meaning of a School to a Community."

Sincerely,
D. L. DEAL, M. D., Secretary,
Local Board of Trustees.

OUR black bear is this country's king of beasts. It is difficult to adequately describe the enormous strength and ferocity of this shaggy animal.

Lem Griffin has frequently warned one and all to keep a safe distance from the black bear. He recalls an instance when he observed a huge black bear swimming across Billy's Lake in the Okefenokee. An alligator slid off the bank in the direction of the bear.

In mid-stream, the bear was suddenly snatched under water. The churning and bubbles indicated a violent fight was taking place. Moments later the bear came up, shook his big head and paddled into the shore. The next day, a large alligator was found floating with its back broken.

One bear developed a taste for pigs and killed a number of them near Lem's place. A trap was set and the bear caught. Lem took along his son to kill it. The boy shot the bear several times with a .22 rifle and only succeeded in inflicting the wound.

Finally the bear bit off the trapped part of its paw and lunged for the nearest human being. It was Lem's friend who went along to witness the show. The animal hit the man with his powerful paw and sent him sprawling. A tobacco can in the man's pocket prevented more serious damage although the animal's teeth went through the can. Lem attempted to kill the bear with a knife. Finally the bear galloped off. Later it was hunted down with dogs and destroyed.

The man who received the blow from the bear was rushed to a hospital. He clung tenaciously to a thin string of life. After many weeks, the doctors told him he would live. Today, the entire right side of his body still is paralyzed from the blow of the bear's paw.

Never get between a bear and its cubs. This is an invitation to disaster. Under ordinary conditions the bear will run from a human being. Don't get the idea you could out run him, since the black bear has been clocked at 30 miles per hour and you can't run that fast, even if you had vitamin running out of your ears.

Hagan Twins Show Grand Champ In Annual Stock Show

A 1,000-pound Hereford entered by Roger and Raymond Hagan, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Dan W. Hagan, was declared the grand champion of the annual Statesboro and Bulloch County Fat Stock Show and Sale held here on Wednesday of last week.

The grand champ sold for $100 a pound and was purchased by a group of Statesboro business firms and individuals.

The reserve champion went to Miss Lynn Murphy who entered an 870 pound Black Angus which brought 52 cents a pound.

The 97 cattle entered in the show and sale sold for $28,115.88. Of this number 16 were U. S. Prime steers and were all purchased by local merchants. 17 were U. S. Choice, and 18 were U. S. Good. The judges declared the cattle were the best ever entered in a show in this area.

Colonial Stores, Inc. was the highest bidder of the top cattle. However, B. M. Morris, W. C. Atkins and Son, L. E. Flake, Al-dred Brothers, The Bargain Corner, Atkins Appliance Company, and Kenner's Stockyard all bought cattle for local use.

The annual fat stock show is sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the Farm Bureau, the Bulloch County Bank, The Lions Club, The Sea Island Bank, and The Rotary Club.

R. L. Roberts, outstanding Bulloch county farmer, was general chairman of the 1951 show and sale. Supervisors were C. G. Gerners, state marketing specialist, and F. C. Parker, Jr. Judges were C. E. Bell, livestock specialist, extension service; Jones Purcell of the Agricultural Department of the Central of Georgia Railroad, and W. S. Rice, livestock specialist. Col. A. W. Stockdale was the auctioneer.

Make Some Kid Happy; Buy a Season Ticket

Want to do a good deed? Then buy a season ticket to the swimming pool for some underprivileged kid. It's plumb simple. You just send your check for $6 to Max Lockwood, recreation director, or to Allen Lanier, chairman of the recreation board. Some kid will then be given a season ticket which entitles him to unlimited use of the pool.

But there's more to it than that. Mr. Lockwood gives the kid a work assignment around the center which gives him the feeling that he is working for the ticket and is not receiving charity.

It's a fine thing to do!

It'll match my Dodge with any car on the road for Value and Dependability

—says MICHAEL OPPENHEIM

"Sure, I've owned and driven other make cars," says Michael Oppenheim, Ballerona, N.Y. "But since 1941 my cars have all been Dodges. I know how dependable Dodge cars are, how little they cost to run, and my new 1951 car is another dependable Dodge!"

1951 Dependable DODGE

GOOD DRIVERS DRIVE SAFE CARS... CHECK YOUR CAR... CHECK ACCIDENTS

You could pay up to $1,000 more and not get all the extra room, comfort and rugged dependability of Dodge

Compare what Dodge gives you... with what other cars offer. You'll understand why Dodge owners say they'll match Dodge with any car on the road.

Take riding comfort for example. You could pay far more for a car and still not get the almost unbelievable smoothness of the new Orloff ride. Even on roughest roads there's no wheel "hop" or bounce... wheels stay on ground providing a smooth, level ride for all passengers.

You get the relaxing comfort of extra head room, leg room and shoulder room. You never feel cramped or crowded. And Dodge gives you the priceless safety of "Valuetower" visibility... of big Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes with larger braking surface for smooth, sure stops.

Dodge Gyro-Matic is the lowest priced automatic transmission on the market. It lets you drive without shifting... yet it is simpler, safer—gives you full control of your car under all driving conditions. Come in—see and drive today's big Dodge.

Edenfield Named Portal Farm Bureau Queen Last Thursday Night

Miss Patsy Edenfield was named Farm Bureau Queen at Portal Farm Bureau meeting on Thursday night at the regular business meeting. Miss Edenfield will compete with other county winners from Bulloch County in May for the right to represent the county at the district farm bureau meeting in June.

Most of the Farm Bureau chapter will select their queens during the week.

ESTSIDE

Mrs. W. H. Smith Jr., president of the Westside Associated Women, asked Mrs. Sam L. Brannen, Mrs. L. P. Joyner, and Mrs. J. R. Hester to serve as a committee to plan for the naming of a queen for their community.

Dr. Fiddling D. Russell, head of the English department of Georgia Teachers College, was the speaker at the Silston Farm Bureau meeting Wednesday night.

Dr. Russell quoted from a writer of long ago relative to world conditions then, when it appeared that human life might be destroyed, along with all animal life on the earth, or the civilized world might revert back to barbarism, so that one or two nations would dominate the rest of the world.

He traced the comparison of that statement of more than 400 years ago with statements now being made and the methods by which the people came through the period in better condition than when they entered it.

David Newman, James E. Davis, and Francis Groover entertained a contest from Silston at the meeting Wednesday night.

Dr. D. L. Deal discussed the school survey report and asked for an expression be procured from the people in the community on the best course to follow in meeting suggestions made in the report. The group recommended a mass meeting be held and the entire report thoroughly discussed as it pertains to Silston.
