Contract Let to Begin Paving on Burton's Ferry Route

The map shows the Burton's Ferry Bridge where it crosses the Savannah River between Allendale, S. C., and Sylvania, Ga. A recently approved contract is for the paving of the state road to a point near Sylvania indicated by the heavy line on the map. The Burton's Ferry Bridge over the Savannah River was formerly opened November 18, 1938. Federal Aid Projects totaling $112,750 are set up for this year and must be let to contract by June 30, 1940. These include the paving of the Burton's Ferry Route through Statesboro.

The other projects along the route included in the 1939-40 program are as follows:

BETTY SMITH GOES TO AZELIA FESTIVAL
Statesboro was well represented at the Azelia Festival and the executive meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, held last week at Palatka, Fla.

Betty Smith, daughter of W. H. Smith, was chosen by the state of Georgia Junior Chamber of Commerce to represent the state in the Azelia Festival. More than 12 southern states were represented at the festival. Miss Smith's natural beauty attracted the eyes of all who attended the show, and especially Life's Magazine photographer.

Co-Op Kid Sales
March 14 and 16
The annual Easter kid sale will be held Thursday, March 14 and Saturday, March 16. The bid for these two sales is now $1.45 per head for fat kids weighing from 15 to 30 pounds.

After some confusion as to the correct date of the co-operative sale and price the buyer agreed to raise the original bid of $1.25 to $1.45 per head and to hold the sale on the two dates at the scheduled hours of 9 a. m. to 2 p. m. at Boyd's stable.

County Agent Byron Dyer stated that this was the highest bid for a co-operative kid sale that has been published for the state this year. With this top kid bid, the annual sale may reach the peak it gained several years ago when more than 3,000 kids were loaded out for the Easter holidays.

Kids are used by certain groups in the east as holiday festival meat. The kids purchased here Thursday and Saturday will be butchered and then shipped to New York.

Coalson To Preach by Chart

The First Baptist Church will hear a sermon presented from an old-fashioned chart next Sunday morning. The minister, Dr. C. M. Coalson, believes that when people hear and see a sermon at the same time it may be doubly effective. So for variety he proposes to present the sermon orally and on a chart.

It has been discovered by means of interviews that many of the people of this city remember way back when the teacher in the schools used a chart for teaching children how to read, and how to recognize the letters of the alphabet and it is believed that there will be much interest in the presentation of a sermon by the same means.

Some startling facts will be shown on the chart Sunday morning. All those who are not afraid to face these facts are urged to be present.

Sunday evening at the First Baptist Church the pastor will preach on the subject: "The Behavior of Jesus in Tragic Crisis." What did Jesus do when his world caved in, when life for Him tumbled down? Were the castles Jesus build air castles? This service will point the way to heroic living.

Wesleyan College Makes Appeal
What is expected to be the last appeal to free Wesleyan College from debt is to be made in all the Methodist Churches of Georgia next Sunday. The local Methodist Church will give the congregation an opportunity to make a contribution on that date. The general public is invited to participate if they so desire. Wesleyan has not confined its benefits to the Methodist, but has leading alumnae in all churches throughout the nation and in foreign lands. Should any one wish to contribute to this fund, who will not be present at the Methodist Church next Sunday, he will please get in touch with Mrs. Maude Edge, local leader of the campaign to buy back Wesleyan from its bondholders.

This Week's Sentence Sermon

Be fearful only of thyself; and stand in awe of none more than thine own conscience. There is a Cato in every man; a severe censor of his manners. And he that reverences this judge will seldom do anything he need repent of.—Fuller.

Think Twice

Spitting on the sidewalk is a dangerous and unclean habit. That it is done on the sidewalks is perfectly obvious when one walks them.
When we were a boy there was an implied law of "Five Dollar Fines for Spitting on the Sidewalk." There should not be one. Spitting on the sidewalk is something which should be governed by one's personal law, if not pride.
With our aim at a healthful community the violation of this one rule of health can go a long way toward keeping our city a desirable place in which to live.
Think twice before you spit on the sidewalk.

Recognition Well Deserved

The Bulloch County Hospital this month received national recognition in Southern Hospital, the official publication of the Hospital Association of twelve states in the South.

In the March issue of that magazine a picture of the hospital appears on the cover and under the head "County Hospital" appears a picture of the operating room.

The story as it appears in the magazine gives a brief review of the history of the hospital from its founding to the present date.

Such recognition speaks well of the hospital and we should be proud of it.

We wish to say thanks to the City for fixing the breaks in the pavement on South Main street at the railroad crossing. As a result of the extreme cold in January the street was in bad shape. It is now fixed and the element of danger eliminated.

Last Thursday the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce heard Bob Donaldson talk on "Newspapers." Mr. Donaldson represents a number of the daily newspapers in this section, together with the Associated Press. He outlined in his talk what makes up a newspaper, how to read a newspaper and how to get the most out of reading a newspaper.

Bulloch County and Statesboro, to a great extent, owes its reputation to Bob Donaldson. For it is he who keeps the city and county before the people of the state. One can pick up papers from Atlanta, Savannah, Macon, Augusta and always find a story of Statesboro and Bulloch County. The chances are that Bob Donaldson sent it in.

And while we are on the subject of newspapers there are others who should receive credit for giving Bulloch the reputation of being the best county in the state. They are the newspaper correspondents from Brooklet, Portal, Nevils, Stilston and the other sections of the county who send in news to the daily newspapers. They all render a fine service and should receive recognition.

What Is Nagging

What is nagging? A husband with a nagging wife, or a wife with a nagging husband may have their own idea of what it means, but Justice Warren Grice, of the Georgia Supreme Court, waxed eloquent in giving a definition of "nagging" as charged in a divorce proceeding. According to Justice Grice:

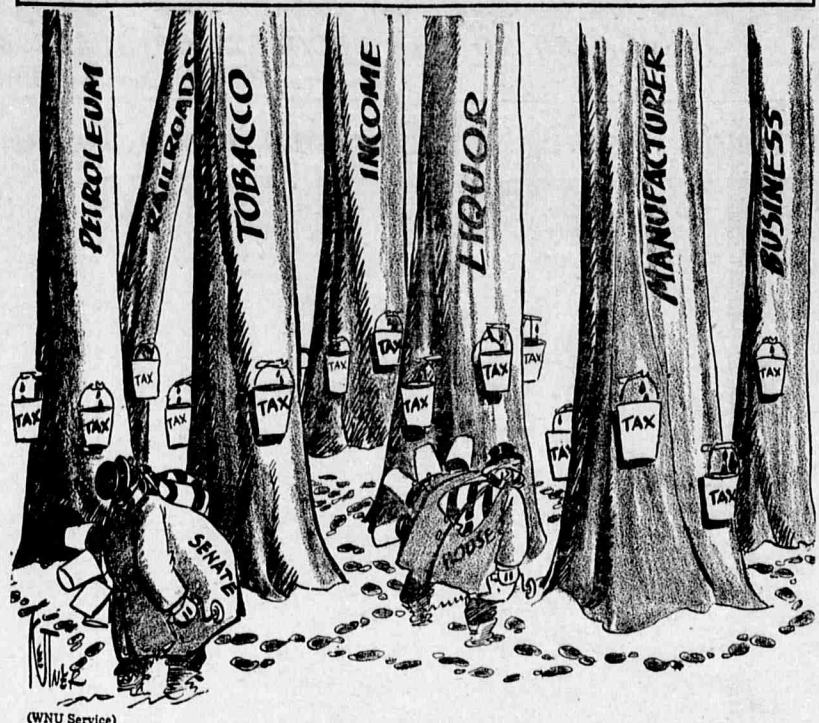

"Nagging carries the idea of continuity. One or two petty faultfindings may be to a degree annoying, but it is the persistence of the fretting that causes the real vexation."

"It is the accumulation of the instances, the never ending borings, the sun taut or repeated irritations; no one smart, but the continuous scraping of the surface alloy made raw and sore and inflamed by the previous annoying and provoking conduct."

"One briar prick, while not a pleasant sensation, may not cause serious pain, but thousands of them will be harassing. At some time there is placed the straw that breaks the camel's back."

"The ruling was in an action between a husband and wife appealed from the Coweta Superior Court."

THE ALMANAC SAYS THE WEATHER

Today, March 14, will be clear and pleasant. Whitney patented the cotton gin, 1774.
Friday, March 15, will be clear.
Saturday, March 16, rain. Moon in First Quarter.
Sunday, March 17, rain. Palm Sunday. St. Patrick's.
Monday, March 18, clear and cool.
Tuesday, March 19, stormy.
Wednesday, March 20, rain. SPRING BEGINS: 1:14 P. M.

BUT DON'T BLAME US IF THE ALMANAC IS WRONG.

Wednesday, March 20—Spring begins. Oh yeah. There's gotta be a great change from today then. This is being written Friday and outside is as bleak as a Monday morning with a bill collector on your neck and your bank balance needing attention.

Mr. Robinson of the Savannah and Statesboro Truck Line came in our office today and paid his bill. He said that it was a good day for him to go about paying up what he owes cause he can use a pretty day to go about his work. Now there is a man whose example should be followed by us all.

More and more young people are coming back home to go into business. Gordon and Lehman Franklin are now the dealers for the Chevrolet Motor Company. It is a feather in Statesboro's cap that they selected it to settle down in. Gordon has been all over and Lehman has been all over and now they are back home. Good business to both of them.
And now there is not a vacant store in town.
The City has a new ordinance book properly indexed and all making it easy now to find what one is looking for.

OUR FAVORITE STORY
THIS WEEK:

When they told Mrs. Mack Jones that she would have to undergo an operation for appendicitis, she insisted on the presence of the "minister".

"But why?" they said. "It's a simple operation and there's no danger."
"Maybe not," said she, decisively, "but if I'm to be opened I'll be opened with prayer."

SO WHAT
I bought a wooden whistle, but it wouldn't whistle.
So I bought a steel whistle, but it wouldn't whistle.
So I bought a lead whistle, but it wouldn't whistle.
So I bought a tin whistle—now I tin whistle.

We saw our Briar Patch Philosopher on the street today and he just jumped on us with both feet because we had been leaving out his letters. We told him just how it was, about how we put a newspaper together and if his letter did not get in by a certain time we had to leave it out and that all the complications that are set up when things like that happen and being the philosopher that he is, he understood and was forgiving. So we wish to say thanks to him here and now. We wish all the folks whose news we get to late to print were as forgiving. We know how important it is but we like to get our paper finished in time to get it in the post office the first thing Thursday morning and we have to work like heck

Man of The Week

This week we present as the "Man of the Week" one of the county's most outstanding farmers and leaders, W. A. Groover of the Ivanhoe Community, near Stilston.
Mr. Groover has been suggested by more than a dozen people both in the city and from the county. Will Groover, as he is known, is recognized for the work he has done and is doing for the community in which he lives. In writing about him one has to write about the Ivanhoe Community Club, of which he is a founder and is now the leader.

Mr. Groover was born in 1882. He is the son of the late Samuel E. Groover and Anna Cone Groover. He married Miss Ida Clark on December 30, 1914. They have four children, Clifford, Anne, Francis and Wilson.
Mr. Groover was born in the home where John Atkins now lives. He now lives in the Old Grimes Place in the Briar Patch district. He attended college at Mercer University of Wisconsin and Cornell.

He is best known for the work he has done and is doing for the Ivanhoe Community, as leader of the Ivanhoe Community Club. Mr. Groover was one of the founders of the club when in 1932 a group of the home of the late John W. Davis and the club was organized.

Since Mr. Davis' death, Mr. Groover has been the leader of the group and under his leadership the club has won national recognition. Recently the Federal Government had a representative in the community to study the plan under which the organization operates.

The operation of the Ivanhoe Community Club, under Mr. Groover's leadership, is simple. It has only one officer, its leader. There are no written by-laws or constitution. The work of the club is built entirely around the community needs such as poultry production, meat curing, seed purchases, rural recreation, all on a co-operative basis.

The greatest undertaking of the club and the one which has attracted national attention is the co-operative Meat Curing Plant owned and operated by the members of the club. At the business meetings of the club orders for the needs of the community are pooled and made resulting in great savings to the individual members. Plans are made for marketing their produce on a co-operative basis.

The meetings of the club include inspirational talks by well known people, discussions of new projects, together with a recreational period. There are two major events a year which include all their neighbors and friends: one at Thanksgiving and one on the Fourth of July.

Mr. Groover is the moving spirit behind all the activities of the club. He goes about his work in a quiet earnest way. He is one of the county's leading farmers, specializing in livestock and is perhaps the largest planter of peanuts in the county.
He is a gentle person, soft-spoken, and a friend to his neighbor. One knows him by the pipe he continually smokes. It is men like Will Groover that make better communities like the one in which he lives.

A miniature cyclone swept through a section of Bulloch county about midafternoon Tuesday and left in its wake destroyed houses, wrecked fences and uprooted trees. The greatest severity was in the Hagan district, where the residence of W. A. Jones and practically all outbuildings were blown down, entailing a loss of several hundred dollars. A mile away slight damage was done to houses and property on the farms of H. E. Cartledge and E. N. Quattlebaum. Near Statesboro a barn on the farm of Henry Riggs, a colored man, was blown down and two mules badly hurt. The effects of the hurricane were also felt in Statesboro where several trees were blown down and some buildings unroofed. Strangely enough the course of the hurricane was practically the same as that six years ago when more than twenty persons were killed in the county.

Delicious Ham Recipes

Second only in importance to the curing of a ham is the cooking.

High-grade commercial hams need no soaking before cooking. Home-cured hams, smoked shoulders, picnic and cottage butts are improved by soaking.

A famous recipe for cooking ham follows:
To begin, saw off the hock. Next, wash and scrub the ham in warm, soapy water, then rinse. Place, with hock end up, in a boiler—a large lard can will do—and completely cover with water. Boil from two and half to three hours, depending upon the size of the ham, 12 to 18 pounds preferred. A safe rule is to discontinue boiling when the small bone in the hock is loose.

Allow ham to remain in water overnight. Then take out, remove the skin and surplus fat. Now comes the baking. Make a thick paste of brown sugar and vinegar, and with this cover the side of the ham from which skin has been removed. Bake in a quick oven until a rich brown. In slicing, begin at hock end, cutting entirely to the bone and through, or around the entire ham, making large thin slices. Thick, chunky pieces are never so inviting in appearance, nor so appetizing. Arrange slices artistically on a large platter and serve.

"BOILED HAM"

(Ham Boiled in Water)
Scrub ham well with a stiff brush and place in kettle of simmering water (180 degrees F.) so that ham is just covered. Do not allow water to bubble. Allow 25 minutes per pound for medium-sized ham. It meat thermometer is used, it will register 158 degrees F. when ham is done. Hams cooked in simmering water are juicier and have a better flavor than those cooked in boiling water.

BAKED HAM
Allow "boiled" ham to cool partially in water in which it was cooked. Take from water, remove outside skin, sprinkle with sugar and fine cracker crumbs, stick with cloves 1-2 inch apart. Bake one hour in slow oven (300 degrees F.) Serve cold, thinly sliced.

High Spots on Record-Breaking Run

Signs of the times in a motor age—these highway markers tell the story of a two-year, 100,000-mile truck test run recently completed by Chevrolet. In Canada, Mexico and every state of the Union, the truck operated on all types of highways and under every conceivable weather hazard, setting a new world mark for sustained and certified automotive operation, under the sanction and official observation of the American Automobile Association. The unit carried a 4,500-pound "payload." An average of 15.1 miles per gallon of fuel was maintained throughout the 100,000 miles, at an average operating speed of 33.07 miles per hour. Oil mileage was correspondingly high—1,072 miles per quart.

CATCHES STRANGE RABBIT

Lawrenceville.—What is so rare as a curly hare? But A. G. McElhannon, of Decatur route near here, virtually pulled one out of a magician's hat. Mr. McElhannon spied a hare's ear. Then he reached down to nab it, that is, the rabbit but when he did grab it, he wasn't quite sure it was a rabbit. What was it? Its hair was like that of a Persian cat, or of an old woolly wharf rat. Things got curiously and curiously. At any rate it was a funny bunny. Mr. McElhannon brought his catch to the News-Herald office, and showed it around town. No one seemed to have seen anything like it before.

YOU CAN PAY MORE -but why?

You can pay a lot more than the modest Chevrolet price for a motor car. But you'll find yourself asking, "Where can I get any more beauty, driving and riding ease, road action, safety and all-round value than I get in Chevrolet for '40?' ... Particularly when you consider Chevrolet's extremely low prices and Chevrolet's exceptionally low cost of operation and upkeep!"
