

Placemats

"Many people stand up for many people's rights. So, I can also stand up for people's rights. I can also help people."

"I want to be more productive in my community. I want to be a part of something bigger."

"I want to be an agent of change for myself in the way that I'll always look for a better path, and try to ask other people in my community to help me improve as a student and as a person overall."

"If we all gathered up and spoke as one with power, we can do anything."

"If you don't share your voice, you're not going to be heard. No one's going to listen to what you have to say. And if you don't share it, then you're not setting people up for failure, you're setting yourself up for failure."