It's All About the People

A good friend once said, "if you want to do something that matters, remember, it's all about the people." Hi, I am Greg Wurth, the new Organizational Development Manager in GSU's Dept. of Human Resources. As a new member of the Georgia Southern Community, I want you to know that I am extremely excited about the opportunity to work with you, your teams, your departments, and divisions. Professional development and organizational learning are truly about providing opportunity for people to grow. I am honored to be a part of that process. Please contact me at awurth@georgiasouthern.edu and let's discuss professional development, growth, and learning opportunities for your area.

Is Microsoft Excel the Key to a Good-Paying Job?

A 2015 Wall Street Journal Article stated that 67% of middle-skilled jobs demand proficiency with spreadsheets and word processing technology. Further, the positions that require these digital skills tend to pay 13% more than ones that don't.

Want to Learn Excel?

THAT'S A GOOD READ

Psychologist Angela Duckworth provides a must read for anyone striving to succeed. In her groundbreaking work GRIT: The Power of Passion and Perseverance, Duckworth, a MacArthur "genius," highlights her landmark research on individuals who reach and obtain individual achievement.

Building a Better U has over 200 courses on or about Excel. Courses range from Manipulating Data in Excel 2013, to Formatting Data in Excel, to more advanced Using Financial Functions and What-If Analysis in Excel. Log-on to Building a Better U and begin to explore professional development opportunities.

Duckworth provides educators, parents, and supervisors a new paradigm on success. Check out this good read.
