

NYAR JOURNAL

In January of 2021 we published the first issue of the newly redesigned National Youth Advocacy & Resilience Journal.

The journal's focus on publishing educational articles on reducing harmful risk conditions and promoting the well-being of all youth remains the same.

We've added new features in an effort to expand the journal's reach & continue to learn.

Please consider the NYAR Journal as a space to share your work

- Interviews (3,000 - 8,000 words): Conversations with youth advocates, youth leaders and activists, etc.
- Research Articles (4,000 - 10,000 words): Original works that are empirical (data-based) in nature including, but not limited to, quantitative, qualitative, and mixed method studies.
- Literature Syntheses (3,000 - 8,000 words): Systematic reviews designed to bridge the gap between research and practice
- Practitioner Reports (2,000 - 6,000 words): Describe programs, strategies, or interventions
- Book Reviews (1,000 - 2,000 words): Objective analysis of a recent book whose topic relates to one or more of the primary strands of the journal
- Art Corner: All genres welcome!
- Advocates in the Field (1,000 - 2,000 words): Review of resources or programs.
- Youth Voices (1,000 - 2,000 words): Letters, essays or other genres written by our youth sharing their concerns, insights, passions & joys.

Submission Deadlines:

- September 15th for Winter Issue
- April 15th for Summer Issue

Click here or scan this QR Code to visit the journal's homepage

